Hon. E. C. Drury, Speaker at First Forestry Field Day

From Grey and Dufferin Counties, and far beyond, 132 delegates enroll ed on Wednesday for the first Forestry Field Day of these two counties All met at Dr. Jamieson's summer cottage at Wilder's Lake, and before luncheon on the grounds there, most of the visitors availed themselves of the opportunity to inspect the Doctor's trout ponds, and his buffalo and wild life preserves.

With ideal weather prevailing, the day was a most successful one, and the large gathering of representative farmers and business men bespoke the wide-spread interest and increasing action being taken to reforest this most beautiful province.

The management of the Grey Co. visit was in charge of Reeve John er, Agricultural Rep., with Dr. Jam-
