PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

St. Columba Held Successful Anniversary

Special services marked the 51st anniversary of St. Columba United Church, Priceville, Sunday October 23rd when in spite of the inclement weather a good congregation turned out in the morning to hear Rev. Dr. George L. Mercer, Maxwell, whose sermon, "Our Unshaken Possessions," was based on Heb. 12:27, "and this word signifies that those things which cannot be shaken may remain."

A somewhat larger number braved rain and sleet to attend the evening service when Rev. Louis Pickering, Trinity United Church, Hanover, was guest preacher. Basing his sermon on part of the parable of the Good Samaritan and the story of the Rich Young Ruler, the preacher emphasized the necessity of the Christian coming out from the crowd.

If the Gospel curtain had fallen as abruptly on St. Peter as it did on the young ruler, what a lot the world would have missed, he said. In conclusion the question was asked, "Would we be satisfied if the curtain were to fall as abruptly on our lives or on our nation as we know it today?"

PRICEVILLE

The anniversary services held in connection with St. Columba, Sunday realized our most hopeful expectations. The a. m. service over $70.00 was given as a Thansko offering, with much more, yet to be forthcoming. All this without the attendant labor involved in preparation of fowl supper by the ladies.

ONE UP! The teacher had become somewhat irritable with the dunce of the class.

"Tomorrow, Henry," said he, "I shall ask you one question and if you answer it correctly I shall not ask you another."

Next morning, "Now, Henry," said the teacher, "how many hairs have you on your head?" noting with satisfaction the grins of the other boys.

Henry promptly replied, "319,847, sir."

"But how do you know that?" asked the teacher, rather nonplussed.

Said Henry meekly, "Wouldn't that be a second question, sir?"

Lots of people who loudly proclaim what they would do if they were running a newspaper wouldn't if they were there.

HOLD THANK-OFFERING MEETING The Evening Auxiliary of Women's Missionary Society of the United Church held their thankoffering service in Queen Street Church. The speaker for the occasion was Mrs J. T. Priest who gave an inspiring talk on "Friendship". The speaker spoke first on the value of friendship, stressing the need of giving friendship, to the new Canadians and the value it is to them. The greatest of all was having the friendship of Christ the Friend that sticketh closer than a brother. She closed her address with a poem, "A little child shall lead them." A pleasing feature of the evening
