Prominent Citizen, E. W. Limin, Passes

For over sixty years a resident of Durham, Mr Edwin William Limin passed away at his home last Friday after a brief illness, in his eightieth year. Though he had not been as active as usual the past year or two he was cut and around until two or three weeks ago, when a slight stroke was followed by a painful attack of shingles which proved fatal when pneumonia developed.

The late Mr Limin was born in Hamilton in 1860, a son of Charles and Selina Limin, and when he was nine years old, first came to Durham, with his parents. They removed for a time, but upon returning, Durham has since been continuously his home. In young manhood he entered business life as a drover and butcher, in which business he was in close contact with the public for over 30 years. He sold out the butcher shop in 1919 to C. B. Lawrence who in a few months disposed of it to E. J. Schenk, the present owner. Shortly after, Mr Limin was appointed Gov't Inspector of Farm Lands for this district, in which capacity for a number of years he became known even farther afield. In recent years he has lived retired.

In 1887 the deceased married Mary Dorothy Banks, who with a family of six daughters survive to mourn a devoted husband and father. The daughters are: Mrs Rev. J. Morris (Ethel) of Woodstock; Mrs Alex. McLoughlin (Flo) of London; Mrs. H. S. Jackson (Ada) of Thessalon; Mrs Reavely Savage (Edna) of Stratford; Mrs N. T. Harding (Minnie) of Harrison; Mrs Arthur McGowan (Ottillie) of Durham. There are 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Two brothers and a sister will also mourn: Herbert and Mrs Thomas Peters in New York city; A. J. in Hamilton.

Though often urged to do so, the late Mr Limin never entered municipal life. He had a successful business career, loved his home life, and made friends everywhere he became known. He took a keen interest in and actively supported any project for the town's welfare, and in political life, was an energetic worker for the Conservative party.

He was a life long member of the Anglican Church, the funeral service being conducted by his rector, Rev. M. H. Farr, in Trinity Church on Monday, and interment being made in Durham cemetery. A profusion of beautiful flowers surrounded the casket. The pallbearers were: Robt. Burnett, G. C. Webster, N. P. McIntyre, Robt. Campbell, J. N. Murdoch, C. B. Lawrence. The flower-bearers were A. W. H. Landreth, C. McLachlan, W. R. McGowan, J. S. McGowan, Wm. Vollett, Ezra Schenk, Geo. McMeekin, Cecil Alton of Markdale.

Attending the funeral from a distance were: Miss Ina Limin, Mr. Murray Sumner from Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Limin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Limin, Mrs. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wildman, from Hamilton; Mr. Chas. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. G. Savage and Miss Otilie Pearce from Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. N. T. and Miss Doraleen Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Whetstone from Harrison; Mrs. Fred Burnside and sons Franklin and Marvin, from Kirkland Lake; Mr. and Mrs. James Lenahan and Helen, Mrs. J. J. Douglas, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas and Mr. Gordon Douglas, from Owen Sound; Mrs. Wycliff and Mr. John Brett from Shelburne; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Baker from Monkton; Mr. James Banks of Corbetton; Mrs. Albert Banks, Mrs. Hilda Murray and Mr. Neil Banks, of Laurel; Mrs. Caldwell and Miss Hazel and Mrs. Putnam, Mount Forest; Miss Eva Moeckler, Miss Olive McArthur, Toronto; Mr. H. Elvidge, Mr. R. Currie, Owen Sound; Pilot Officer W. J. Morris, Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson, Flesherston; Rev. and Mrs. John Morris and Miss Nora Morris, Woodstock; Mrs. H. S. Jackson, Thessalon; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomas North Bay; Mr. and Mrs. A. McLoughlin and Mr. Alex. McLoughlin Jr., London; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Alton, Misses Florence and Ruth Alton, Markdale; Mr. Val. Hahn, Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kearns, Toronto.

Lorne Allan Suddenly Called

Taken to Durham Hospital on Monday, Mr. Thomas Lorne Allan, a well-known Egremont and Durham resident passed away next morning, after a brief illness. For the last year or two he has not enjoyed good health, but such an early demise was entirely unexpected. A son of the late James and Helen Allan of Egremont he was widely known throughout the locality, and his passing will be a shock to many.

Lorne was in his 60th year, born in March 1880, and was raised at Allan's Corners, Egremont. Most of his life has been spent in Egremont and Durham he being a carpenter by trade, but he also spent some time in Port Arthur and the West some years ago. He was unmarried and while in Durham, lived with his sister, Mrs W. J. McFadden, or with his uncle, the late Arch Baird. At other times he made his home with another sister, Mrs E. Lindsay, Egremont.

The deceased was a friendly, kind-hearted man, ever willing to do a good turn for his friends, and also a man of honor and integrity, being for several years tax collector in Egremont.

Surviving are four sisters and one brother: Mrs John Gibson (Catherine) of Winnipeg; Mrs Geo. Cowan (Nellie) of Mt. Forest; Mrs W. J. McFadden (Margaret) of Durham; Mrs Ed. Lindsay (Agnes) of Egremont; Archie of Biggar, Sask. Also two half brothers and a half sister: James of Winnipeg; Alex. of Barrie; Mrs S. Ritchie of London.

He was a member of Grey Lodge, I. O. O. F. and the funeral will be held from the home of Mr W. J. McFadden, Durham on Thursday, at 2.30, under Oddfellows' auspices.

Local Missionary Died in Africa

EDWARD FRANCES RICE
After thirty-five years of fruitful service in missionary work in Nigeria, Africa, Edward Frances Rice passed away at Minna, Nigeria. Mr. Rice was being invalided home to Canada and passage booked, when illness overtook him, which ended in death on the 22nd inst. In his passing, there mourn his widow, nee Annie Bartlett, and three sons, Dr. Walter, of the Banting Institute, Toronto, and Frances and Wilbur, of McMaster University, Hamilton.

Much has to be left unsaid of the life-work of the late Mr Rice, for his activities embraced many phases of Christian endeavor. He was born in Toledo, Ohio, in 1878, and joined the Sudan Interior Mission, leaving for Africa in 1901. While attending Bible College in Toronto, he first met his wife who was in training there and she spent some years in Africa in missionary work, but she owing to ill health, was compelled to leave that hot climate. Mr Rice was last home in 1936, leaving in January 1937 to resume his work. He had become proficient in the translation and speaking of the various native languages of Nigeria, and much of his time in later years was spent in tutoring incoming missionaries. His service to the cause of Christianity among the colored race of Africa, will be warmly remembered by the natives he worked among, as well as the Home Board.

"He rests from his labors and his works do follow him."

The Anglican young people held a special in the parish hall Monday evening.

The rite of baptism was administered in Knox church Sunday morning to Wilma Elizabeth, daughter of Mr and Mrs George Bell; to Donald George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Whitmore; to Jane Marilyn, daughter of Principal George A. and Mrs. Noble; and to Kathleen Joanne, daughter of Mr and Mrs Walter Kerr.

To Receive Library Science Degree.
Miss Edith Edge, librarian of a London collegiate, has qualified for the degree of bachelor of library science, which will be conferred at the fall convocation, University of Toronto, on November 10th. Our hearty congratulations.

Wm. Bogle Wins Another Prize

Some weeks ago we announced W. Bogle of Varney, as first prize winner in Durham Ag. Society Farm Home Improvement contest, and 11th in the province. All the winners were judged also by the Wawanosa Insurance Co. on standing of few fire hazards, and for this, we must congratulate Mr. Bogle on being awarded second prize in province-wide competition. Will is about $125 to the good as a result of prizes won—a good lift in defraying the cost of his improvements, besides the satisfaction of owning an attractive homestead.

P. S. Children Winners in I.O.D.E. Reading Contest

A pleasant ceremony took place at the Town Hall last Friday afternoon when eight children of the Public School were presented with prizes for the Reading Contest sponsored by Canadian Greys I.O.D.E., our local Chapter. Mrs. Gilbert McKechnie, Educational Sec'y, presided. The children marched from the school, and were seated in the upper part of the hall.

A short programme opened by the National Anthem followed. "O Canada" was sung by Grades 3, 4, 5 and 6 and "Land of glad to-morrows" by Grades 5, 6, 7 and 8. Mr. Noble principal of the school, was called to the platform and gave a most appreciative address. The judges of the contest were Miss I. C. McGillivray, Miss Gerrie and Miss Weir.

The following children were presented with prizes by the regent, Miss Marion Calder: Margaret Davis and Kenneth McDonald received special prizes, and the following six first prizes: Homer Gerber, Vernon Aljoo Graham Pust, Adele Noble, Clare Elvidge, Betty Bryon.

Successful Afternoon Tea

The Durham Red Cross Society served afternoon tea and conducted a country store in the town hall on Saturday afternoon and realized over two hundred dollars. The weather was anything but favorable for shoppers but a goodly crowd were present. Mrs. David Jamieson, Mrs. P. L. Gagnon and Mrs. C. E. Seymour welcomed the guests. The tea table with its lovely golden Hallow-een cloth was centred with a pumpkin filled with fruit and surrounded with berries. Brassware was used on the table. Those pouring tea were Mrs J. T. Priest, Mrs R. Honeyman, Mrs G. C. Webster, Mrs T. H. Sneath, Mrs Florence Davis and Miss M. E. Morton kept the tea pots filled. At the baking counter were Mrs D. McCallum, Mrs J. Moore, Mrs J. F. Giles and Mrs G. A. Thompson; at the apron counter, Mrs D. M. Saunders Mrs G. Juckisch and Mrs W. C. Pickering; at the country store counter, Mrs J. B. Duffield and Mrs W. H. Smith sold a variety of donated articles; the candy was sold by Mrs M. H. H. Farr, Norma Gagnon and Myrtle Mortley; at the rummage table, Mrs D. B. Jamieson disposed of a variety of donations. Miss M. L. Hunter and Mrs C. W. Zilliox sold tickets on the Afghan and R. L. Saunders held the winning ticket, and the roving salesgirls were Jean Aitchison, Helen Renwick, Eleanor Storrey, Lorna Cain and Velma Vollett.

October Weddings

READY—BELL

A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Princeton, when Rev. Carman J. Queen, B.A., L.Th., united in marriage Susie Beckwith, daughter of May-cr and Mrs. Allan Bell, Durham, to John Beattie Ready, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ready, St. Marys, on Saturday, October 28th. The bride wore a Teal blue woolen frock with wine accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of Tallisman roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs Carman Queen, who wore a Claret woolen frock with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses. Mr. Charles Ready, brother of the bride, acted as best man. A reception was held in St. Paul's Rectory for the immediate family and friends. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in London, North.

ARTEMESIA MAN POSSESSED STILL

Charged by Royal Canadian Mounted police Constable A. H. Langille with the possession of a still and mash. Blat. Simpson of Artemesia Township pleaded guilty before Magistrate E. C. Sperman in police court in Owen Sound, Simpson was fined $200 and costs, or three months in jail. The charge was laid under the Excise Act.

SHEEP DIPPING

In the County of Grey there are now installed over one hundred dipping tanks. Farmers would be well advised to dip their sheep this autumn. Any bright day would be satisfactory. A kettle of hot water poured into the tank will take the chill off and it will be safe to dip under these conditions.

Dipping is advisable because of: 1. Destruction of external parasites, such as sheep lice and ticks. 2. Cleaning of the skin. 3. Improvement of health. 4. Assured increase of 1 to 1 1/2 lbs. of wool per sheep. 5. Improved grade of wool.

When wool is such a valuable commodity as at the present time, surely further comments are unnecessary as the advisability of dipping sheep.
