PRES. Y. P. S. WERE HOSTS TO DROMORE Y. P. S. ON MONDAY

On Monday evening, October, 30th, the Presbyterian Young Peoples' Society had as their guests the Dromore Y.P.S. at Hallowe'en social. After words of welcome to the visitors by the local president, Miss Ada Becker the Worship period was ably conducted by the guests. Two interesting papers were given by Misses Dorothy Taylor and Florence Patterson. Rev. Mr. Kaye rendered a pleasing solo, "An Evening Prayer." The remainder of the evening was spent in games and contests in keeping with the occasion, under the capable leadership of Mae Hopkins, Fellowship Convenor. A dainty lunch was served by the hosts. A splendid attendance of about 70 were present.

Durham Skiers Reorganize

The annual meeting of the Durham Ski Club was held on Monday night in Kress' Store, and quite a number of enthusiasts were present to start the ski season for another year. Officers were elected as follows: President, A. E. Smith, Vice President, Mrs. King, Secretary, Shirley McIntyre, Treasurer, Archie Douglas, Committee, Marjory Noble, Laurine Campbell, Tom Connelly and Bill Webb.

The Ski Club are to carry on in their ski house south of town after making a few repairs on it. They had a very successful winter last year and hope to have an even more successful one this coming season by encouraging junior skiers, laying out trails and having instructors from other towns to develop an interest in the sport.

The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the executive of last year for their work in organizing a Ski Club in Durham.

NAMES WANTED OF ALL WHO ENLIST

This newspaper is very anxious to keep a complete list of all men and women from this district who enlist in the service of the country during the present conflict and invites the co-operation of all its readers and friends. Such a list, kept up-to-date will be an invaluable record in years to come, but it will only be of use if information is given to us promptly and in detail.

The names, ages and parentage of all those who enlist, whether male or female, should be handed in together with the unit they join, and this should be followed up with any change in location whenever they move and parents and friends are asked to keep this in mind, and these who enlist are requested to advise this newspaper of their movements whenever possible consistent with military prudence.

Toronto Maple Leafs professional hockey team have been touring Northern Ontario before the season opens next Saturday night. The Leafs had divided their team into two squads, the Whites and the Blues, with varying fortunes. Last Friday night they played at the fine new arena at Schumaker adjoining the McIntyre mine, near Timmins, and pro. hockeyist, was the referee.

The Hanover Post says: "Our arithmetic is admittedly bad, and maybe that's why we can't seem to make sense of the following paragraph from the Durham Review: 'Durham Agricultural Society has paid out all prize money won at the fair, and for the first time in several years, paid the full 10 cents on the dollar.'"

It's not the Post editor's arithmetic that's bad; it's his eyesight. The Review item read "the full 100 cents on the dollar" but the figures being at end of line, part of top of last "cent" in full appeared at start of next line. The Post man needn't worry about his arithmetic, but he should invest in a pair of glasses at once.

No Mun. Elections during War

Municipal elections in Ontario will be suspended for the duration of the war.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn made this announcement last Thursday, declaring that after Jan. 1, there will be municipal elections for a two-year period or "for the duration of the war if that be longer." The suspension of elections is applicable to all boards and commissions.

Hon. Eric Cross, Minister of Municipal Affairs, issued a supplementary statement, explaining the new policy would effect important savings to municipalities.

The Minister of Municipal Affairs urged electors be sure to select strong and efficient councils "who can direct the full resources of their communities towards the prosecution of the war."

Mr. Cross said the decision will not apply until 1941 to municipalities where the two-year plan is in operation and the terms of mayor and council still have a year to run.

Necessary legislation is being prepared and will be introduced at next session of Ontario Legislature.

War Conditions in Scotland

A letter to Mrs. Robert Milne, Durham, from her niece, Mrs. Downie in Dundee, Scotland, reads in part as follows:

"My husband who has been in the Territorial Army for seven years was called up at the beginning of the war, when the baby was ten days old. It was awful trying for me as they evacuated all the school children who had anyone to go with them to the country districts for safety in case of air raids. My husband leaves for France tomorrow and God only knows if I shall ever see him again. Being a bandsman he is one of the regimental stretcher bearers. Price are soaring both for food and clothing, while we have all been issued with ration cards for sugar, margarine, and such like. There were German aeroplanes over Carnoustie, which is only a few miles from here, and one of them was shot down. There is an aeroplane carrier and two submarines in the River Tay, guarding the Tay bridge here.

I live beside the Barrack Castle and a detachment of soldiers is stationed there; we waken every morning to strains of the bagpipes. One morning it was to hear them practising all the funeral laments and believe me it was dreadfully awesome, to hear them, with death and disaster in the air.

The schools are closed down, the street lamps have all been removed, poison gas detectors are fitted up all over the place, and every building is sandbagged. We are to be provided with free air raid shelters made of corrugated iron to put on our back and we have to carry our gas masks everywhere with us; pictures, church and everywhere. I saw a wedding last week and the bridal couple carried theirs tied up with white satin ribbon. My husband is in the Black Watch, which is Dundee's own regiment, but we have a crowd of Gordon Highlanders from Aberdeen stationed here just now.

We have a black out at nights showing on any vehicles, house or shop windows, so we don't get out at night; it is too dangerous wandering about falling off the kerb and dashing into both pedestrians and sandbags. The long evenings are dreadfully lonely as we can't set visitors because of the dark, so I have to write away the time the best way I can, writing letters, reading, and knitting."

VICKERS

Visitors during the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Coultis were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edwards and family, Mrs. Joe Atkinson, of Zion; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wells of Markdale; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bailey and family of Allan Park.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kennedy (nee Lenore Reay, R. N.) on the arrival of a daughter.

MULOCK

A small but enthusiastic crowd was present at Mulock Baptist church on Wednesday evening, to hear a short program presented by members of the Mission Band, featured by an enjoyable illustrated reading entitled, "The unseen singer" by Mrs. Crickington. It was illustrated by colored lantern slides operated by Rev. Mr. Crickington. The musical section of the topic was ably presented by Mrs. Howard Gibbons and Miss Lolita Mighton. One number worthy of special mention was a hymn "Unto the hills" sung by the pupils of the school and their teacher, Mr. Wallace Heatherington.

The monthly meeting of the Rocky Saugreen U.F.W.O. Club met at the home of Mrs. Lorne McNally. It opened with the Pres. and Sec'y in chair. Mrs. Joe Crutchley read us a good paper, which all enjoyed. We had Mrs. Shippam as a visitor, and enjoyed two of her piano instrumental readings. Mrs. Heft gave us a comic reading on "Holiday Eggs". Then Mrs. Edge treated us to some music and read us a piece on "Short Cuts in the kitchen." All at the meeting took part in the Question Drawer and some real good advice was learned by it. It was decided at this meeting to do some Red Cross work for the needy also for war supplies. The next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. John Alex. McCuaig.
