KNOX CORNERS

There was a small attendance at Knox on Sunday. Mr Kaye took for his subject "Other men's labors."

Perhaps there are none that in one way or another is not being benefited by the labors of some one else. These who attend God's house are reaping the benefits of the labors of the pioneers who built them.

Then more than all we have enjoyed the marvellous blessings of Salvation, which have come to those who will accept them, through the life and labors of Jesus. Will any one reap a blessing from our labors?
