PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

To the hospital home of Ex Warden and Mrs A. A. McArthur of the Glen, we were invited and gratefully complied with their invitation on a recent afternoon. The pleasure of the visit was further enhanced upon the arrival of Mrs John Beaton and her daughter, Bessie, also Messrs Homer Tuck, and Lorne Goodfellow, with their wives, daughters of Mrs. Beaton, and their three children. A pleasant reminder of mail delivery days.

The bean roast on Friday evening passed off safely from the gorging eating of pie contests. A large list of community songs were rendered, after which the program proper began. Miss Heard of Salem, gave 'Repas Band'. Miss Audrey Heard also gave a fine recitation acting with the spirit of the piece most appropriately and was awarded 2nd prize. Miss Anna McVicar, announcing she was not competing for a prize, gave three selections on the bagpipes most creditably. All three performers won generous applause. An orchestra of Mrs J. C. Harrison on piano, Mrs G. Whyte and Innis McLean, violins and F. Runciman on piccolo; Mr Albert O'Dell on harmonica; and Mr Arthur Eell on guitar, produced fine music. Mrs Rev. A. R. Muir gave two select readings and won a prize. Rev. Mr. McMillan, Flesheron, Mrs Dr. Milne, and Miss Macphail were the judges. Miss Jean Karstedt, with a piano selection, captured first prize.

Rev Mr Cragg, a returned missionary from Japan, gave flowery pictures of that country, accompanied with a running description of the various scenes or personages. The wedding the other day of our granddaughter, Gretta Williams, reminds us forcibly of the passing of time. We are pleased to state that Mrs Mrs. F. McKinnon and Mr W. Aldcorn are improving in health, and are able to be up for a little while each day.

The W. M. S. and W. H. Societies will be held Tuesday Nov. 21 at the home of Mrs Hector McEachern. Topic by Miss Nellie McLean; roll call, Favorite Book. Topic for

W. M. S., Mrs O'Dell, Sr. Election of officers. Lunch Com. Mrs J. A. Nichol, Mrs Wm. Brown and M. A. L. Hincks.

Despite the terrible disagreeable night the fowl supper in St. Andrew's Church was a decided success. About 300 people partook of a splendid supper with lots of fowl and other good things left over. The moving pictures were very interesting and much enjoyed by all. The proceeds were over $110.00.

Aluminum demonstrations were held last week at the homes of Mr. Charlie and Henry Tucker. Mr. Martin of Eugenia was the demonstrator. Mr and Mrs A. L. Hincks and Kenneth visited Friday with Mr and Mrs Gordon McLeod, Hopeville.

Mr and Mrs Geo. McLellan, Niagara Falls, spent weekend with friends here. M. Joe Muchan, Toronto, occupied the pupil Sunday in St. Andrew's Church and also sang a solo.

Mr and Mrs H. Richardson and family, Mr and Mrs E Runciman and family of Toronto spent weekend with friends here. Mr and Mrs A. L. Hincks visited Monday, with the Hincks families in Egremont.

Messrs Edgar Patte-son, Angus Clark, Donald McKinnon, Hector McLean, Wm. Beaton, and Donald Campbell intend having their houses wired for electric light very soon. Some are already done.

SWINTON PARK

The tax man made his rounds in the Park Monday. He was almost welcomed, as taxes are the lowest for years. Let us forget, let us think of the taxes in war time, and be prepared for the coming years.

Leslie Watson left early Monday morning to join his father in the deer hunt up North. Mr and Mrs Delbert Haw spent the week end with friends at Bayfield.

John Lawrence of Windsor is re-joining old acquaintances in the Park. The Ladies' Aid keep busy. Last Friday they quilted at Mrs. Fred Knox's; this Wednesday, the regular monthly meeting at Mrs. Hugh McMillan's.

Mrs. Bailey of the Academy spent the week end at her home in Toronto, returning Monday morning in time for school.

Mr Wallace McCormack had a serious accident. Last Friday morning while riding on horseback to the field to plow, the horse reared up and fell right back over on him. He is in a serious condition. Dr. Lindsay of Dundalk, had him taken to Markdale hospital for X-ray on Monday. We have not heard the result.

ZION

Miss Mary Allen returned home on Saturday from spending a week with friends in Tottenham and Toronto. Mr Leslie Jones and daughter Margaret of Toronto, spent the weekend with Mr and Mrs J. J. Peart. Mrs Peart left Sunday to spend a week with them in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs J. H. Robson and sons Charlie and Cameron entertained the community to a social evening last Friday, everyone enjoying the evening's fun.

The Zion Branch of the W. I. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs Hugh McArthur with 35 ladies and 10 children present. Mrs W. J. Ritchie presided. Yarn to make socks was given out. Mrs W. G. Firth was chosen delegate to attend the Institute convention in Toronto this month. The motto "Our nation's call to her women" was taken by Mrs H. Allen. A paper was read by Mrs T. Glencross "What women may do to prevent war." A paper "Advanced preparations for Christmas" prepared by Mrs Cecil Moffat, was read by Mrs Clarence Robinson. Community singing and a chorus by the young married ladies were enjoyed. Mrs Nelson McGuire of Holstein was present and gave a good address, and Mrs Wallace Adams, who accompanied her, gave a humorous reading, which was much enjoyed. It was decided to hold a social evening to raise funds for war work. At close of the meeting Mrs. McArthur and assistants served lunch. Our next meeting will be held Dec. 14th at the home of Mrs W. J. Greenwood. All ladies welcome.

Mr and Mrs Walter Schaefer, Elizabeth and John, of Priceville, were guests at the home of W. J. Greenwood on Sunday. Mr W. H. Edwards of Belleville, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr and Mrs R. T. Edwards. Mr and Mrs Ray McOwen of Palmerston, were Sunday guests with Mr and Mrs J. R. Edwards. Mrs J. Atkinson, who has spent the summer months with her daughter, Mrs J.R. Edwards, returned to spend the winter months in Palmerston. Mr Geo. Ritchie and sister Miss Jane, and Mr Howard Ritchie visited Tuesday with the John Brown and Arthur Lee families in Egremont. Mr and Mrs W. J. Greenwood spent Tuesday with Mr. Angus McIntosh and sisters at Dornoch.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

MRS. J. C. HOWELL HOSTESS TO PRESBYTERIAN Y. W. A.

Mrs J. C. Howell was hostess to the Young Women's Auxiliary for their November Meeting on Friday evening, November 12.

Following the opening hymn a two minutes silence was observed in honor of our glorious dead. Elsie Ledingham offered prayer. Mary Tobin read the scripture from St. John 21st chapter. Marjorie Pickering took the topic "The story of Grafine in the Gwallier Home."

Mrs Howell and assistants served refreshments when a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

UNITED CHURCH W.M.S. HOLD BAKING SALE

The Evening Auxiliary of the W. M. S. of the United Church held a sale of baking and served afternoon tea to a large number of callers in Queen St. Church schoolroom last Saturday. The tables had chrysanthemums to add beauty to the scene. Mrs B. Stonehouse poured tea; Miss Barbara Ritchie received the guests; Mrs D. McQueen, Misses Helen Gerrie and Mary Morton presided at the baking table; Mrs I. B. Sharpe and Mrs D. McCallum at the tea tables were served by Mrs R. McGirr; Misses Myrtle Mortley, Norma Gagnon and Maud Storey with Mrs H. C. McKechnie and Mrs C. McGirr in charge of the kitchen. Over $20 was realized.

PRESBYTERIAN W.M.S. MET AT HOME OF MRS T. M. McFADDEN

The regular monthly meeting of the Senior Auxiliary of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs T. M. McFadden on Thursday afternoon. Mrs Patterson opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs Kellar led alternately in the scripture reading taken from Ephesians 2 and Mrs Sneath led in prayer. Many answered the roll call with keyword 'Peace.' Letters were read from Headquarters asking that a Finance Com be appointed to work with the treasurer for greater efficiency and also one asking that all legacies be forwarded to Headquarters to be used for new buildings and furnishings. Mrs Harding read a splendid prepared paper on "Let us be Missionaries at home," which gave many helpful thoughts and was much appreciated. The Gleanings were given by Mrs Burgess and a chapter of the study book "Goforth in China," dealing with intensive missionary work while suffering from a succession of carbuncles on the back of his neck, finally being ordered home for rest, the anxious voyage and safe arrival, was read by Mrs Honeyman. The visiting committee, Mrs. Hirtle and Mrs G. Sharp reported 5 sick calls, Mrs J. H. McFadyen led in prayer and the meeting closed with God Save the King and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

KNOX WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The monthly meeting of the women's association of Knox United Church was held in Queen Street Church on Monday evening, the pres. Mrs Gagnon presiding. Mrs. Mather led in prayer, Misses Vera Lauder and Helen Renwick favored with a piano duet. The visiting committee reported having made 32 calls and for Dec. the visiting committees appointed were Mrs Vollett and Mrs Lloyd, Mrs T. Whitmore and Mrs R. Whitmore. M. S. Wilson accompanied by Mrs Myles favored with a solo, "There a Rainbow Shining Somewhere." Miss McGirr led in prayer at the close. A lunch was served.

25 YEARS AGO

(from Review file, Nov. 19th, 1914) Mr John McGirr, east of town, moved into his fine new home erected this summer; on Monday of this week and should pass the winter cozily. It is a two story brick structure, with cellar and attic and furnished with all modern conveniences.

At a meeting in the Presbyterian Church Monday evening, the Young Peoples' Society was reorganized for the coming year. Officers elected were: Hon. Pres. Rev. Mr Whaley; Pres., P. Ramage; Com; Conveners, Misses I. Campbell, Z. Black, B. McGirr; A. Ramage, Z. Marshall, S. McDonald, F. McCoskey, I. Wilson, V. Caldwell, A. McGowan, Jno. McIlraith; Sec'y, Miss Janet Marshall; Treas., F. Atcheson; Pianist, Miss Lyla Kelsey.

Mr Jno and Miss Kate McFayden, Glenelg, visited Owen Sound friends. Dr. Andrew Seim, the well-known veterinary surgeon, has offered his professional services for the war. He received a letter of acceptance from the militia Department on Tuesday and expects to receive orders to report for duty either in London or Toronto in a very short time.

Orchard Corr: Miss Norma Pinder is deserving special credit for being the largest prize winner in the County of Gey school fair contests. She captured in all nine prizes, five firsts and four seconds.

Teaches Farley To "Draw Long Bow"

Keen appreciation of the wonderful playground Canada possesses in the Canadian Rockies was expressed by Jim Farley, postmaster-general of the United States and organizer of the Democratic Party, who spent a pleasant few days with his daughters Ann and Betty at the Banff Springs Hotel. While at the mile-high playground, they took part in the various activities usually enjoyed by the international colony there and thoroughly explored the surrounding country by motor. Mr. Farley, who is noted for the fact that he can call people by their first names years after a single meeting, will have a hard time forgetting Jacob Two Young Man, chief of the Stony Indian tribe, snatched showing him how to handle a bow and arrow in the accepted Indian style. Interested in the spectacle of their daddy taking orders from anyone less than President Roosevelt himself are Ann, left, and Betty.
