SWINTON PARK

Colds are prevalent at present. Some so hoarse they cannot speak, others coughing and attending to their noses.

Yet we think everyone enjoyed themselves last Friday at the party in honor of Mr and Mrs Edgar McLeod, which was held at the McLeod home. It was estimated 200 people were present; a very nice well-behaved crowd with few exceptions.

Must confess we were present and enjoyed every minute, watching the young people enjoying themselves in the old time way—music, dancing, social chat. We noticed little difference since 60 years ago. First music was supplied by George Haw, on violin. Deibert on harp, and Mrs Walter Knox on piano. Neil Phillips came on, assisted by Alex. McCann. Later those noted players over the radio, the Mount Forest rocky Mountainers played (how they got their names puzzles us, as the sock-ette's flat musicians' would be more in line). However they are good and are known as Charlie McDonald, Art Watson on violins, Tom Gordon on harp and Jean Adams on piano. Tune in near them Saturday night at Wingham. Dancing was enjoyed till midnight, then lunch was served to that great crowd, until all cried 'enough.' Jack Small was called upon for a song and in his usual good-natured way, he complied, also to an encore. Next Miss Jean Adams with a request of the crowd favored with a song, and for an encore, played a fine piano number.

Then the people were crowded back against the wall, and Mr and Mrs. Edgar McLeod were called to the centre of room, when an address was read by Mary McCannell and the presentation of a beautiful china cabinet and a clock was made. Edgar fittedly on behalf of Mrs. McLeod and himself, thanked all present and hoped that all had, and would enjoy themselves for the evening and they would be glad to meet them again, when convenient. Philip Harrison started and everyone sang "for they are jolly good-fellows." Edgar and Beulah were escorted to the parlor, and again the address was read and responded to by Edgar, because the crowd was so large, all could not hear in one room. Dancing was resumed for another hour.

Sorry to see so much good tobacco used. Bob Lee remarked "if smoke would cure meat, some of them would keep."

The address: Dear Beulah and Edgar:

It is with great pleasure that we, your neighbors and friends, have gathered here tonight to honor you and to show you in a small way, the nature and sincerity of our good wishes for life-long happiness and prosperity together.

To you, Edgar, who has always lived amongst us, we look upon you as the finest type of manhood, honest, obliging and ambitious, and we feel with those qualifications, that you have chosen a wife fully equal for Beulah does not come as a stranger, but rather a friend. We are glad you are still going to make your home with us, and hope as we present these gifts, that you may see in them the regard in which you are held by your friends, now and always (Signed) Philip Harrison, Mel Lane, Tom McLean, Ian Clark.

THE LATE MRS. MCKINNON

The death of Mrs. Lizzie McKinnon took place on Wednesday, Nov. 15th and the funeral was on Friday the 17th, Rev. Mr Taylor, her pastor conducting service at the home at 2 p.m. W.G. Watson of Priceville was the undertaker in charge. The pall bearers were four nephews: Gordon Ferguson, Gordon Haw, Gordon McLeod, James Sturrock, and four neighbors: George Black, Jas Black, Fred Goheen, Richard Hardy. They also acted as flower bearers.

Flowers were contributed by Mr. and Mrs Archie McKinnon and family, Mr and Mrs Herb Gregson and family, the Ferguson family, the McArthur nieces, Mrs H. Tabert, the W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid of Swinton Park, the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern Customs offices, Toronto. Friends from a distance were: Neil McKinnon, Archie McKinnon and Archie Jr., whose father died on Vimy Ridge, all from Toronto; Mrs. Allan Forrest of Owen Sound; Mr and Mrs Alex. Gibbs of Galt; Mrs H. Tabert of Lachine, Quebec; Mrs Robt. Lane, Georgetown; Mrs. M. Reany, and Jean of Palmerston; Mr. and Mrs. Milligan of Durham. Also a very large and representative gathering of friends and neighbors were present, and sympathized with the bereaved.

Although death always causes sadness, yet methinks all were thankful at the passing of Mrs. McKinnon, who has been a long and great sufferer for years, unable to help herself. She was faithfully cared for by son Gordon and hired help, but for the past year, a niece, Mrs Speers of Alberta, has done much to make her aunt comfortable. During the last months, cancer developed, adding to the sufferings of chronic rheumatism. During all those years, Mrs McKinnon never lost interest in the home, the community, the church or state. Son Gordon sat by in the evening and kept her posted on current events. She greeted everyone with a smile, never complaining, always trusting in God.

Mrs McKinnon's maiden name was Elizabeth Campbell, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo. Campbell, Scotch pioneers who settled on lot 13, con. 14, Proton over 80 years ago. Lizzie was born there 75 years ago, attended school at Swinton Park and was a sincere member of Salem Methodist church. After her marriage to Mr. McKinnon 30 years ago near Letter Breen, she came with him to the Presbyterian church. Mr McKinnon was a widower with four sons and one daughter. All of them enjoyed a mother's love and care. As they grew up, they went out on their own. Ronald, the eldest, died on Vimy Ridge that awful April morning. Archie, the next, was seriously wounded also in the Great War and still feels the effects, but carries on in Customs office in Toronto. Neil is also employed in Toronto. Jean became the wife of Herbert Gregson, a lad from here, now also in Toronto. Gordon, the youngest, remained with father on the farm, and at his death carried on, always caring for mother. Many a pleasant evening he let pass while he chatted with mother, and for him, there is much respect and sympathy also for Mrs Mary Ferguson, the remaining sister.

On Friday, Nov. 19th a very large assembly gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to Mrs Archie McKinnon, Con. 14 who passed away at her home after about 30 years of invalidism and suffering from a rheumatic condition. This affliction was born with Christian patience and to the many friends who called, her life was a shining example of courage and cheerfulness. How appropriate were the words of the text chosen by her pastor, Rev. Taylor—2 Tim. 4:7 and 8 "I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith", etc. To her surviving sister, Mrs A. Ferguson and stepson Gordon and the relatives sympathy is extended.

Mr and Mrs Harry Scott and son Jim, Durham spent Sunday with relatives at the village.

Mrs Martha Smith had the misfortune to fall coming downstairs on Monday evening and fractured her hip.

Mrs James McNally returned on Tuesday after spending a few days with friends in Normanby.

The Group Socials put on by the W. I. and held in the different homes were a decided success.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

The kitchen orchestra rendered several numbers with Mrs. Eastman accompanying. Mr Eastman led in community singing. Readings were given by Mrs J. F. Giles, Mrs G. A. Thompson and Mrs J. T. Priest. Miss Ellen Priest, a returned missionary, told of Christmas customs where she worked in India and sang a hymn she had composed for the Indian children. She sang in the Telugu language. On Wednesday of this week in Knox Church, Mrs (Rev.) W. Annis, Markdale, addressed the Autumn Thankoffering of the Women's Missionary Society, on the natives of West China. Mrs Annis speaks of the people from first-hand experience, having, with her husband, worked among them, for twelve years. Her message was delivered with a fluency of manner that held the interest to the last.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

(from Review file Nov. 26th, 1914) Mrs Dr. D. B. Jamieson went to Owen Sound Wednesday to attend the post nuptial reception of her sister-in-law.

Misses Katie, Sadie, and Mary McMillan, Margaret McAuliffe and Dan McGrath attended the ball at Palmerston on Thursday night.

Manager Catton of the Furniture Co. has purchased Mr Jas. Johnston's farm a couple of miles north of town, the price being $5600. Mr John Fallaise has bought the Hunt property in town, west of the Presbyterian Church, for $700. We are informed that Mr Alex Calvert is to occupy the residence.

Mr Dan McDougall, Jr. Ottawa, who has been for several years in the Interior Department at Ottawa, has enlisted with the Canadian Engineers for active service with the second contingent. He is at present in the barracks and may not leave for two months yet.

Przemysl, the great Austrian fortress is expected to fall this week 50,000 Poles have been ordered out of Cracow or they will be shot. There is a report that Austria is getting ugly toward Germany feeling that she is being made the cat-paw of it. It is even said that a clash of their troops has taken place.

Crawford Corr: Mr Ed. Pratt is doing some fine work at Mr Cook's just now. Hope for better luck with the second well.

Priceville Corr: We heard a young man say that the snow must go away yet, for they have about 400 bushels of turnips to take up, but if they keep growing like the Irishman's of 60 years ago all winter, they will prove profitable for he said he lost a sheep the first snow that came. So he had a patch of turnips in new land that he didn't get up and what do you think? He found the sheep in the centre of a big turnip in the spring with two foine young lambs. Can any one vouch for the truthfulness of this story?

Tartan corr: Mr. Matthew Hooper received a deer from Muskoka last week. He feels quite proud of his possessions. Some of the young gentlemen are wishing they possessed a deer.

We are sorry to report of the illness of Mrs Hunter, Sr., who is at present confined to her bed, but we hope that she will be soon restored to health again.

Mr Arthur Lee has purchased Mr John Henry's farm. John moves out in March. We are sorry to lose him from our neighborhood, as he was always willing to offer a helping hand when it was needed.
