PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

A splendid meeting of the Holdfast Club was held in the Park House with Mrs R. Stewart as hostess, with a good attendance of members and visitors. A reading in the form of a tribute to the late Lord Tweedsmuir was given by Miss Lotie Whittaker after which was a few moments silence. The guest speaker for the afternoon was Mr T. S. Cooper of Markdale. He gave an illustrated address on "Making Beautiful Grey More Beautiful Still." He showed how a gray house can be made a beautiful home with the addition of a few trees and shrubs. A little time and energy is required but the result is so perfect that we should all strive to do our part. A hearty vote of appreciation was tendered Mr. Cooper for his splendid address.

Mrs B. Ferris was called forward to draw the lucky quilt ticket. Miss Isabelle Cameron was the winner. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close. Lunch was then served. The March meeting will be at the home of Nellie McLean. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs Jack Whyte was hostess to the W. M. S. and Willing Helpers Societies with a good attendance. The new Pres., Miss Margaret Nichol was in the chair. Miss Nellie McLean gave a splendid paper "On the Beginning of the Year." Miss Margaret McArthur gave an interesting reading. A number of new members joined.

Mrs Sutherland presided over the W. M. S. and opened with hymn "The Lord's My Shepherd," followed with prayer by Mrs T. Nichol. Scripture was read by the Pres., Mrs Sutherland and also gave an interesting paper. A chapter was then read from the study book. Mrs D. Campbell gave a reading. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sutherland. Lunch was then served by the hostess and her assistants and a social time was spent over the tea cups.

Mr David Hincek returned home Tuesday after visiting friends in Arthur and Donegal. Mrs Tom Currie and little daughter returned home from Flesherton Sunday.

Mr Wilson a student from Toronto occupied the pulpit Sunday in St. Andrew's Church and preached a splendid sermon.

Miss Annie McKinnon, Toronto spent weekend at her home.

Mr and Mrs Colin McLean celebrated their 42nd Wedding Anniversary Friday. Mr and Mrs John McFarlane and son, Mr and Mrs Alex. McLean visited their parents and presented them with a lovely chair. We join in wishing Mr and Mrs McLean, many more years of health and happiness.

Mr and Mrs Bill Hill, Fergus, Mr Murray McMillan, Toronto, spent Sunday at Mr H. R. McLean's. A number from here are planning to go to Ceylon school Tuesday to hear Miss Macphail speak.

Mr Allie Muir spent Monday in Toronto.

The P. Y. P. S. from Durham are expected to visit our P.Y.P.S. this Thursday evening, Feb 29th.

ST. COLUMBA CHURCH, Priceville

The W. A. and W. M. S. met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Misses Edith and Bertha James with 14 present. It was decided to hold a St. Patrick's supper about March 17 and committees and hostesses were appointed. The main course will be Irish stew. Mrs Thos. Weir and Mary rendered a duet and the latter gave an interesting Temperance reading. Edna Harrison read the scripture lesson. Mrs W. G. McBride gave a paper on "The Rural Problem in India." Instructions were received from the Presbyterial Supply Secretary regarding contents of the bale.

The Y. P. S. met Thursday evening in the church basement where the members and a few friends heard the illustrated missionary lecture by Rev. A. R. Muir, "Serving the Sons of Freedom," a study of the Doukhobours in Western Canada. It was decided to accept an invitation from Mrs Wm. McKechnie to hold the March 7th meeting at her home.

SWINTON PARK

There is little new in the locality. Everyone is looking forward to Spring, now that February is at an end. But has not February been a wonderful month? steady, clear, cold but not extreme, and so little wind. We have enjoyed it.

We notice snow lying on evergreens which has never been since first of January. We have also noticed that the moon has been going down in the morning very low in the North. An Irishman who lived in Artemesia once told me it was always cold when the moon set north of the Durham Road. The men report the snow fairly deep in the woods and roads are only fair: high-up, and cut off badly, but everyone is at least fairly well.

The Women's Institute is putting on a social evening in the Hall this Tuesday.

Elroy Harrison and Gordon McNally spent the weekend in the city. Rev. Mr. Muir put on a picture show in Salem church on Monday evening.

We had the pleasure of looking over the annual report of Amos church Dromore, and were pleased with their success in all departments. Yet we noticed many of the old family names missing, while other have multiplied, such as the Hoopers, the Eccles, Taylors and Leiths. Sixty years ago there would be only one representative of those families. We also noticed that the Taylor family had the most missionary spirit, an old family trait. We hope you will all do a little better in 1940, at Amos.

THE DURHAM REVIEW, Durham

IN DAYS OF YORE ADDRESSING, WRAPPING IMPORTANT IN SENDING MAIL TO MEN OVERSEAS

The two big problems of the Army Postal Service are brought about by incorrect addressing and improper wrapping of parcels. Daily hundreds of letters and parcels are delayed because of insufficient addressing. In some cases the addresses can be located after some research. In others the letter or parcel has to be returned. In wrapping parcels it should be remembered that they will be subject to much handling and therefore should be sturdily wrapped and bound.

The following rule will prevent improper addressing: rank, name, regiment, regimental number and unit of regiment. For instance: Private John Smith, 49th Highlanders A12345, Trench Mortars, with Canadian Active Forces.
