in Grey Co. In forming this organization, the farmers of this County are following an example set by other counties, not only within the province of Ontario, but across Canada. The aim to weld the agricultural industry into a strong unit, that will be able to take its place in moulding the agricultural policies of the country which heretofore, due the individualism among the farmir" population, has never taken place.

T. Stewart Cooper, Agricultural Representative for the County of Grey has been behind the movement from the start, and the meeting and subsequent organization on Saturday came directly as a result of his interest and enthusiasm.

The speakers of the day were R H. Graham, B.S.A., Fieldman of the Ontario Live Stock Branch of the Dept. of Agriculture: Hon. P. M. Dewan. Minister of Agriculture; in London, Ontario. of Agriculture. Guelph: Herbert his views of Eskimo life. eration of Agriculture.
