Happy Mountain Holidays at Banff

CANADA'S "Great Barrier"—the Rocky Mountains—will be anything but a barrier for the record number of alpine-minded pleasure seekers anticipated this summer by the Canadian Pacific Railway and its celebrated mountain resorts—Banff Springs Hotel and Chateau Lake Louise. Also in readiness for a large-scale tourist invasion are the company's chalets and lodges at Emerald Lake, Yoho Valley, Moraine Lake, Lake Wapiti and Lake O'Hara. Holiday-makers from all parts of Canada and the United States will soon be converging on these popular skyward playgrounds, where trail riding, hiking, fishing, boating, swimming, motoring and golfing can be enjoyed amid unrivalled scenic splendor. Though located in the very heart of the mountains, the Banff Springs Hotel and Chateau Lake Louise provide all the luxurious comforts of metropolitan hotels. The chalets and lodges provide similar comforts in less formal settings. Special events this summer will begin with the annual Stampede at nearby Calgary, July 8-13. The colorful Indian Days celebrations will take place from July 18-21, when hundreds of Stoney braves will descend on Banff for their annual pow-wow. Three prominent alpine societies have planned their annual outings at following: Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, July 26-30; Sky Line Trail Hikers of the Canadian Rockies, Aug. 2-5; and the Alpine Club of Canada, July 14-29. The Edward, Prince of Wales, Trophy, and other coveted trophies will be contended for during Banff Golf Week, Aug. 18-24, on the magnificent course at Banff Springs. The Banff School of Fine Arts will be in session from Aug. 1-31. Other attractions include the opening of the Big Bend section of the trans-Canada Highway between Golden and Revelstoke, and the scenic highway between Banff and the Columbia Icefields. Banff Springs Hotel, the Chateau Lake Louise and Emerald Lake Chalet will be open June 8-Sept. 8. The lodges are open as follows: Lake O'Hara, Lake Wapiti, Yoho Valley, June 24-Sept. 6; Moraine Lake, June 8-Sept. 8.

War Saving Stamps to be Issued

Canada having already marshalled her dollars to fight for freedom, plans soon to marshal her small change. "Make your dollars fight for freedom!" that was the call behind the January drive that brought over subscription by $160,000,000 of a $200,000,000 war loan and machinery will be in motion for sale of 25-cent war savings stamps. They will be sold in association with war savings certificates, already announced and soon to go on sale in amounts ranging from $5 upwards in multiples of $5. Neither the stamps nor the certificates will be subject to income tax. It was learned authoritatively last night, because no interest is paid. The public, it was understood, will find a $5 certificate available for about $4 and in something less than 10 years will get a $5 return on it, the profit of $1 being considered capital and so not taxable. Finance Minister Ralston is expected to give out complete details of this new financing venture shortly. The whole scheme is designed to place the persons of small means in a position to take part in the war-time financing at any time they have funds, not just when a war loan is being raised. Even then the persons of very small means cannot take part to any great extent because the smallest bonds are too expensive. Under the war savings stamp plan similar to the thrift stamps sold in the first great war in public schools, post offices and banks, almost everybody will have a chance to participate. They will be available in post office, banks and chain stores that have branches scattered throughout the nation. And when the small investor has run his 25-cent investments into the certificate class he may exchange his collection of stamps for a certificate. The plan is to make available forms on which the stamps can be pasted and it will then act as an application form for a certificate. After hearing the pleas voiced by spokesmen for a deputation consisting of nine officers of the Grey-Simcoe Foresters, Owen Sound City Council on Friday evening unanimously voted to grant the regiment $500 to finance the training of ten officers and 94 men of other ranks. Nine officers of the regiment paraded into the Council Chambers in uniform and there made their appeal for help.

KNOX CORNERS
There was a large attendance at Knox again on Sunday including quite a number of visitors. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed. Mr Kaye had a good message and spoke on Peter's denial and Judas' betrayal of Jesus. Peter's failure grieved his Master sorely, but he repented, and later became a wonderful preacher and soul winner, and died a martyr's death. Judas had planned the betrayal of Jesus and sold his Master for thirty pieces of silver. He too repented, but too late, and died a suicide. Let us watch and pray lest we deny our Master. Mr and Mrs Ab. Kress and children and Miss Mary McAllister all of Toronto spent a weekend recently with Mr McAllister and family. We had a pleasant visit with Mrs Wm. Marshall and family on Thursday afternoon. It was Billy's birthday. He was fourteen years old. Our teacher, Miss Vessie has been ill at her home for over a week. We are glad she is able to be at work again this week. Mr and Mrs T. Daly (nee Beatrice Carmount) of Mt. Forest visited on Sunday with Mr and Mrs Ronald Smith and attended service at Knox. Eva accompanied by the teacher and pupils attended the Musical Festival in Owen Sound on Friday. Mrs Wm. Westervelt and Miss Peggy are spending a few days in Toronto visiting friends. TOIL AWAY
(BY John Jay Chapman)
Toil away and set the stone
That shall stand when you are gone.
Ask not that another see
The meaning of your masonry.
Grind the gem and dig the well.
For what? For whom?—I can not tell.
The stone may mark a boundary
line,
The well may flow, the gem may shine.
Be it wage enough for you
To shape them well and set them true.
Work, my friend, and so farewell
Of the future who can tell?

AMONG THE CHURCHES

MR. DAN FIRTH SPEAKER AT PRES. EVENING SERVICE
Sunday evening, May 19th, was an unique occasion in the Presbyterian Church when the Young Peoples' Society sponsored the service at which Mr Dan Firth, President of the Provincial Executive of the Presbyterian Young Peoples' Societies of Ontario and a member of the local society, Toronto, was the guest speaker and delivered a splendid sermon. He selected his text from Phil. 1: 1 and the 21st verse, "For me to live is Christ, to die is gain." "The most important phase of the young Peoples' work," quoted the speaker, "is personal evangelism." The President, Miss Ada Becker, capably presided over the service while Mae Hopkins, Social Convener, read the scripture lesson taken from Phil. 1: 1st to 26th verses. Rev. Mr Hirtle offered the prayers during the service. Immediately following the Offertory Prayer the young peoples' choir under the careful leadership of Miss Catherine McMeekin rendered a selection, "He Lives To-day." The ushers for the service were Reg. Wilson, Ellison Edge, Tom Milligan, and John Elmer McEachern. KNOX EVENING AUXILIARY
The Knox Evening Auxiliary held its May meeting on Tuesday evening at the Queen St. Church. The minutes were read by Miss Olive Ylris in the absence of Miss E. Twamley. A business discussion followed during which it was decided to hold a baking sale early in June. The presentation of the study book was in charge of Miss A. Ritchie assisted by Mrs. D. McQueen and Mrs G. Noble. Miss Bernice Whitmore took the scripture reading. Mrs W. G. Ritchie, Secretary of Stewardship and Finance, took the opportunity to stress the need of Christian Missions which must not be neglected in spite of war work. Prayer was offered by Miss O. Ylris and the meeting was closed by the president, Miss B. Ritchie. Lunch was served.

IN MEMORIAM
ALLAN—a loving memory of our husband and father, David Allan, who passed away on May 24th, 1938.
Gone dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember,
None on earth can your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed—
How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
—Sady missed by wife and daughters.
