

WHEN YOU REGISTER YOU GET THIS CERTIFICATE

National Registration is a plan to mobilize and direct our human resources—to assist Canada in the present crisis. When you register you will receive a certificate, convenient for card case or pocket—tangible evidence that you have complied with government regulations. It is not only a record for the Government, it is also for your protection. As such, you will be required to carry this card with you at all times. Its presentation can be demanded at any time by the proper authorities.

Deputy Registrar.

EVERYONE CAN HELP—To keep the cost of this registration at a minimum the Government is asking the co-operation of all public-minded citizens in the work of registration. You can help by getting in touch with your local registration officials and offering your services.

WHERE TO REGISTER

Registration offices are being set up by electoral districts in the same manner as in the last Dominion election. Registrants are required to register in the regular polling subdivisions of their own constituencies. But should a registrant be in some other province or district out of the regular polling subdivision on Registration Days, he or she may register at any registration office convenient, upon satisfactory explanation to the local deputy registrar.

Penalty for Non-Registration—Failure to register will make any male or female, married or single, over the age of 16 years, liable to a fine not exceeding Two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding Three months, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and moreover to a further penalty not exceeding Ten dollars for each day, after the day upon which he should have registered, during which he shall continue to be unregistered.

AGNES HAS FOUR OPPONENTS

Running on the United Reform ticket in Saskatoon bye-election on Aug. 19th, Miss Agnes Macphail is one of five candidates. Her opponents are Liberal, Conservative, an Independent lady teacher, and a Social Creditor, we believe. It is the first time two women have been opponents in a Canadian parliamentary election, but we surmise Miss Macphail has the inside track of the field, with good prospects of re-entering Parliament. She had the offer of nomination in two other Ridings with bye-elections on same day—in Carleton, and in Waterloo South.

MULOCK

The ladies of the section are busily engaged in making hospital gowns, quilts and knitting for the soldiers. At the monthly meeting which was held at the parsonage on Friday of last week, nineteen hospital gowns and eight pairs of socks were brought in. Total raised for this section for the Bentinck war chest to date is $121.25.

Miss Ruth Pawson of Regina, Sask. visited several days last week with Mr. Wm. Adlam and family.

Mrs. Wm. Fulton and Janet Patterson visited Sunday with Mrs. Andrew Fulton and family of Hampden.

Mr. Milton Fowler of Belleville visited friends here over the weekend.

A goodly number of the B.Y.P.U. members from this section attended the annual picnic of the Owen Sound Association held on Monday at Davis Grove, Hanover.

Mr and Mrs Dave Hastie of Kerrobert, Sask. Mrs. Christopher and Miss Isabel Hastie of Chesley were guests at the home of Mr and Mrs Doug. Hastie over the weekend.

Mrs. Doug. Hastie, Miss Isabel Hastie and Jean Wilkinson spent Sunday at Sauble Beach.

Mr and Mrs Adam of Durham and Mr and Mrs Stanley Michael of Annan accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Norton and daughter of Toronto were recent guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. Fred Torry.

Mr Peter Muir and his niece Miss Mary Muir R. N. of Ceylon, visited on Saturday with Mr Don. McKechnie and Miss Tena Livingstone.

Smith-Noble Nuptials

At the home of Mr and Mrs Ralph Noble, Shallow Lake, a marriage of outstanding interest was solemnized on Saturday, August 3, when their daughter, Vera Margaret Ann, became the bride of Donald David Smith of St. Catharines, only son of Rev. W. H. and Mrs Smith of Durham. The ceremony was performed at 1 p.m. by the groom's father, before a colorful background of blue delphinium, pink roses, gladioli and fern, flanked with standards of palms and ferns.

Miss Ruth Noble, sister of the bride, played the wedding music, the Lohengrin Bridal Chorus, as the bride approached the altar and Mendelssohn's Wedding March after the ceremony. During the signing of the register, Miss Noble played softly "I Love You Truly." She was wearing beige lace with matching accessories and an off-the-face hat.

The bride was lovely in her gown of heaven blue sheer made on long lines with fitted bodice, featuring tiny shirred pockets and shirred puff sleeves. She wore long white gloves, white shoes and a cap of real flowers on her hair. Her flowers were Joanna Hill roses and bouvardia in an arm bouquet.

Morrison Inn was the scene of the reception and luncheon after the ceremony and receiving with the bridal couple were the bride's mother in dusky rose sheer with a rose felt hat and matching accessories corsage of small rosebuds and the groom's mother wearing orchid chiffon, black straw hat and corsage of sweet peas. The luncheon table had low crystal bowls filled with Butterfly roses and baby's breath, lighted with pink tapers in crystal candleabra. The small tables were centred with crystal vases holding rosebuds on the buffet, the three-tiered wedding cake rested in a setting of tulle and pink roses.

Mr and Mrs Smith left later on a trip that will take them along the St. Lawrence and to Eastern Ontario points. For travelling, the bride chose a Monterey rose cloth suit with a matching draped mode hat and Chartreuse green accessories. They will reside on their return at St. Catharines.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Miss Ella Ross, Toronto; Mr. Francis Lamson, Port Colborne; Mr and Mrs Jack Bowden, Petrolia, besides immediate relatives from Durham, Owen Sound and Shallow Lake.

One of the most cherished gifts received was an intalated silver spoon, an heirloom in the family of the groom, and one of a set given a great great grandmother, and nearly two centuries old.

The home of Mr and Mrs Ralph Noble in Shallow Lake was the scene of a largely attended event on Wednesday afternoon and evening, when the daughter of the home, Miss Vera Noble, welcomed almost one hundred and fifty guests at a trousseau tea. Garden flowers were used to give the rooms of the home a festive appearance and the bride-to-be was wearing a flowered taffeta gown with a redingote of net. Mrs. Noble received her daughter's friends gowned in white chiffon.

Tea was served from a table lovely with a lace cloth, a bowl of red roses and baby's breath and lighted with ivory candles in silver holders. Mrs. W. H. Smith of Durham, Mrs. Herb. Dankert and Mrs. Ed. Jordan of Owen Sound poured tea and the assistants were Mrs Percy Noble of Shallow Lake, Mrs Jack Bowden of Petrolia. In the rooms where the bride's complete and pretty personal belongings, household linens and handsome gifts were displayed, Miss Helen Snider of Owen Sound and Mrs. Bernice Noble, of Shallow Lake were in charge in the afternoon and in the evening Mrs Albert Woods, Miss Betty Hemming and Miss Viola McInnis of Owen Sound.

RICE-SWAN

The marriage took place at Collingwood on Tuesday, July 30th, of Miss Phoebe Boyd Swan, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs John F. Swan, to Dr. Walter Gowans Rice of Toronto, son of Mrs. Rice of Hamilton and the late Edward F. Rice of Nigeria, East Africa. Rev. H. O. Eastman officiated in the living room before a bank of flowers and tall standards of delphinium.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the wedding march was played by Miss Muriel Stephenson. The bride wore a frock of heavenly blue, wide white hat with finger-tip streamers, and carried Talisman roses and cornflowers.

Mrs Charles H. Thompson of Toronto was matron of honor wearing a tailored frock of dusky pink with a small matching hat, and carried a sheaf of tea roses. Rev. Francis B. Rice of Hamilton attended his brother as groomsmen.

The wedding reception took place on the lawn. Mrs Swan, in a gown of blue crepe with a white hat and corsage of roses, and Mrs Rice, wearing a grey ensemble with corsage of roses, assisted the bridal party in receiving. Dr. and Mrs. Rice left on a motor trip through Muskoka, Mrs Rice wearing a blue silk print, with a navy felt hat. On their return they will reside in Toronto.
