CANADIAN RED CROSS Give to the utmost...now!

TO CANADA Just pardon my dust, as I bid you adieu. Backward, turn backward. Oh Time in thy flight: And let me see Canada, just for tonight: Away from the roar and the noise over head. Back where its peaceful and quiet. Instead. O let me see Canada just for tonight: Canada, defender of truth and the right: Land of the glorious Maple tree. Land of beauty, the just and the free. Land of my birth, I bow to thee: Home that has reared and sheltered me; May God from His throne look down tonight. And see that your keeping is safe, and right. England, dear England, I'll fight for thee: I'll give up my life, if it has to be: But when you have won, as you're sure to do, I'll go home in glory to tell of our win; How the Nazis got kicked right square in the chin; How Hitler got hung to the old oak tree. And left there to hang, for his people to see. How Goering got stripped of his medals and dress; And Herr Goebbels was left in a hell of a mess; How the Kaiser looked sad with a tear in his eye, As he turned and bid Hitler a last good bye. Oh the tales that I tell will be mighty and tall; And some of it may not have happened at all; But what do we care what the story shall be; As long as the Empire stands strong and free. — Kathleen Everist Parker, (formerly of Priceville)
