PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

We were pleased to attend and were agreeably satisfied at the induction services held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon Sept. 26th. There was a good turnout of the home members, and a fair representation from the sister congregations of Swinton Park and Markdale graced the occasion. Moderator Rev. L. Simpson, Orangeville, was in charge, and recited the steps taken in regard to the call. Rev. W. D. Turner, Hillsburg, preached from the text "Do not be conformed... but be transformed," etc., in a fine clear intonation of voice. The Moderator submitted the usual questions. Rev. T. O. Miller, Orangeville, Clerk of the Presbytery, addressed the minister, and Rev. Fitzsimmons, Caledon East the congregation. After a pious supper, speeches were given by the ministers who took part, including the new incumbent, Rev. Campbell Ph.D., whom we believe will prove highly satisfactory. Other ministers present were Revs. Hirtle, Durham; Ghent of Alton, and Rev. A. Sutherland.

Quite a number from here took in the drumhead service of veterans, active force, militia and homeguards at Durham Sunday afternoon. A large turnout. Seeing them march was quite inspiring.

Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn and Mrs. Joseph McKee left on Thursday on a visit to their brothers out West. We wish them a pleasant trip and reunion with all.

Miss Esther Peffer was a welcome member of the choir on Sunday at St. Columba.

We are forcibly reminded of the passing of time, by coming across a clipping of the Review of North Egremont news. We would like to know in what year (1915 May) this took place: "The new individual cups were first used, presented by a mystical but lovely young lady of the congregation, forestalling the committee appointed to secure them. The Sunday previous to this, three elders were elected: J. M. Findlay, W. P. Watson and Alfred Haas." The day after finding this clipping, we read in last week's Review of the death of the latter. These three, and the minister who ordained them (Rev. B. M. Smith), have all passed on.

SWINTON PARK

This week in the Park there is anxiety over the illness of Mrs. Hay Sr who suffered a stroke on Saturday morning at the home of her son Wm. Hay. We hope that soon there will be improvement.

Mrs. Ellen Parslow, late of Toronto is spending this week with her sister Mrs. Hugh McMillan in the Park, before taking up residence in her home in Flesherton.

Last Sunday a nice congregation was out to welcome our new minister, Rev. Dr. Campbell and all enjoyed services as conducted by him. Mr. Campbell is at once taking up the pastoral work and will endeavor to visit his congregations before winter sets in.

Next Sunday anniversary services will be conducted at 2.30 p.m. by Dr. Campbell and at 8.30 p.m. by another pastor. Special music at both services. Monday evening following, a play "Lena Rivers" is to be given by Wareham young people. Almost everyone has read the book "Lena Rivers" and should enjoy the play.

The flowers this morning look like a vanquished army. They hang their heads in disgust after the frost.

HOPEVILLE

Mrs. Nell McEachnie spent last week with her sister, Miss C. Fettes R. N. at her cottage at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Philip Dromore visited recently with her sister Mrs. D. S. McDonald.

Rev. M. G. Butler, Dundalk had charge of the United Church service Sunday morning and dispensed communion.

Mrs. James Dickson who was East on the sad occasion of the death of her sister, the late Mrs. Chas. Waite left last Friday for her home in Weyburn, Sask., visiting with friends at several points enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Clarke and sons of Toronto spent a day at the home of Mr. Dan. McInnis.

Messrs George Wale and Albert Fraser were weekend visitors at the Wale home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ferguson and children, Woodland, were Sunday guests at Mr. George H. Gilkes.

Mrs. John Russell, Sr. visited with her daughter Mrs. Alex. Spence, Toronto.

Messrs William Dickie and John Sinclair were the local Red Cross collectors on Oct. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne and daughter, Toronto visited at the home of Mr. Walter Benham.

Miss Helen Sturdy underwent an operation for appendicitis at Orangeville hospital last week. Latest reports state she is progressing very favourably.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sturdy and son Toronto are spending a few days with his mother Mrs. Sturdy.

Mrs. William Jack has been in poor health for sometime and is in Toronto where she will undergo an operation for goitre. All hope she will have a speedy recovery as the people of this locality feel they have had more than their share of severe sickness this summer.

Pleased to see Mr. George Christie able to be up and around again and gaining strength.

MRS. ARCHIE McEACHNIE

Following several weeks' illness from a complication of ailments, another of our wellknown and esteemed residents, Mrs. Archie McEachnie answered the last call Saturday September 28th at Durham Hospital, aged 67 years. Deceased whose maiden name was Elsie Nelson has lived most of her life in this community and was a home-loving, industrious woman. She was the last of her generation. Her only sister, the late Mrs. Thos. Dingwall, Holstein, and brother, Ellice Nelson, passed on some years ago.

Surviving to mourn the loss of wife and mother are her husband, Archie McEachnie; three sons, William, Vancouver, B. C.; Elwin, Buffalo, N. Y.; Nelson at home and one daughter May, Mrs. W. Keith, Holstein, and the grandchildren. In religion, the late Mrs. McEachnie was faithful and regular in attendance at the Christian Missionary Alliance Church. Rev. Brodie will have charge of the funeral service which will be held at the home Tuesday. Interment at Salem cemetery. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family.

Cupid's Captives Given the Works

Under the above heading, the Walkerton Herald-Times thus relates an after-the-wedding celebration in that town.

Snorting steam like a tin dragon with asthma, Freddy Jewell's ramshackle taxi boiled to a halt in front of the Sacred Heart Church on Monday morning last just as the Fedy—Huck bridal party was proceeding up the aisle and when a frantic usher rushed out and asked that the engine be shut off so they could hear the organ.

Turning off the switch of his moaning Lizzie, the taximan, an ex-warrior of the last unpleasantness, bides his time, knowing that even in Walkerton all things come to an end, and before his whiskers had grown much longer he finally lamps the newly-joined stepping out of church with his as the only conveyance to greet them, the rest of the motora having done a pre-arranged fadeaway so that there could be no misgivings as to which was the bridal chariot.

Abashed but too game to try and sidestep this hurdle the pair stepped into a crate that someone in a moment of enthusiasm had dubbed a car. This had enough glaring signs on it for a Jewish sale, not to mention cans, pails and bottles, suggestive of a robbery at the town dump, tied to it in lengthy profusion and which added to the din as the caravan, which was joined by a noisy cortege of cars, with horns pressed wide open for

Fire Prevention Week OCTOBER 6 TO 12

Canada is at War

We cannot afford any fire losses at this critical period—every spare dollar is required for war purposes and Red Cross needs.

Let Durham citizens make certain they have no fire loss this coming year: see to it that all chimneys are cleaned out, and premises cleaned up for the winter. Prevent any chimney fires and the unnecessary calling out of the Brigade.

the occasion, moved along the main aisle towards the bride's home. It was like the Battle of Bull Run on wheels, with the taximan who led the uproar, executing a double U turn at each intersection and making his fares dizzy than a merry-go-round. A call-thumpian parade had nothing on this bridal tour for undiluted hilarity, and when it finally reached its rendezvous at the bride's parental home there was only a slight interruption in the explosion as the newly-weds got their second breath for the take-off to Midway.

When the next phase of the disaster ultimately got under way and the rickety-rackety bridal coach tumbled along the road to the Carrick capital, it was no bird in a gilded cage that the inhabitants saw alight as a tire blew out at the village inn, the driver claiming that the suddenness of the stop rather than any pre-arranged coup caused the tube to explode at the door of the tavern. This bang-up performance was a fitting climax to one of the noisiest after-dinner of the wedding bells that Bruce has known since the red man went off the war path and got himself put on the Indian List.

Suffice it to say that after partaking of the Midway boniface's best culinary emble, the happy, but tired couple, left in the groom's rubber-tired gas wagon on a honeymoon to the quints' quarters at Callander before settling down to the stern realities of a permanent hitch-up.

Mr. Hugh McCormick, Pittsburg, Pa. bought the Wm. Legette farm at the Rocky last week and gets possession next March. Mr. Legette intends to go West we believe. His brother Angus will run this farm in conjunction with his own on the 2nd con. of Bentinck.

While engaged in loading logs at McWilliams Station last week, Mr. Wm. Ryan met with an unfortunate accident. A log rolled against his right leg, catching it and breaking the bone clean in two places a little above the ankle.

On Sunday last there passed away in his 64th year of his age perhaps the best known man of Dornoch and neighborhood, Robt. Dargavel. Mr. C. C. Ramage has enlisted and has joined the Army Medical Corps in Toronto.

Congratulations to Mr. Arthur McNally, of Zion, and Miss Bella Lee of North Egremont, who are being wedded Wednesday, united in holy bonds of matrimony.

Priceville Corr: A number of our young boys enlisted for the war. There were some 10 or 12 enlisted Show Day, some of them only 16 and 16 year s of age. Strange but true, at from 15 to 25 boys are more easily convinced to enlist than when they get up from 30 to 45, just the same as bachelors—after they get up to 40 or 45, they don't care whether they get married or not.

The Directors of the Priceville Agricultural Society met with hard luck this year on account of unfavourable weather.

Even here war obtrudes itself and a feature of the afternoon was the presence of a delegation from Grey County Recruiting League to stimulate enlisting. Mr. H. H. Miller was chairman and in addition to the three Owen Sounders, Ex-Mayor Lemon, A. F. Armstrong and Fred Harrison he had to draw upon Lieut. Mercer of Markdale, Hon. Dr. Jamieson M. P., P. R. J. Ball, M. P., Rev's Matheson and Bows of Priceville.

Holstein Corr: Holstein Fair for 1915 has passed into history. The days were all could be desired. The usual large crowd was present on the second day. The concert in the evening was a great success.

At the meeting held Thursday evening last in the interests of recruiting, Hon. Dr. Jamieson and Rev. Mr. Morris, of Durham, ably addressed the meeting. A Recruiting League was organized, Reeve Jno. McArthur as President and Dr. Ferguson as Secretary.

On Wednesday, 29th Sept. 1915, there passed away a Mother in Israel Mrs. James Marshall Sr., (nee Jessie McIvride) of 2nd Concession of Normandy. She was in her 90th year.

Seaside Holiday Has Charm and Appeal

ONE of the few remaining frontiers of unspoiled vacationland is to be found in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where splendidly appointed resorts dot the peaceful inland countryside and the sandy inlets and rocky bound promontories on the coastline. The Maritime, naturally air-conditioned by cooling salt-laden sea breezes, are ideal for every type of holiday, and are rich in historic interest, and in truly beautiful and restful scenery. From Saint John, the Princess Helene takes visitors across the Bay of Fundy to Digby, picturesque gate to Nova Scotia. The most popular way across the province is the "Evangeline Route" of the Dominion Atlantic Railway. New Brunswick's most popular resort is St. Andrews-by-the-Sea overlooking blue Passamaquoddy Bay. The Algonquin Hotel there is the scene of summer fun and sports activities each year for thousands from Eastern Canada, the United States and England. Two splendid golf courses, Katy's Cove, where the sheltered waters of the Bay, and the warm sands combine to make the ideal swimming beach; tennis courts, fishing and hunting in season and the interesting country to explore are outstanding attractions. In Nova Scotia the historic view with the scenic for attention; energetic sports and the comfortable lethargy of warm weather are found side by side, and neither of them incongruous. Cornwallis Inn at Kentville, centre of the Annapolis Valley, is an ideal spot from which to view the magnificent Apple Blossom Festival early in June or for visits to Grand Pre, home of Evangeline, at any time. Two particularly popular Canadian Pacific resorts right down by the seaside are The Pines at Digby, open from June 28 to September 7, and Lakeside Inn at Yarmouth, open from June 28 to September 6. Photographs show swimming and boating activities, "Evangeline Church" at Grand Pre and The Pines at Digby.
