SHOULD USE ALL IRISH PORTS

During recent weeks Britain has been losing an excessive amount of shipping, the vessels in the main being torpedoed by German subs. operating in the Atlantic some 200 to 500 miles west of Ireland. So serious has it become that Prime Minister Churchill the other day referred to it as Britain's No. 1 menace at present, and remarked that had they the consent of the Eire government to do so, they could use ports in south and west of Ireland for refuelling bases for submarine chasers and other convoy ships, and thus not be under the handicap of being so far from supply bases.

The use of Queenston, Galway and other south Irish ports as bases for British vessels would cut the distance in half for refuelling, from the present English or North Ireland bases, but the Eire premier refuses to allow such, so strict is his desire to be neutral. That little independent nation will even lean backward, favouring Germany, to maintain its "neutrality". Without the British navy and air force's guardianship however, Eire would now be an enslaved nation under German rule, similar to Poland, Holland, Belgium, Norway and France.

We fail to see why the British Government should show Eire any consideration, when these bases might mean the saving of hundreds of lives and many thousands of tons cargo, of torpedoed ships. Churchill should demand these bases, and if again refused, take them by force, hold them for the duration of the war, and intern or wipe out any who dare oppose.

NEW PATRIOTIC SONGS WINNING FAVOR

"Patriotic songs are a means of expressing loyalty to the King and flag, and seventy percent of the public and separate schools in Prov. of Ontario have music on the course of studies." E. Roy Fenwick, supervisor of music in the Department of Education, stated during an address to a Toronto service club recently. He stressed the importance of music, particularly in wartime, and expressed the opinion that everyone was more or less musical but that certain conditions were necessary to bring the quality out.

"Music," Mr. Fenwick pointed out, "is the fourth need of men. There is food, clothing, shelter...and music."

Patriotic and war songs have rapidly been gaining in popularity during recent months and the national favourite, since the intensified bombing by Nazi planes of the British capital, has been "Till the Lights of London Shine Again."

The three branches of the active service forces are singing such songs as "Lords of the Air", "Sons of the Air Force", "Wings Over the Navy", "Shout, I Am A Canadian" and "Roll On, Roll On."

Other popular patriotic compositions at the present time are "We're All together Now" and "God Bless This Land of Ours."

CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

A Weekly Review of Developments On the Home Front: Oct. 31st to Nov. 7th.

SUMMARY

1. Second session of Canada's Nineteenth Parliament—fourth session of the War—opened November 7. Previous session, which opened May 16, adjourned August 7 till November 5. Proceedings on November 5 however limited to introduction of new members and formal prorogation.
2. Canadian destroyer rescues 118 survivors from 20 ships torpedoed by German submarines in British waters.
3. Survey crews open preliminary work necessary to development of International rapids section of the St. Lawrence.
4. Index of physical volume of business in Canada was 155.4 in September, a gain of three points over August, according to Dominion Bureau of Statistics. This was highest point in 20 years.
5. Favourable by munition orders, iron and steel industry recorded marked expansion.
6. Bureau of Statistics index, for industrial employment showed an increase of 3.5 per cent over September 1. This is largest

The Eskimos of Canada have now the Bible in their own language. Canada circulates the Bible in our own country in 110 different languages.

The demand for tin seems to be even greater than that for iron since the war began, and attention is called to the fact that when the United States mobilized its army in the last war they required 20,000,000 pounds of food a day. This meant a lot of "canned" goods, hence the demand for tin.

Britain's evacuee children have their own time in their new abodes. One boy surprised his mother by turning up suddenly at home in Hull, and when asked why he had returned he told her that he had the farmer say that he was having the "thrashing machine" in the next day. The boy thought he had better leave before it arrived.

Some citizens of New Jersey are anxious for the State to purchase at least 500,000 acres in the pine area, and set it out as State forest. It would probably pay. We wonder that Ontario does not experiment in the same direction. An area of a few hundred thousand acres in really good forest would be worth something some day in the near future—onward.

10. Thou shalt not covet thy fellow motorist's place or anything that belongs to him. Safety first takes no chances on sorrow. Mind your own business for conscience's sake, and above all, be courteous.

FINE GLAMIS MAN IN GASOLINE TAX CASE

"I must impose a penalty that will prove a deterrent to others who have been and may commit a similar offense," Magistrate Walker of Walkerton, addressed Gordon Sawyer of Glamis who last week pleaded guilty to an attempt to defraud the Provincial Government of some $40 in rebates on gasoline tax. The court levied a fine of $50 and costs of $58.90 for a total of $108.90 besides the week the accused spent in jail. To Sawyer, who told the court he had a family, the magistrate remarked "I'm afraid there are a lot who do not realize what a responsibility it is for a man to have a wife and family and how so many come into court here forgetting all about them."

Durham Boy Wins Fame as Artist

Clare Bice, of London, has been elected associate of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts. Mr Bice, who has advanced rapidly to the forefront of younger Canadian artists, has been showing his works for the past six years at the Ontario Society of Artists and the Royal Canadian Academy. He was born in Durham, Ontario, and is a son of Canon A. A. Bice, of All Saints Anglican Church, in London. He studied with Eva Bradshaw, art teacher, and also in New York at the Art Students' League and the Grand Central School of Art.

A number of his pictures have been shown in London and in other Ontario Exhibitions. A portrait of James McCormick, Esq., is his painting now hanging in the Royal Canadian Academy. It was this painting that was included in the Canadian Government's exhibition of Canadian art in New York last year.

Two years ago Mr Bice was elected to the Ontario Society of Artists. Recently he was appointed curator of the art gallery and museum of the Elsie Perrin Williams Memorial Library in London.

Met Many Old Friends on Trip thru B. C. to Coast

From a letter to the Review from Mrs Albert McClinton (nee Lillie May Leeson) of Usona, Alberta, we quote the following relating to her trip with her husband to Vancouver, Victoria and elsewhere in B. C.:

"Did I tell you about seeing so many old Ontario friends this summer. Jim Watson is a happy looking, heavy set fellow, looks like an Irishman. Albert says it did sound odd when he referred to "retiring" in a couple of years. John McNiece in their lovely new home in Vancouver, seemed the same John as years ago, only for the "bald" head. He has a fine wife. I liked her very much. Mr and Mrs John McPherson, (nee Lydia Thompson) are the picture of contentment and well deserved ease. It was a treat visiting them in their comfortable home. We didn't see Will McMitchell, although we heard he was somewhere in Vancouver.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Pettigrew are the same contented couple as always. The years have changed them very little, we were happy to find Mrs McCrie, though often alone, is very happy and enjoyed a chat over Varney days. The Harrops of Victoria were interested, though Keyworth was young when he left Durham. Mrs Harrop and her sisters were lovely hostesses.

Mrs McKenzie (Mary Jane McClinton) of New Westminster is very interesting. Has raised her family well, though an early widow. We were pleased to know her better. Her half-brother, we had not met before, a fine looking police chief, offered us "protection" in case we needed it. (We're really not half bad, even on the grandest holiday.) Other old-time friends from Saskatoon, Edmonton and elsewhere made the coast trip one long to be remembered.

Then on the return took a couple of days to run down into the Okanagan Valley with its very lovely lakes and acres of fruit lands. Mr and Mrs Will Harris made it the grand climax. With their car we went up and down the mountains until my heart turned summersaults, but the view made one forget all that. We found with them, as with other friends, hospitality unbounded. Here we met Mr and Mrs Jno Vollett of Durham and enjoyed a real old time visit. With daughter Myra and her husband and 2 daughters it made a perfect holiday to be happy over many a day.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Mr and Mrs Lance Rumble and Miss Isabell Lawson, Toronto were weekend guests with their parents Mr and Mrs Robt. Lawson. Mrs Albert Middleton and daughter Marjory Middleton accompanied by Mr. James Wilson, Arthur, spent an evening recently at the home of Mr and Mrs L. McLean.
