King George was paying one of his army visits to the British Army. Hand grenade throwing was demonstrated to him, but that wasn't enough. He wanted to see for himself the quality of the weapons his men were using.

Sudden Death of Rev. R. W. Paton

Taken suddenly ill just after commencing his morning address in Knox United Church Cornwall, on Sunday, Rev. R. W. Paton, M. A., B. D. Th. D., died about an hour later, failing to respond to treatment given by Dr. H. J. Mack and Dr. A. L. Crewson.

The congregation was dismissed and the evening's service cancelled. Dr. Paton's death was attributed to a sudden attack.

Dr. Paton was born near Flesherton, 47 years ago, a son of William Paton. He graduated from Emmanuel College, University of Toronto in 1928.

Before coming to Cornwall last August 4th, he filled pastorates at Arden, Roseneath, Bethany and the village of Sydenham.

Officers of Military District No. 1, London have been negotiating with the Arena Officials in view of leasing the building for one year, at a monthly rental, stated to be sixty dollars.

It is expected that several hundred can be trained there, as well as the "C" Co. Perth Regiment, N. P. A.M. which recruited in Walkerton and district do two nights weekly now.

The leasing of the arena will be sad disappointment to the younger element of the town depriving them of much of their winter sports, but Walkerton Council expects to make arrangements for the conducting of open air rinks on the school grounds to afford them these privileges.

Refugees will be used to keep the rinks in condition.

GROUCHY IN THE MORNING?

Howard J. Wisehaupt, lecturer, of Elmira, N. Y., offers the following five rules to develop personality:

1-Get up when you wake up and wake up when you get up.

2-Start smiling as soon as you get up. No one ever had a mean thought while smiling.

3-Radiate a little happiness in the house by saying something nice to your wife or to the maid if your wife does not get up.

4-When you leave the house breathe deeply and get good, fresh air into the bottom of your lungs.

5-Start the day right by speaking cheerfully to co-workers.

He said three attitudes which kill personality are fear, worry and criticism.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, only three of the new babies of the year were present for their reception. The class of little graduates received their certificates and little Bryon Jackson, whose birthday was Friday received a card. Lunch was served.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

(from Review file Dec. 2, 1915) The young people of St. Peter's R. C. Church held a successful box social in the Town Hall last Wednesday, it being filled to the door with youth and beauty and many of their elders from town and country.

Auctioneer Brigham disposed of the boxes, the highest realizing $2.65 and purchased by Nell McGillivray. Miss Ruby Knisley held the lucky number in the drawing for the autographed quilt and Mrs Gould won the cushion.

The few days sleighing at the beginning of last week gave place to balmy weather and the snow fled. To-day, Tuesday November 30th, it is on in earnest and from six to nine inches must have fallen. No wheels for some time.

Mrs Calder, Gleneden, came to town last week to reside with her two daughters, who moved here a fortnight ago, to the newly acquired Redford residence on Bruce St.

Mr Fred Laidlaw, who enlisted about two months ago, has resigned from the battalion he was connected with and will at once go into training for a lieutenant. He has the prospect of a company from some point in County of Grey.

Priceville Corr: As we go to press we learn that C. C. James, one of Priceville's foremost citizens, died Wednesday at 5 p.m.

Miss Laura McKinnon, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs N. McKinnon, of the post office, is organist in the Presbyterian Church since Miss Sackett left for Toronto some time ago. Laura is doing well for a young girl at the organ.

One by one the aged pioneers are passing away. Those who braved the forests of this County of Grey some 60 or 65 years ago are passing swiftly by. In giving a backward look we find that large families who entered the woods of Artemesia and Glenelg away back in the early 60's with fathers and mothers in the prime of life. Now the children at the aged people.

Edge Hill Corr: The McGillivray threshing machine was again here last week which finishes the threshings in this part.

Hopeville Corr: Mr E. Hockridge has his fine new hall nearly completed, in spite of the very inclement weather and busy summer.

Holstein Corr: Mr and Mrs Henry Hiscock who have been living in the West for the past year and a half returned to Holstein last week and are now getting settled in their new home which they purchased from Mrs. Philp, Sr.

Mr Wm Nelson of the 16th con. has sold his farm to Mr Walter Ferguson of Normanby.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs. Peter Mutch, Nov. 24th, when their eldest daughter, Jean Grant was united in marriage to Mr William J. Crispin, by their pastor, Rev. Dr. Marsh.

Don't Matter. The young couple were gazing into each other's eyes and sighing soulfully. Suddenly a thought occurred to Jock.

"Ye ken, Maggie, lass," he murmured, "I'm no' much tae look at."

"Aye," agreed Maggie, but ye'll be out at work most o' the day."

PARADOXICAL. "Your English language," sighed the young Frenchman, "will drive me mad!"

"What's worrying you now, Pierre?" asked his British friend.

"Yesterday my English employer he said to me, 'Do not waste the electricity, please. I do not want to have a heavy light bill!'"

THOSE FEATHERS. When certain soldiers from the Antipodes were in England, a woman was heard to say to another:

"There goes one of them Australians." "How do you know?" "You can tell by the kangaroo feathers in his hat."

The lesson was on the power and effect of wind.

"As I was going to school today," said the very pretty teacher, "the bus door opened, and something came softly and kissed me on the cheek. Can you tell me what it was?"

"The conductor!" came the prompt and unanimous reply.
