Victoria Celebrates Old-Fashioned Christmas

The yuletide revelry, the Wassail Bowl and burning the Yule Log in ceremonious old-English style are highlights of the yuletide celebrations, which every year at Victoria, B.C., which is known throughout the continent as "the winter capital of Canada" and green playground. The world-famous, ivy-covered Empress Hotel is headquarters for Vancouver's most enthusiastic Christmas celebration. Visitors come from all parts of Canada and the United States for the indoor festi-ivities and the outdoor entertainment which includes such warm-weather sports as golf, riding or hiking through the interesting countryside, tennis, boating or trout. Although there are yuletide celebrations every day of Christmas Week, with a grand New Year's Eve ball as a finale, the most picturesque of the festivities in the Empress Hotel is on Christmas Day. In a setting that looks for all the world like a wood-cut illustration of Merrie England in
