GIVE THE LITTLE BOYS A CHANCE. Here we are! don't leave us out Just because we're little boys; Though we're not so bold and stout, In the world we make a noise. You're a year or two ahead, But we step by step advance: All the world's before you spread— Give the little boys a chance!

Never slight us in your play— You were once as small as we: We'll be big, like you, some day, Then perhaps our power you'll see. We will meet you when we've grown. With a brave and fearless glance; Don't think all the world's your own-Give the little boys a chance.
