The population of Napanee has decreased 234 in the last year, being now 3,127. An old resident of Beaverton, Mr. Eneas Cameron, died suddenly last week. Building operations are lively in Listowel this spring. A fine school-house is among the new erections. Two little children of Mr. William Eady, of Horton, were poisoned by eating stramonium seeds. The Welland Telegraph announces the death of Mr. Didwell Dell, of Crowland Township, from the effects of eating wild parsnips. Much snow is reported in the Gulf of St. Lawrence district. A foot of snow also fell on Tuesday week between Sussex and Sackville, N.B. The Windsor authorities have offered $200 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who murdered Mary Wartman. At the dog show at Gilmore's garden, New York, on Thursday, the setter dog Paris, from Strathroy, won the silver cup for the best dog in the show. A farmer, living not more than a mile and a half from Brooklin, borrowed $75 to buy clover seed, and two days after he had bought and taken it home, it was stolen from his barn. The Thunder Bay Sentinel laments the scarcity of female help in that locality. Girls are getting ten dollars to fifteen dollars per month. The matrimonial outlook is spoken of as good. The Philadelphia Permanent Exhibition was formally opened by the President on Thursday. After the ceremonies Gen. Grant was suddenly taken with fever and ague, and had to be conveyed to the residence of a friend. William Noble, a grocer living on Queen street Toronto, committed suicide on Saturday by hanging himself in a shed on the lake shore road. He was suffering from insanity and had been an inmate of the Provincial Asylum. Brantford's population this year is 10,472, an increase of 1,948 from 1876. Its total assessment is $3,393,950, an increase of $195,980. Ingersoll's population is 5,015, an increase of 106, and its total assessment, $1,093,768, an increase of $28,608. Mr. Wilnot's efforts at stocking the Saugenee River with salmon ova would appear to have been successful. That gentleman has received from Mount Forest a young salmon about eight inches long which was taken a few days ago in a branch of the Saugenee. Trouble is anticipated at Salt Lake City. One Sunday lately Brigham Young made an inflammatory address to the Saints, and gave the Gentiles to understand that if they wanted blood they should have plenty of it. Discreet Gentiles are preparing to remove. Says the Chatham Planet:—Time and again during the past two years we have seen gold that had been picked up on the Lake Erie beach, in Raleigh and gave but little heed to it. Last week pieces were found, some weighing as high as one dollar. It would be strange if the county of Kent were to turn out rich in auriferous deposits. Difficulties are reported to have arisen between the British and French Governments on the question of the Newfoundland fisheries, the particular point involved being the right of French fishermen to take herring off the coast, which the British Government supports the Governor of the island in denying. An interchange of unsatisfactory diplomatic notes has taken place in consequence. A woman has lately been found in a secluded cave near Udino, in Italy, who had been imprisoned there thirty-three years. In 1844 she became attached to an Austrian officer, but her father, a violent hater of the Austrians, who, at that time, were in possession of that part of Italy where he resided, refused his consent to a marriage. The girl stated that she would then marry without his permission. He dissuaded his anger, and during a walk in which he accompanied her, he induced her to descend into the cave with him by means of a rope ladder, with a view of examining it. He was the first to ascend to the surface, and, withdrawing the ladder, left her. She was kept regularly supplied with food and clothing. At her father's death, her sister, whose hatred toward the Austrians was equally great, continued the imprisonment. The unfortunate woman, on her liberation, had a complexion of death-like pallor, caused by the darkness in which she had long lived, and her voice had departed, through constant cries for help during the early part of her sequestration. She could speak only in a hoarse whisper. Do you ever think how little it takes to stain their characters? A small drop of ink is a very small thing, yet dropped into a tumbler of clear water, it blackens the whole; and so the first oath, the first lie, the first glass, they seem very trivial, yet they lay a dark stain upon the character. Look out for the first stain. VEST SVENNER.—A renowned sportsman was once boasting of his infallible skill in finding a hare. "If I were a hare," said a Quaker who was present, "I would take my seat in a place where I should be sure of not being disturbed by thee from the last of January to the last day of December." "Why, where would you go?" "Into thy study."

The man at the wheel has a stern duty to perform. "Excuse me, madame, but I should like to ask why you look at me so savagely," said a gentleman to a lady at a party. "Oh! I beg pardon, sir; I took you for my husband." Rev. W. H. Murray, when asked to tell what the charities such as the Kings of Judah used were like, said they resembled modern horse-cars in one respect—"people rode in them standing." A country paper has this libellous paragraph:—"Philadelphia has a musical association that is over fifty years old. One or two of the young ladies have belonged to it ever since it was organized." "I'm afraid you'll be late at the party," said an old lady to her stylish granddaughter, who replied, "Oh, you dear grand-mother, don't you know that in our fashionable set nobody ever goes to a party till everybody gets there?" At the opening exercises of Abbot Academy, Andover, Mass. Professor Smith told the young ladies that while he was not "prepared to send them forth as captains in the social ship, there would never be any difficulty in their finding situations as first mates." An old man had two sons, the one a minister and the other a doctor. He was proud of them, and one day he said to a friend, "Had I kept one o' my sons was guano to be a medical man and the other a clergyman, I wad never have haen auld Jenny Cosh for their mither." Some one has written to the papers proposing that Chinese maidservants should be introduced at the North as well as Chinese men laborers. The difficulty as to language would be easily got over, for there can hardly be a household without an expensively obtained familiarity with broken China. A coach passing along a country road had nearly run over a servant girl, when the coachman cried out, "Take care, Sally!" The girl, without attempting to escape the danger, looked up at the coachman with an air of offended pride and said, "It isn't Sally, or any low, vulgar and common stuff—it's Amelia Ann." A gentleman in Virginia City, whose Chinese cook left him, was unable to retain any of numerous "Johns" for over a day, until he induced one of them to explain that some apparently meaningless strips of red paper on the kitchen-wall contained the Chinese inscription: "Boss women long time tongue. Muchee jaw, jaw." It is related of Dr. Barrow,—who was so exhaustive a preacher that he spun his sermons to great length—that he once somewhat sharply rebuked one of his parishioners for being asleep during a special discourse he had delivered. The friend defended himself, insisting that that was awake all the time. "Then," said the Doctor, with an air of one sure of making his point, "tell me what the sermon was about." The happy response, "About one hour too long," ended the colloquy. NO RISK. Thomas' Electric Oil! Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold. Do you know anything of it? If not, it is time you did. Daniel, Plank of Brookfield, Tioga County, Pa., says: "I went thirty miles for a bottle of your Oil, which effected a WONDERFUL CURE of a COUGH OF TEN YEARS' standing." Another who had Asthma for years, says: "I have half of a 50 cent bottle left, and $100 would not buy it if I could get no more." Rufus Robinson, of Nunda, N. Y., writes: "One small bottle of your ELECTRIC OIL restored the voice where the person had not spoken above a whisper in FIVE YEARS." Rev. J. Mallory, of Wyoming, N. Y., writes: "Your ELECTRIC OIL cured me of Bronchitis in one week." It is composed of SIX OF THE BEST OILS THAT ARE KNOWN.
