The Secret of Luck.

There are men, who supposing providence to have an implacable spite against them bemoan in the poverty of a wretched old age the misfortunes of their lives. Luck forever ran against them, and for others. One, with a good profession, lost his luck in the river, where he idled away his time REAPERS office. Another, with a good trade, perpetually burnt up his luck by his hot temper. which provoked his employes to leave him.

Another, with a lucrative business, lost his but his business. Another, who steadily followed his trade as steadily followed his bottle. Another, who was honest and
