South Grey Convention Sons of Temperance.

On Tuesday afternoon a Convention of delegates of the Divisions of the Sons o Temperance of South Grey was held in the "Orange Hall, Dundalk. The meeting was not very largely attended, those present being nearly all from Priceville and Dundelk, but was an interesting meeting, and it is hoped will result in a revival of Temperance societies in Grey. The following officers were elected:

President, Rev. C. Shaw, Dundalk. Vice-President, T. Ferguson, Priceville. Secretary, J. Townsend, Dundalk. Treasurer, Geo. Rutherford, Dundalk. Conductor, M. E. Merriam, Flesherton. Sentinel, C. C. James, Priceville.

After transacting the usual business, and appointing Committees. The next place of meeting was appointed to take place at Flesherton, at the call of the President, when the Convention will be organised as District Division for East Grey. The visitors from a distance were entertained by the members of the Dundalk Division.

PUBLIC MEETING. In the evening the Hall was pretty wel filled, Mr. T. Hanbury was appointed to the chair. Some very good singing took place by a choir, Miss. Graham presiding at the organ. Mr. Thos Ferguson, gave a humorous reading. Addresses were given by the chairman, Rev. C. Shaw, Messrs. - Johnston, Townsend, Conkey, J. W. Morrow, Geo. Rutherford and A. G. Hunter Mr. Conkey said the working of the Dun kin Act in Priceville was a success. The meeting possed off very satisfactory, and another public meeting will be held in about
