stains a vast amount of interesting

EADING MATTER,

EIGN AND

LOCAL NEWS,

MARKET REPORTS.

THE

OF THE

makes it an excellent

All who want a good

AMILY NEWSPAPER

should subscribe for the

PRICE $1.00 PER ANNUM

IN ADVANCE.

POSTAGE FREE. 5

THE Department.

"GUIDE" PRINTING OFFICE, NEARLY

Opposite

. DUNDALK.

ne STATION,

tted up in the very best style, and

sesses Great Facilities for doing all kinds of WORK.

ion to our type,

done in the very

AND WITH THE GREATEST

Promptitude

us their orders.

he office is furnished with

W PRESSES, TYPE, &c.

OF THE LATEST

end upon being satisfied by leaving

Parties wishing

OB

of tately made an addi

ring Bately made an ad

WORK

STYLE OF THE ART

UNDALK GUIDE,"

dium for Advertisers.

rge Circulation

ndalk Guide

EDITORIALS.

AND

free of charge.

STRAY ANIMALS, &c., advertised three weeks for $1, the advertisement not to exceed 8 lines.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

JAMES LAMON, residence—Dundalk.

MAILAND McCARTHY.

J. W. FROST, LL. B. fm 37 J. W. MORROW, Owen Sound.

DR. McWILLIAM.

-Dundalk, Ont. ISAAC TRAYNOR,

Provincial Land Surveyor, Civil Engineer, Draughtsman, Land Agent, Conveyancer, etc., Dundalk. February 1, 1877.

Fire and Life Insurance, Money, Loan and DUNDALK. The best viauls on hand.

SAMUEL MCCULLOCH, Prop. RICHARD CLARE,

der. . Remember the stand-two doors below the Post Office,

Licenses,

DUNDALK. Price only $2.00. J. J. MIDDLETON,

Builder's and Contractor's NOTICE.

Dundalk, March, 15th 1877. y-7

The subscriber is prepared to offer his services as Stone Mason to any one requiring the same. All Work done in a satisfactory HENRY SCHENK,

Late of Guelph,

MAIN STREET, . . DUNDALK. February 8, 1877.

DIVISION SONS OF TEMPERANCE NO. 410.

The Dundalk Division Sons of Temperance meets every Tuesday evening at half-past seven o'clock, in the Orange Hall. Hanbury, W. P; J. Towsend, R. S.

THE VULCAN WORKS.

NORTH SIDE OF OWEN SOUND ST., DUNDALK.

JAMES HANNA

Has much pleasure in informing his friends and the public generally, that he is prepared to do all kinds of General Blacksmithing, at the above works at his usual low rates. Horseshoeing a speciality.

DUNDALK Medical Hall!

A constant supply of Drugs, Chemicals, Paints, Dyes, Patent Medicines, and Proprietory Articles of the choicest quality, at lowest prices. Special attention paid to the Dispensing

AND FAMILY RECIPES. Dundalk, June 20, 1877.

Flour! Flour!

All Grades of Flour constantly for Sale DUNDALK GRIST MILL. Also Corn Meal, Shorts, Bran, &c., at low prices, for Sale. J. J. MIDDLETON. Boudalk, August 22, 1877

GUIDE'

Avery Thursday,

At the Office, Proton Street, nearly opposite the Railway Passenger Station,

Dundalk, - - Ont.

ERMS:-$1 per year in Advance, 99. $1.50 if not paid within two months. "63 RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Professional and business cards, per year, $ 4 Quarter column, per year..... Half column.

One column. three months...... 15 COMMISSIONER IN THE QUEEN'S BENCH, Casual advertisements charged 8 cts. per Line for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line for each subsequent insertion-brevier meas-Ordinary notices of hirths, marriages, deaths, and all kinds of local news, inserted

Advertisements, except when accompanied by written instructions to the contrary, are DWELLINGS inserted until forbidden, and charged at reg-

J. OWNSEND.

Attorney-at-law, Solicitor in Chancery Notary Public, Conveyancer, &c. Office and

Barrister, Solicitor in Chancery & Insolvency, Notary Public. Office. - North Broadway, Orangeville, opposite Parsons' Hardware

Barrister, Attorney-at-Law, Solicitor in very moderate rates and on short notice. Chancery, Conveyancer, &c., Poulett St.

University Silver Medalist, Trinity College Toronto, and Momber of the College o Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Office

GEORGE RUTHERFORD,

General Agent, Main Street, Dundalk, ANGLO AMERICAN - HOTEL,

First-class accommodation for the public.

Carpenter and Framer. Repairing done at his shop. Sash and panel doors made to or- THE OLDEST FIRE INSURANCE and MONEY

Marriage Certificates and Farm and Village Lots For Sale Business done strictly private.

Constantly on band at the POST OFFICE,

All kinds of timber for building purposes constantly on hand at the lowest prices. T. B. GRADY, D. C. W.

Notice to the Public.

Corner of Queen and Victoria Streets. Dundalk, May 3, 1877.

Miss Gokey,

MILLINER AND DRESSMAKER

Opposite the Post Office, Note the following advantages :

You can fix your own time for repayment.

You can repay the loan by instalment or by You can pay off the whole or any portion of interest at once ceases on the portion paid. If you have arranged to pay by instalment you will not be subject to a heavy fine if you are not prepared to make the payment and will simply be charged the interest on the arrears.

An average yearly payment of $147 for te. years pays off a loan of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS. GEO. RUTHERFORD.

Dundalk, Sept. 13, 1877.

Money to Loan

MORTGAGES WANTED.

The subscriber has a large sum of Morey proved Farms, and other securities, at the low rate of Eight per cent Interest. Borrowthe least possible delay.

Wanted to Purchase Any number of Mortgages for which the highest figure will be allowed.

Lands Bought and Sold.

Physicians' Prescriptions | Several good Farms for Sale Cheap. y-12 Agent for several First-Class Loan Companies.

ollections made and a General Agency said Dumps, and sat down. Business transacted.

Conveyancing American Hotel.

Vol. I. No. 44.

DUNDALK.

Town Lots for Sale

Auction Sales.

with the Farmers and Mechanics' Agency,

Auctioneering Department.

orders in that department entrusted to me,

in Proton, Artemesia, Osprey, Melanethon or any Township in the County of Grey, at Farms for Sale.

I have a number of good Farms for sale, on easy terms. Send your address and get my catalogue and prices, or call at the Farmers, and Mechanics' Loan, Land, and General

Agency Office, Dundalk.

One door South of the Anglo-American Hotel.

JOS. McARDLE

Commissioner in the Queen's Bench,

LOAN AGENCY in the TOWNSHIP.

The best Companies in the Province repre-

MONEY

North of Scotland

Canadian Mortgage Co.

MESSRS. PELLATT & OSLER,

General Managers, 38 King Street East,

at 8 per cent Interest.

Expenses reduced to the lowest possible

est possible space of time,

GEO. RUTHERFORD, Agent,

Main Street, Dundalk

Farmers if you want Money apply to HOPEVILLE, Co. of Grey.

Residence and address

June 21, 1877.

Dundalk, Aug. 30, 1877.

Licensed Auctioneer.

I will be at all times, ready to fill all of Dundalk, an

HUNTER.

A. G. HUNTER.

A. G. HUNTER.

A. G. HUNTER.

A. G. HUNTER,

DUNDALK, NOVEMBER 29, 1877.

$1 per year in Advance.

POETRY.

SPEAK NO ILL.

Nay, speak no ill! A kindly word Can never leave a sting behind: And oh to breath each tale we've heard Is far beneath a noble mind. Full oft a better seed is sown By choosing thus the kinder plan;

For, if but little good be known, Still let us speak the best we can. Give me the heart that fain would hide,

Would fain another's fault efface ; How can it pleasure human pride To prove humanity but base? No, let us reach a higher mood, A noble estimate of man; & SHOPS TO RENT

Be earnest in the search of good, And speak of all the best we can Then speak no ill but lenient be To others' failings as your own;

If you're the first a fault to see, Be not the first to make it known, For life is but a passing day-No lips can tell how brief its span Then O, the little time we stay, have now established in connection Let's speak of all the best we can

> LINES IN MEMORY OF MRS. HUGH THOMPSON, RIVERSTON.

BY LIZZIE C. SIMPSON, MOUNT FOREST. or attend Auction Sales of Farm Property | Dearest Friend thou hast left us;

> From thy home and Husband dear has God has suddenly bereft him; Numbered thee among the deal.

The eye that once did sparkle bright, The hand that pressed thine own, No more shall gladden on thy sight, Thy cherished one hath flown.

And thou didst love her well, 'tis true; Now thou canst love her more, Since she hath left this world, and you, On angel song's to soar,

Above the world its ceasless strife, Its turmoil and its care, To enter on eternal life, And reign in glory there.

O, let this thought now cheer thy soul, And bid thy tears depart; A few more days their course shall roll, Thou'lt meet no more to part. And as thy Friends shall, one by one,

Thou dost all things well.

Leave earth above to dwell,

Say thou to God thy will be done,

A Friend in Need. Conveyancer, &c. They used to make fun of him at the office. He was a queer old fellow with a solemn face, and what we thought ridiculeusly polite ways. He would take off his young man that does those sort of hat when he came in, and say : "Good morning, gentlemen. I trust I see | things. you all in health this fine morning." And some of the boys would nod, and some wouldn't do anything; but I never y-21 | could help standing up and bowing, pechaps because I knew that my mother would have aid that I ought to do it. To be sure, he was only on salary like ourselves, but had been at R-& B-'s for twenty years, and young fellows had come and gone, and there he was. And, you see, it was gentlemanly of him, I said; and if he was a little creature, with a queer little wig, why he looked something like a gentleman. I said so once to Merrivale, next desk to mine; but,-well-I didn't try it again. You see, Merrivale was up to everything, dressed elegantly, sneered at almost everything, and I'd come from a country town,

$1,500,000 to lend in Canada and he was a city man. Everybody was down on "Old Dumps as he was called, especially after he ha made us that speech about our conduct to Dumps made the speech, you know, and it was Merrivale who had said the lady only came in to look at him. I'm sure she really wanted to know the way to the street she asked for; and how she blushed and hurried out! And Dumps with his brown wig looked to me like a gentleman, that day; and Merrivale with his fine curling hair and black mustache like a puppy. "The man who calls a blush to the cheek of a good woman by look or tone must have forgotten his mother," said Old Dumps. "When that lady asked you a civil question, she relied on her belief that you were a gentleman, Merrivale. When and you did not even rise from your seat.

"In this instance, sir," said Old Dumps, vou certainly have not conducted yourself as a gentleman." Merrivale pulled his coat half off, and "Pshaw," said he; "he knows he's safe. ers can depend on getting their money with There'd be no fun in knocking down an with my little finger. But you attend to your business, will you, Old Dumps. I can behave myself without your advice, and just for a flirtation. I'm used to that sort could have cried. of thing, I am."

"Mr. Dumps is right this time." "Bah!" said Merrivale. "You're from

"Thank heaven for it then, young man, way civil to Dumps, and the boys followed same reason. Merrivale's lead. But I liked the old fellow. When we met in the street, I'd take off my triumph, and took both my hands and shook a specialty. Office opposite the Anglo- hat and shake hands, and say some of those them hard as he said: polite things that mother used to teach me "My dear boy, it's all right. I'd watch- occupied dwelling belonging to Mr. Richto say. And I wrote of him to mother, and ed before and had a clue. Your character and Lund of Mount Forest. Insured man. But, after all, in the office you know what the boys thought and said had its in- rivale, and Stover is his accomplice."

Who were the boys? Why there was Merrivale with his puppy airs, and his way style, and knew the city. And Stover, who used to come with red eves and headaches and boast that he'd been making a night of it.

I was lonely enough in that great city, and I should have liked to join company with Dumps, and walked home with him from church sometimes, but I was afraid of meeting some of the boys, and I never did. But I would bow to him, and we took off our hats to each other al-with my mother, I've seen the sky beautiful and bright and blue in one hour, and life. the next black with the clouds of a thunderstorm. Just that way my trouble came to me-an awful trouble-such as I could not have dreamed of. I had written to my mother that I was doing well and liked my business and would be down to see her on Sunday, when I was sent for into the inner office; and lodging. there-I can't get through with it-I can't even remember details; but I was charged with being a thief. You may understand our particular busi ness, as well as book keeping, to know how I was supposed to have done it; but they believed I had robbed them of over one hundred pounds. They urged me to confess, I was innocent, and I said so. Then they told me that they did not wish to be hard on me. bad boys. They would be merciful and only dismiss me without recommendation! All I could say had no effect. They proved

I saw they knew what had happened. "None of you believe this of me !" I said. "None of you who knows me?"

"Look here, Forester, you're very lucky to get off so." And Carberry said: "Now, come, we know too much to be fooled. It's always your sly boots of

And Merrivale said:

And Grab said: "I say Forrester, don't talk so much, you'll give yourself away."

And Stover said: "Oh, go take a glass of brandy and water, and don't go on like a girl about it."

you ever since you've been here. I know production in this country. The letter what you are. You're incapable of a dis- speaks of machines as in process of conhonest act, and what is more, I will prove struction which will yield gold-dust at the it before I rest. The man who respects rate of $50,000 per month upon a cost for others respects himself. The man who the same of only $4,000. If these figures ly bowing to the others, walked out into of gold which will exceed the great aurithe street with me. I heard Grab and ferous gravel deposits, worked by hydraulic Stover and Carberry laugh. but Merrivale washing. The main question is one of gave us a furious look, and stood, white to cost, and improvement in the art of workthe lips, looking after us.

this, at least; but it saves my heart from I tell my mother?" "Don't tell her yet," said he, "wait. producing country .- N. Y. Independent. Others shall think of you as I do now."

Then we went on in silence. He took you answered her as you did, any one could cost ume of forty years ago, on the wall is of solid granite. cum and it must be said, pretty substanread your insulting thoughts, Mr. Merrivale; over the mantel; and on book shelves, old Mr. Unthank brought with him a brick from tial feast, on roast duck, mutton, and rice. tion to give him a fair trial. sir. You proved that she was very much Thaddeus of Warsaw, Eveline-I can't tell made 200 years before the time of Christ. cigar, and filled two large basins with li-"Mean to say I'm no gentleman?" said fire the prayer book, with the book mark keep out the Tartars, the builders never at- was poured over the resting of Ah Lung ed on the 21st October. So far $923 has had called him Mr. Dumps:

mistake. My name is Adams."

believe he could help me even then.

But one day he came to me flushed with suspected you, and the real culprit is Mer- The Terrible Earthquakes of

And so it really was. They had doctored my books and meddled with my proofs. They made me out to be a thief as plainly of letting you know he was a favorite with as though I had been one, and never guessed that "Dumps," with his suspicions And Carberry, who didn't care about aroused, had played detective, and was able to come to my rescue in the hour of got on well ever since; but there is more of my story. Think of my dear old Dumps ed since. During the same year some re- ufactory in Montreal is described in glow-and I know why the quaint old man in the rences. They were, it is related, so vio- worth noticing was the exportation of a to woman, and was a braver friend and of the country through which the St. Law. Montreal house to Great Britain. Nor more perfect gentleman, than the young rence flows-altering the beds of smaller is the agriculturists fate so desperate as it fop who grinned at him from the window, streams, producing hollows in some places was once represented to be. The shipments of the seashore of Northern California, and And what with shame and rage and grief, the practicability of profitably extracting I could have died; when out of his dusty the gold-dust therefrom. The gold exists old corner came little Old I umps, in his in very minute particles, yet in large quanlittle stuffed overcoat, and held out his tities; and, if it can be extracted without a cost exceeding the value of the gold, this, "Mr. Forester," he said, I've watched it is said, will be one prolific source of gold honors his mother will not do a dishonora. are anything like correct, and if these ocean sands are as rich as they are estimated to lent at the commencement yet they con-He took his hand in my arm, and polite- be in gold particles, then here is a source ing the sands or the deposits must supply "Mr. Dumps," said I, "I thank you for its solution. One thing seems to be set your confidence in me. I deserve it-in the l, and that is that the auriferous deposits in one form or another, show no signs of breaking under this disgrace. How shall exhaustion. The United States will lead the world for a long time to come as a gold-me to his room, where he kept bachelor's wall of China was measured in many places ceremony was signalized by a series of rehall. He made tea for me and served me by Mr. Unthank, an American engineer, markable and mysterious rites. Two Cewith sliced potted beef and thin bread and lately engaged on a survey for a Chinese lestials arrived with substantial hampers, Judge. He soon regained his feet in a The room was a strange, old fashioned at 18 feet, and a width on top of 15 feet. and took their seats at opposite sides. Solon took to his heels and ran down place, like a room in a story-and there Every few hundred yards there is a tower Holding each a burning taper, they opened was a miniature of a young lady in the 24 feet square, and from 20 to 25 feet high. the baskets and proceeded to hold a solcalf-bound volumes-Fielding's Amelia, the wall, which is supposed to have been These disposed of, each Chinaman lit a you all of them; and on a stand near the In building this immense stone fence to oner-apparently whiskey. Part of this And it was not until we had done tea that save expense. For 1,300 miles the wall usual fashion. Both then rose "salaamed" he said to me very apologetically, after I goes over plain and mountains, and every thrice above the grave, and left, the whole "Mr. Forester excuse me, but I am not and the rest of the structure solid masonry. minutes. The stone, though small, is a named Dumps. That is the name by which In some places the wall is built smooth up tasteful one, and from bottom to top is in the young men at the store consider it witty against the bank, or canons, or precipices, scribed in blue Chinese letters with the to call me. I confess I could not see the where there is a sheer descent of 1,000 feet. name of the deceased, and the da te, accordold bag of bones like that. I could do it wit; but it rather hurt them than me. I Small streams are arched over, but in the saw by your manner that you had made a large streams the wall runs to the water's he died edge, and a tower is built on each side. On I was so ashamed of having used the the top of the wall there are breastworks that ain't the first woman that's come in nickname, innocently, as I did it, that I or defences, facing in and out, so the de fending force can pass from one tower But my old friend comforted me. I think another without being exposed to I that but for his sympathy, that night I enemy from either side. To calculate the should have taken my own life. I did not time of building or cost of this wall beyond human skill. So far as But he did. I said I could not tell you magnitude of the work is concerned it sur just what they accused me of doing, unless passes everything in ancient or modern When a postal card is made the vehicle of never owned it, studiously keeping his you knew the ins and outs of our business, times of which there is any trace. The After that Merrivale was never even half and I can't tell you how he did it for the ramids of Egypt are nothing compared to it .- London News. About three o'clock on the morning the 20th inst., a fire broke out in an unknew what was due to a good old gentle- with regrets that they should ever have for $400. Cause of the fire unknown, Miles History of Canada :"-

own brother-and neither of us guessing may be proper to mention.

Some ran out of our monastry, others re- Hannibal Courier gives an account of a tired as if to die in front of the alter. In fracas between Judge Richmond and a desthe interval between the first and second perado whom he had committed. Solon shocks, we were all ranged in our stalls. having applied for bail, Judge Richmond We all expected to be engulphed during was making out the necessary papers, when the night, looking for death at any mom- Solon asked how much the bond would be, ent. The writer also said, "A priest has and was informed that it would be $500. assured me that he alone received more | "You might as well make it a thousand," than 800 confessions."

time ago, it will be remembered, the To- and proceeded to administer an extra judironto papers gave an account of the strange funeral of Ah Lung, a Chinaman, who died in that city. At first the only mark on his grave was a plain piece of wood, placed upright on his grave, but on Monday afternoon last, this was removed, and a more lasting memorial erected in the shape of a the skin of the left cheek peeled and the THE GREAT WALL OF CHINA.—The great | handsome white marble tomb stone. The railway. His measurements give the height repaired to the grave of their countryman, bleeding and battered condition. when tempted to avoid mountains or chasms to and the remainder disposed in s more foot of the foundation is in solid granite, proceedings having occupied about twenty citizen of St. Catherines for libeling ano- was put under his arm would bow graciousther citizen by means of postal cards. The ly and return to his cellar. He appeared case was tried before Judge Galt, who de- ill, and very thin and emaciated. Occafined the law of libel, and showed in what sionally he visited a rich Englishman, and respects libels differed. It is not a libel to was not seen for some days, but he always address a letter under scal unless the letter turned up after a lapse of a week or two be opened and shown to some other person. and was apparently as poor as ever, but abuse, or slander, or whatever the libel place of residence to himself. He was may consist, the case is different, for then a thoroughly sober man, and courtly genthe libel is open to the observation of any tleman. A charwoman stopped him in person into whose hands it may fall, and the street one morning and told him he thus is calculated to "bring the plaintiff looked ill. "Yes, yes," said the Count into ridicule and contempt, and injure and drawing himself up to his aristociatie WM. NELSON, to say. And I wrote of him to mother, and control in the fire and Marine Insurance Company shall not be allowed. In the case of the sician." The next morning he was found she said that she was glad that her boy is cleared. The firm welcome you back, the Fire and Marine Insurance Company shall not be allowed. In the case of the sician." The next morning he was found she said that she was glad that her boy is cleared. With regrets that they should ever have for $400. Cause of the fire unknown,

In vacations and holidays I got to see A short time before, namely towards should hardly dare to believe that a Monthem. They are happy together, and the the end of 1662 a very brilliant meteor had treal firm has just received a cargo of toa little tea table is set with the old china, been seen both at Quebec and Ville Marie from Japan, the harbinger let us hope and there is potted beef and jelly, and I'm at which latter place the spectators beheld of others to follow. It is but a few days petted like a child. And in my uncle's it like a great fiery orb passing above and since there was a trade sale in Montreal room the old miniature of the young lady behind Mount Royal. These wonderful of, India ruber goods; nearly a quarter of hangs on the mantelpiece as it did in his sights were followed later in the year 1663 | million dollars worth of goods turned by a great eclipse of the sun. The earth- over for cash or short credit, and at satis-And once he told me its sweet, sad story; quakes of 1663, were more alarming occur- factory prices. Another recent incident office had a more true and tender gallantry lent as to change the surface of a great part large number of boots and shoes from a and gave him the nickname of Old and elevations of land in others. It is of food is largely increasing. A steamer even said that hills and mountains were lately arrived in the Mercy brought one > that it made different impressions on our they have met him abroad .- Globe, minds. One lay sister was so frightened that her body lay trembling for an hour | AN AMERICAN JUDGE IN A FIX.-The

Although the earthquakes were most vio- Judge replied that there was another wartinued from time to time, during the great- would require another $500. This incensed er part of 1663. A writer in the "Jesuits Solon, and he called the Judge a "d-d face of 25,000 square leagues.

ANOTHER CHINESE CEREMONY .- Some ing to the Confucian chronology on which

POSTAL CARD LIBEL .- A fine of forty into the habit of strolling into the agents dollars and costs has been inflicted on a office at a certain hour, and when a parcel defame his character"-which the law says height; "I must go and consult my phy-

Better Times.

If we may believe what is passing under our own eyes, things are looking up in the world of commerce. In the columns of a western paper, in which we were not long since wont to find diurnal records of depressed industry sustained by touching appeals for increased protection, we now send a long list of evidences of reviving trade, busy manufacturers, new openings for commerce, and all without so much as an adtional two and a balf per cent. One enterprising firm in Hemilton are working till ten o'clock every night, and selling all they can produce at a fair profit. It is noted that the said firm want a little more protection yet, their desires in that direc-The following interesting description tion being probably in a ratio correspondof the terrible earthquakes and accompany- ing to the lessening need for it or chances ing celestial phenomena which visited of obtaining it. Then comes the announce-Lower Canada in 1663 is taked from 'Dr. ment in a Conservative organ-one that goes in strongly for protection too-that In the course of the year 1663, the in- a large carriage factory has been started, habitants of Canada witnessed many shocks and looks to a large export trade, as an I went back to my situation, and have of earthquakes which were of longer con- outlet for its productions. The very prostinuance and more voilent than have occur- perous condition of a large furniture manturning out to be my uncle-my mother's markable sights had been seen which it ing terms by another organ of "national policies" and increased tariffs. At the It is recorded that the first week in Jan same time a manufactory for patent and Long ago other people had quarrelled, uary there was an appearance in the hea- enamelled leather, with a good capital and so separated these two who were always vens of two mock suns, one on each side has-notwithstanding the destruction of friends. Think of the little man in the of the real sun. Above the three orbs was native industries-been recently launched shabby wig and coat proving to be quite a sort of a crown or arch brightly colored. in New Brunswick. We have been so of-Sometimes, when I lived at Haredale rich, and going down in the country The appearance lasted two hours and was ten told that the present Government has to live with his sister for the rest of his such as to excite the notice of all. It was killed the direct ten trade that, on indisrepeated on the 14th day of the month. | putable authority to the contrary, we lifted up and thrown down in a mass, of the most extensive and varied cargoes SEPARATION.—The Provisional Council Yet'wonderful to relate no human being from Canada that has been seen in that of the County of Dufferin met in the Coun- or animal is reported to have been lost or river. A market for barley is being stir-I was young. The city was the place for cil Chamber, in Orangeville, on Friday, injured. But the unusual sights and red up in Germany, and the shipments of Mr. Foley, Reeve of the Town of Orange- sounds which accompanied the eggs to England indicates the commenceville, presiding. After a lengthy discussion, earthquakes are recorded to have occasion. ment of a new branch of commerce. Mr. Parkhill, Reeve of Mulmur, was ed very great alarm. The celebrated Sup. Of course these are only chance illustrame guilty before they accused me, they elected Provisional Warden, after which crior of the institution founded by Madame tions of what is going on in many directions said; and at last I staggered out into the the minutes of the preceding meeting were DeLapeltrie gives a particular account of but all pointing to certain facts; namely, office. The boys were getting ready to go read and adopted. Mr. Foley spoke at the effects at Quebec. She says: "The that manufaturers are gradually experiencconsiderable length in favor of the submis- first shock occurred Feb. 5th, 1633, in the ling a revival of trade; that a 171 per cent sion of a by-law for the separation of the evening when the weather was serene. tariff, so far from discouraging new ven-County of Dufferin from the counties to A great noise was heard, a humming sound tures, is protection enough for all those which it is now attached, and was ably resembling that of heavy carriages rolling that have the ordinary elements of success supported by the Warden, and the Deputy swiftly over paved ways. Then we heard, at command; and that the temporary de-Reeves of Mulmur and Mono. Messrs. coming above the earth, and from below, pression from which the country is now Allen, Baker, Banks, Gillespie, Hunter, and on all sides, a confused sound like the recovering has had the effect of stimulat-Jelly, and McGhee opposed the proposition, rushing of waves which caused horror. ing the business energy of many, and inand finally a resolution, moved by Mr. There was a thick dust spread around, duced them to look out for new markets Allen, and seconded by Mr. Gillespie, was doors opening and shutting of themselves and to find fresh customers for their comcarried to the effect that no by-law be sub- the bells of all our churches and clocks modities. In a more expanded sphere mitted. The Council then adjourned .- ringing of themselves, steeples and walls they will learn to prefer the range of the shaking like trees in a great wind, domes- whole world to the miserably contracted tic creatures howling-in a word, every limits to which the protectionists would AURIFEROUS OCEAN SAND .- A letter has person and animal so terrified that it was fain consign them, and be able all the betrecently been published in the Baltimore | thought that it was the eve of the day of | ter to compete with a foreign intruder at Sun, referring to the auriferous black sands Judgement. These things so uncommon, home by reason of the success with which > said the prisoner, in his insolent way. The Relations" says they extended over a sur- old gray-headed scoundrel." Julge Rich mond, always prompt to resent an insult grasped his cane, and, descending from the bench; grasped the prisoner by the collar, cial castigation. In the scuffle Judge Richmond in some way lost his footing, and fell to the floor upon his face, when Solon commenced kicking him in the most vicious and brutal manner about the head and face. A gash in the scalp on the top of his head, eye blackened, a severe contusion on the left arm, and an injury to one of his hands are among the wounds received by the stairs, but was soon brought back by the constable. He was committed to Palmyra

> > The new Methodist church at Manito waning, on Manitulin Island, was dedicatbeen raised from all sources, and it requires some $200 more to wipe out the debt on the building.

A French nobleman starved to death in London a fortnight ago. Monsieur da Lally Tolendal was as proud as he was poor. He got every morning a loaf of bread from the agent of a benevolent society. He never asked for bread; he was altogether to well breed to beg; but he fell

TORONTO

ONTARIO ARCHIVES

Proprietor.

APPROVED KINDS. J. TOWNSEND