ANSWER TO JIM.

You want a partner of your joys ?. Poor man! I never knew That joyous moods e'er dwelt within

The hearts of such as you! I've always thought that bachelors Lived like the grizzly bears. And ate and grank and slept and wake With neither joys nor cares. If these the joys you wish to share

They won't be shared with me.

For though to wed i'd not object,

I would not wed with thee. And then it's sympathy you went? You stingy bach lor you! four wants must all be bargained for, With HERS you've nought to do. No! you bachelors are all the same,

"The woman's made for man." That's what you think and what you say, So book one if you can. As for myself, I'm not impressed By all your bach lor joys, And am not tired, but rather proud Of romping with the boys.

So if you wish your single state

To make less dull and grim,

They want as well as Jim. Glenelg, 26th March, 1878.
