Law in Regard to Newsap- churches.

Any person who takes a paper regularly from office or not.

newspapers or periodicals from the post Office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima

GREY REVIEW

Offers unusual advantages to advertisers, as we have a larger circulation at p sent than any other paper in either East or South Grey, and which is increasing very rapidly. We expect that in a very short time to have a circulation of ever

1,000 copies weekly. We shall be pleased to receive news items

Agents for the Grey Review.

Durham, April 25, 1878.

teachers. A very pleasing feature was the like course adopted by the Hon. Mr. Macgood attendance on the occasion by parents and others interested in the cause of education.

-The Rev. Mr. Torrance, of the Baptist in maintaining here free institutions, Seminary at Woodstock, is at present de- maintaining the responsibility of Ministers nominations in the town have asked Mr. Torrance to discuss publicly the subject on ultimate tribunal, that great national in which he is lecturing, and that the rev. quest which can only give a verdict at the gentleman has agreed to do so.

ernor-General to the address from the very able address upon constitutional ques-Senate and House of Commons, which we tions, and upon its principles, or upon the Some publish in extenso in another column, narrative of what took place in the reign forms a very fitting close to the happy ad- of some English monarch more or less di dresses which His Lordship has delivered graceful in character, all of which was exthroughout the Dominion. Lord Dufferin tremely interesting, but led to no conclushas justly earned the respect of all parties, |ion with reference to the present dispute, and carries away with him the warm affec- and the present dispute was merely whethshould be henceforth closed.

-The Eastern Question has not made great difficulty seems to be the San Stefano treaty between Russia and Turkey. ted to the congress of European powers, Italy are endeavoring to secure a preliminary conference, and notwithstanding ried on in England and Russia. The hope Russia and England have agreed to withdraw their forces from the vicinity of Constantinople.

-It is satisfactory to observe that the Hon. Mr. Laflamme has been fully ac juitted of bribery in the Jacques-Cartier election, and therefore is confirmed in his seat. The huge array of charges, numbering no less than ninety, finally dwindled down to one, and upon this charge there was no integrity of Mr. Laflamme. The question was as to whether one Robert was an accredited agent of Mr. Laflamme or not, and upon this point a majority of the Judges decided in the negative. Thus ends the great election scandal which was heralded by the Tory press with such a flourish of trumpets, and which was of so vile a character as not only to "stamp Laflamme with infamy but to drive the Mackenzio Government from place and power," and ability of the men who have come for- since they came to Canada.

Christirn communities have in the past Railway through the Dominion is only railroad in the shape of the T. G. & Bruce other, and this organization will have for through the United States. The map is some respects more than they can reasonarising from this cause, so that questions the eyes of a great many of those who have the effrontery to express doubts as affecting the interests of both may be ap- visit the Paris Exhibition as to proached in a spirit of conciliation and and resources of the Dominion of Canada

Notes from the Capital.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Ottawa, April 20th, 1878. My time having been completely occupie during the past few weeks, I have in con sequence been prevented from supplying the readers of the REVIEW with a weekly report of the events which transpired at the Capital during that time. These events have not been few nor are they withou from any part of the County, and to give it importance whether considered as bearing upon the body politic or upon the individuals taking part in them. The topic that has been of greatest prominence here during the past two weeks or so is the dismissal of the DeBoucherville government by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec and the calling in of Mr. Jolly to form a new govby a very able speech on constitutional services in that neighborhood. government. It is very significant, however, that neither in his resolution nor in his able speech of some three hours durakenzie. In concluding his remarks Mr Mackenzie said "he would join with him (Sir John) or any others in this Parliament polls, but until other causes were shown -The reply of His Excellency the Gov- than were shown to-night in the long but course of a constitutional question which correct. There is only

lic. Mrs. Tilton has come forward and de. in support of the course pursued by the harbour. The T, G. & B. Railroad ap- dealing in any quantity goes on without clared that all the previous statements Lieut. Governor of Quebec, and showed by proaches the town by this route. The any apparent restriction. I do not write were false, and that she was really as guilty reference to parallel cases, one in Nova- Council very properly granted the right of here with the purpose of either justifying is correct, but it is of great moment to the shortly before Confederation, that the ed, which it is not likely they did. But County: it is so by the act of our peop cause of public morality that her mouth course pursued by the Lieut.-Governor of they did more : they, the Town Council or We as a law-abiding people are bound parties to judge as to whether the Lieut .- similar racilities.

-The agitation for the dis-establisment unanimously presented an address to Lord either side are partly studded with build. genia, took place on Thursday evening last, and dis-endowment of the State Churches Dufferin to which His Excellency made an ings which bulge away fout towards the the 18th inst. The attendance was good in England and Scotland seems to be slow- eloquent and feeling reply. The address heavens in a sort of rotund conformation, and the examination satisfactory. In the ly but surely gathering strength, so much was presented to His Excellency in the so that geographically, municipally and evening an Entertainment was given in so that the beginning of the end may be Senate Chamber and was read by Mr. personally the Owen Sound style of con- the School House. A number of dialogues, said to have come. In Scotland an asso- Mackenzie. Lady Dufferin was present formation is altogether undoubtedly of the recitations, and pieces of vocal and instruciation has been formed for the purpose of and was visibly affected when His Excel- rotund character. Whether the profun- mental music were given by the children, making the dis-establishment question a lency alluded to their separation from the aity of the corporation is all equal to its and duly appreciated. A magic lantern plank in the political platform at the next many friends and pleasant associations rotundity is another question, and one that was the chief attraction of the evening, general election, and from the character which he and Her Excellency had found may as well be left to the judgment of the being manipulated by Messrs. Jas. Webward as the avowed advocates of dis-estab- A very large map of the Dominion was Considering the fine land-locked natural lantern was kindly loaned by Mr. M. lishment the question will receive a on exhibition in one of the rooms of the harbour that the Sound possesses one is Richardson, of Flesherton, for the occasion, thorough handling. In a recent number Public Works Department a week ago to- apt to wonder why the adjacent town of A large oil painting was also on exhibition, of the Nineteenth Century, Mr. Arthur day, prior to being sent to the Paris Exhi- Collingwood with no natural harbour has lont by Mr. Henry Flesher, of Flesherton. Arnold discusses the dis-establishment of bition. It was got up under the direction been able to hold its ground with it on at The admission charged was 5 cents each. the English Church from a financial point of the Department of the Interior by Mr. least equal terms. I venture to say there proceeds $6, to be supplemented by the of view, and from the Globe's review of it Johnston, chief draftsman. It is a very is no port on all the lakes where a finer, trustees with a like amount, and prize we learn the whole amount of money to creditable work of art, and gives one a safer harbour could be so easily made as books purchased for the school, Mr. Jos. be dealt with in ease of dis-establishment good idea of the vast resources of the Do. at Owen Sound; and yet with all the ad- Pedlar, occupied the chair during the enwould be a yearly sum of £7,502,602, or a minion and of its capacities to supply mitted advantages it possesses, and con- tertainment. capitalized amount of £183,503,050. This homes for millions of immigrants. The sidering the length of time since its first is a very formidable matter to deal with, "finds" of the various minerals found in sestlement the Sound, as a port, has enough could be wound up, with due re- derful richness in this respect. In the the harbour of which has no natural ad gard to all interests involved and infinite vast stretch of country extending from On. vantages whatever connected with it advantage to the Church, Clergy and tario away to the Rocky Mountains the reason, however, is not far to seek. The Laity, in about ten years. While these land is divided by colorings into its ap- City Fathers of Owen Sound like the selfquestions are being widely discussed on proximate qualities and extent. The latithe one side it is pleasing to observe on tude of the leading capitals and cities of locality, did not perceive the day of their

Mr. James Webster, Registrar for South the other that an organization, of which Europe is given, showing how much fur- visitation. By division and making hob- Wellington, died at Guelph on Thursday the Bishop of Winchester is the President, ther north those are than any of our cities bies of personal pet theories railway pros- evening last. The deceased was thirty-that the highest elevation of the Pacific Owen Sound managed to secure at least a Local and Other Items.

Meaford. ng in Shelburne.

The Grand River Sachem, Caledonia, has been enlarged and improved.

To CORRESPONDENTS .- Several Com nunications are crowded out this but will appear in our next issue.

It has rained every day this week, except Sunday. On Friday morning and night, heavy thunder storms visited this

THE fall wheat is looking well just now, has a swing bridge ought to have a few days. Many of the farmers are nearly at once struck me that it was for the pur oming up well.

FISHERY REGULATIONS IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO .- The following are the close seasons for fish now in force in this Province :- Speckle Trout, brook or river Trout | gallows tree and it struck me at the time intelligent public will be inclined to endorse May. White Fish and Salmon Trout-From 1st to 10th November, (both days in

NEW Music .- "Drifting with the Tide.

Peculiarities in our swings. County Town.

(Continued.)

I stated before that Owen Sound was notable place, and the good folks there are notable people. The more the matter is for whiskey is strong in Owen Sound of the community is again to be outraged was in precess of being settled, he object- level approach to the town specially suit- whiskey are using all the means in their ed to interfere." Mr. Devlin, the member able for a railroad. That is along by the power to bring discredit on the present Scotia and two in New Brunswick, occur- way for this purpose. Of course they the liquor dealing or advocating the Dun-Quebec was in accord with the constitution the city fathers, as they delight to be called, all honor to see this law carried and supported by precedents. The affair, actually sold the T. G. & B. Company long as it is such. If as some say the however, was a palpable effort to convert twenty acres of the marshy ground, being Dunkin By-Law is not really the law the floor of the Dominion Parliament into the only remaining available ground for the majority they say what is not true. a political platform so that the Opposition any other railway approaching the town simply because the By-Law was carried might address the Quebec electors from by this route. The result is the T. G. & B. by a large majority, and must be law unti their places on the floor of the Dominion Company commands the position and the constitutionally overturned. If, for in Parliament through the press of that Pro- city Fathers are and have been at their stance, the By-Law was again submitted House would not take upon itself the re- whereby to connect with some future pos- small, is there the smallest doubt that th sponsibility of taking the matter out of the sible railway. Doubtless other approach- party now opposed to the Dunkin Bill hands of the people of Quebec, the proper es may yet be secured, but not furnishing would oppose the administration of its re-Governor's course was wise or unwise, and Another notable feature of Owen Sound consequently there is no use, and it is not into Collector's Roll stationery services in and remarked that it would oblige the au- under which you live. I found you a love they resorted to other tactics which, to an is the size of its corporation, individually, a creditable thing to seek to avoid giving extent succeeded, that was to speak against municipally and geographically. The peo- effect to the law wherever the law is clear time. There has been a great deal of this ple of some of our lake ports have decidedly and distinct. But on the other hand there sort of obstruction to the legitimate and a Yankes appearance; i. e., tall, slim and is equally little doubt that we have rather earnest consideration of questions of public lank in physical conformation. This is too much law on this matter, and the policy this Session, and in these discredit- not by any means the case in Owen Sound. sooner the thing is simplified the better for able proceedings, Mr. Plumb, the mem- The people here are pre-eminently of a ro- all parties. The jurisdiction and points of ber for Niagara, a Yankee adventurer, has tund conformation, suggestive of certain the various laws on this subject so frequenttaken a foremost place, having occupied a kinds of well-filled casks or beer barrels. ly clash that it is hard to see how they very large portion of the time of the Of course I do not insinuate anything more can be reconciled so as to make them House, say about one tenth of the time, in this than that such casks and barrels work simply and harmoniously in such a in readings and utterances of the most ir- have usually a larger bulge than salt or manner that the lawyers of Owen Sound relevant nature to the questions at issue. flour barrels. That's all, Mr. Editor, and and elsewhere will not be the chief parties The sequel to the tactics of the Opposition I am thus particular because I don't want interested by them. on the night of the 12th or rather morning to be miseonstrued. Well, the personal (continued on first page next week. of the 13th inst., has been anything but conformation is of the rotund character, ereditable to the participators. The pub- bulging out into quite a respectable corpolicity given to the condition of some of the ration, especially in front. This tendency actors during that scene, in the public towards large corporations is, however, not press is perhaps unfortunate as not tending to be wondered at, seeing that the town David Wright was presented with a beautiful to restore principle to the individuals itself is a very large corporation in proper- bible by the Superintendent, Teachers and blameable, nor of elevating either our tion to the size of the town proper. In. Scholars of the Union Sabbath School,

The two Houses of Parliament have providing for future growth. The cliffs on The public School Examination at Eu readers of these remarks. ster, and Thos. Flesher, teacher. The was tried before Mr. Justice Armour or Friday, but as the jury could not agree they been embittered by their ignorance of each about half that of the Pacific Pailway -a railroad that appears to do all and in its object the removal of misunderstandings 30 feet by 15 feet, and will no doubt open ably wish, and yet some in Owen Sound at the nearer stations from going to Owen Sound with their grain, &c. Poor Ower A new axe factory has been started in rotund corporation. According to own showing they are trying all they CLOTHES line robbers have been operat- to committ suicide by endeavoring to get other railways to approach from different quarters, so that if they succeed the balance of the farming community that pat ronize Owen Sound may discontinue doing Thus as they can receive no benefit from railroads they yet move heaven and earth to possess them. All I will say is alas for the profundity of rotund corpora-

Hitherto Owen Sound has not possesses sed a town bell. Of course a town that and has grown quite green during the past | When I heard first about the new bell if through seeding, and the spring wheat is pose of preventing accidents-drowning and such like. When the swing bridge was On Thursday evening last, Mr. M. S. open, and when I heard on Friday that McNeven of Mount Forest, delivered a the bell was to be processed that evening fit to take up the matter on behalf of the temperance lecture at McCaw's Corners, from the station to its destination it never dismissed ministry, and moved a resolu. Arthur Township, and was presented with occurred to me but that destination would tion accordingly, supporting his resolution a well-filled purse, in recognition of his be the swing bridge. I was led to this conclusion the more readily because I remembered there was an upright square post on each side of the bridge with a cross piece of timber on top something like business. It was quite natural to think criminals their last swing than the swing bridge. It was also in harmony therewith to suspect they would swing the new bell there. Accordingly, about the time indicat--Ninety thousand copies have already ed on the Friday evening I took my stamarkable swing bridge was made neither by W. L. Thompson & Co., East Liverpool, speeches were made that evening by some of the notabilites rejoicing over the fact that Owen Sound possesses a bell that

Party feeling in Owen Sound is and has Moved by Mr. Boyd, seconded by Mr.

On the evening of the 11th inst., Mr

Eugenia.

Moved by Mr. Agnew, seconded by Mr. Page. That the sum of $1.50 be paid to labour for 1877, as the same had been paid country or our public men it the eyes of deed, it might make a nice little township, Eugenia, previous to his departure for being lot 40 in the 8th con., and that the

> Moved by Mr. Boyd, seconded by Mr. Agnew, that this Council do now adjourn At the first I am—the barber, and I am to the opportunities afforded me by the to meet again at Hopeville as a Court of JOHN VERT, Clerk. 17th April, 1878.

The Planet printing office in Emtro, slender influence which helped to decide you refer in such flattering terms have been on Monday morning.

Mr. Jas. Forsyth's barn and contents, tism are too common among men at the Closely associated with me in the discharge Arthur township, were recently destroyed present day in the management of public of all my duties has been the lady to whom by fire, Loss about $800. Mr. W. P. Crombie, of Toronto, and Mr.

A little son of Mr. John Newman, West a story is told of a dinner at Mrs. Norton's, purity and refinement, she naturally re-Garafraxa, lost part of three fingers, by where Disraeli, then the young author of gards the six years she has passed amongst stood, seven for conviction, and five for A young man named David Scott, o disco about $7,000, Insured for $2,500.

Proton Council.

Members all prosent, J. J. Middleton Esq., presiding. Minutes of previous ses tion, held at Dundalk, were read and adopt-

The Trustees of S. S. being notified With permission the Trustees and others nterested addressed the Council. Moved by Mr. Abbott, seconded by Mr.

Boyd, That the Come I go int Committee of the whole respecting S. S. Nos. 7, 8 and 2. with Mr. Middleton in the chair .- Carried. The Trustees and all others retired whilst the Committee were in sitting.

Mr. Boyd, That S. S. No. 7 be anited .- Lost. Yeas, Middleton and Boyd. another similar in biting sarcasam. Nays, Abbot, Agnew and Page.

Moved by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. Agnew, That the petition of the ratepayers ed by little Major Scott-"Am I," said he and mean to stick to it, I dare say you will of S. S. 12 to divide Section No. 7 between indignantly, "to be teased by the barking do very well, for you have ability and enlots 11 and 12 be granted, and that the of this jackal while I am attacking the royal terprise, and if you are careful how you boundaries of Section 8 and 12 be between tiger of Bengal?" After this passionate steer no doubt you will get into some post and Middleton. Nays, Boyd and Page. Moved by Mr. Page, seconded by Mr.

Boyd, That the boundaries of Sec's No.

school boundaries be adopted .- Carried. draft a By-law immediately, defining the ha'e been sairly put out. You see, sir, a tators, on the 17th inst., His Excellence

Moved by Mr. Agnew, seconded by Mr. Boyd, That By-lyw defining the bounda- I stood that. And then, he abused the already published was read by the Premi first time, a second and a third time, sign- then he took to abusing the yeomanry. ed, sealed and engrossed in the By-law Now, sir, you ken I could na stand that, ing reply:-

12, that a By-law has been passed by this or I'll just put your head through the from your two Houses. Regarding as I do

Boyd, That the arrears of taxes against lot him out into the road; and that's all I ever 220, con. 3, be expended to improve the saw o' the Radical."-Here the scene is confidence and esteem of the inhabitant

Abbot, that four dollars be accepted in full ment of the actor were highly incentive, that I hold a place in the affections of the of taxes for lot 22, con. 2, for the year .874, forcible and effective; his manner brusque, people of Canada is alike the highest triumph

Moved by Mr. Page, seconded by Mr. mote and hidden means employed by some with the simple discharge of those duties Agnew, That the petition of Mr. McArthur to bring themselves forward to the front as which lie to their hand without considering and others asking for the formation of a important personages. School Section in and around Hopeville be At a political meeting the speaker and may influence the personal estimation in not acceded with as the purposed section audience were very much disturbed by a which they are held by others, and their would interfere with the boundaries of man who constantly called out for Mr. reward, when it arrives, is often as great a

Moved by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. After several interruptions of this kind at the desire to render faithful service to our Boyd, That the Reeve issue an order in each speech, a young man ascended the Queen, to the Empire, and to Canada. If Agnew, That the Reeve issue an order in his mouth like a speaking trumpet, this had a tendency to damp your personal defavour of John Vert for the sum of $7.65, man was bawling out at the top of his votion to the Crown, to discourage your balance of postage account, and $17 for voice, "Mr. Henry! Henry! I call attachment to the Empire, or to discredit making school rolls, striking the rate entry for Mr. Henry!" The chairman now rose the system of constitutional government connection with election, and preparing dience if the gentleman would refrain people, and I leave you the truest-hearted By-law for deviation of roads.-Carried.

Agnew, That the Clerk be instructed to Mr. Henry?" asked the disturber of the anxious to maintain your connection with request The Co. Treasurer to erase from meeting. "Why! that can't be Mr. Hen- the Mother Country. I leave you more his books all arrears of taxes turned in de- ry! Why, that's the little fellow that convinced than ever of the solicitude of fault against lot 31, ecn. 2, and also the kept telling me to call out for Mr. Henry!" Great Britain to reciprocate your affection, E. 1 of lot No. 10, con. 1, as the same has been paid to the Treasurer of this Munici-

Agnew, That Messrs Abbot and Page be appointed a Committee to examine and report on the claim of John Porter to have a bridge erected across the river in front of lot No. 10, con. 18, and also the propriety of erecting a bridge on river in the 19th con, opposite lot No. 15 .- Carried.

Reeve issue his order for the same. - Car-

Political Facetiae.

In our last notice of the pecularities which distinguished the two great political parties we referred to, a sharp contretemps gravity of the reply took him aback: "I between Sir Henry Smith, and a yeoman when the former was engaged in a canvassing tour :-

only your'e such a fo.l." "Fool, am I," Lord Grey could, perhaps, have carried retorted Sir rienry; "then I'm the very the Reform Bill; but he is an old man man to represent you." This diamond and when he gives up he will certainly be shaft of wit went to the farmer's heart, and succeeded by one who has every requisite with a loud guffa he promised his vote. for the position, in the prime of life and Moved by Mr. Middleton, seconded by This is certainly severe; but severe as it fame, of old blood, high rank, great fortune is, our sympathy and judgment are with and great ability. Once in power, there is the speaker in his retort. Let us give you nothing to prevent him holding office as imation against Hastings, he was interrupt- like him. If you are going into politics outburst of the great orator, let us enter- at last. But you must put all these foolish tain you with an instance of the serio- notions out of your head; they won't do at coach, Basil Hall found himself opposite to did not see into the future Yeas, Page and Boyd. Nays, Agnew, Ab- a good-humoured jolly Dandie Dinmont bot and Middleton. Committee arose. looking person, with whom he entered into Council resumed business, the Reeve in conversation, and found him most intelli- Presentation to the Governorgent. Dandie, who was a staunch loyalist Moved by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. as well as a stout yeoman, seemed equally Agnew, that the report of Committee on pleased with his companion. "Treth, sir," he said, "I am weel content to meet wi's both Houses of Parliament, to the Gover-Moved by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. discreet civil spoken gentleman wi' whom nor-General, took place in the Senate Agnew, that the Clerk be requested to I can have a rational conversation, for I Chamber, which was well filled with spec-No. 7, 8 and 12, in harmony with the re- was the only time I ever saw a Radical: the members of his suite. All the Prive port of Committee.—Carried. Draft of an' he began abusing everything, saying Councillors were present. Their Excellen By-law in accordance with report present- that this was na a kintra fit to live in. And cies having taken their places, the Priva first he abused the King. Sir, I stood that. Councillors formed a semicircle in front And then, he abused the constitution. Sir, of the dais, and the address which we have Moved by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. the necessity of being a wee rude like till also to to the Trustees of S. S. No. 7,8 and Apologeeze, apologeeze this very minute sir.' I said, 'you'll gang out o' the coach.' Moved by Mr. Agnew, seconded by Mr. And wi' that, I opened the door, and shot adjoining road, as it is in a bad condition dramatic, thrilling with adventurous in- of the Dominion. To win the good-will of cident, and little short of a great catastro- a nation is the greatest achievement open Moved by Mr. Agnew, seconded by Mr. phe; the motive, argument, and deport to human ambition, and to learn from you odd, and ludicrous, we have indeed a Movel by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. curious specimen of humanity in the person to enjoy. It would not become me to en-Page, That as soon as the arrears of taxes of a staunch, old Tory. As suggested by paid the Clerk be instructed to have the you two phases of character, which often neighboring sections, which are not now Henry. Whenever a new speaker came surprise as it is a satisfaction. All that I more than capable to maintain efficient on, this man bawled out-"Mr. Henry! can say is that from the moment I came Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry!" amongst you I have had but one thoughtfavour of Thos. Campbell for the sum of platform, and was airing his eloquance in there are no positive advantages to which eighty cents, being an overcharge on his magniloquent style, striking out power- I can point as having resulted from my fully at his gestures, when the old cry was administration, there is one boast I can Moved by Mr. Abbot, seconded by Mr. heard for Mr. Henry. Putting his hand to fairly make. No act or word of mine has from any further call for Mr. Henry, as subjects in Her Majesty's dominions. I Moved by Mr. Boyd, seconded by Mr. that gentleman was speaking. "Is that found you proud of your descent and in public affairs. me, I go both to Howick (Lord Grey's) -that the lustre of no jewel in her transatmade to feel my place. At the other I am liberality of Parliament, I have been Revision on the 2nd Tuesday of June, Mr. walk in, sir, take a little lunch, enabled to traverse the fertile regions of sir! Everything is pleasant and courteous, your North-west, to appreciate your inexso I always vote Tory.' It was a miserable haustible resources, and to scan the vast reason, but it gave a correct notion of the expanse of your territories from the Atlanspirit of the two houses, as well as of the tie to the Pacific. The speeches to which Oxford County, was destroyed by fire early the fate of parties." The same vain glory, but the natural, the irresistible exclamapure selfishness, and utter want of patrio- tions evoked by the sights I have beheld affairs; but we pass from the grovelling your address refers in so kind a manner. dispositions of such men to the lofty Moving amid a society where the proverbial W. A. Parlane have been holding evange- place in the political world. aspirations of the genius to the highest gallantry of Frenchmen combines with

In a recent Biography of Lord Melbourne every Canadian home an atmosphere of getting them caught by a lever of a seeder. "Vivian Grey," met the great Minister. you as one of the happiest periods of the Two boys named William Armstrong The young man had just been defeated in life, and I am commissioned to convey to and James Whittey, toth 14 years of age, an attempt to get into Parliament. Mel- you her warmest thanks for the good wishes were drowned at Toronto on Sunday after- bourne's frank and open manner led to a you have expressed in her regard. In conlong conversation, in which Mr. Disraeli clusion, allow me to assure you that I shall mentioned the circumstances of his late c teem it one of the greatest privileges of Galt, was poisoned on Tuesday last week, with the emphasis which every young man development of your prosperity, to advodiscomfiture, dwelling on each particular my future life to watch the progressive by taking morphine in mistake for quinine. of ambition since Parliament was invented cate your interests in the British Parliais sure to lay upon the broken promises and ment, and to confirm our fellow-countryhad been formed in England for the purhere. The altitudes also of the two great pects were lost. Many and many a year nine years of age, and was known and remail, with 100,000 feet of lumber, at Blyth The Minister was attracted more and more degree to which Canada is destired to pose of premoting a spirit of union between lines of railways, the American Pacific and ago Collingwood secured the Northern spected by many in this County. The were burnt on Saturday night last. Loss as he listened to the uncommonplace lan contribute to the welfare, the strongth, and guage and spirit of the youthful politician, the renown of the British Empire.

and thought to himself he would be well worth serving. Abruptly, but with a certain tone of kindness which took away any air of assumption, he said, "We'l, now, tell me-what do you want to be ?" The quiet want to be Prime Minister." Melbourne gave a long sigh, and then said very seriously: No chance of that in our time, is "I'd vote for ye, Sir Henry, as usual, is all arranged and settled. Nobody but long as Sir Robert Walpole. Nobody can As Burke was declaiming with great an- compete with Stanley. -There is nothing all. Stanley will be the next Prime Minis-Travelling in an old-fashioned stage ter, you will see." But the old Minister

General.

The Presentation of an address from

His Excellency then delivered the follow

august and authoritative expression of the

The second is the low, ignoble, and servile of her dependence on your fidelity in every motives, which actuate the conduct of some emergency. I found you men of various nationalities, of English, French, Irish, A writer in an English paper gives the Scotch, and German descent, working out following significant election reminiscence the problems of constitutional government of the olden times. He says :- "I remem | with admirable success. I leave you with ber being in Newcastle at the time of an even a deeper conviction in your minds election, and having occasion to visit a that the due application of the principles barber of the town, naturally got into talk of parliamentary government is capable of with the operator, a man of some import- resolving every political difficulty and of ance and not a little conceit on the politics controlling the gravest Ministerial crisis to of the time. Finding him a strong Tory, the satisfaction of the people at large and expressed my surprise that one who of their leaders and representatives of every night have been expected to be a friend of shade of opinion. When I resign the progress, inasmuch as he was a Wesleyan temporary viceroyalty with which I have and a man of intelligence, should be on the been invested into the hands of my opposite side. 'You wonder,' he said, 'do Sovereign I shall be able to assure her that you? Well, it is natural for you, but for not a leaf has fallen from her maple chaplet and Ravensworth, (Lord Ravensworth's.) lantic diadem has been dimmed. Thanks English and Celtic chivalry to create in

HOUSE OF

Farliamentar

Hon: Mr. Cartwing of His Excellenty's r the House.

Railway, opening of a anything upon the company with the I had not seen him dri

After some discussion The House then went at ten o'clock.

The Speaker took I The House went into pitals, inspection of In-&c. On the item for Hon Mr. Mills reporte miles had been explore 100 on the eastern coas and a great deal of inte ant information as to Dominion. After the Onebec and British emounts expended for ments, seed grains, Sioux on the Saskateli tained, the House adju

The House went int Bill to amend the E some discussion the C reported the Bill. The House then we Sapply, when Mr. Bol duties on tobacco m