

Durham, June 13, 1878.

extraordinary acrimony. tached in view of the Congress of the be kept up and victory secured. Powers being now in session.

-We would call the attention of our readers who have a taste for works of art, to an advertisement of Stinson & Co. Portland, Me., which will be found in another column. We have received a set superior engravings, among which we would especially commend "Life's Morning," "Happy Hours," "The Empty son, Inspector for the District, delivered tered state of the body politic, induced by cents of a premium, and still they com- system of causi navigation, than to go to a very interesting lecture in the evening, the corrupt and time-serving administra- plain of their industries being struggling, work and erect a huge fence along our on education, but chiefly drawing the at- tion of public affairs by Sir John A. Mac- and their business rained. tention of his hearers to the present state | donald and those associated with him, and | On this point Mr. Mackenzie said.

phone has been recently discovered by Professor Hughes, London, England, though an American by birth, the nature of which is to intensify sound. The fal- Grey. ling of a pin, or even the tramp of a fly, can be heard at a distance of 100 miles from the source of the sound. The details of this discovery are yet in an immature state, but when perfected, as it will done for the power of vision. This wonderfai instrument reminds us of a certain the slightest degree throwing any doubt upon the capabilities of the microphone. Two men were reclining on a mossy bank spectively, and carried unanimously: under the shade of a wide-spread beech trying to outvie one another as to who could "he could see a fly on the top of a church best interests of our great Dominion, also hear a fly walk at many hundred times of his past conduct by using every lawful the distance from the top of the tallest steeple to the point of observation of these above-mentioned worthies.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

neighboring townships, nay, we are told tempting to introduce a protective tariff. Of agricultural products, that is, grain and in every School Section in the Riding. An That his colleague, Dr. Tupper, a short breadstuffs generally, we imported last elaborate series of meetings was held, gen- time ago denounced the Government for year—and every one will remember that tiemen of unimpeachable Conservative increasing the tariff which he (Dr. Tupper) it was a very bad year, that it was one proclivities were appointed delegates, and said was the edge of the protection wedge, the worst years we ever had-sixteen milfinally when the enterprise was supposed and that now he denounced the Govern- lions and a half in round numbers of dol assembled in solemn conclave, determined iff-such was the hollow and insincere them, even in that bad year, nineteen milto make one more effort to annihilate professions of these gentlemen. The Doc- lions and a quarter of dollars worth, is those horid Grits. After the usual prelim- tor also referred to some of the so-called round numbers, showing that it would inaries there was a pause—so deep and jobs of the Government, and the many impossible by any tax to give the farmer cord the faintest wave sound.

"and sat mute Pondering the danger with deep thoughts: In others countenance read his own dismay Astonished."

silence, and in a few well-chosen words Mackenzie. Votos of confidence in the ask us to tax the bread they eat. ("No, no.") George Jackson, Esq., who, in the good Landerkin as the representative of the the Conservative party are asking us to do. old times had fought many a field, would Riding, were carried unanimously.

of the undertaking. And the conclave dis- on public affairs. solved. His appointment has been, as might be expected, variously received by the Conservative party. Some assent,

THE M. P. FOR SOUTH GREY.

MR. MACKENZIE AT TORONTO.

some murmur, and some growl. As for of our schools and the duties of teachers farther, notwithstanding the unexampled "I recollect that in 1874, when the tariff hear, and loud cheers.)" ation and a sprinkling of the general pub- under the wise and economical rule of Mr. the trouble of applying their brains to find valued at $3,660,000. Now, I would like he. The chair was occupied by Dr. Gun. Mackenzie and his colleagues order has out means of improving the machinery for to know from my friend Mr. Hay if he is meeting. After the usual votes of thanks been proceeded with-some being complet- ticle at an increased cost to the people. our household fires, to keep our manufacnot been increased. And during these one of isolation from profit. When I fin.l to this, it is known that coal is a prime There is no wonder then that at the business that they have been following is a therefore, in this case, be one of the most various meetings held by Dr. Landerkin ruinous one." (Hear, hear, and cheers.) serious mistakes that could be made to tax last week throughout the Riding, he should With a higher protective tariff we this mineral product. No, Sir, it is not To the Rev. C. Shaw: be warmly received by his constituents, would be placed completely at the mercy contended that it would benefit the counand that votes of confidence and support of Messrs. Hay and Gurney. Suppose try, and no Ministry that ever lives will bers and friends of Ebenezer appointment, very soon be, it will do for the faculty of should be so unanimously accorded him. that one of our citizens paid a visit to To- dare to impose a tax upon one of the first Melancthon, having heard with sorrow At Ayton the chair was occupied by Mr. ronto for the purpose of buying some necessaries of life. (Great cheering.) An- that you are about to remove from your to her wallowing in the mire. The others to "A Baptist" or any other reader to know Thos. Covil, and after Dr. Landerkin had household furniture. In the event of not other principal item is that of salt. Of present field of labour, would most reheld on, it may be, very consistently for a winy. After that if I can spare the time I delivered a lengthy address on public being able to obtain a good article at a that article we imported last year three for your attention to our spiritual wants. longer period—and people have of them a may, if necessary, add more light; but affairs, devoting considerable attention to reasonable price from Mr. Hay, he has the millions of bushels. Now we have vast courteous conduct, and punctuallity in the national policy of Sir John A. Mac- opportunity, at present, of purchasing deposits of salt in Canada, and it would meeting all your appointments, often at back to their old way for a while. They desire that truth and truth alone may ed by Mr. Winger and Thomas Bowie, re- some of the other warerooms in the city; producers to prohibit the importation of but with a high protective tariff he is shut salt, which comes to the Maritime Pro- tents. "That, having viewed with approval up to buying from Mr. Hay inferior goods vinces almost entirely from England. But, at an exorbitant cost, and this holds good on the other hand, to do this would be to ion Government have conducted the affairs not only of furniture and stoves, but of deprive our fishermen of the means of the country, as being conducive to the everything else which is bought and sold. cheaply preserving the product of their inseeing our worthy representative, Dr. Lan- Take the case of our farmers and graziers. dustry; and when I say that cur ex-"Of the animals and their produce," said ports of fish last year amounted to $5,874,-Mr. Mackenzie, "we imported last year to 000, you will see that to impose such a solved that this meeting record its approval the amount altogether of about six mil- duty as would prevent the import of sait means to return him again to his seat in lions and a half in round numbers, while would only be ruining one interest by prowe exported five and a half times the moting another interest." At Neustadt, Holstein, Elmwood and amount we imported, and showing, also, Griffin's Corners, similar resolutions were that almost our whole imports of animals cry of the Tory party is the most absurd made and cordially supported. The and their products were merely brought and puerile that has ever been ventured last of the present series of meetings was into the country for the sake of re-expor-Owing to some extraordinary inadvert- held at Durham on Saturday, the 8th inst. tation at the other end of the country; and ance—or shall we call it hallucination—we The chair was occupied by Mr. Rombough. to let you see how ludicrous is the proposal should not be forgotten that no taxes are omitted noticing in our last issue the elec- The chairman having stated the object of to put a protective duty on animals and legitimate but 'such as are paid to the tion of our fellow-townsman, George Jack- the meeting and introduced Dr. Lander- their products I have but to mention that the proper administration of public affairs, son, Esq., as candidate for the representa- kin as an earnest supporter of good gov- while there were exported 159,573 sheep tion of this riding of the House of Com- ernment, Dr. Landerkin proceeded to ad- last year from Ontario to the United and that privileges conferred upon any mons at the approaching general election. dress the meeting upon the political ques- States we only imported seven sheep alto-This notable event occurred on the 30th tions of the day, dealing specially with the gether from that country. (Laughter.) of all others, is vicious in principle and inult. On that day at 12 o'clock, noon, pre- cry of protection which was at present so And yet the protectionist wants to tax jurious to the best interests of the peocisely, the great Conservative party of loudly talked about by the Tory party, for these seven sheep to as great an extent as South Grey met in Pow-Wow. During no other object than party purposes. He the Americans tax our 159 and odd thousthe past twelve months there has been a said that in the event of Sir John getting ands. (Laughter.) This is the way they great deal of canvassing going on in the into power he would never think of at- propose that we should enrich ourselves. mornings since Wednesday, last week. ment for not introducing a protective tar- lars worth. But then we exported of ways in which the Opposition endeavored larger price for his produce than he now light had quite disappeared. THE roads between here and Flesherto rough state; but when the stone which is laid on them is broken, it will make a to hinder the progress of public business. receives. Let us assume for a moment WE notice that some of the sidewalks Dr. Landerkin concluded an able address that by taxing foreign grain or flour we in the lower town are in a bad state at the by paying a very high compliment to su- could keep it out of this country, is it pospresent time. It would be wise to se perior statesmanship of the Hon. Alex. sible the workingmen of Toronto would that they are repaired at once, or else there will likely be a case of damages for a their gallant chieftain, Government of Mr. Mackenzie, and in Dr. Yet, sir, that is exactly what the leaders of broken limb against the Corporation. "A stitch in time saves nine." KICKED BY A HORSE.—On Saturday last be again their standard-bearer to lead J. H. Hunter, Esq., M. P. P., being calthem on to "death or victory." He searce led upon, made a short speech showing the raise the price it would be done at the exham, in attempting to put a polk on a connection, and the matter is both of Goderich, went for a sail Tue day

The searce led upon, made a short speech showing the raise the price it would be done at the exham, in attempting to put a polk on a connection, and the matter is both of Goderich, went for a sail Tue day

The searce led upon, made a short speech showing the raise the price it would be done at the exham, in attempting to put a polk on a connection, and the matter is both of Goderich, went for a sail Tue day They say that if flour was taxed it would had finished when such a murmur of aphad finished when such a murmur of aplinjurious effects of a protective tariff to the pense of the poor man who has to puryoung horse, received a very severe kick
Hamilton and North-Western Railway.

The back but at the back but have not been seen sugar trade as well as other branches of inchase it. (Hear, hear.) Sir John Macin the back, but as the beast was not shod
A painter named Thos. Breadon, aged please allow the "Rev. Mr. Bethune" a since. The boat was found on its side. The question being put, was carried unan- being carried by acclamation, the meeting deficient harvest our own producers should to say he is improving.

upon among an enlightened people.

Local and Other Items.

THE usual Monthly Fair will be held

On Saturday evening, June 1st, we this town on Tuesday next.

imously, nem con. Mr. Jackson in reply dispersed. Owing to the bad state of the reap the advantage of such prices as could | THE London Conference of the Methosaid that although the way was long and weather Dr. Landerkin found it impossi- be imposed by the levying of a duty on dist Church was held in St. Thomas last hard, and quite a herculean work to dis- ble to visit Traveston as advertised, but foreign breadstuffs. That is that our buy- week. Rev. E. B. Rychman, of Guelph, Maxwell. lodge the enemy, still, as he hoped to en- he will take an early opportunity of ad- ers of bread should be compelled to pay was elected President. The Rev. Joseph Priceville. joy the honour he would risk the hazard dressing the electors in that neighborhood high prices or starve. Let us shut out Deacon and V. H. Emary are appointed these foreign products and get as much as to Holstein, and Rev. J. Ruggin to Mount we can, by consuming our own, and that Forest. The Toronto Conference is in is equivalent to saying that as a matter of session at present in Toronto. public policy it is right to tax the very | PRICEVILLE. - The usual Monthly Fair No one who reads the able speech de- bread the poor man eats, the coal he burns, will be held in this village on Monday ourselves we regret that a gentleman of livered by the Premier the other day to and the oil he consumes. (Hear, hear.) next. On Dominion Day a grand time Mr. Jackson's years should be thus forced the workingmen of Toronto, can fail to see I will now give you an extract from a re- will be afforded, and prizes amounting to by the exigencies of party to leave the that the policy of Pretection, which is so turn which was not published to show shout $100 will be given for races and The Hon We Blake her send again embark upon loudly talked about at present by the lead- what the result of last year's harvest games, and no doubt the 11th anniversary -The Hon. Mr. Blake has agreed to the stormy sea of a political campaign, ers of the Tory party, is hollow in the erbecome the candidate of the Liberal party especially when nothing but certain ship- treme, and is at the same time unworthy for some years, though not so productive a letter day for Priceville. Of course every in South Bruce at the next general elec- wreck and defeat await him. However, of its advocates, and is an insult to the in- one as we expected to reap. For the nine person in the whole surrounding country the Liberal party should not undervalue telligence of the people whom they ad- months ending the 31st of March we im- are expected, and will be heartily welcomed -The debate on the address in the Que- any opponent, however weak, or however dress. To talk shout returning to a pro- ported altogether $11,074,000 worth of the to share in the festivities to be enjoyed on bee Legislature, which closed yesterday tarnished his reputation may be. It has tective tariff at the present day, in face of products of the farm—that is, of grain and that occasion. Dundalk. SURPRIZE PARTY AND PRESENTATION (From our Correspondent.) On Tuesday evening, May 28th, a happy company of about sixty ladies and gentlemen might have been seen wending their way towards the Methodist Parsonage, in

by a majority of one against the Govern- very often happened in the history of poli- the experience of England for over a flour-and we exported during the same ment, has been conducted for several days ties that indifference as to the opposition quarter of a century in favour of Free period $20,857,027 worth, or very nearly with great ability on both sides, but with offered, and negligence in securing a thor Trade, and the experience of the United $10,000,000 more than we imported. Now, ough organization have led, and justly, States for nearly the fifth of a century Sir, what was this used for? We import * -The European Congress met on the too, to a humiliating defeat. It behoves against Protection, is so very absurd that ed it as a matter of trade, and that trade 11th, at Berlin. The representatives of our friends, then, to make use of the pres- it is difficult to see how any one possessed gives employment of our vessels and all the powers had arrived with the excep- ent opportunity. Let local associations of ordinary understanding would ever steamships. We have five distinct lines of tion of Turkey, who would not reach until have regular weekly or fortnightly meet- think of opening his mouth in favour of steamships sailing from Montreal to the Friday or Saturday. There are various meetings, at which all the details of orga- such a project. A leading member of the European ports, while the United States, rumors affoat as to the feeling between nization should be examined, and anything Conservative party in England, Sir Staf- with forty-eight millions of people, are Austria and Russia, and Russia and Tur- wanting supplied. It is only in this way ford Northcote, not long ago said that it able to maintain only one line consisting Dundalk, the ladies in their best attire, and key, to which no importance can be at. that the strength of a political party of but four steamships. (Hear, hear, and the gentlemen carrying numerous baskets, could, at this time of day, in Great Brit- loud cheers; A Voice:-"Would a duty and all in the best of spirits, and in good ain, advocate a return to the protective stop that trade?"). I hear a gentleman humor at the wit of the Professor, who was policy of trade, which, during its exist- enquire if a duty would stop that trade. one of the party. At last the Parsonage is ence, had so retarded the prosperity of the Undoubtedly it would. The placing of a reached, a halt made, and after a rap or Dr. Landerkin, M. P., has adopted a country. And what did that great light duty on grain and flour is much like a two, the door opens, and the kindly face time-honoured custom of meeting with of the Conservative party in Canada, man who has made a road to facilitate of Rev. C. Shaw, would have been quite a his constituents at the close of the Session, Dr. Tupper, say not long ago, when a pro- travel between the place where he lives study for a few moments, when that gentlefor the purpose of giving an account of his posal was made by the present Govern- and the town where he does his market- man first got a view of the large force, who stewardship, and returning his thanks for ment to increase the tariff by 21 per cent., ing, and then for fear he should get there were not long about occupying the rooms years to come. the confidence reposed in him during his for the purpose of paying off the extrava- too easily, after the road is graded and in the Parsonage, and were kindly welcomed tenure of office. The third Parliament of gant and wasteful expenditure of their pre- levelled, he goes to work and cuts three or by the Pastor and his amiable partner. The the Dominion, which is about expiring, decessors? Why, that he would "oppose four ditches across it. (Hear, hear.) These tables were then loaded with the good have thereby obtained that complete freeof the kind we have seen that it was the thinedge of people are afraid that our capitalists who things that had been concealed in the them, and that looks so well at a distance. the last five years the Government of Mr. the wedge of protection which Mr. Mac- establish the steamship lines which take various baskets, and Mr. Shaw and family, them, and that looks so well at a distance. Department," which with these now given The General Assemblies of the Free Mackenzie has done more for the develop- kenzie was attempting to introduce." the products of the Western States through and the good friends who had called upon and Established Churches of Scotland met ment of the country, for the consolidation What is to be thought, then, of Dr. Tup- Canada to the ocean should be able to him, were soon in the best of humor, enon the 23rd ult—Dr. Bonar, of Glasgow, of the scattered Provinces of the Dominper and his friends coming out now so take these products as well as our own too joying the pleasantries that were passed Principal Tulloch of Aberdeen of the late Principal Tulloch, of Aberdeen, of the lattion of the people in so far as that can be struggling industries, as they are pleased Custom House officers at Windsor and contents of the baskets. After some time ter. The U. P. Synod brought its sittings done by the Government than any of its to call our manufacturers. That, as Mr. Sarnia, and on the Welland Canal, and at spent in social enjoyment, the two follows. to a close on the same day. The case of predecessors. When Mr. Mackenzie truly said, it was nothing but the outlets to the ocean, who should say to ing addresses, each one accompanied by a loss formulation. the Rev. Fergus Ferguson, which engaged came into power public affairs were in a an election cry. And it certainly says these shippers "You shall not use our aveso much attention of the Synod, was fin- most embarrased state, race was pitted little for the shrewdness of the manufac- nues of trade unless you also use our Cus- Shaw :ally settled. During an interview with against race, Province against Province; turers to be led by such hypocritical prothe Committee of the Synod, the rev. gen- gigantic public works were undertaken for fessions, or to suppose that it is possible vessels will be returned." They would tleman gave such explanations of his which no provision had been made, en- for any political party in this country to have us place obstacles in the way of a Dear Friend and Pastor.—we here. them, says, "The fact is, no deacons in a Version, referred to, has translated bapting bim as a minister of the Character for any political party in this country to make us place a protective tariff upon the Statute trade that employs thousands of our sailit was utterly impossible to fulfill, and the Book. The regret is that the tariff is too ors and artisans every year. No greater our respect and good-will apon learning of -On the occasion of the meeting of the financial affairs of the country were protective as it is. Why, for every dol act of madness could be perpetrated at a your intended departure from our Mission, South Grey Teachers' Association, which thrown into the most disastrous state of lar's worth of goods turned out by the time when we are expending $30,000,000 feeling as we do a regret that we cannot is well known they have to be pleased; as now related, surely he was very wrong was held here on the 30th ult., Mr. Fergu- confusion. But notwithstanding this shat- manufacturers, the country pays them 171 in perfecting and making complete our find words to express. boundary line and thus prevent these for- nizing the marked increase in the financial have no personal pique or other objections have known what he said to have been eigners from giving us their trade. (Hear, and general prosperity of the Mission— to them. Far rather give me the church untrue." And now I am fully justified, I and trustees in reference to the work to period of financial depression which has was revised, having repeated interviews And in the matter of coal and salt it is knowing as we do the way you have strivwhich they are appointed. The room was rested on this country in common, with with many of those manufacturers. They not otherwise. Of coal, Mr. Mackenzie en to add to the spiritual and temporal than this secret consistory that does the tation," a "foul slander on his hps" which

At the close of the lecture J. H. Hunter, been brought out of confusion, the finan- the carrying on of their manufactures, and favourable to a tax upon coal—(hear, hear) of the antagonism of certain individuals, five years the Government of Mr. Macken- that men who commenced life much less necessity for our great railways, thereby with this purse, accompanied with our furniture of American manufacture at no doubt be beneficial to the Ontario salt great personal inconvenience, and would reform and say that they have repented, prevail, I am, dear Sir, Yours respectfully, token of our regard, the purse and con> partner as well as the rest of your family, ligion that it should? For the good of we remain, Revd. Sir. YOUR FRIENDS AND WELL-WISHERS.

Melanethon, May 23.

Signed by 20 names. Mr. Shaw replied in a touching and elo-tion of his lators while in Dundalk. He man can do according as he sees right wished them prosperity in life and at last his own eves. hoped to meet them in that better world, in the direction of which he had been endeavoring to guide them. The company then separated, all feeling the deepest regret at the expected departure of Mr. and To the Editor of the Review. Mrs. Shaw.

farmer living near Dundalk, had a horse one class of the community at the expense and cow killed by lightning.

Our village has been rather lively of late. speaks of a bright future for Dandalk.

There has been considerable excitement Yours respectfully, FEOSTS have been rather severe some in Dundalk, recently, caused by the conviction of Messrs. Vogan, McCallum, and Carter, for selling intoxicating liquor, conticed a very brilliant meteor, about 15 trary to law. McCallum refused to pay minutes past eight o'clock, and before day- the fine, and was arrested, and detained by Constable Hanna, at the residence of H. Graham, Esq., all night, but just before the train for Owen Sound, arrived next day, the prisoner made a rush for liberty and on being persued by the Constable. who fired after him, turned and fired at the constable. McCallum is still at large.

A new board of inspectors and examiners has been appointed for the county of wellington.

The Wellington Field Battery and 30th Rifles will go into camp at Kinnettles the 22nd inst.

What is Plymouthism? LETTER IV.

A CHURCH WITHOUT A GOVERNMENT. cal mistakes, corrected, I trust, by your 1875,) is now before me. Its "Introductory intelligent readers) in that letter one fea- Notice" or Preface is by Dr. Angus, President ture only of Plymouthism was touched on dent of Regent's Park, Baptist College is this position of theirs. Men do not or- this volume. The reader will find a fuller ganize even a temperance society without and more satisfactory account in them appointing officers. A church without office- pages than anywhere besides. To such an bearers regularly elected and installed into authority, at least Baptist readers may be office, (which is ordination), is like a coun- expected to attach much weight, and the try without a government, sine loge, sine more especially as it could not be difficult rege, sine terrore; is like an army without for him to know all about the "American officers. Christ took good care to appoint Bible Union" and the "Bible Translation officers of the church in his day whom He Society." called Apostles and evangelists, and these Apostles took good care to appoint office- I read from that work, (pages 478-1,) being bearers to succeed them, such as pastors, earefully overlooked as I read, by Mr. elders and descons in all the congregations Brown, Baptist, and Mr. Hunter, M. P. P. they organized.

But I do not assume that your readers are in the position that any one need con- we [Baptists] must be content to Langue organized and that there should be men organizations are the following:appointed for teaching, ruling and serving. Matters are not yet in that position Society. among us. But if Plymouthism gets a foothold in Grey, its very first effect will be, to set people against, not only the present ministers, for that is a small Ministers. thing, but against the very office of the ministry, which would be an issue extremely disastrous to the cause of religion for monthists in getting rid of their Officers The truth is that the power exercised by are affirmed by Dr. Cramp, as one that the regular ministry of the Evangelical knows quite well, to be Baptisf institutions less forward, less gifted, or less ambitious names themselves how Baptist they are our respect and good-will upon learning of Brethren over some of your meetings. It Baptist" on his own admission saw all this and the weaker ones have to carry out the to affirm what he has done of the former, After having had your advice both tem- views of this secret hierarchy. Liberty to and a sense of honour should lead himself porally and spiritually for the past two ministers! Yes, if the ruling Bret'eren to retract what he said—that "Argus must feeling deeply the loneliness your absence that plainly and avowedly places its super- think, in asking him if he will affirm of Dr. will make in our hearts and homes, and vision in the hands of bishops and ministers. Cramp that his statement is a "false impawell filled by the members of the Associa- all the civilized countries of the world, wanted a higher duty to save themselves said "There was imported 972,692 tons, welfare of ourselves and families, we here same thing, only in a much more arbitrary ought to "give him a crimson cheek?" Dr. tender you and your family our warmest and dogmatic manner."

Cramp being a Baptist and a Baptist College There is one evil, as we might expect. Professor and President will I think make Esq., M. P. P., and Gilbert McKeehnie, cial state of the country has been placed they wished for protection to enable them —if he believes, or if any one believes, or if any one believes, that who, instead of assisting you in the duties ing from the doctrine of Plymouthism, that I may add that I read out the same of Esq., Reeve of the town, addressed the upon a healthy basis, public works have to send out what would be an inferior ar- a tax upon the coal which we use to light of paster and teacher, have ever been and every man as soon as he thinks he is con- Cramp from the copy of his "Baptist are trying to create inharmony and dis- verted has a right to set out at once to History," (same edition and page as my were accorded the lecturer and the other ed, others being in course of construction— Now I say that the position of Mr. Hay tories going, and run our railways and you have made to advance the interests of preach without preparation, examination own,) which the Rev. Mr. Stewart, Baptist speakers, the proceedings were brought to of unparalleled importance, while at the and Mr. Gurney and, generally speaking, steamers, is likely to benefit the industries the Church of God; and feeling in our of his fitness, or his being held responsible minister, Durham, laid on the Town Hall same time the burdens of the people have of the manufacturers of the country is not of this country. ("No, no.") In addition hearts that you have faithfully performed to any society for his doctrine and con-platform table at our recent meetings there. your mission, we with one accord, do here duct. In the ardour of excited feeling So any Baptist near, by getting a perusal zie has had no more faithful or consistent than half a century ago, now count their facilitating and cheapening the transport most sincere prayers for your future weland of perhaps slumbering pride and con- of his may ascertain if I have quoted supporter than the member for South gains and their properties by hundreds of of the productions of the country from the fare, and also that the good seed sown by men, who had not been it may be very re- But even the American Bible Union's thousands, I am slow to believe that the interior of the scaboard, and it would, your instrumentality may bloom and bring markable for their sobriety, go out to printed explanation of the subject, which I preach. For a time they go about preach- have on hand, is after all, not contrary to ing and hinting, not obscurely, that the what we have affirmed, which I can show ministers had never explained the Gospel somewhat easily. But at present, Mr. properly to the people. Some of them Editor, I will have occupied all the space soon go back to their sin again, like a dog you can spare for one issue; and I would ask, Dear Sir, that you accept as a small and within a few weeks after their fall they are preaching away again, as if nothing Trusting that your removal will add to had happened. Is that way of working to the happiness of you and your amiable become the rule? Is it for the good of rethe young mon them elves? For the good of the world? We assert strongly that it is hurtful all round. But that is the natural outgrowth of Plymouthism, of a quent manner, thanking the company for church without government. According their kindness, and the marked apprecia- to it there is no King in Israel; but, every OLD PATES.

> Rev. Mr. Bethune on the "Baptist New Testament."

SIR,-As the subject of the following a Methodist meeting. communication has been treated in the On the 3rd inst, Mr. Wm. Rotherford, a Durham Chronicle by "A Baptist" corres- secured the contract for the erection of a pondent in a very triumphant tone and fine R. C. Church in that village at a cost proportionately strong denunciation of your of about $19,000. correspondent "Argus," as dishonest, with There are several new buildings being which also my name is connected, I send Guelph and Erin village by a stage erected. Mr. McGregor is doing good work by this mail a reply to the Chroniele, and in his new saw-mill. The crops in the that both sides may see it will thank you neighborhood look good. And every thing also to give it a place in your columns to an exact copy of it. And am, dear Sir, J. BETRUNE. To the Editor of the Durham Chronicle.

Sir,-I have just received from a friend a copy of your issue of 30th May, containing a letter signed "A Baptist," (in reply to "Argus,") in which he gives extracts of correspondence he received from the office which generated in the hold, where were of the "American Bible Union, New York," stowed a quantity of Oranges. to prove that its Version of the New Testament is not a Baptist Translation. Then 700, on Monday compelled a mill-owner to adds-"And this, sir, is the work which the sign a document binding himself to give Rev. Mr. Bethune flourished in the face of his men the wages demanded by them, a Durham audience as a Baptist Bible." While of "Argus," who had affirmed the same of it he goes on to say-"Now since Mary's by the poisoning of a young man retract what he must have known to have been arrested on suspicion. BEEN UNTRUE we hurl back his imputation | the inquest has been adjourned for a fortas false and leave the rout stander on his night, to give time to analyse the contents donald stated in his speech in the Eastern the injuries he sustained were not such as 86 years, committed suicide at Guelph on word of reply. "A Baptist" says he heard Mr. Dickson, worked for a number of cars The usual vote of thanks to the chair Townships that if we happened to have a to lay him up for long, and we are happy Monday evening, by shooting himself with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented in the Mercary Office, Guelph, and a lissented with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented in the Mercary Office, Guelph, and a lissented with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented in the Mercary Office, Guelph, and a lissented with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented in the Mercary Office, Guelph, and a lissented with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented in the Mercary Office, Guelph, and a lissented with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented in the Mercary Office, Guelph, and a lissented with the statement made by me, himself, which are issented with the stateme I being so the above style of his will be seen ing mou.

before I close as all the though too common. At that time in your Durham Town Hall, I gave, among other things, an eminent Baptist authority for it namely Dr. Cramp, Professor (now Press In my last letter (which, in pasing, let dent) of Acadia (Baptist) College, Nova me remark, contained serious typographi- Scotia; whose "Baptist History," fedition -its hostility to an ordained ministry. London, Eng., who after commending De Now, surely it is unnecessary for me to Cramp's "candour, intelligence" &c., May. show how unscriptural and revolutionary "these qualities will be found to characterise

> At my meetings in Durham referred to Presbyterian, beside me, as follows :-

"There are some departments in which vince them that congregations should be ALONE. Among our own benevolent English Baptist Home Missionary

> Baptist Irish Society. Baptist Highland Mission. Society for Aged or Infirm Bentist

Baptist Building Fund. American Baptist Publication Society. American and Foreign Bible Society. BIBLE TRANSLATION SOCIETY. Southern Baptist Convention.

AMERICAN BIBLE UNION.

American Baptist Historical Society. Then follows five of the "Foreign Mission New were there nothing more than this The Revd. Frederick Whitefield, who, before the "Rev. Mr. Bethune" and "Argus,"

Chesley, 10th June, 1878.

CANADIAN ITEMS.

Caterpillars are devastating the trees in the vicinity of Galt. The new Church of Scotland at Colling-wood will sent 375 people. The new Methodist Church in Galt will be completed this summer. The Credit Valley Railway will be completed between Woodstock and Ingersoll in The death sentence passed on Duncan McDonald, the Port Albert murderer, has been commuted.

Three young men of Thedford were lately fined from $1 to $4 and costs for disturbing

Stratford elergymen have announced through the local papers, that they have decided to officiate at no more funerals on Sandays.

Rev. Mr. Grant, Principal of Queen's College, Kingston, has received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the University of

Two men lost their lives on the Sarma-

Glenelg Co

Conneil met at the Ro tel, on the 3rd inst, and c of Revision. All the Reeve in the chair. amended as follows:-Ad on the 1st Con., E. G. R. for 3rd division of Lot 10 G. R; Charles McKinnon divisions of Lot 16, on the R; Finlay MacRae, asse Mill Street N., Markdale, ander Kay; Alexander tenant for Lots 8 and 9, o R., and assessment of Lot Finlay MacRac, assessed 42, Con. 2, S. D. R., W. N. D. R., and W. & Lot 1 Jarus Hall entered instea Joseph McCutcheon, int Blackstock; Robt. Davis, as E. Davis, for Lot 6, Mi dale; William Davidson a 55, Con. 2, E. G. R., in Dinkly; Thomas Brennan Roll; Frank Fosters as $50; Arch. McLellan, Lat. D. R., name struck off. Moved by Mr. Davis, se McMillian, That the Asser amended be now finally pa fied to by the Clerk .- Carr

Roll certified to by the Court of Revision closed. At the close of the Court Council met for general tites of last day's proceeding following petitions were Hooper and others respect in road beats on 2nd and 3 R.; John McQuarrie and 2 Lets 107 and 108 on 2nd C S. R. Arch. Campbell and for a grant for a bridge at I and 3, E. G. R. Moved by Mr. Davis, see McMillan, That the pct

Hooper and others be grant Moved by Mr. McMillar Mr. Davis, That the petition Quarric and others, to buil Lot 48, between the 2nd a N. D. R., le granted; als purpose, and that the mov spect the work .- Carried. Moved by Mr. Donnely Mr. McMillan, That Mess Dunsmere be appointed a let a contract for building a mount not to exceed $300. Moved by Mr. Dunsmer Mr. Davis, That $25 be bridge at Lot 17, Con. 2, I Dun-more, That the acco Blyth, for printing, amount paid .- Carried.

Moved by Mr. Donnely refunded $1 for statute lale ham in 1877, which he had

Moved by Mr. McMillan Mr. Donnely, That Mrs. Ser

Black receive each $4 us Moved by Mr. Davis, see Dunsmore, That $30 be gra to be let by the mover. - Car Moved by Mr. Davis, see grants be made, except to Moved by Mr. Donnely,

Mr. McMillan, That John paid $78 for assessing, and ? uting notices of appointmen

By-law No. 170, to divide into five polling subdivision times, and passed. D. McDonald, Esq., an

To the Reeve and Council of Dated 1st June, 1878.

copies of by-laws 171 to 177 a the Acts respecting fences Council adjourned to meet vere House, Markdale, when

JAMES BRO Artemesia Cou

The Council of Artemosia a of Revision in the Town Hall After the members had taken belarations, the court open peeded to hear appeals against ments of 1878, which were follows, viz.: No. 1, John W. Rutledge, appeal dismissed; kins assessment lowered $100 B. Roll for village lot; No Osborne, assessment lowered Thes. Duvlop, assessed as ten