In Ontario Sir John Macdonald states that he is a Protectionist, but in the Maritime Provinces where an increased duty means ruin he stoutly denies that he is a Protectionist at all.

A terrible storm recently swept over West Albany, N. Y. Trees were split as if struck by lightning and twisted in every conceivable shape, and some having a diameter of from two to three feet were lifted out of the ground by the roots. Heavy tin and shingled roofs were carried bodily through the air, one of these being carried 150 feet and landed in the middle of Geneva, and another being carried from Broadway to the river. HONORARY ROBBERY.—On Saturday Patrick Roak, a cattle dealer residing at Shakespeare, attended the races at Stratford, when getting somewhat of the wares of liquor, he showed a large amount of money on the look out for such game. HORRIBLE CASE OF SUICIDE.—Last May George W. Burleigh, a man of fine education, moved to Capron, Ill., from Ohio, ostensibly to start a barber's establishment. He was often in depressed spirits. On Sunday he published a card announcing that he would lecture on Tuesday evening, and at the close shoot himself through the head. The price of admission was to be used for his funeral expenses and to buy scientific books for the town library. At the appointed time the hall was crowded. Burleigh delivered an infidel lecture of wonderful power, and at the end, despite the efforts of his friends who were present to prevent it, shot himself through the head. MARRIAGE OF A WOMAN TO A WOMAN.—The Tuscarora, Nev., Times-Review says: Marjane Hughes was married in September last to a person who was known as Samuel M. Pollard. Her relatives opposed the marriage, and she eloped and was married without their knowledge, and a short time after their marriage Pollard confessed to her that she was a woman; that she had trouble with her relatives in the east; had lost her property, and assumed the disguise of a man for the reason that avenues for making money would be open to her in that character which would be closed to her as a woman. Pollard has never given her any particular reason for doing her this great wrong, but it is believed to have been actuated by a foolish pride in appearing in the character of a married man. The victim was ashamed to acknowledge that she had been imposed upon, and shrank from admitting the truth. Pollard, without actually threatening her life, repeatedly intimated that it would be led for her if she exposed her, and so she kept silent until a fortnight ago, when her aunt got an intimation of the fact and questioned her closely, and she related to her the whole story.

The victim says that the woman's real name is Sarah M. Pollard, and her trunk is filled with feminine apparel. A complaint was filed by J. O. Howerton, acting Pollard, with perjury in swearing when she took out the marriage license that she was a male.

In order to encourage its sale in the province of Ontario we have made special arrangements with the publishers to supply SCANDINAVIA'S MONTHLY and "The Grey Review" together for $3.50 a year, being 75 cts. less than the subscription price to SCANDINAVIA alone.
