MISCELLANEOUS.

The United States cotton crop this year will be unrecorded.

The Santa Cruz insurrection has totally ruined the island; the merchants of St. Thomas are heavy sufferers.

The Cherokees are reported to have killed 75 whites; the troops have returned to Leavenworth after an unsuccessful pursuit of the hostiles.

Unordinary placards, despite the vigilance of the police and military patrols, continue to be posted in St. Petersburg, and pamphlets of a like kind are secretly distributed.

The continuance of this insurrection in New Caledonia has necessitated the despatch of two French men-of-war from Cochinchina with two companies of marines.

Mr. Brock, the London sculptor, has been commissioned to execute a statue of Mr. Robert Raikes, the founder of Sunday Schools. The statue will, it is believed, when completed, be erected on the Thames Embankment.

Recently a lady bequeathed to Mr. Spurgeon several thousand pounds for his own personal use. Mr. S. was induced to inquire into the circumstances of the relative of the donor, and finding they were needy, and that nothing had been bequeathed to them, he very generously divided the legacy among them.

The death of Bishop Dupanloup is announced. The deceased prelate was born in 1802, and received his clerical education in Paris. In 1841 the Abbe Dupanloup was elected to the theological chair at the Sorbonne. In consequence of his lectures a riot occurred amongst the students, and the lecturer was suspended. In April, 1849, he was appointed Bishop of Orleans, and was decorated with the Legion of Honour, January 5th, 1850.

An "infernal machine" loaded with nitro glycerine was addressed to a lady at San Angelo, Mexico, and opened recently in the presence of six ladies and gentlemen killing every person but one. The box was supposed to contain valuables which had been blessed by the Pope. No possible reason can be assigned for the assassination, unless, as surmised, some discarded lover of the lady to whom it was addressed took this cruel method of revenge.

The English Government has insisted that the Treaty of Berlin should be carried out regarding Roumania. Sir A. H. Lydard regards a military convention to avert collisions between the troops of Austria and Turkey. The former Power will despite Turkey's protest, carry out the occupation of Novi Bazar when the proper time comes. The Russians hold that they have a right to occupy the territory between Constantinople and Adrianople, it not being affected by the Berlin treaty. The Prince of Montenegro is spoken of as the probable future ruler of Bulgaria.

George Morgan, who died at Stratham, England, a few days since, lacked only a few weeks of being one hundred and eight years old. His father, a Welshman, lived to be ninety-eight. In 1795, as the books of his house in Longcross testify, Mr. Morgan went to London and established himself as a coach-builder—a business which he continued for eighty-three years. But Morgan was a child compared with Osman Bey, who lives in Albania, and who, the Austrian consul declares, is hale and hearty despite the weight of his one hundred and forty-eight years. When Napoleon landed in Egypt, Osman, then a patriarch of seventy, fought against him at the head of a troop of horse.

Lord Dufferin will not sail for England until Saturday, the 19th inst.

A horrible affair occurred at Gorrie, on the 8th inst., which resulted in the death of a young man named McKillop. In a drunken brawl John Sharplin fatally struck him on the head with a piece of board. Sharplin is under arrest.

The Free Press says Mr. Jas. Patterson, Chief Clerk of the Finance Department, has been appointed to the position of Assistant Auditor, rendered vacant by the death of the Hon. John Simpson. Mr. Horace Horton, M.P. for Centre Huron, has been appointed to the position vacated by Mr. Patterson's promotion.

GREAT FIRE IN RUSSELL.—A conflagration at Kiazin, near Moscow, on Thursday, destroyed twenty three blocks of stone houses, thirty-one blocks of wooden houses, and seventy large warehouses, valued at over two million roubles.

HAND CHOPPED OFF.—On Monday, 20th ult., a young man named Montgomery, in the employ of J. A. Beattie, of Stayner, met with a serious accident. While feeding a straw cutter, run by steam power, he had his right hand drawn into the machine, and the hand completely chopped off and the arm so badly mangled that it had to be amputated a little below the elbow. The wonderful presence of mind displayed by a lad named Campbell in throwing off the belt in all probability saved him from losing the whole arm.

TERIBLE RAILROAD DISASTER.—On Tuesday, last week, an accident on the Old Colony Railroad occurred between Atlantic and Wallaston Heights, about seven miles from Boston. It is known that at least 20 were killed and about 100 wounded. The train was returning from Silver Lake with about 1,500 persons, who had been out to witness the Regan-Davis boat race. It is not yet positively known from what cause the accident occurred. At least five cars were wrecked, including the English coach, in which were many carmen and newspaper men. Patrick Regan, the loser of the race, was sitting with Mrs. Faulkner, wife of his old boatman partner, and both were killed. The engineer of the leading locomotive on the wrecked train states that the disaster was caused by a collision with a freight car, which was being switched. The train could not be stopped in time. Late in the afternoon of the 11th of killed will raise the total in the
