Public School Teacher, Egremont.

DEAR SIR,-We the undersigned in the name of the whole school, would take this opportunity of expressing the very great regret we all feel in parting with you as our teacher, and our deep sense of the gratitude we owe you for your kindness and devotedness to our interests as your pupils. For ten years you have gone out ling testimony to your conscientous and painstaking faithfulness as our teacher, and your anxious watchfulness of us both in and out of school. In conclusion we would express the hope that you will forgive and forget any pain we may have caused to you in the past by our thoughtlessness, and that although your able services is ost to us in the meantime we sincorely ope that you may be long spared in your life of usefulness and labour of love and that your services will be always as highly appreciated as they deserve to be. We would beg your acceptance of this slight token of our respect and affection towards youself personally.
