That Bar of Iron. Giving Away, Giving Away!

THE Subscriber begs to inform the people of Dundalk, and vicinity, that he is still carrying on the Trade of Blacksmithing, and is prepared to put A BAR OF IRON into any shape that Fancy or Necessity may deman From early morn till dewy eve, John Norval's door 's ajar, And if you want a Needle made, He'll form it from a Bar.

For favors past, to Patrons he Holds thankfulness at Par; And hopes they ever will le ieve He'll suit them from a Bar When Seas were rough and days were day John Norval, like a Tar, tood many a blast and held his post And made things from a Bar.

And when the times were out of joint, And cash as scarce as star.

He never failed to strike ... Nail,
And form things from a Bar.

But times anon began to mend His Iron came in a Car; Yet still without advance in price John Norval struck the Bar. And when Dundalk began to strive So like the Morning Star.

His Hammers with redoubled force,
Came down upon the Bar.

And now within that lively Town, He has Declared a War; And set the hammer, vice and file, To fight against the Bar. To suit all Grades and Ranks of mon.

No matter who they are.

That want a job made strong with Iron,

He'll bind it with a Bar.

A Bar of Iron in Norval's hands.
Will shine to please the Czar
So if you want an anchor made.
He'll form it from a Bar.

JOHN NORVAL, Blacksmith, DUNDALK. December 16th, 1878.
