

ness into a glorious one, and well-cultivated on that occasion, their towns and villages. I am more making you understand that I am for the well.

des to join with me in my thanks; and we will still further promote the legal, law-and-constitutions whom

DUFFIN.

passed, Abraham has and he says he is with the prospects—how it is possible under very doubtful things is equally an-

tion of your humi-tied entirely, unless admission make right and naught to do, wife the people, he are took in, they genabout it—Now is not er until you draw the line, I can stand for it all about it long.

At Robinson Crusoe
today—so Abraham
old count the miseries, which flooded

These orders are and packed to the
and he was the choice there it met at all, those orders, he pulled in the air of innocence he says: I am the
the day, what can I do?
els bid him

Pawat
ly body a fool but himselfs ask them whose horses travel at the expense of many fall down and I tell their names?

These are the men
and dance to his music
call Father if a man
of hypocrisy dare stand
and equity.

ing evidence the Community learn out of details about the Registry, but no superficial mixed up in it, knew not much. He says it's not for the Bill that did he urge it to the department
now. One of the officers surprised it was Meekins, meaning
I can do nothing."

of trumpet he says

Son's eloquence. If the cause is made
and dance to his music
call Father if a man
of hypocrisy dare stand
and equity.

The Pall Mall Gazette (anti-Russian) commenting on the Ussuri of the Czar order the appointment of Governor-General for six districts, says:—"That the fees of authority are a small but determined kind of evils, as described in the Ussuri, is incredible. The Russian Government only condemns their own swelling oppressive measures by putting forward such a pretense. Were this true, the ordinary powers of the State would have availed to root out the evil; but it is far deeper and more widespread than this second Minto, and it is because the Peasants themselves form one of the classes among whom the revolutionary propaganda has been at work that the Czar's authorities have felt the need of seeking a new, more swift, and more deadly instrument for their repression. The wickedness of the despotistic methods authorized by the Ussuri is not less than the wickedness of assessing who have terrorized the Imperial family and their officers. If the Ussuri is carried out, we shall see political assassination on a scale unequalled by political assassination on the part of the Emperor."

Mr. McCosh (Northumberland) introduced a Bill respecting the right of appeal against arbitrations by the Public Works Department.

The Premier in reply to a question by Mr Mills, said that news had been received by the Department stating that a band of Indians at Qu'Appelle had forcibly possessed themselves of stores.

The following Government measures passed the final stages:—

An Act to amend and consolidate the Act respecting duties imposed on bills of exchange and promissory notes.

An Act respecting the offices of Receiver-General and Minister of Public Works.

An Act to provide against contagious diseases affecting animals.

An Act respecting "The Andrew Mercer Ontario Reformatory for Females."

Several other Government measures were advanced a stage.

After re-sitting the tariff debate was resumed by the Minister of Finance. He dealt briefly with the objection to the tariff imposed by the representatives from New Brunswick, and while refraining from condoning the arguments used, contended that the manufacturing industries of the Province were not unimportant, and would be benefited to a great extent.

Mr. Cartwright regretted that the Finance Minister had not been somewhat specific in his explanations to the House relative to the revenue on account of the various items of the tariff. The great objection to the whole tariff, in his opinion, was that it proposed to extract millions of dollars more out of the people's pockets than would go into the Treasury.

In conclusion, he announced that the Opposition would offer no motions opposition to any item in the schedule, and suggested that the desired information should be now given as the items were considered a series.

Resolutions one and two, were adopted after a brief discussion.

On motion three, Messrs Mackenzie and Taylor directed attention to the fact that the reciprocity resolution discriminated against England, and Mr. Tilley, in reply, said that England gave Canada no privileges she did not give to the United States.

It is
be stopped.

Two children belonging to Mr. William Neil, between Glenelg and Newbury were poisoned by eating wild parsnip. One only lived four hours. The other is still alive, but in a critical condition.

On Friday of last week, Mr. Jas. W. I.

in a. of Hobart, shot a large eagle which was feeding on the carcass of a sheep on his premises. The bird, which was the size of a king penguin, was shot dead.

A matter for the Government to consider.

The resolution was carried.

Resolutions four to nine inclusive were

The Russian Ussuri.

A REBELLION INTO BARBARISM.

St. Petersburg, April 19.—A Ussuri has just been issued ordering the appointment of Governors-General for six of the most populous districts. It begins by stating that recent events show that there exists a band of criminals, not numerous, but very determined, who aim at undermining the State. After referring to recent murderous attacks upon officials, the Ussuri continues:—"These crimes have necessitated the provisional adoption of exceptional measures to permit the exemplary punishment of guilty persons, and provide the Government officials with the necessary powers for maintaining order."

The Ussuri announces the provisional appointment of Governors-General for St.
Petersburg, Charkoff, and Odessa, investi-ted with extraordinary powers; similar powers are conferred upon the Governor-General of Moscow, Kieff, and Warsaw.

The Civil Administration in each of the above districts is placed under the control of the Governor-General in the same manner as it is subordinate to the Commander-in-Chief of the army in time of war. In districts wherein martial law has been proclaimed the control of all educational establishments is vested in the Governor-General, who are also empowered to send before the military tribunals all civilians in their districts; also to summarize remove from their districts all persons considered dangerous, to order arrest of persons on their own judgment, to suppress imperially or permanently any news paper or periodical, and generally adopt measures considered necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

A disturbance occurred at Rostov, on the River Don, in the government Ekaterinopol, on the 14th inst. The police being unable to suppress it, the military was called out. The riot lasted all night. The residence of the Chief of Police and various of the town district police station and record house were destroyed. Two police men were killed.

Mr. D. C. Brown with irey his motion relating to the anti Chinese petition, and substituted one providing for the appointment of a Special Committee to enquire into the alleged grievances.

Mr. Mackenzie did not believe the change would be in the public interest, and he suggested other departments in which changes could be made, instead of that of Public Works. If the labours were too oppressive in the latter, the engineers could perform all the labours, other than purely administrative.

After further discussion the Bill was advanced a stage.

The Bill to provide against contagious diseases affecting animals was advanced two stages.

The Bill to amend the Post office Act of 1875 passed a third reading.

Ottawa, April 17.—In answer to a question, Sir John A. Macdonald informed the House that the Government intended to erect a monument to Sir George E. Carter, as was determined in 1873.

Mr. D. C. Brown with irey his motion relating to the anti Chinese petition, and substituted one providing for the appointment of a Special Committee to enquire into the alleged
grievances.

Mr. Mackenzie criticized the contentions of those supporting the motion, and argued that to exclude Chinese immigration would be to prevent Canada from being a free country. In his opinion, the Chinese were equally as moral as their white neighbors.

Mr. Cartwright twitted the Premier with having altered his opinion on the subject, for in a speech delivered before the elections, he disclaimed against the injustice of admitting American wheat in times of scarcity, when the Canadian farmers had an opportunity of increasing rice prices.

Sir John A. Macdonald replied that the Government would not issue the order in Council until the last bushel of Canadian wheat had been sold.

After further discussion the amendment was withdrawn and the original item was restored, as well as those of pax, beans, buckwheat, also meal and flour, cornmeal, oil seed and rice flour.

On the item of wheat, fifty cents per barrel, Mr. Vallee (Ministerialist) moved in amendment that the duty be eliminated, and that wheat flour be placed on the free list.

After considerable discussion, which appeared to be strongly against the item, the Government whip, Mr. Caron, knowing that it was not desirable in the interest of the Government that the vote should take place at that hour, moved the adjournment of the House.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the second reading of his
Civil Service Bill. He explained its provisions
and the past history of the agitation, with
the whole of facts, the public is conversant.

Mr. Huntington ironically said it was the
thin edge of the wedge of protecting native
labour, and are long the execution of the
labour of more people than the Chinese would
be.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clegg moved the