18 A

OCAL AND FOREIGN

and rapidly increasing Circulating of the

REY REVIEW"

awnships of Glenelg, Bentine F. Egrement, Proton, Artemesia Melanethon and other Town

dediums for Advertisers

ips makes it one of the

In the County of Grey,

All who gent a Family Newspaper

hould subscribe for the ey Review."

ice $1.25 per Annum,

If not pand in advance.

POSTAGE FREE ...

THE

real families for doing all

WORKS.

w made an addition to our e. parties wishing

Work

one in the very

tyle of the Art,

he Greatest Proneptituda pon being satisfied by leavis us their orders.

nce is furnished with

ESSES, TYPE, Lie

THE LATEST

PEROVED KINDS TOWNSEND,

PROFRIETOP

"THE REVIEW" danstrana et

Every Thursday, At the Office, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town

Durham, - - Ont.

TERMS:-$1.00 per year in Advance, ca- 31:25 if not gaid within two months. Es

RATES OF ADVERTISING. rotessional and business cards, one inch space and under, per year, 8 4 Two inches or 24 lines Nonpariel measure Three inches do, per year.

Casqui advertisements charged 8 ets. Line for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line for each subsequent insertion - Noparei Ordinary notices of births, marriages, Co. Grey. 70 acres cleared and free of stumps and deaths, and all kinds of local news, inserted STRAY ANIMALS, de., advertised three had until buildings can be creeted. weeks for $1; the advertisement not to ex- Price $2,00, or the 100 acros along the front of the three lots $200. edbd 3 lines.

Advertisements, except when accompanied by written instructions to the contrary, are in certed until forbidden, and charged at reg-J. TOWNSEND.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, DARRISTER, ATTORNEY, &c .- Up per Town, Durham, Out. Money to Loans

McFAYDEN & ROBARTS, DARRISTERS, Solicitors in Chancery) &c. Office, one-door east of the Merchants' J. T. ROBARTS.

Frost & Frost. ARRISTERS and Attorneys at Law. solicitors in Chancery and Insolvency, Cor J. W. FROST, LL. B.

MEDICAL.

DR. KIERNAN, RADUATE of Victoria University, Toronto, and Under-Graduate of McGill University, Montreal. Surgery in rear of Medical Half

Dr. JAMIESON, A RADUATE of Toronto University and Surgeoused Outario, Office-Next door to Parker's Drug Store, Durham, Ontario. DR. LIGHTBODY, VILL be at his Office, Hanover, from 8 GORDON.

ENTIST will visit British Hotel Durham, on the 8th and 9th of every month. First class work only done. Head Offices at Elora

WILLIAM A. ROSE, Veterinary Surgeon, Durham, Oxt. RADUATE of Ontario Veetrinary High Rose's Blacksmith Shop, from 9 s. m. to 3

F. Z. NIXON, VETERINARY SURGEON. DUNDALK, Out.

Will be at Hasting's Hotel, Shelburne, every Mon

MISCELLANEOUS.

Do You Want Money.

Any Person Wanting Money House and Three Acres of Should borrow from the

English & Scotish INVESTMENT COMPANY, (Limited.)

Capital $500,000, Sterling. Loans made at 8 per cent and upwards according to

No fines. Expenses Lower than any other Company. For further information apply to JOSEPH F. MOWAT, Agent, Durham

NORMAN MCINTYRE,

AGENTS, READ THIS.

Geo. J. Matthews,

Cabinet Maker, UPHOLSTERER, and UNDERTAKER, Garafraxa Street, DURHAM.

Wood Turning,

Watson Bros. Carpenters and Builders. DLANS and Specifications furnished for Doors, Sash and Blinds made to order. A., P. & C. WATSON, DEOMORE P. O.

REMOVAL.

Schools, Churches, and private Dwellings.

MR. HECTOR MCARTHUR. BUTCHER, DUNDALK. It is removed to his Old Stand on Main Street, our the Post Office, where he will be found by his riends and customers.

Dundalk, March, 20, 1879. right in their own localities. Particulars and samples worth at free, Improve ;

Vol. II. No. 12.

PROPERTY FOR SALE.

133 Acre Farm for Sale.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, MAY 1, 1879.

POETRY.

Charity. If we knew the cares and crosses Crowding round our neighbor's way

Held but gentle blessing there,

In our blind and weak despair?

Flitting o'er the dewy grass, If we knew the birds of Eden

Were in microy flying past?

Quivering through the heart of pain Would we drive it with our coldness

But the cheeks tear-washed are whitest,

Back to haunts of vice again ?

Life bath many a tangled crossing.

Joy hath many a break of woe;

Kept in life are flowers of snow.

And with love toward erring nature.

Cherish good that still survives :

So that when our disordered spirits

We may say . "Dear Father, love us.

E'en as we have shown our love."

A Story of Our Inner Life.

BY SARAH DOUDNEY.

IN MEMORIAM

"I hold it truth with him who sings

To one clear harp in divers tones,

Of their dead selves, to higher things."

saying half aloud-

"The tones of old homes mixed with heaven,

The dead and the angels speak there."

That men may rise, on stepping-stones

CHAPTER I .- PAID IN FULL.

Sour to realms of light above,

Let us resch into our bosoms

For the key to other lives,

If we knew the silent story

Best Land in the Township. If we knew the little losses, DEING the front of lots 1, 2, and Sorely grievous, day by day, 7th Concession, in the Tewnship of Glenelg. Would we then as often chide him For his lack of thrift and gain, Leaving on his heart a shadow, mower. There is no better 133 acres in the Town-Leaving on our minds a stain? If we knew the clouds above us

Half cash: Possession immediately. O. C. HAYWARD. Hayward Falls P. O. Glenelg, April 9th, 1879.

A Road, Melanethon will be leased for a term of years. Fifty acres first class soil. For terms apply to Robert Duncan, Thornton P. O., or to the JAMES LAMON, Attorney at Law, Dundalk Dundalk, March 19th, 1879.

Farm for Sale. DEING South half of Lot 28, in the 10tl Con. of Bentinek, coprising 50 acres, 50 acres cleared and free of stumps, the rest is good hardofses. The above will be sold cheap. Immediate

FARM FOR SALE.

I OT 22. Con. 11, Bentinck, 100 acres, will be sold cheap. Apply on the premises to VILLIAM HONNESS, or A. McLELLAN, Durham Farm for Sale.

tinck, 50 acres. The lot is nearly all cleared and free from stumps: Good buildings. This is looked white and ghostly in the moonshine one of the best farms in the Township of Bentinck. Or to A. McLellan, Ducham

Farm for Sale.

a.m. to Noon, At home, 2nd Con, N.D.R., This Lot will be sold cheap apply on the railings of the cathedral yard, and paused A. GLENDENNING. Dromore, March, 4th, '79.

> Farm for Sale in Glenelg. would come drifting out solemnly into the night-air. Just then, the wind was lulled, THE Subscriber offers for Sale, Lot No and the bursts of melody grew louder; and Richard Westyn, listening there in the cold Terms $2,000; -0500 down, for balance could distinguish the notes of an old tune will be given. For further particulars apply MacRae, Durham, or to that he had sung many and many a time E. WILLIAM in his boyhood. Tears were gathering in Glenelg, Sept. 19, 1878, Lands for Sale.

(RADUATE of Ontario Vetrinary Col- 14 ACRES of Land in a High State of adjoining the corporation of the town of Durham, an evil and foelish Self, slain in a brave their graves!"

fight. But is it not also true that he somewell-finished frame house and out buildings and times carries about with him the corpse of gains," said Richard sadly. fraxa St, in the said town of Durham. Everything a former Self, which is a burden instead of "Ay, and the gains with the losses," knew, only too well that father's going out wearing his favorite indoor garment, a and Child listening to a violin; and in Now is the proper time to purchase preperty in and shame the ignoble present; the Dead Self look. "There will be nothing precious to that Philip had not scrupled to whoop and all pattern. It was a piteous sight to see playing the harp at the marriage of Christ certainly be built to Durham next summer. first-class farm, lot 11, con. 2, W.G.R., township than the Self which is living.

Land For Sale. A GREAT BARGAIN.

onsisting of three acres of excellent land, under he flinched at every blast that sung in his Here is the reason.'

Priceville, Aug. 16 1877.

ROBT. BULL.

WM. WATSON & SON PRICEVILLE, ONT.

CHARGES VERY MODERATE. Hearse furnished free to parties buying coffins Remember the place, WATSON & SON'S Wagon and Carriage Work's would sit, evening after evening, with his earnestly. "I am not less your debtor to- went over to the hearth-rug, and mechani-

Would we turn away all trembling. Would we shrink from little shadows years, it is a sign that he needs to be led thing." back to real ties."

looked so dignified as he did that night. her husband to retire to rest.

The tall spire of Campwick Cathedral remember how you came into my little outburst. of a sharp January night. A keen wind was whistling through the streets, driving people, and your own in particular? And marked Bridget, the eldest girl, in a tone the citizens to the shelter of their homes, others came too in those days-good, true of apology. until the causeways were nearly deserted. But one man, well protected by great coat

Choristers were practising within the "I don't think one of them ever got into time. grey walls; now and again a faint strain his eyes as he walked on at a quicker pace, and see the results of the conquest. Those He closed his eyes for a moment, and son. Oh it was so hard—so very hard to into a hearty rost. The dining-room door near them, in full costume, is seen a hunt-HE Subscriber wishing to leave this faced the January wind more boldly than background of the cushioned chair.

> He passed the beautiful old market-cross, and produced a leather pocket-book from wants to keep her roses," added the eldest and made his way into the suburbs of the which he took out a packet of bank-notes, sister artfully, knowing that this suggescity. The walk was not long; and yet, The old man's eyes had opened again tion would have weight. Priceville P. O. when he stopped at last, before the gate of wearily, but at the sight of that little packet . In a little while the two noisy ones had an old-fashioned house, he was faint and he looked startled and troubled. spent, and almost ready to seek rest in the "What does this mean, Richard?" he little pepper-box lodge, before going farther. asked, reluctantly taking them. while the wind made a dismal creaking will find two thousand pounds there."

need was there for this?".

that long range was aglow with cheerful was heard to speak of a defeat.

Unannounced, he went straight into the me a receipt." lighted room, where the master of the house Mr. Lawford did count them, slowly and oclock. He was still sleeping when his lively paddling arrived in Memphis at a was the first to appear on the scene, and was sitting in an arm-chair by the fire. As silently ;-forty fifty-pound Bank of Eng- wite came down, and was met at the foot quarter-past four p.m. His entry to the when he endeavoured to extinguish the fire Richard entered, the old man slowly turned land notes. There was an inkstand on the of the stairs by her old servant. his head, and then shaded his eyes with his table, and a blotting-pad and paper lay "Oh, ma'am such a sad thing has hapbeside it ; still in silence he took up a pen, pened !" began Deborah, in a whisper "Is it really you, Richard?" he said. and wrote a formal receipt.

"Who would have thought of seeing you on | "I have known friendships and with the dead in his bed." such a bitter night as this? But I'm very payment of a debt," he said, as he handed "Who told you this?" her mistress ask- between Tavistock and Stratford. It ap- Trunk Railway Company they would have glad-very glad indeed, my lad." it to Richard. ed. "Are you sure it is true?"

LUNERALS furnished on short notice. friend. The room was not large, but shock to master."

| kerchief. He leaned over to see who it was, thoroughly comfortable and well-furnished. old brewer kindly. "It vexed me for a "He must not be informed of it would be well-furnished. old brewer kindly." thoroughly comfortable and well-furnished, old brewer kindly. "It vexed me for a "He must not be informed of it sudden. holding the railing of his car. While lean- The wood was the property of Mr. Ranson and the bookshelves that lined its walls minute, Richard, to think that you chafed ly," said Margaret, moving towards the ling over a side bridge struck him on the Adams, of Acton. About seven hundrwere stocked with good old authors in sober under a sense of obligation which I never diningroom. back of the head killing him instantly. ed cords were burned. The loss is estibindings. This apartment was Mr. Law- wished you to feel."

pet volumes on the table beside him. But day than I was yesterday. But I wanted cally warmed her hands at the blaze. struck Richard that there was something almost believe that 'my good days are scarlet frock of the eldest sister's own mak- he was thrown on the sidewalk, bound turned towards the fire again, and was "The debt is paid, Margaret," he said, Westyns, and the girl thought mournfully at that time suffering from a severe felon and then he took the receipt out of his of the pleasant old rooms and flowery gar. on his finger, and was consequently able "I den't care to guess what has brought pecket-book, and held it before her eyes. dens that would be closed to them now. to use only one of his hands, was highly you, Richard," he said. "Anyhow, I'm | "Shall I put it away in safety, Richard?" If these were selfish thoughts, she may be creditable. Despite every effort of the

Whole No. 63.

Richard gazed anxiously at him for a moreover, she had long been learning one irritable nerves, and loved the glad ring of emplification of that beautiful provision of moment. Fancy had not deceived him; of the last lessons that Love has to teach young voices. there certainly was an indescribable change -patience. She said a few commonplace "Has father-I mean, do we owe him alike on the King and the beggar, and was in Mr. Lawford's face. He had never words on other matters, and then persuaded anything?" whispered Bridget, hesitating fined to the tune of $50 and costs. and flushing, as a sudden fear crossed her , In the early days, when Richard had He yielded, going straight up-stairs to his mind, first known him, he had been a rugged man own chamber, while the mother went into | "No; thank God, your father went last of the lower middle class; clever, shrewd, the dining-room to silence the busy tongues | night to Eden Hall, und paid the debt in | In traversing the grand grand galleries and kindly by nature. But now, all the there. Just as she opened the door, a full." old roughnesses were smoothed away, and burst of merry laughter came pealing out. The others came in at this moment, and annoyed by the astounding anachronisms instead of the shrewdness there was that into the hall; a sound that most people heard the news with grave faces. The kind and ignorance of manners and customs in dreamy look which added tenderness and would have found far from unpleasant. old man had been dear to them all ;-dear- the times anterior to their own which most refinement to the countenance. He did But in the next moment Richard Westyn's er, perhaps, because they were the only of the artists exhibit. Take the following not seem to care to know what had brought | voice called sharply down-stairs-

not succeed in keeping order, Margaret!" | were admitted to close intimacy. Even caution to arm them with the modern in: "I have been looking at you, Richard, as "Oh, hush, my dears!" said poor Mrs. Daisy realized the family loss, and almost vention of guns. Cigoll painted the aged you used to be," he continued. "Do you Westyn, searcely in time to check another forgot to resist when the obnoxiou pinafore was tied over the scarlet frock. shop-parlour to talk over the wrongs of the "We did not hear father come in," resllows, all of them! I wish I could see Olive, aged thirteen, and Philip, a lad of them all again in the flesh, but that isn't eleven, were not disposed to give up laugh- the blow fell heavily. She could not blind with periwigs on their heads. To match; and wrapper, went slowly past the iron likely, is it? I wonder what has become ing all at once. They had prepared their herself to the fact that even a slighter sheek or rather, to exceed this ludicrous reprelessons for the morrow, and wanted to than this would have had a disastrous ef- sentation, Durer has painted the expulsion

> "Oh, mother, let us just finish this under sorrow was gone. "Well, parliament would have been none game," the boy pleaded. "it's earth, air, "James Lawford dead!" he said, again scene of Peter denying Christ, represents a the worse for them. But they had their and water, you know; and Edna does and again. "He was my best friend; I Roman soldier very comfortably smoking work to do it the world, Richard, although make such capital mistakes! She thinks never loved any man so well. I think he a pipe of tobacco. A Dutch painter, in a perhaps they didn't do it in the place they about other things, you see, and then gives must have had a foreshadowing of this, picture of the wise men worshipping the had marked out for themselves. We don't the most absurd answers ever heard." | Margaret, when he saw the old faces and Holy Child, has drawn one of them in a always know what we're fit for; but God Here Edna, the second daughter, gave heard the old voices. Well, he has left me large white surplice and in boots and spurs, does-you may be sure of that. We are way to an irrepressible little giggle at the in a cheerless world!"

well, the lads are scattered, as you say; and bit her lips to keep in the titter that was Westyn's world was so cheerless? Truly, It is a great truth that a man may rise here am I, a rich brewer, alone in a big ready to break out. Mrs. Westyn looked there had not been withheld from him any brighard. Herd and soft water. This property is on the stepping-stone of his Dead Self; house, while Nelly and the children are in at them all, fondly and sadly. Her heart thing that was good. owned that it was hard to repress whole. He did not leave his room until the using a more effectual instrument—he is "The losses are sure to come with the some mirth; but with that querulous in- winter daylight was beginning to fade; holding to Isaac's head a blunderbuss. valid up-stairs, what was to be done? She and then he came feebly down-stairs, a stepping-stone? The noble past may answered the old man, with a sudden bright had been hailed as a domestic holiday, and warm, wadded dressing gown of an Orient- another picture he has drawn King David may have been a thousand times worthier leave when I go; and my good things are halloo for very joy when the hall door had this man, who ought to have been in his with St. Catharine. A French artist has waiting for me in the next life. It's just closed behind the head of the family. prime, pattering with slow steps towards drawn, with true French taste, the Lord's This was the case with Richard Westyn. that thought that keeps me so quiet and True, he had given no definite reason for his study, and shivering as he went. His Supper, will the table ornamented with Those few solemn notes had awakened in bright ;-I'm very bright to-night, my lad, those noisy demonstrations of delight; but | youngest girl, at play with a bal at the tumblers, filled with degar-lighters; and, him a bitter regret for the days when he although I am a bit confused between the none was needed. Margaret was quite foot of the stairs, made haste to get out of as if to crown the list of these absurd and had been another kind of man. They re- present and the past. Sometimes an old aware that the boy-nature was exulting in his way. minded him of the shameful mastery of man can hardly tell who is left here, and its temporary freedom from restraint, and In her hurry she tipped over her play- been drawn with Adam and Eve in all evil over good, and bade him look within, who has gone on to paradise." she could not help sympathizing with her things, tumbled head foremost, and burst their primeval simplicity and virtue, while results might have been outwardly seen Richard glanced wistfully at the face that feel the wifely and the motherly love fight. opened quickly, and Bridget came out to er with a gun, shooting ducks. - Christian too; a few years ago Richard could have looked strangely white against the dark-red ing against each other! take instant possession of the luckless Globe. "We have all had quite enough fun for Daisy. he was doing this night. But now, in "Mr. Lawford," he said, "I have not yet to-nght," said her faithful Bridget, coming spite of great-coat and wool'en comforter, told you what has brought me out to-night, to her aid. "The clock will strike nine in a few minutes; and you must be going to He put his hand into his breast-pocket bed, Philip; -yes, and Olive too, if she

Boyton's Long Swim.

gone to their respective chambers, and Mrs. Westyn sat down to supper with Bridget and Edna. It was a quiet meal they work write for particulars to H. HALLETT & But he pressed on, wearily, up the avenue, "Please count them, Mr. Lawford. You the girls say that their mother twas sad and both wondered when the household Cairo, Ill., at ten a. m., on the 9th and moaning in the bare boughs overhead, "Two thousand pounds paid all at once ! cloud would show its silver liping? It was. and the ground was chequered with wild Either you have terribly crippled yourself, long since they had seen her thoroughly ed into the Missi sippi, whose swift current black shadows, writhing and shifting in the my lad, or you have had a windfall. What bright and cheerful , yet they, loved har all the better for the efforts she constantly In summer, when the chestnut avenue "The debt was a trouble to me," Richard made to seem so. If they saw through which was laden with medicines, provisions was in leaf, and the lilacs and laburnums answered; "it was all the heavier burden her loving pretence, poor soul, they did and cigars. He took no whiskey along, as were in flower, Eden Hall was a very para- because you lent me the money without their best to convince her that they were disc of sweets. Then the hall door gene- security, and would take no interest. I happily deceived. It was the greatest kindrally stood open, and the threshold was have had no windfall;—and you know that ness that could be done; young as they tem. The first run was the longest of the were, Bridget and Edna had learnt that breezes. Now, the front of the large house | His voice trembled a little as he spoke. | the wisest way to treat some sorrows is was dark and silent; only one window in Richard Westyn was a proud man, and it appear unconscious of them. complished in 32 hours, arriving at six p.m.

Margaret and her children were early Tuesday, From Cottonwood the start was light, and the place was so still that "As to your kindness and generosity, Mr. risers. There were Olive and Philip to be Richard's ring seemed to make a startling Lawford, you know what I feel about that; sent off to school, and there was Daisy the clamour. A staid woman-servant answer- - a great deal more than I can say. But I five-year-old pet of the family, to be washed his summons, and received him as a could not bear to keep the money any ed and dressed. Richard had acquired the longer. Please count the notes, and give habit of breakfasting in his own room, and seldom appeared till eleven or twelve

"Poor old Mr. Lawford has been found

Richard Westyn was forty-nine, but he "Such friendships were better ended "True enough, ma'am; the milkman Stratford, standing on the platform of the fire, but they were afraid of being arrested, Undertakers, we always "my lad" with Mr. Lawford. than kept alive! Why, Mr. Lawford, do brought the news. They say the old gentle- last car, and when passing the Port Dover and took to their heels. The Guelph fire He threw off his wrapper, and sat down you really think my attachment to you man must have gone off in his sleep, as Railroad his attention was attracted by brigade was telegraphed for and arrived on the other side of the fire, facing his old cannot survive my need of your aid?" quite as a lamb. I'm'afraid it will be a some persons on that train waving a hand- about 3 a. m., bringing a hand engine only.

ford's favourite winter retreat; here he "It was not that," returned Westyn saucers reflected the cheery firelight. She residence.

A Refractory Prisoner.

Considerable excitement was created in the business part of the town of Owen

Sound last Friday atternoon over the arrest of a man named Andrew King, bailing from the township of Elderslie. King, who is said to be ordinarily a quiet and inoffensive man, got under the influence of liquor, and coming to the City Hotel began to make his presence so decidedly disagreeable that Constable Pearce was obliged to arrest him. To this, however, King positively objected and resisted with so much energy and determination that assisstance had to be called in. After this he was, with considerable difficulty, alternately dragged and shoved as far as the Police Magistrate's office, where a crowd of upwards of two hundred had by this time collected. Here to-night, although the books lay close to you to have your own again, because it is She was wiping her eyes when Bridget biting, and shricking, like a madhe became absolutely desperate, -kicking; his elbow, they were unopened; and it best to get it out of my unlucky hands. I entered, leading little Daisy in a warm man. Further aid was called in, by which ing. The child capered up to her mother firmly hand and foot with a stiff bed-cord, "Can you guess what has brought me When he entered his own house, he to show the new garment, and beg that and carried off bodily to the Police Court, here, Mr. Lawford?" he asked, trifling with found his wife sitting in the library, and she might not have a bit of it covered by a where a waggon was provided in which he an ivory paper-cutter as he spoke. Perhaps waiting for him alone: pinafore. Mrs. Westyn kissed Daisy, and was taken off to jail, all the while offering a close observer might have seen at once She saw at once that he was faint and duly admired the dress before she told the most determined resistance. During that he had something of importance to weary after his walk. He spoke sadly, too, Bridget of Mr. Lawford's death. the struggle at the Police Magistrate's Ofsay, and did not know how to say it; but not in the tone of a man who has just been Bridget was shocked and grieved. Eden fice two large panes of glass were broken: the old man saw nothing of this. He had relieved from the pressure of a burden. Hall had always been opened freely to the The conduct of Constable Pearce, who was glad to see you; for if the truth must be she asked, involuntarily stretching out her pardoned. Richard Westyn had laid so prisoner to release himself by kicking and told, I was fast getting lost in a mist. When hand. ... many restraints on his children that the biting and every other means, he was una man takes to seeing faces in the fire, and "No," he answered sharply; "women old brower's house and grounds had been able to loosen the firm grasp of the single hearing voices that have been silent for never know how to take care of any an earthly paradise to them all. There hand of the Constable. The prisoner was they niight talk and laugh unchecked, for taken before the Police Magistrate on the "She was far too wise to make a retort; good Mr. Lawford was untroubled with following morning, and, as a further exthe British law which visits punishment

Artistic Eccentricities

of paintings in Europe one is constantly friends he had ever made in Campwick. as illustrations:- Tinterette, an Italian Mr. Westyn to Eden Hall, but went on "Why am I to be pestered by that abomi- With many other people he had been on painter, in a picture of the Children of Isrambling about the faces he had seen in nable noise? It is strange that you can excellent terms; but the Westyns alone rael gathering manna, has taken the pre-Simeon at the circumcision of the infant Saviour; and, as aged men in these days Mrs. Westyn went up to her husband's wear spectacles, has shown his sagacity by room, and broke the news as gently as placing them on Simeon's nose. In a picture by Verrio of Christ healing the sick In spite of all her care and tenderness, the lookers on are represented as standing "Scattered far and wide," said Westyn. have as much fun as possible before bed- fect upon him. He was so weak and of Adam and Eve from the garden of Eden shattered that all power of bearing up by an angel in a dress fashionably trimmed with flounces. The same painter, in his and he is in the act of presenting to the mighty fond of trying to force ourselves into remembrance of her own blunders. And The wife went quietly away to hide her Child a model of a Dutch man-of-war. In niches that were never made for us. Well, even Bridget; sedate maiden of twenty-two tears. Whose fault was it that Richard a Dutch picture of Abraham offering up his son, instead of the patriarch "stretching forth his hand and taking the knife, "as the Scripture informs us, he is represented

PAINFUL ACCIDENT .- On Tuesday Stli inst., a serious accident happened to Mr. Charles Edgar, of Elm Grove. While Nichol's Surgery, Cookstown. Dr. Nichol

About 12:30 p. m., Thursday, the Arthur foundry, owned by John Buschlen, and occupied by A. Howell, was burned to the ground. The cause of the fire is unknown. It was insured in the Phoenix for $800. The loss on the building and machinery is

Last Wednesday night a quantity of dry made at two a. m. Thursday, and after a cordwood near the Grand Trunk Railway run through a terrific storm, for twenty. station, Acton, was burned. Five suspicious eight hours arrived at Bradley's Ark., at looking tramps were seen among the woodhalf past five p. m. Thursday, Aft r a piles in the evening, and it is supposed night of rest, the Captain started at half- they set fire to the wood in spite, for being city was one of the granbest ovations he the tramps interfered, one of them attacking him with a black bottle. The Major picked up a small stick of cordwood and F. Frey, brakesman on the Grand Trunk | defended himself. When the tramps heard Railway, was killed Thursday afternoon that the wood did not belong to the Grand pears Frey was on a special train from been willing to assist in extinguishing the The cloth was laid, and china cups and His remains were taken to his parents' mated at $1,200 or $1,500, and there is no

A Memphis, Tenn., despatch say: Th chopping, at his cousin's, Mr. Robt Edgar, lot 9, con. 6, Essa, the axe of his companion ity has been thrown into an intense stat glanced from the tree he was chopping. f excitement over the arrival of Captain catting a frightful gashin Mr. Edgar's face, aul Boynton, after a run of 250 miles dividing his nose completely across and through a wild stretch of the Missippi Rivcutting into the bones of the face. The There being no telegraphic stations bleeding of the wound was very great. Mr. on the route, the people had to rely until Robert Edgar hitched up his team and now upon the steamboats for any news of lrove him as fast as possible to Dr. the traveller. Captain Boyton started from after securing the bleeding arteries stitched up and dressedthe wound. We are glad to hear that Mr. Edgar is doing well,he is convinced that its stimulating power