Grand Juries---The Jury System.

NUMBER OF GRAND JURORS REDUCED The Act introduced by the Provincial Secretary "respecting Grand Juries," and the "Jurors" of 1879," will be recognised by the municipal tax-payers, and the County Councils of the Province, as two substantial measures of Law Reform. By the Act of 1879 relating to Grand Juries, the number of Grand Juries, the number of Grand Juries will be reduced from twenty-four to fifteen, the consent of eight only being necessary to the finding of a true bill.

In 1870, when Sir John Macdonald had been ruling almost uninterruptedly for a dozen years, and the County being almost uninterruptedly for a dozen years, there were in the United States, as shown by the census reports, 493, 464 Canadians. It is a matter of notoriety that the expatriation of our countryment twenty-four to fifteen, the consent of eight only being necessary to the finding of a mained in power.
