Alexander Taylor.

Assembly.

THE ZULUS.

The tragical fate of the Prince Imperial of France, an account of which will be found in another column, gives a fresh interest to the war which is being carried on at the present time by the British troops against the Zulus of South Africa. In the growth merce aided by the power of the sword has played a very important part in the past and, judging from the state of affairs now existing in the continent of Africa, it would tion may witness the extension masters of the situation over the Southern of the British Empire the genius of com-ng been invited to perform the ouremony. which he pulled from a 12-acre field yesterday. The generally in this neighborhood look good. -There seems to be no question now as A fire in Markdale on Wednesday mornto the use of the electric light for large areas in regard to practicability and econo. Bennett's grocery, and Mrs. Wright's dwelmy. In one New England Mill the light ling. Loss about $4,000. which cost $2.48 per hour when furnished A Picate will be held on Jas. Skene's another, electric lighting only costs $1.08 A good time is expected. per hour, whereas an equal amount of light THE Rev. Mr. Crozier, who is about furnished by gas cost $7.20 per hour. In leaving Holstein for Port Perry, was, on

THE Rev. Thomas Legate and wife were -The Rev. Mr. McTavish, late of Beavon a visit at his brother-in-law's, Mr. Haserton, Ontario, and now of Inverness, kin, last week. On Sabbath, June 15th, Scotland, who is well known to many of he preached in the Methodist Church, Dur our readers, moved the adoption of an ham, and his discourse was very forcible overture at the recent sitting of the Free and logical, and was listened to with deep Church General Assembly to the effect that attention. Mr. Legate has many friends

> FATALLY KICKED BY A HORSE.-Last farmer in the township of Egremont.

New Testament Scripture, yet it was not within the competency of either ministers or professorsto obtrude their doubts or difficulties on their hearers, but to teach in accordance with the standards of the church fused to be driven to the polls to vote for spiders, pots and kettles, also waits. so long as they remained in connection with that church. This view of the case seemed to commend itself to the General strong condemnation from the more liberal | L. C. A. and respectable portion of the Conservative party, but so long as such things exist we deem it our duty to make them public.

New Sheriff,-It has been known for some time past that Mr. Maughan had sent in his resignation of the office of Sheriff. and on Saturday last Mr. C. H. Moore was has been Deputy Sheriff for a great number ficer .- Times.

seem very probable that the present gener-IMMENSE FORTUNE.-We learn from a British power and British trade from the correspondent in Nassagaweya, that quite Cape of Good Hope to Lake Nyassa, and a sensation prevails there, from the fact the establishment of a British Dependency | that the Allison family in that neighbourhood are about to enter proceedings to re- branches employment, peace and plenty for from the Congo to the Zambezi, only second in importance to the British Empire in cover $12,000,000, which has been lying in India. Zululand or the country of the the Bank of England for about one hun-Zulus lies on the north-east border of the dred years, and which they claim belongs colony of Natal, and is of somewhat inde- to them as direct heirs, through the definable extent. The face of the country is cease of a wealthy relative. This branch varied, being very mountainous in the in- of the family moved to Canada some fifty land portions, but towards the coast pres years ago, and recently heard of their good senting large plateaux which are described fertune by Gun's index to unclaimed money by travellers as being fertile and producing through a brother in the States .- Guelph sugar, cotton, tobacco and other tropical Mercury.

are a stalwart race, tall, well built, inde- Factory at Enniskillin, is in working order. manufacturer will not be told to wait, the ing the past year in this neighborhood have Judge took place on Tuesday and Wednespendent and fearless, forming a transition The building seems to be a very com- working man will not be told to wait, as evidently despaired of leading a life of of last week, resulting in a change of six, between the pure Negro of Central Africa modious and substantial structure-55 x 38 prosperity will come speedily to all grades, and the Kaffir of Kaffraria. Naturally feet-having a capacity for manufacturing ranks and stations without waiting. Then they are a sociable, peace-loving and hos- six tons of milk into cheese. The daily we will invite you to our household, ask pitable people, much given to agricultur- production of cheese at present is 450 lbs., you to share our plenty, live at home no al pursuits; but when their passions are which is obtained from two and a half tons longer, wander as allies in foreign lands, roused by the scent of war or commanded of milk. A butter factory has been lately be happy, contented and affluent, as pinchby their great chief, who is always regarded established at Ayton, by the enterprising ing poverty left the household, when bewith veneration to take the field, then the firm of the Messrs. Winger, of that village. nighted Knights left the realm "to muse Zulus are converted into an army of We hope that these establishments will well and ponder," while we remain and enjoy Their warlike spirit seems repay the capital invested, and that many our British Model, a to have undergone its first stage of develop- similar establishments will ere long be ment about the beginning of this cen- scattered up and down through the County tury, when irritated by the injustice and of Grey.

cruelty of the Dutch Boers from Natal who tried to open up a trade with the Zuday a man, apparently a tramp, was ob- South Riding of Wellington. served to come out of the barn of Mr. Wm. into one Confederacy under the great Cha-Reid. 15th con., Egremont, and make ka. Under his rule the Zulus were rapidly tracks for a swamp near by. Shortly after transformed into a nation of warriors who the barn was observed to be in flames and carried conquest and devastation before was totally consumed, together with the them, and in a very short time became contents. The neighbors turned out in ed us of the man is as follows :- Stout missionaries tried to enlist their sympaon head; no coat; pants torn off above thies in the cause of Christianity. Neither boots ; decent shirt, and dark felt hat with was successful. Their best intentions were Gospel as presented by Captain Allen Gar-Mount Forest Confederate.

diner, Mr. Owen and others was received G. B. & W. RAILWAY .- Wednesday evenwith ridicule, and after great hardship and suffering all attempts to effect a settle- ing last a meeting of the Directors of the ment in the country and teach the natives Georgian Bay and Wellington RailwayComthe arts of civilization were abandoned for pany was held in the Engineer's office. the time. However, in 1840 the Rev. Monnt Forest. All the Directors, with one factures, and that an extensive field will be subscribers will be well under way-a destroying them completely together

A violent earthquake on Tuesday near the town of Acia, Sicily, almost completely Winnipsg, escaped from Policeman SeyVictoria Mutual. It is not quite certain, has secured from the Ontario Government prisoner was committed to Barrie. Great The population of Emerson is new estiLieut Col. T. W. W. Smoth, who had not below. destroyed five villages. Ten men were mour, while keing conveyed to Toronto by however, that the insurance is valid. The population of Emerson is new esti-

Local and other Items.

REVIEW stalk is 34 luches long, the head being nearly out Durham, June 26, 1879. Mr. K. has spring wheat heading out. The crops

ing destroyed Wright's furniture shop, by gas burners, is now supplied by the elec- farm on July 1st, in connection with Latric light at a cost of 41 cents per hour In tona School and S. S. No. 13, Bentinck.

regard to domestic purposes the difficulty Monday last presented with an address and still remains of securing a proper diversi- purse, and also a gold-mounted pen and bility of the light; this will no doubt by pencil, by members of his congregation at overcome in due course, and a cheap and Amos Presbyterian Church, Egremont. efficient light will be obtained for all pur- We shall give fuller particulars next week.

steps be taken to see that sound instruction in this neighborhood, where he has resided be given in the theological halls in connec- for a number of years.

tion with the Free Church of Scotland. certaining the true meaning of Old and

Mr. Grout, of the American Mission, suc- exception, were present, and considerable gon drove on our market with his load-a ceeded in prevailing upon the chief Dinga- business was transacted. Mr. C. Sproat, lamb skin—for which he obtained the sum that we could not bear.—There is surely an, who succeeded Chaka, to allow him to C.E., was formally appointed Chief Engi. of 10c. The market clerk then came up, open schools and teach. This gentleman neer of the railway; Mr. W. F. B. How. and claimed the whole price of his load for was followed by others with more or lett, C.E., Resident Engineer, and Mr. T. market fees. The farmer thinks that so far less success and as the present chief. Cety. C. Brownjohn, P.L.S., was authorized to as he is benefitted some thief might as well wayo, has not been altogether unfriendly survey the right of way and prepare the have stolen his pelt. to the work of missionaries, it is expected plans and profiles of the same. The first BARN AND STABLE BURNED.—Last Thurs- thought that the punishment for sin will, that when the war now going on is brought estimate on the tie contracts was passed day evening about nine o'clock a fire start- in their case, only last for this life, will alrelations will be and ordered to be paid, and the trustees ed in a frame barn and stable owned by so be an unspeakable source of rejoicing, established between the British Colonists were instructed to sell the debentures now Mr. Wm. Johnston in the Township of and even an internal evidence that they of Natal and the Zulus, that a great in their hands. The line ere this week's Egremont, adjoining Mount Forest, and are not reserved for future punishment. market will be opened for British manu. Confederate reaches the majority of its gained complete control of the building

For the Review.

"They grew in beauty side by side, They filled our house with glee-Their graves are severed far and wide By six hundred and thirty-three

"The Happier Family"

This beautiful verse changed to suit the family's present condition caused by the National Policy; and even Sir John the ravages of the 5th of June occurs to Sir, Tupper, and Sir Tilley have been this evening while reflecting on the stumping the Province, begging the election lot of this once prosperous household. Sad tors to support Protection, and it is not to think that a few short months should so be wondered at that they are asking the change their rank and station. At that electors to endorse their N. P., seeing their dow their household, and sunshine was ferent from their promises. But they have their exclusive heritage. Shadows only fell asked in vain. The electors of Ontario, on the down-trodden Reform Family. Dis. have already seen the hollowness of the cord and disunion threatened them. The National Policy. They now see that Pro-"Happier Family" looked down with pity tection was but an election cry to carry Sir on their domestic woes. "The Patriarch. John into power, and they have now ial Head, freely wept for them, poured out spoken, and spoken emphatically, agains crocodile. Ask them in pity's name to bear his party. forbear and forgive one another, to hold up their down-trodden heads, though "He had his heel upon their necks" and could crush them whenever his mandates were disreon their necks" he told them of that "chari- it would be advisable for the Governor-

The overture was finally withdrawn, but Friday evening a young man named Rol-t. ed, but rather impoverished, are now told Canada. very clearly that the Free Chusch was thor- road near Mount Forest, was suddenly desire to tread "ambition's thorny path" that we will shortly have another election oughly alive to the unsatisfactory and un- kicked on the chest by the animal. Medi- were told to wait. The Whistler at the in South Grey. We know from past history settling character of the teaching given in cal aid was immediately procured, but his plow who never tasted aught but pure cold that Mr. Jackson is a man of honor; a the colleges, and that vigorous measures injuries were too severe to permit his re- water to keep his head cool from Legisla- man who would not for one day hold a pocovery. He lingered until this morning, tive halls, is now congealed by being told sition against the wishes of the people, exevils complained of. In supporting the when death put an end to his sufferings. to wait. The Teutonic son who never drank pressed or implied. Everybody knows that overture, Dr. Begg, said that while every He was about 28 years of age, and was a aught but beer is now fermenting from be- when he was defeated by Dr. Landerkin, ing told to wait. That son who resembles he was Reeve of Bentinck, and because THE Owen Sound Tribune says :- Since | the mathematical line and imbibes nothing | that Township gave a majority in favor of election day, in no less than three instances but "Orange airs" is now praying for the br., he immediately threw up the have mechanics in Owen Sound been sum- glorious, pious and immortal," as he has | Reevesing, saying, that if he was not fit to marily dismissed from employment by nothing else to do, being told to wait. The be their M. P., he was not fit to be their Conservative employers because they re- financial son who manufactures ploughs, Reeve. Now seeing that his Party is in lars see his speech of 17th Sept.)

the Conservative Candidate. We believe The spiritual medium smiles "child-like Mr. Jackson will at once place his re i nat on such contemptible practices will meet with and bland," awaiting the sceance of the in the hands of the speaker of the House

Poor Boys, you will not wait long. The result. Happy Family in Ontario and throughout the Dominion are now looking after your welfare. The garden, Ontario, has been enriched, beautified, adorned, and greatly improved; noxious weeds, rank fungoids, and Macpherson overgrowths were completely subdued by the trusty stewards on the memorable 5th. That great vine which of years, and in that capacity has been well was planted years ago has become so firmly rooted in honest soil that its growth and with the office, His elevation to the shriev. development are without a parallel. That alty now will give general satisfaction, and faithful gardener, Mowat, has watched its we believe he will make a very efficient of- growth, development and progress so carefully that it now appears as the crowning glory of all, and is envied and admired by gardeners throughout the world. Soon, very soon it will burst the bound; of its present garden walls and hail throughout the broad fields of the Dominion, carrying on its > Till that good time comes let me ask the starying sons of this once "Happier Family" to console themselves with the reflection that it will not be long until prosperity is restored to this once prosperous country.

The Happier Family has charge of its products in great abundance. The Zulus | WE are happy to observe that the Cheese | the farmer will not be told to wait. The | ceived how many professing converts dur-

REVENUE TARIFF.

since the late rain. The hay crop pre- of the cost involved. mises more than the average. Fruit is One of the great joys of the believer is Owen Sound or in Sarawak. The first somewhat injured by the frosts of the 8th | the certainty of future happiness in store, place any change was made was in No. 4

Mr. Jas. Innes, of the Guelph Mercury, accompanied by Mrs. Innes, left on the 12th what in great measure enables him to suf- In Derby there was no change. In No. 2, inst., for the old country where they probuilt, with lot of hair on face and long hair pose remaining for about three months. We him by way of present punishment or in No. 5 two to Mr. Creighton marked to

The Central Exhibition takes place at patch on crown. If seen, he should be Owen Sound on Wednesday and Thursday. arrested. The barn was insured for $200. - the 24th and 25th of September. Lists are issued, and may be had on applica tion to the Secretary at Owen Sound. Subscriptions will be received at $1 up to Sept afforded for the operations of Missionary number of men beginning work to-day, and with a threshing machine, three pigs, ried by a large majority.

The Owen Sound Tribune says :- A farmer with a strong team and heavy wag-

Inomas Cook was fatally shot by an old total wreck. It then became necessary for the other ironclad to range alongside for other implements. The buildings were Eimer, the Toronto forger, arrested in valued at $700, and were insured in the Mr. J. K. McLean, P. L. S., Mount Forest, turned a verdict of manslaughter. The good their escape.

What will Happen P

SIR,-On the election, just past, the principal issue raised, was of a Domin to the other, from the Mail to the Durham Chronicle, the great compaign cry has been had another chance to vote upon the que tion at issue in last Dominion general election, Sir John would be again hurled from such a hopeless minority, I imagine that of Commons, and cheerfully abide the Lay Sermon No. VII.

SUBJECT-PRESENT PUNISHMENT.

far as our own capacity for enduring pun. know Mr. Maerae best and who wish him warrant to conclude that we will entirely Presbytery in deposing him. This result escape punishment for our sins in this life, places him in his true and proper position. even although we have every reason to be. If he does not allow himself to be made lieve that we have been accepted by God crusty and crabbed, but candidly and with in Christ. Witness the case of David, the a whole neart turns to a literary career we man after God's own heart, and the fearful may yet hear of him honorably in his own punishment inflicted in the matter of natural vocation, and although he is un both the sons and daughters of those rival Uriah. It may be often a stumbling block fortunately something of a cripple physicalto professing Christians why it is that they ly (being lame in one of his feet), his menappear to be more troubled and tried than tal abilities are of a high order if he could for defendant. others who make little or no professions. only be got to devote them entirely to what But it ought to be a comfort to each to nature and Providence seems to have dethink that their punishment will take end | signed. in this life, while, if they were not Christians, it may be chiefly, or in most cases garden and will soon subdue the weeds in very likely, altogether deferred until after this life expired. It may have been perfaith, simply because they found that the leaving Mr. Creighton's majority 18. The fact of their professed conversion did not principle change was in ballots marked to free them altogether from the results of sin | the left of the name, and into the compartso far as this life is concerned. The tend- ment containing the number. These had ency of revival teaching too often is to hold been rejected by some of the Deputy Re up a one-sided view of Christianity .- "Be- turning Officers, and the judge ruling that lieve and be saved." "Believe and be hap- they should be counted gave five additional py." But religion is a many-sided matter, votes for Mr. Doyle and two for Mr. and those who would try to place it before Creighton. In addition to these others would need to do it honestly and marked with single strokes and one above board, and not try, even for the sake | which the two lines merged at the bottom of making professed Christians, to place but did not cross, were struck off Mr merely the most attractive phase of it be- Creighton's list. The application for a re-Jas. Massie, Esq., has been appointed by fore the people without, at the same time, count was by an affidavit of one of Mr. Incendiant Fire.—About noon on Monthe Ontario Government Registrar for the stating results and consequences, and thus Doyle's scrutineers, that votes had been helping to lay the basis for resolutions lead- wrongly counted in No. 5 polling division Crops in East Grey are looking splendid ing to something like a due comprehension of Owen Sound; but there was nothing and it is this sure prospect that affords Keppel, where one marked to the left hand much of his happiness at present. This is as above described, was added to Mr Doyle, fer or overcome what may be sent upon Sullivan, one was alded to Mr. Doyle, and otherwise-seeing it will end here. The left. In No. 8, 1 was deducted from Mr. | mother. Verdict for defendant. Frost & and escaped from the battle of Sedan, eventexperienced believer does not expect—there | Creighton, cross not being clearly marked, is nothing in the Bible to lead him to ex- and one added to Mr. Doyle, marked to fendant. pect—that happiness in this world will, at the left. In No. 2, Sydenham, one marked the very best, be unalloyed. The great to the left was added to Mr. Doyle. As the ferred, by consent, to arbitration of George Scriptural doctrine of salvation implies per- recout has made a slight variation in the feet happiness hereafter, with the measure vote of some of the townships, we re-pubof it here suitable to our earthly faculties. lish the list as corrected :-The very fact that the fruits of sin are visi'. ed to a certain extent in this life is no doubt intended to give us a livelier apprehension no idea in revealed religion more hopeful than that we are fellow sufferers with Him If sin is the cause of all suffering, and i even true believers fall eccasionally into sin, as they no doubt too often do, then the Survey.—We are pleased to learn that on Saturday morning, when the jury re. Chihan vessels were thus enabled to make

Rev. David Macrae.

rae, of Greenock, Sectland, and his views on the subject of future punishment have character occurred in Mt. Forest Thursday suart to adjournment. Members present at present culminated in his deposition morning, by which Mr. John Flett was in- William Airth, Esq., Deputy-Reeve; Counfrom the ministry, so far as the U. P. stantly killed and Mr. James Brown suffer- cillors-Messrs. Jelly, August, and Cor-Churh is concerned, it may not be out of edinjuries which in all likelihood will result bett. The Deputy-Reeve in the chair. place to refer a little to his record as a stu- fatally. The scene of the casuality was Minutes of last meeting read and condent and minimister. A considerable num- Mr. Sherwood's new three-story brick block firmed. ber of years ago, while a very young stu- The building is just in course of compledent at college he won a prize offered by a tion, and the contractor was engaged in Corbett, That Samuel Pound perform his Glasgow society for a temperance story. covering the roof-a flat one-with a statute labor, for lot No. 32, 1st concession This brought him into prominence-per covering of tar and gravel. A hoisting ap- O. S., under William Reid, Pathmaster haps for his own good, into too early paratus had been prepared consisting of a said work to be done between Melancthon prominence. Other stories followed, and long pole, extending back upon the roof, and Nottawasaga on County line. Carhe was looked upon as a promising literary one end projecting over the rear wall and ried. genius. Toward the close of the American resting on two crossed timbers. On this Moved by Mr. August, seconded by Mr. war he made a tour of Canada and of the end there was a pulley attachment with a Jelly, That John Silks be appointed Path. States, North and South, reporting steadily rope by which the material was hoisted master on lots 25 and 28 inclusive, in the as he want along in the columns of the from below. Mr. Flett was employed at 1st and 2nd cons. O. S .- Carried tears with greater profusion than could a the hypocrisy and knavery of Sir John and Glasgow Herald his Impressions of Canada, this point to receive the ascending and to Moved by Mr. Corbett, seconded by Mr. the States and the Internecine War then pass down the descending buckets. Mr. August, That Simeon Cary, Richard Cary, It is now certain that, if this Dominio | proceeding. Throughout his tour Mr. H. Yarlett was posted near him to receive J. Peters, G. Doney, be taken from John Macrae interviewed the leading men he the buckets, and Mr. John Lederman was Pettigrew's pathmaster's list, and that Si came across and his vivid descriptions of also on hand to assist in the work. On the meon Cary be appointed Pathmaster for matiers and individuals on this continent ground below were Mr. James Brown and the above named parties .- Carried were read with eagerness and contributed Mr. Chas. Bodly, the contractor—the formnot a little to place the issues as betwixt er engaged in passing up the material to Jelly, That Thomas Reevely be refunded ty which suffereth long," then smiled "an General to dismiss his Government, and the North and South in a better light those on the roof. A portion of the roof $5 upon production of his pathmaster's cer ebon smile" so bland and balmy that Sandy give the power to those who are in accord in the eyes of the old country people gen- had been covered with the melted tar and tificate that he has duly performed five and Sammy fainted. (For further particu. with the implied wishes of the people. I erally. On his return home his impressions Mr. Flett was leaning on the pole over the days' statute labor, for lot 18, 7th concess speak in all seriousness. The dismissal of were published in a separate work, and his edge of the building, passing down a buck- sion N. E., for the year 1878. But to-day, alas! he that was once strong the QuebecGovernment by Lieut.-Governer account of a few hour's interview he had et to receive a supply of gravel in return. Moved by Mr. August, seconded by Mr. and potent, now crouches behind his castle Letellier, was an action perfectly legal, with the Nestor of the Reform party, Hon. when the cross timbers gave way outwards Corbett, That John Kelly be refunded, up. rate, afraid to meet the scowling faces of perfectly just and wise; an action endorsed George Brown—then in the zenith of his carrying the whole apparatus over and on production of the pathmaster's certific the members of his own family. Promises by the intelligence of that Province; and physical and mental vigor, is, to Canadians dragging Mr. Flett with it, He gave one cate that he has duly performed six day's anredeemed and places unprovided like le. as time rolls on, it becomes more and more a very readable article, and to those famil. startled cry and fell to the ground a distance statute labor under Hugh White, for the gions stalk before him, day and night they apparent that it was an action necessary iar with the Hon. George Brown and the of thirty-three feet. The timbers from year 1878, on the East half 8, lot 3, 4th haunt him. The woollen fabric he wore for the well being of Quebec. A similar political struggles of that time, the refer- above struck Mr. Brown on the head, concession, O. S.—Carried. ence is specially interesting. Mr. Macrae knocking him senseless. Mr. Bodley, Moved by Mr. August, seconded by Mr. gives his boys an increase for their place. present time would be as legal, as just and |-a young man and not conversant with standing beside him, hearing a warning Jelly, That Mr. Elyah Page be instructed "Poor Boys"; still toiling, are not enrich. wise, and as necessary for the welfare of the vigorous style of declaration in which shout from above, jumped to one side, and to allow Mr. J. P. Hodgson to perform twopolitics are discussed here-was evidently escaped injury. Mr. Yarlett, on seeing the thirds of his statute labor in repairing the the discussion to which it gave rise showed Walker, while leading a horse along the "to wait," wait, wait! Those of them who But, I think it is quite certain, at least nonplussed at what he likely thought the timbers giving way, made a determined efsuperficial eloquence of the stalwart Scotch fort to save his fellow workman, was drag- 3rd con.-Carried. Canadian. For the Hon, George Brown, ged by the descending pole to the brink of Moved by Mr. Jelly, seconded by Mr. as he warmed with his subject seemed en- the wall, and succeeded in recovering him- Corbett, That the Reeve issue an order in tirely to forget that his audience was only self only by seizing hold of the extreme favor of Mr. Sandy McKendry for the a minority of one. There is no doubt that corner of the fire wall extending above the sum of $5.00, the same to be expended by Mr. Macrae's abilities as a writer would the roof. His escape from almost certain him for the benefit of Mrs. Jonah Wood have carried him on to considerable success | death was exceedingly narrow. The news | who is in destitute circumstances. - Carin the literary world, and those who knew of the accident spread rapidly and crowds ried. him best thought that a literary career was of neighbors ran to the spot. Medical men Moved by Mr. Jelly, seconded by Mr. his true avocation. However, he went were speedily sent for-Mr. Flett was found Corbett, That the following road Commisthrough the regular course and qualified to be lifeless-his death being probably in sioners be empowered to lay out in improvfor a minister of the U. P. Church, ulti stantaneous. Mr. Brown was found to be ing the roads in their respective divisions. mately being appointed Paster of a church | suffering from a severe fracture of the base | the sums opposite their names : in Greenock. For some years past he has of the skull. He was soon removed to the been keeping the Presbytery there in hot residence of his son-in-law, Mr. James water about the duration of future punish. Morison, and at last accounts was very low ment &c. I make no doubt whatever but -the medical attendants having little hope Mr. Macrae is perfectly conscientious in of his recovery. The remains of Mr. Flett his views, but the cast of such a man's were removed to his late residence. The mind is apt to be such as causes him to deceased was fifty-three years of age and look at things in a purely intelletual light, leaves a widow and seven children to and like the Yankee who practised telling mourn his untimely loss. He has been a All Bible believers know that sin cannot a story so often that he actually himself resident of the town for some sixteen years go unpunished. Punishment must follow came to believe it true, Mr. Macrae has and was a sober and industrious man sin sooner or later, either here or hereafter. very likely got so much into the habit of much esteemed by all who knew him. There is no escape from this. We may arguing out the consistency of his own An inquest into the cause of the death of escape future punishment through the Son views as to be entirely unable to look at the Mr. Flett was opened last Thursday evenof God bearing our sins, but I often think matter otherwise than from his own point ing by Dr. Ecroyd, Coroner .- Mt. Forest it is not, perhaps, enough realized that so of view. There is no doubt those who Examiner.

The Recount.

(From the Times.)

found wrong there or in any other place in Creighton. Doyle.

342

1642

Owen Sound......

Majority for Creighton, 18.

Sarawak.

Sydenham.

St. Vincent.

(Concluded from last week's Times.)

S. Masson for plaintiff. Creasor & Morison QUEEN VS. CURRIE AND MCKNIGHT .in default of payment of fine and costs to been truly the child of misery. She wit

Morison for defence. brought by Mr. Driffil to recover her son Joseph, her hopes began to rise, the value of a waggon which had been and doubtless she looked forward to a day originally made for one Jury by James when by some chance or other, he might Brown, and was afterward taken back by be able to reinstate her family in all its him from Jury, but which Driffil claimed power and splender, and restore her once had been meanwhile sold to him. Verdict more to a proud position in the world of

FROWN vs. PRICE .- This was action to Frost for plaintiff. D. A. Creasor for de-

THE SOUTH AMERICAN WAR .- The recent naval engagement between the Chilian and Paruvian fleets near Iquique resulted in considerable loss. It seems that the Chilian Ironelads had steamed away southsmall vessels of war that remained in port. affray took place near Mansfield last Friday | were led among the sunken rocks, on Armstrong, of Rosemont, held an inquest the purpose of saving the crew, and the since last fall.

Fearful Accident in Mount Forest.

As the notoriety of the Rev. David Mac-ishment in this world extends we have no well will really be glad at the action of the General Sessions and County Court, WATCHORN vs. TROUT .- This was an action brought by Mrs. Watchorn to recover the value of a yoke of steers claimed by her but which had been seized for a debt owing by her husband. Verdiet for plaintiff, $65.

Knight; Creasor for Curry.

guilty. A. Frost for Crown. Creasor & added the climax to her misfortune, and McFadyen & Robarts for defendant.

missory note. Verdict for plaintiff, $210 .- Geath of the Prince. Even her enemies 75. Frost and Frost for plaintiffs. D. A. can now afford to extend to her that sym-Creasor for defendant.

STRINGER vs. McKay. - Action on promissory note. Verdict for plaintiff, $128.-70. J. J. Robertson for plaintiff. McFadyen add largely to the number of kind friends she has already found in her exiled English

The case of Melville vs. Welton was reward in pursuit of the Peruvian, and that sition of leader of a large and influential the latter on learning this fact from some party of followers in France. The present passing vessels returned and attacked three state of affairs there, although not as satis-These instead of surrendering showed fight able to the waywardness of the old regime. and one of them was at length rammed by and as the death of the Prince has destroy a Perueian ironclad and sunk, carrying ed all chance, however slight, of the Nadown about 150 men. The others were poleonic dynasty ever returning to power, pursued along the coast, but they steered there is all likelihood that the present Ad-FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A shooting such a close course that their pursuers ministration will be strengthened by the evening, whereby a young man named which one of them struck and became a the royal line,-Guelph Mercury.

Melancthon Council.

The Council met at the Town Hall, on An accident of an unusually shocking | Monday, the 9th day of June, 1879, pur-

Moved by Mr. Jelly, seconded by Mr.

Moved by Mr. August, reconded by Mr.

ames	Corbett	150	_
Vm. A	ugust	150	0
simon	Jelly	100	0(
Vm.	Airth, Deputy-Reeve,	100	0
lobert	McGhee, Reeve,	100	00
	us opposite then hantes :-

Moved by Mr. Corbett, seconded by Mr. August, That the Clerk is hereby requested to purchase an account book for the use of the road Commissioners.-Carried Moved by Mr. Jelly, seconded by Mr. Corbett, That this Council adjourn until the first Monday in July next .- Carried.

The Last of Bonapartists.

With the news from Europe to-day comes the record of the sad fals of young Napoleon, the Prince Imperial. For the greater part of this century, the name Napoleon has had sympathisers in almost every country, but a sort of remantic halo appeared of late to surround the exiled family of the once famous Bonapartes. Taking up their residence at Caiselhurst and becoming refugees in the very nation whose arms broke the power of their race of Emperors, their course breame all the Tried for an affray at Chatsworth. Verdict, more marked, and public attention was guilty. Sentenced to one month's impris. | continually called to their movements. The onment each, and $25 costs and $25 fine- | widowed mother of the young Prince has be further imprisoned for two months. A. nessed the gradual decline of her princely Frost for the Crown. J. Masson for Mc. race, and lived to see France pass out of the hands of her husband into the reins of QUEEN VS. BLAKELY AND WHITE. - Tried the Republic. The battle of Sedan, at for an affray at Flesherton. Verdict, not which her husband was made a prisoner. she has since been to a great extent de DRIFFIL vs. Brown.-This was an action | pendent on the charity of strangers. With for plaintiff, $60. Jas Masson for plaintiff. Paris. But whatever hope she and the Bonapartist followers might have had, VAIL et al vs. Mooney .- Action on pro- they have been brought to an end by the pathy which will go far to smooth over the severe loss and disappointment she has

The Prince Imperial was at the time of determine the title to some property seized his death only twenty-three years of age, by Mr. Price for debt owing by Mr. Fred. Our readers will remember that he was Brown, but which was claimed by his with his father in the Franco-Prussian war, ually finding his way to England. He became a cadet at Woolwich, and although not allowed to become a regular o.ficer of the army, he joined Colonel Wood in the South African campaign. He was, while engaged in active service there, surprised by some Zulus, and by them speared to death. We do not for a moment believe that even if he had lived, he would ever have succeeded in gaining the throne of his fathers, but he might have secured the pofactory as could be wished, is still prejeruntimely fate of the last representative of

THE 100TH REGIMENT .- A private letter received in Toronto states that the 100th Royal Canadians, which regiment was formed in this country in May, 1858, and then Lieut. Col. T. W. W. Smyth, who belong to Canada. The corps is now stationed at Amrister, Punjaub, India.

The Arthur Murder.

VIOLENT DEATH OF MRS. ANTICKNAPI

(From the Enterprise, 19th.) Arthur, usually considered the dwelling-place of peace, harmony, " will towards men"-and women-was uncultivated, desperate cripple, posse of-the devil-in short. A jury was empanneled last night be to Anticknapp as guilty. It appears he has threatened his wife frequently antics out of sheer devilishness, merely terrify the family. At daybreak yesterday (Wedness morning Anticknapp was heard risis going about and kindling a fire in t resistance. He appeared very much ea-p clock in the morning.

Shot by a Burglar,

profusely, but has hopes of his recovery, al-

No certain clue has yet been found to the guilty parties, though strong suspicparties. The amount which Fisher had and which was the object of the burglary was $160. The old man was a few years ago tied, gagged, and robbed at his residence in Aisa Craig. He is upwards of 70 years of age.

The necessary steps have been taken by the Town Council of St. Mary's to elevate the High School to the rank of a Collegiste !