and rapidly increasing Circulation of the

REY REVIEW"

waships of Glenelg, Bentine

Egrement, Proton, Artemesia

Melanethon and other Town

ediums for Advertisers

ps makes it one of the

the County of Grey.

Al, who want a

ould subscribe for the Family Newspaper

ey Review,"

$1.25 per Annum,

not paid in advance.

POSTAGE FREE

Department,

REVIEW PRINTING OFFICE

up in the very best style, and eat Facilities for doing all made an addition to our Work

le of the Art,

Greatest Promptituds

being satisfied by leaving kinds of

FORK.

parties wishing ne in the very

their orders.

is furnished with

HE LATEST

SSES, TYPE, Etc

PROVED KINDS

TOWNSEND.

PROPRIETOR

THE

AND EDITORIALS. Casa il advertisements charged 8 cts. per Line for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line FOR Sale, Lot No. 3 of 17, Con. 1st W.G.R. Ordinary notices of births, marriages, particulars apply to deaths, and all kinds of local news, inserted free of charge. STRAY ANIMALS, &c., advertised three weeks for $1, the advertisement not to ex-Advertisements, except when accompanied

"THE REVIEW"

is PUBLISHED

Every Thursday,

At the Office, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town

TERMS:-$1.00 per year in Advance, en 31.25 if not paid within two months. To

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

space and under, per year, $ 4

refessional and business cards, one inch

Ont.

Durham, - -

by written instructions to the contrary, are inserted until forbidden, and charged at reg-J. TOWNSEND.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, DARRISTER, ATTORNEY, &c.-Up- MacRae, Durham, or to D per Town, Durham, Ont. Money to Loan.

C. B. JACKES, B. A. TTORNEY at Law, Solicitor in Chancery, Commissioner in B. R., Notary Public Lower Town, Durham. May 7th, 1879.

McFAYDEN & ROBARTS, ARRISTERS, Solicitors in Chancery,) &c. Office, one door east of the Merchants y-50

Frost & Frost. ARRISTERS and Attorneys at Law, Offices-Poulett St., next McClean Bros., Owen Sound, and every Thursday at Flesherton. J. W. FROST, LL. B. County Crown Attorney.

MEDICAL.

DR. KIERNAN, RADUATE of Victoria University, Toronto, and Under-Graduate of McGill Uni versity, Montreal. Surgery in rear of Medical Hali

Dr. JAMIESON, Surgeons of Ontario, OFFICE -Next door to Parker's ty in the Drug Store, Durham, Ontario.

DR. LIGHTBODY, VILL be at his Office, Hanover, from 8 Rutherford's attended to.

GORDON.

ENTIST will visit British Hotel, Durham, on the 8th and 9th of every month.

WILLIAM A. ROSE,

Veterinary Surgeon, Durham, ONT. RADUATE of Ontario Veetrinar College. Toronto, will be at his office in Mr Hugh Rese's Blacksmith Shop, from 9 a.m. to 5 m. Orders will be promptly attended to. Durham, April 17th, 1879.

F. Z. NIXON,

GRADUATE of Ontario Vetrinary College, Toronto. VETERINARY SURGEON. DUNDALK, Ont.

Dundalk, March, 20th 1879. MISCELLANEOUS.

Do You Want Money.

lay and Friday, from 10 o'clock a. m. to 5 p. m.

MACRAE, REAL ESTATE AGENT years—or principal and interest yearly to suit Borrowers. Wild and Improved Lands for sale. Mortgages Bought and Sold. AGENTS, READ THIS.

IVE will pay Agents a Salary of $10

ission to sell our new and worderful inventions We mean what we say. Sample free. Address. SHERMAN & CO., Marshall, Mich. Geo. J. Matthews, Cabinet Maker, UPHOLSTERER, and UNDERTAKER, Garafraxa Street, DURHAM.

Wood Turning,

of all kinds done to order on short notice.

Watson Bros. Carpenters and Builders.

DLANS and Specifications furnished for Schools, Churches, and private Dwellings. Doors, Sash and Blinds made to order A., P. & C. WATSON, DROMORE P. O. tf-49 Egremont, Jan., 1878.

REMOVAL.

MR. MECTOR MCARTHUR. BUTCHER, DUNDALK,

Dundalk, March, 20, 1879.

to Loan

ON Real Estates at 8, 81, and 9 per cent, according to privilages granted. Loans Repayable

Instalments, or Otherwise To Suit Borrowers

TRUST AND LOWN CO. OF CANADA. English & Scottish Investment Co., (Limited) NORMAN MCINTYRE, JOS. F. MOWAT, $66 a week in your own town $5 Outfit free. No risk. Reader, if you want a business at which persons of either sex can make greet pay all the time that work, write for particulars to H. Hallett & Wagon and Carriage Work's Co. Fortland, Maine.

Vol. II. No. 23.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, JULY 17, 1879.

Whole No. 74

BY SARAH DOUDNEY.

CHAPTER XVI .- CONTINUED.

head, and the place was filled with a face looking pale and spiritual in the loatheth the honeycomb.

living waters through him, would they not think of the fountain rather than of the

He had begun his course with a hearty desire to be a faithful servant; and while he was kept in a humble corner of the great field he had laboured in singleness of heart. But when he came out of the safe

"Will you put on a shawl, and come out

ALEX. McLEAN, 5th Con. Bentinck Bentinck, May 15th, 1879.

Farm for Sale.

LOT 22., 18th Con., Egrement 100 acres.
This Lot will be sold cheap apply on the A. GLENDENNING. Dromore, March, 4th, '79.

Farm for Sale in Glenelg.

THE Subscriber offers for Sale, Lot No. 1 38, 2nd Concession, East of G. R., Township of dreamy light, and was making towards it, ed. Terms $2,000:-8500 down, for balance me when a little crowd immediately surroundwill be given. For further particulars apply to F. ed him. E. WILLIAMS. Glenelg, Sept. 19,1878.

Lands for Sale.

ACRES of Land in a High State of ouse, and all buildings thereon, and a young gregation. He was far too politic to be orehard. Hard and soft water. This property is adjoining the corporation of the town of Durham, tray the faintest sign of impatience, but the

A well-finished frame house and out buildings and! heart which loathed them as the full sour Now is the proper time to purchase property in and after all ? He knew that the only real evi 50 acres, good log buildings, 35 acres cleared. For further particlars apply to F. MACRAE,

House and Three Acres of Land For Sale.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

shadow of obscurity, the full light made RADUATE of Toronto University and THE Subscriber wishing to leave this him dizzy, and the praise of men hindered, part of the country offers for sale his propersurrounded by those who did their best and a frame stable. This property would make a to ruin his spiritual state by vanity-well live in a village. was it that his conscience still smote him Bentinck, after noon. Messages for the Dr. left at | Will be sold for $300, which is only $25 per quarter acre lot. Apply to the proprietor, or by letter to | sharply at times, and reminded him of One

she were tired.

with a sigh of relief.

a mood for talking.

mending my wares."

to me to-night."

ness a safeguard?"

untimely silence,

"Yet they were singing your praises."

lips would have been silent."

the mouth speaketh, Mr. Vale."

to you?" he said at last.

Durham Ont.

Priceville, Au . 18 1877. Nothing LIKE LEATHER!

standing here nearly all day." FAIR PRICE AND LIVING PROFIT will take your place for a few minutes."

THE subscriber keeps on hand no low priced goods, but goods that are cheap when ment of A 1 Last, Centennial and French Box for whispering around them; the gardens were and recommended a month's sojourn at the Edna frowned unconsciously as she thought tion. The work is done by workmen of experience Will be at Hasting's Hotel, Shelburne, every Monas everyone admits that Jopps' Shoemakers can- shine; a few lights appeared in the palace Just call and see my "Eureka Shoe"-something windows. For some time they moved along new in these parts. ders left at J. W. Boulden's Harness Shop, Duran, will receive prompt attention,

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Repairing done with neatness and despatch. Fereign Brands at my Tannery.

CASH FOR HIDES J. C. JOPP. Rockville, Bentinck, March 1st 1878.

W. CALDWELL have just left? This cool air is welcome

Boot and Shoemaker,

SOUTH END, Durham, near Cattle-

The very best material used; workmanship

Fine alf Boots, sewed, from $5.50 to $6.50. of the servant, who merely delivers His pegged, from $4.75 to $5.50 message-a very unprofitable servant!"

ROBT. BULL,

DUILDER, Durham, keeps on hand

Remember the place,—a short distance north the Post Office.

WM. WATSON & SON Undertakers PRICEVILLE, ONT.

TUNERALS furnished on short notice. Caskets and Coffins, with all sorts of trim-Durham mings, always on hand. CHARGES VERY MODERATE.

Perhaps Edna was more angry than the occasion warranted; and even when her can be quicker than you would be." wrath subsided, it left her tired and sad the little garden path, and out into the lane distance. and spiritless. She was over-wearied, and longed for repose. At that moment her again. Then with flying feet she sped on, eyes chanced to rest on Mr. Vale, who was then entering the tent for the first It was over-warm; the air was heavy with the perfume of flowers and essences, the Chinese lanterns were swinging overstrange, soft glow. Clement saw Edna's candlestick and opened the door himself. her company—a saying that only those "Is your young curate coming to dine Marie. There stood Edna, her thin dress fluttering nearest and dearest to her could truly un- again to-night?" Lady Rosamond had in the wind, and her face egger and white. | derstand.

William Lawford, bland and smiling, you come back with me instantly?" was telling him that Campwick owed him a heavy debt of gratitude; murmurs of adulation buzzed in his ears on both sides, for this was Monday, and last night's sermon was still fresh in the minds of his con words of praise and flattery fell on a sich she found herself once more inside Hope were full of Mr. Vala; but some slight Cottage, her strength suddenly gave way, allusions were made to Mrs. Everleigh's Had he really been doing God's work and she crept quietly into the sitting- ccusin, who had become a guest at the room while Deborah preceded the doctor vicarage, the Lady Rosamond Flosse. dence of that work was to be found in the lives of these people; their lips told him nothing. If they had indeed received the from Olive's chamber. She had thrown cillor, a great man in Parliament. Mrs. moods," acknowledged Edna, kissing her. cocks as soon as it is thoroughly wilted, it shivering, partly from cold and partly from lations, and I had quite forgotten that he gladly !"

"What is the matter with Olive?" she asked anxiously.

instead of helping. Led here and there, to-morrow. Now go and obey my direc- blind to this evident truth. Bridget thought the school-room if Mrs. Everleigh had not a few days earlier, the total gain would

He freed himself at last, and was soon by Edna's side, asking with some concern if mable to perform her usual duties, and nature that man ever had, I believe." "A little," she answered. "I have been Edna had to resign herself to an imprison-

For a fortnight she was not permitted letter. "This is high commendation, into the fresh air ? I dare say somebody A substitute was quickly found by Mrs. Everleigh, and Edna took Mr. Vale's arm leave to ceme down-stairs again, and then world. it was decided that Dr. Arran's advice He led her quietly out of the crowded should be followed. He had said that both | world," said Olive. no old stock on hand, but all my goods are of the tent, and into the cool night. Leaves were Edna and Olive stood in need of change, shadowy and full of mystery in the moon- seaside.

Mr. Vale had called at the cottage enough to be a governess. a gravelled walk in silence, which Edna did several times to make inquiries, but it was Then, as she looked down at the pretty not care to break. She was too tired, and not until Edna was on the eve of departure summer dress she was wearing, her con "I suppose this has been a tiresome day

"Yes, on the whole. I am not a clever ing boxes, and Olive was dozing on a couch her own ungrateful spirit. saleswoman, and have not the art of recomin the parlour. Edna, sole occupant of the | September went by while they were at sitting-room, was standing idly at the the seasido, and the 1st of October wa "Nor the patience to bear with the inwindow looking out into the twilight, fixed for their return. sipidities and frivolities of the scene we when she saw him coming up the garden They came home when a drizzling rain after that stifling atmosphere. Somehow the hum of all those voices was intolerable "If their hearts had been touched the

"But-'out of the abundance of the heart ought not to return till she has had time to bringing in the luggage. get the benefit of sea-breezes." "True, but it speaks of the Master, not "And you are looking as white and aerial the fly-door in his manliest style. "We'v as if you had just come from the land of done with the doctor now, I hope. Run spirits! I know that this holiday is neces- and I'll see to the things." "Is not that consciousness of unprofitablesary, but a month is a long time." "It would be if it were to abide with me. come back more substantial; one does not s melancholy looseness, and the roses have work. I want a companion who will He laughed a little, then became suddenneither discourage me nor overpraise me, ly grave, and stood silent.

upon. And I want-even more than all "And yet, as you say, only four short were almost as warm as the home-greetweeks will pass before we meet again. Call ings. Her pupils crowded round her with There was another silence. The little it twenty-eight days, and it seems shorter caresses and questions, and could scarcely hand that lay upon his arm was perfectly still."

still. When the vessel is full to the brim | "I do not like leaving home. I believe morning.

to supply it? It is not for me to answer a you, dear Edna."

factory reply. Certain it is that a bright farewell remained unspoken; he held her notion of amusing herself." chance slipped away, and was lost in that hand in a long clasp, and then left her hur- Mary Everleigh was a girl who always Other people were coming out into the usual with him. grounds, and Edna, at her own request, expected to find all the members of the ings.

and crowded with lively people who liked eon. "I am so awfully stupid that it takes not popular to advance the settlement or "Miss Olive is not well, miss. We hope the red-coats and blue jackets which made a great deal to amuse me. Clever people Algoma. In these days of utilizing water it's nothing serious, but missus thinks we'd the place gay. In the evening a military can enjoy themselves anywhere, like Robin. stretches it is thought best to have a thouband played on the pier, but Edna did not son Crusoe. You are very clever, I am sand miles of unsettled country between "I will go; don't stop me, Deborah; I go there to hear it. She liked best to sit told. How nice that must be!"

scarcely feeling the chill wind that had those operatic airs without recalling that joyed her bright wit and lively ways; but markets, we would direct their attention to begun to blow, and neglecting to fold her time, and remembering all the glad hopeful- Edna would not sparkle for everybody. the vast stretch of good land to be found a shawl closely round her. Panting and ness that filled her heart in those days. Unreasonably disobliging in this case, little inland from the shores of Georgian nearly spent, she reached Dr. Arran's door, Often the melodies were intensely sad in she put her light under a bushel and sat Bay. Wherever the cuitivation of wheat and pulled the night-bell with trembling their sweetness, but they never saddened glum. her then. Later in her life she could not It may be that a chance remark, over- ably proven successful, and no better land David had a candle in his hand, and was bear them; and she used to say sometimes, heard as she was entering the dining-roomjust going up-stairs to his room when the in speaking of this seaside holiday, that it had something to do with this gloomy bidding looking shore north of Georgian night-bell checked him. He set down the was the last time her old self ever bore mood.

"Olive is ill, Dr. Arran," she said. "Will! Letters from home were frequent. Mar- teresting. You should ask him often while garet gave her daughter news of Mr. Vale I am here." He only stayed to say a word to his |-his eloquence, his activity, and his popuservant, and then accompanied Edna, walk- larity; and although he visited the graning quickly enough to satisfy even her im- dees of the county, and was a favourite in patience. With kindly thoughtfulness he high places, he did not neglect the poor, drew her shawl round her throat, and re- added Mrs. Westyn in her enthusiasm. He minded her that the night breeze was keen; | found time to look in upon Harry Stowell, | but she answered that she did not feel it, and had got many people to purchase his and hurried him on. Nevertheless, when baskets. Nearly all the mother's letters her!"

"Daughter of the Earl of Waterbury," that to you ?" Here David found her when he returned said Edna to Olive. "He is a privy counherself into Margaret's arm-chair, and was Everleigh never talks about her grand re- "Oh, mother, I wish I could 'suffer fools will heat and steam and become softened, is her uncle." "Go to bed at once," he said decisively, Bridget's letters were of necessity short- Bridget. "and let Deborah bring you something hot, er than her mother's. They were a matterelse I shall have two patients instead of of-fact record of home affairs and of her visits to Isabel Arran. The doctor's wife "She is feverish. I shall see her early not far off; but David seemed strangely chat.' She would have pursued me into grain shrank badly. Had the harvest been

David Arran had, as he had predicted, two think so. Now that Isabel is a changed patients. Margaret wrote a note to Mrs. woman, he is exceedingly happy in her Everleigh, saying that her daughter was companionship. His is the most laithful to go out of doors, and for nearly four coming from her; but Dr. Arran, good as weeks Olive lay on a sick bed. There he is, does not monopolize all the virtues. was great rejoicing when the latter had There are other faithful natures in the "Bridget sees only a little bit of th

"Bridget is generally sparing of her praise," remarked Edna, folding up the

"True, her sphere is too narrow." An of the dressmaking. It was a pity, a great CHAPTER XVII.—THE SEASIDE HOLIDAY. pity, that dear Bridget was not clever Russians.

too glad to escape from the throng, to be in that she had a few moments alone with science smote her sharply. Did she not owe many a graceful costume to her sister's He came one evening at dusk, when skilful fingers? She sighed and leaned her Margaret and Bridget were up-stairs pack- head upon her hand, out of humour with was falling, and the cathedral spire looked "I have only five minutes to spare," he coldly while against a leaden sky. It was said; "but Mrs. Aspen told me you were just five o'clock when they found themselves going away to-morrow, and I came to say once more at the cottage gate, and say good-bye. You will not be long absent?" three eager faces looking out upon then "Mrs. Everleigh says she can spare me from the crazy porch. Philip was in the for a month, and Dr. Arran thinks Olive path, prepared to assist the fly-man "How are you, girls?" he said, opening

The sea-breezes had done their work "Only four short weeks. I hope I shall Edna's dress no longer hung upon her with Miss Edna, I want a friend who will not like to be such an uncanny thing as you come back to Olive's cheeks, so that the anxious hearts of mother and sister were On the morrow she went back to her but whose calm judgment may be relied "I hate saying good-bye," he said hastily. duties at the vicarage. There the welcomes a slight touch will cause it to overflow; but I shall pine for a sight of mother and the "You will see Cusin Rosamond at though it was expected that the fire from for the owners. Much avoidable disease Edna was not the woman to give that others. This is the first time I have ever luncheon," said the eldest girl, "and you will find her a very stupid creature, Miss Why did he not go on, and tell her "We shall make a festival of your return. Edna. She yawns, and says that she does honestly what his want was, and ask her Campwick will be very desolate without not know how to kill time-quite a wicked gives an account of one of those horrible way of talking, I think. Why, even baby sun dances in which some of the Indian question which he asked himself a thousand It was the first time that he had called will sing to his toes when nurse puts him tribes indulge. The one about which he times afterwards without getting any satis- her by her unprefixed name. After all, the down on the nursery floor, but she has no writes took place in the second week of last

be persuaded to begin their studies on that riedly, and with an abruptness that was un- spoke her mind, and her sisters usually fol- as usual, allowed their flesh to be cut and proposed for the Panama Canal, with a Life at a fashionable watering-place was gave another turn to the conversation. was led back into the tent. Then the not greatly to Edna's taste; but she was in Lady Rosamond Flosse was a delicately, flesh and skin gave way. Some of the france, required by Venezuela has, been alband played "God save the Queen," good good spirits, being buoyed up by the secret featured blonde, with a tall, lean figure, warriors fainted several times before their ready paid. nights were exchanged, and the vicar's consciousness that her return was watched whose defects were carefully concealed by purpose was accomplished. These heath. During a pilgrimage of 60,000 Poles to carriage conveyed her home to Hope and longed for; and so she contrived to her toilette. Under less favourable circum- chish rites are quite as terrible as those miracle-working picture of the Virgin at enjoy everything, and induced the languid stances she would have been simply a re. which were practiced in India in connection Crenstoken, a thunderstorm broke out, de. It was nearly eleven o'clock. She had Olive to take an interest in her surround- fined looking woman; but with the worship of Juggernaut until the stroyed the tree bearing the picture, and

PROPERTY FOR SALE. Stepping Stones. "What is the matter?" Edna asked, grandeur about the spot they had chosen, with a quick consciousness of something it was flat and prosaic, but open and sunny, with a quick consciousness of something it was flat and prosaic, but open and sunny, and crowded with lively people who liked eon. "I am so awfully stupid that it takes said to the vicar. "He is really quite inan uncharitable frame, and expressed her riculturist: opinion of the earl's daughter in very plain

I wonder that God has patience with feeding value of hay is lost by leaving the "Don't you ever wonder that God has would no longer be permitted.

Margaret gravely. "If the same sun that been out late may be improved by curing ripens the corn fosters the weeds, what is it in the cock instead of drying it in the

"Is it very hard to do that ?" inqu'red | the swath. when one is doing real work. Lady Rosa- grain, the general experience last year was growing weaker, she said, and was con- that 'certain lord' who came after the bat- over the country a hot spell came on just

Edna did as she was told, but she passed "When the end does come, I dare say Bridget looked anxiously into her sister's field, stopping the cutting for the 4th of a sleepless night. After daybreak she fell outsiders will say it is a happy release for disturbed face. What was it that was mak- July holiday last season, caused a loss of into an uneasy slumber, and then awoke her and for him," she wrote; "but as far ing Edna speak so bitterly? A little while $100 in the quality of the grain and in with a throat so sore and inflamed that as he is concerned, Dr. Arcan will not ago she would have made good-natured shrinkage of weight and bulk. As soon as efforts to amuse Lady Rosamond, and would the grain is solid but will still crush dry per," thought Bridget with a sigh.

TO BE CONTINUED.

the Chinese have re-taken Kashgar. A than cap sheaves. portion of the Mussulman population fled. Rake the fields after the grain has been Not many of the people were massacred. A drawn; the labor will certainly be well relarge body of Christians were shut up in paid the citadel. The inhabitants of Kuldja PROTECT THE HORSES.—A cotton sheet have determined te fly if the town and will be found a great protection to the save himself from falling, but he was too utes, are driven home at one and rubbed late ; he slipped forward on to the whiffle- dry. Deceased was about twenty-seven years of moved. age, and has been married about a year and The utmost cleanliness should be pre-ricultural amplements, &c., which Mr. greeable odors. surance on the building, but the contents than in any other way. That from brooks were partly insured. The fire is supposed is dangerous, as wash from manure fields, to have been the work of an incendiary, and soakage from the soil flows into them. We understand that paper was found stuf- Water from clear wells and springs only fed into the cracks between the boards of should be given to cattle, and if such pre-Messrs Gilchrist & Kent's storehouse as caution is needed for them, it is equally so Mr. Munn's building would destroy the is due to impure water. other .- Orangeville Advertiser. A corresponnent of the Chicago Tribune month at the Pine Ridge Agency, in Dakota Territory. The self-appointed victims lowed her lead. Edna, secretly amused, ropes to be put through the holes, and they large town at each extremity. M. de Lesthrowthreir weight on these ropes until the seps also says the caution money, 2,000,000 that experienced artist, her French maid, British Government put an end to them, killed 15 persons. household gone to bed save her mother, It was pleasant to spend whole morn- she was almost beautifu! Perhaps her Is there any reason why the United States A new Ionic porch has been discovered who would be sitting up for her; but it was ings on the beach, watching the pleasure- golden tresses were a thought too yellow, authorities should not interfere, at least so at Olympia. The head of one of the tym-

Algoma's Great Wheat Fields

It is now a well established fact that a superior quality of wheat is produced from the lands in that district, which has, apparently, greatly astonished those who so strongly advocated emigration to the plain of Manitobs as being the future wheatfield of the world. "Carrying coals to Newcastle" has hitherto been a term expressive of the greatest absurdity, but in the future it may be substituted by that of carrying wheat to Algoma, for no greater absurdity can be practised than that which is now being carried on by the farmers of Ontario, who are rushing in thousands to the distant province of Manitoba, and are leaving behind them, and within 200 miles of Toronto, thousands,-yea millions of acres of the best wheat-bearing iand in the Dominion. We are all aware of the fact that it is the two Provinces, as it leaves room for at the open window of her lodging and To do Lady Rosamond justice, she was future speculation and that sort of thing, Without a moment's pause she ran down listen to the strains that were softened by far too high bred to dream of patronising but if the people of Ontario are desirous of her cousin's governess. She Would fain finding wheat-producing land, at a very Years afterwards she could never hear have made a companion of Edna, and eu- low price and within easy reach of home Bay, between Spanish River and Sault Ste.

The following hints for the work of the CUTTING WHEAT AND RYE.-If there was mond makes me feel as Hotspure felt to went far towards settling the question. All scious that the end of her painful life was | the and pestered him with 'bald, disjointed as the cutting became general, and the have been enormous. In the writer's probably have found a hundred excuses between the finger-nails, it may be cut, and for the frivolity of which she now com- hot weather will not injure it in the snock as it will when standing. Dead ripe grain worth less than if cut three or four days screen them from flies and from dust, and served about the premises in the hot weath Fire.-On Wednesday morning about er. All wastes and garbage should be are not so formidable as were those in the construction of the Suez Canal, as a railway already exists along the course

Farmer's Review.

Edna went home that afternoon in rather month of July are from the American Ag-

LATE HAVING .- The failure to gather the hay while at its best, is a too frequent and "A frivolous creature," she said. "I inexcusable neglect at this season. If farmnever saw such a cumberer of the ground. ers could be convinced of how much of the grass to become ripe, hard, and woody, it patience with your impatience?" asked How to Cure Ripe Hay .- Hay that has sun. Being comparatively dry when cut "I believe I am in one of my bad it is very soon cured; and if put up in and will remain greener than if dried in

"Yes; it is hard to be bored by an idler any doubt about the best time for cutting "A sore heart often makes a sour tem- is not only less valuable, but the straw is

Hay Caps will serve a good purpose upon A despatch from Kappal, Asia, says that grain shocks, and are much more secure the province is restored to China by the horses working in the havest field. It will FATAL ACCIDENT .- On the 28th ult., Wil- the labor of cleansing them will be lessenam and George Ellestin, sons'of Thos. El. ed. It will be found desirable, when horslestin, who lives about two miles from Roc- es are washed, to use a soft sponge and ton, were moving a load of straw from the water in which some carbolic soap has barn at the old place to the barn by where been dissolved. This cools the spring, asthe young men live. Wm., the elder bro- sists perspiration, removes the strong punther, was on the load driving and was sit- gent smell, greatly refreshes the animals ting near the front end of the waggon, and and drives away the flies. Where there is when descending a small hill in the lane a river near by, a bath in the evening will near his own house he felt the straw slip. be agreeable and safe, if the horses are ping forward from under him and tried to kept in the water only two or three min-tree and then to the ground. Both front A scraper for the horses may be made of and hind wheels passed over his body. He a piece of old scythe, with the edge dulled was able to walk with assistance to the on the stone; with this the sweat or moisthouse. He suffered for about twelve hours. ure, after the washing, may be easily re-three o'clock fire was discovered in a store. disposed of on a compost heap; a load of house belonging to Mr. John Munns, and good soil and sods from fence rows will be in spite of all assistance that could be ob. useful, as the basis for it. Weeds should tained was burnd to the ground. In the be gathered and added to the heap. Lib storehouse were about $2,000 worth of ag- eral additions of plaster will prevent disa-Munns had a few days before received from Pure drinking water is of the first imthe Masson Manufacturing Co., Oshawa, portance. More disagreeable poisons are which were all burned. There was no in. taken into the system with the water used.

> THE DARIAN CANAL. - M. de Lesseps does not think the expense of constructing the Darien Canal will exceed $250,000,000 francs. He says the difficulties of the work old Deborah who answered her gentle boats gliding over the glassy sea, while and looked, as Edna said afterwards, as if far as to compel the Indians to practice panum statues has also been found, and a knock at the door, and there were lights clear green wavelets rippled up to the warm a family of busy silkworms had been spin. their barbarities beyond the Federal juris- metope representing the struggle of Heranad sounds up-stairs.