Curiosities of English Justice.

Some curiosities of our criminal procedure may have been not ced in the reports from that stern temple of justice, the Sessions House, Clerkenwell. A woman 64 years of age, for stealing a towel and an apron, was sentenced to 12 month's ima crown "and other moneys" belonging to his father, got five years' imprisonment, with hard labor. Perhaps these were bad offenders, and previous convictions were certainly proved against them; but the sentences, at least, show that justice was not tempered with any large amount of mercy. As soon, however, as we come to those highly-favored culprits, the wife-beaters, we find mercy supremely ascendant and interceding in their behalf efficaciously with her sterner sister. Wm. Powel, a young and healthy brute of 31, was convicted of having assaulted his wife alty on the thisving son.

the law, a dog belonging to one Theodore Gordon, of Shepherd's-bush, has played a sensible part. It had been taken before Mr. Paget on the serious accusation of biting a lad's pantaloons, and the evidence on the charge of ferocity was going hard seainst it, when the creature entered the court. Immediately comprehending the situation, it jumped upon the magistrate's deck, and, in lieu of a speech for the defence, fondled he representative of offended justice; then settled down down quietly upon a chair, where its unimpeachable behavior during the remainder of the case so wrought in its favor that, in place of being dangerous it was declared playful, and liberated without even the necessity of finding kangaroo, this Shepherd's-bush mastiff was time for all things, and that in the Hammersmith Court an affable, engaging manconduct of this thoughful animal, one is

A Dog on his own Defense. The sudden death from heart disease of the celebrated writer and preacher, Dr. Averse from being convicted for grave P. Thompson has created a painful sensamisdeamor and suffering the penalties of tion throughout the civilized world. A few weeks since the Chicago Times published a detailed statement charging the Dr. with having runed the peace of a family named De Land, of Grand Rapids, Mich. It was said that Mrs. De Land had gone to Enrope to study music and cultivate a fine voice, and while there she had formed the acuaintadee of Dr. Thompson, who had accomplished her ruin. This story was widely circulated, although denied by her husband, and the effect was so painful on the mind of the victim that it produced a sudden and fatal termination on Sunday

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

I have waited this long to see if the cure would re-main permanent before doing this, my duty, to you as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I sus-pected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smotherhealth and spirits were seriously affected. When your Agent came to Walkerton in August, 1876, I secured three bottles Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Cer-tificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Ask for Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh T. J. B. HARDING, Dominion Agent, Brock-ville, Ontario. For Sale by all Druggists at only one Dolla Highest
