I chant Mentert De A Gossip from the African camp says Sir Evelyn Wood did not get on very well with his chaplain, and on one occasion the following conversation took place, in the course of which I think you will agree with me that the reverend gentleman had the us, Mr. 29 asked the General. "Oh, To 1st Jan. 1881 about the same time that you do yourself, I suppose," meekly answered the parson. "Oh, I don't know so much about that," said Sir Evelyn, "for I want your tent and I can't spare your rations much longer." "Ah ! but I want my tent myself, General, though I don't want spare rations." "Yes, but you know mine is the 'flying column,' and I can't be expected to fly with a lot of parsons hanging on to my coat-tails." "Well, General, all I can say is that if you car you miles and a half a day flying, I think I shall be able to keep up with you" -this a facer. "Tirat's all very well," said the General, a little nettled, "but I hear now that there's a Roman Catholic chaplain about to join us, and if he does I declare I'll put him in your tent." "If you do I daresay I shall have sufficient strength to put him out again," meekly observed the
