REPORTS.

of Grey.

the for the

an addition to our

"THE REVIEW"

I+ PUBLISTED

Every Thursday, As the Office, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town

Durham, - - Ont.

TERMS: -$1.00 per year in Advance es 31.25 if not paid within two mo h "&s

RATES OF ADVERTISING Protessional and business cards, one inch space and under, per year, 8 4 Two inches or 24 lines Nonpariel measure Three inches do. per year. Quarter column, per year One column.

Carral advertisements charged 8 cts. per Line for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line for each subsequent insertion - Nopareil 25 acres are cleared; the soil is as good as any in the Township. The lots will be sold either togeth-

Orlinary notices of births, marriages, testhe, and all kinds of local news, inserted free of charge. weeks for $1, the advertisement not to ex-

Advertisements, except when accompanied by written instructions to the contrary, are neerted until forbidden, and charged at regwlar rates.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

J. TOWNSE! D.

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, A TTORNEY - AT - LAW, &c .- OFFICE A opposite Parker's Drug Store, Upper Town Money to Lonn.

C. B. JACKES, B. A. TTORNEY at Law, Solicitor in Chan-Commissioner in B. R., Notary Publi Lower Town, Durham, Mar 7th, 1879.

McFAYDEN & ROBARTS,

Bank Union-st., Owen Sound. y-50 J. T. ROBARTS, C. McFayden. Frost & Frost.

BARRISTERS and Attorneys at Law, solicitors in Chancery and Insolvency, Con-Ofaces-Poulett St., next McClean Bros., Owen Sound, and every Thursday at Flesherton. ALFRED FROST, J. W. FROST, LL. B. County Crown Attorney.

MEDICAL.

DR. KIERNAN, TRADUATE of Victoria University, Toronto, and Under-Graduate of McGill Uni versity, Montreal. Surgery in rear of Medical Hall Lower Town, Durham

Dr. JAMIESON, * RADUATE of Toronto University and I stemper of the College of Physicians and

DR. LIGHTBODY, WILL be at his Office, Hanover, from 8 a.m. to Noon, At home, 2nd Con, N.D.R. Bontinck, after noon. Messages for the Dr. left at

GORDON.

WILLIAM A. ROSE, Vaterinary Surgeos, Durham, Oxy. CRADUATE of Ontario Veetrinary Magh Rose's Black amith Shop, from 9 s. m. to 5

m. Orders will be promptly attended to. F. Z. NIXON.

VETERINARY SURGEON, Interest half yearly on 1st of May and 1st Novem DUNDALE, Ont.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Do You Want Money.

MACRAE, REAL ESTATE AGENT Byrrowers. Wild and Improved Lands for sale

AGENTS, READ THIS.

WE will pay Agents a Salary of $100 "We mean what we say. Sample free. Address SHERMAN & Co., Marshall, Mich.

Geo. J. Matthews. Cabinet Maker.

UPHOLSTERER, and UNDERTAKER,

Garafraxa Street, DERHAM.

Wood Turning,

Watson Bros.

Carpenters and Builders. DLANS and Specifications furnished for Schools, Churches, and private Dwellings. Doors, Sash and Blinds made to order.

Ресмоке Р. О

A., P. & C. WATSON,

The British Hotel, Durham. HAVING been thoroughly overhauled having been opened in connection with the Hotel conveyances, either double or single, all

W. CALDWELL

Boot and Shoemaker,

SOUTH END, Durham, near Cattlethe above line would respectfully solicit a share of the patronage of the public. The very best material used; workmanship superior to anything in the county, having made prize work in the principal cities of Canada and Formerly Muster Shoemaker in Mar Majesty's un Irodth Regiment. Fine Calf Boots, sewed, from $5.50 to $3.50. pegged, from $4.75 to $5.50.

Vol. II. No. 44.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, DECEMBER 11, 1879.

Whole No. 95.

PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for Sale Lots 4 and F, on the 9th Con. of the Township of Glenelg The lots contain 200 acres, all hardwood. About er or separate, on easy terms of payment. For further particulars apply at Durham P. O. to J. P. HUNTER.

Durham, Sept. 17th, 1879. STRAY ANIMALS, de., advertised three House and Lot for Sale in

Durham. THE Proprietor wishes to dispose of Lot

No. 3, on Albert Street, one Range East of Garafraxa Street, Lower Town, Durham. On the lot is erected a good dwelling House and Stable. The ot contains one acre of land. A good well and For garden purposes the land is unexcelled. The whole property will be sold cheap for cach, or therwise as may be agreed up in. For further particulars apply at the REVIEW Office. Durham, June 24, 1879.

House and Three Acres of Land For Sale.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

THE Subscriber wishing to leave this part of the country effers for sale his proper-VILLAGE OF PRICEVILLE. and a frame stable. This property would make a Will be sold for $300, which is only $25 per quarter DARRISTERS. Solicitors in Chancery, acre lot. Apply to the proprieter, or by letter to NEIL MUNN, Priceville, An :16 1877.

Money to Loan

Priceville P. O.

ON Real Estates at 8, 81, and 9 percent, according to privilages granted. Loans Repayable

Inst lments, or Otherwise with his conduct, was often very singular.

To Suit Borrowers. TRUST AND LOAN CO. OF CANADA English & Scottish Investment Co., (Limited) | deat ; and thus under the pretence of hear-JOS. F. MOWAT. NORMAN MCINTYRE, Durham form his own answers, not by what was

Notice 2 Farmers

IN THE

South Riding of Grey.

ance money except upon security known to the continually drunk, and therefore desire he and I am instructed by may be turned off." The London & Canadian Loan & Agency Company, Limited, with me from a child, and as you say, (Whose Agent I am.) that they have about lifle of wag is should not part us." Half a Million of Dollars John, Lowever, one evening, as he was Ready for immediate investment and are anxious to place it at reasonable rates of interest upon in driving from Kensington, overturned his This Company is one of the most liberal in Ontario lady in Hyde Park. Though not much hurt, yet whe i she came home she began ber or may be made payable once-a-year after | to rattle the earl. Alas, I am sorry for bim.' "I am complaining," says my lady, "tha uterest to a proportionate extent. No Fines-No Commission-No Bonus. C. B. JACKES, Lower Town, DURHAM.

500 Men Wanted,

Kelsey's Gallery to Stand or Sit for John, you know that I have regard for their Photos.

THE undersigned having thoroughly re- My lady tells me you are taken ill, and I fitted his Gallery, adding New Furniture and prepared to supply the public with rties wishing to get Photos would do well to call NORMAN KELSEY.

First-Class Photographs, At the lowest possible prices. Cabinet Sizes a Specialty.

Upper Town, Durham, Opposite the REVIEW Office Durham, Aug. 21, 1879.

ROBT. BULL,

BUILDER, Durham, keeps on hand and Bills of Lumber made out on short notice. A full stock of Coffins, Caskets, Shrouds and Trim

A FIRST-CLASS HEARSE TO PIRE

Alexander Robertson,

TAILOR, DURHAM.

THE subscriber is prepared to Receive and Make Up, on the shortest notice, and in the Latest Style, Men and Boy's Clothing. A good there will be no need."

Latest Fashions Regularly Received A few first-class BARCLAY Sewing Machines For Sale, discipline he had undergone that he never Cheap for Cash. These Machines are the best | made, and give entire satisfaction to those using them."

Durham Nov

was known to be drunk again. Waterloo town has expended $27,000 in "ALEX. ROBERT y4 | building operations during the year.

Rearrangement of Counties.

DELEGATION TO THE GOVERNMENT.

A Loving Heart. (From the Globe.) There's nothing like the heart that feels

POETRY

For the Review.

A dearer or a richer gem,

Than woman's loving heart;

No! man on this terrestrial sphere,

Ne'er knyw of wealth so great,

Ne'er did be find a charm so dear,

Oh no! oh no! methinks there's nought

To rend the wreath by sorrow wrought,

As this sweet charm innate.

On earth to man more dear,

It meets him with a smile at eve,

And magic footprints it doth leave,

One that would sigh if forced to part

One that would all my trials share,

I then misfortune's worst would bear,

The Earl and His Coachman.

The father of the Late Earl of Pembroke had many good qualities, but always per sisted inflexible in his own opinion, which,

His lordship thought of an ingenious expedient to prevent the complaints of those about him, and this was to feign himself

ing very imperfectly, he would always said to him, but by what he desired to

Among other servents was one who had lived with him from a child, and served him with great fidelity in several capacities, till at length he became coachman. This man by degrees got a babit of drinking, for which his lady often desired he might be dismissed. My lord always answered, "Yes, indeed, John is an excel

"I say," replied the lady, "that he

"Ay," said his lordship, "he has lived

he is drunk and has overturned me."

"Ay," replied my lord, "to be sure he

My lady, finding it useless to remonstrate, went away in a passion, and the earl, having ordered John into his presence, addressed him very coolly in these terms

you, and as long as you behave well you shall always be taken care of in my family

see that you can hardly stand; go to bed.

and I will take care that you have proper to bed, where by his lordship's order, a large blister was put on his head, another between his shoulders, and sixteen ounces of blood taken from his arm. John found himself next morning in a woeful condition and was soon acquainted with the whole process and the reason on which it was made. He had no remedy but to submit be fed only with water-gruel, and to have no company but an old woman who acted

In about a week, John having constantly sent word that he was well, his lordship thought fit to understand the messenger, and said he was extremely glad to hear the fever had quite left him. When John came ways the same advice and the same attend

hope this bout is over."

to commit the same fault again."

ance that you have had now,"

do mine to you, never fear."

John, being thus dismissed, was carried has behaved very well, and hall have pro

Should grief beset my path;

"With patience unto death."

Than is a heart sincere ;

Where'er its virtue goes.

Oh give me but a loving heart,

To twine around my own,

And fhink of me alone.

Crawford, December, 1879.

It lulls him to repose,

A deputation made up of representatives Love's pure untarnished ray, from the counties of York, Simcoe, Huron, It hath a charm of priceless weal, When robed in Love's array, Bruce, Wellington and Perth waited upon And though all outward charms are gone, the Attorney-General on Monday, to urge By Time's destroying dart, upon him the importance of a redistribu-Yet brighter still doth blossom on, tion of Counties. The names of the dele-The fadeless loving heart. gates were as follows: - Messrs. John There's nothing like a loving heart, Hogg, T. O. Earl, and W. J. Frame, Col-Dark passions to subdue, It blunts affliction's furious dart, lingwood ; A. Meiklejohn and Samuel Po-As nothing else can do. bertson, Harriston; D. D. Hay, M. P. P., It lends its choicest soothing balm, D. D. Campbell and J. W. Scott, Listowel; In time of irksome grief, The turbid stream of wee to calm, And bring a sweet relief. Go where you will, you cannot find, E'en at great Mammon's mart,

> The deputation was introduced to the Attorney General by Mr. Jackson, who explained that their mission was to find out whether the Government would be prepared to introduce a general scheme by which districts, when they became sufficiently wealthy and populous, could separate from the counties in which they

ship; R. Myles, Euphrasia Township; E.

the junior counties. Mr. McMullen, Mount Forest, was then called upon. He said that in dealing with these matters the increase in population would from a good criterion of the advance in wealth and civilization of the different counties, and therefore of the necessity to a change of some kind. He then proceeded to quote the figures for 1851 as com-

were, and from themselves into separate counties, much the same as was allowed to pared with 1871 for the various counties. showing that in the twenty years interv the population of Bruce had increase from 2,838 to 48,515, or over seventeen-fold that of Wellington and that of Perth had almost trebled; Grey had quadrupled Huron was now 66,165, having increased seven-fold; Simcoe had more than doub! ed ; Waterloo had increased from 26,537 to 40,251; and York fr m 48,914 to 59,882.

These increases would no doubt be found to be much larger when the census of 1881 was taken. He then drew attention to the great distances which large numbers of the people had to go in order to reach their county towns. From Mount Forest to Owen Sound was 43 miles, and from the same place to Guelph, by rail, was 54 miles. The whole length between Guelpl and Owen Sound was 84 miles. He therethe firmation of a new county. In the county of Wellington, they had forty-four Reeves and Deputy-Reeves, each of the townships having two or more, and thus the people were put to much expense in "Ay," says my lord, "is poor John sick? the county was so large that those in one section had no interest in the affairs of another, and it was impossible for the Council properly to legislate for the whole, > simply to secure all he could for his own show that there is nothing of that kind i > and the object of each member was the small counties? Mr. McMullen-It is found that the ratof taxation for general improvements is lower in a small than in a large county.

township rate in such a case?

was a reduction in the township rate as expense of serving writs, the shortening St. Paul's in London, which measures of the session of Assize, and others. At 111.30 metres. the request of the Attorney-General he ointed out the county which he wished to bave formed, and which included the townfor he would rather have endured ten blis-Arthur, Luther and Minto. ters than lose his place. His lordship sent very formally twice a day to know how he did, and frequently congratulated his lady upon John's recovery, whom he directed to > within his own experience. suggestions as to the best means of ac- menting paper-mache work, making eardheld that the delegates should bring for | small shells, for making shell flowers, and in, "We'l, I. hn," says his lordship, "I possibly be. Mr. Yeomans, however, assured him "Ay, my lord," says "John, I humbly ask your lordship's pardon, and I promise never "Ay, ay," replied my lord, "you say right; nolody can prevent sickness, and if you should be ill again, John, I shall see it, though perhaps you would not complain; and I promise you that you shall have al-Thank your lordship," says John, "I hope

"So do I," says the earl; "but as long as you perform your duty to me, John, I will John then withdrew, and so dreaded the

they would produce all the information necessary to act upon, and the people of his own town would map out a fine little county with Harriston as the centre of it.

gave their views. The Attorney-General said that when investigating this matter on a former occasion he had found that the agitation in its favour appeared to be mainly in the towns and not in the townships. He had found also much favour for it in a general way, but when he came to showing the fore considered, as did the people whom | specific way in which the change should be effected, from seemed to be prepared. he represented, that there was room for It was, therefore, an exceedingly difficult matter, immensely more so than the Munic pal Loan Fund Distribution, or any other difficult matters which the Government had dealt with. (Laughter.) But in any c se they had not brought that convening their County Councils. Further, matter before him in such a way that he could hold out any hope of its being taken up at the approaching sesssion. He had informed Mr. Jackson that it had not been the intention of the Government to take up any legislation of this kind. From the many conflicting views and interests to be met, and the many local considerations to The Attorney-General-Does experience be calculated upon, there would be hardly time to give attention to the matier at the next session. The Attorney-General-How about the est buildings in the world, measuring 157 had gone but a short distance when Miss insist to be Diogenes. and 160 metres respectively in altitude, as Corey, who was walking a few yards be-A delegate stated that the experience of compared with the Nicholas Tower in hind her cousin, heard a crackling noise in the County of Peel had shown that there | Hamburg, measuring 144.20; St. Peter's at Rome, which measures 143: the Munster at Staslurg, 142; the Pyramid of ing toward her. Clara, who had frequently A geological surveying party has return-Mr. McMullen proceeded to give other. Cheops, 137; St. Stephen's Cathedral at encountered these shaggy monsters, called ed from exploring the neighborhood of reasons for the reduction in the size of Vienna, 135.20; the Cathedral at Antwerp, | to her frightened cousin to come to her. Moose Factory. They report the country these counties, such as the lessening of 123.40; the Dome of Florence, 119, and

The use of shells in certain industries and manufactures, according to Mr. Simmonds recent work, "Commercial Products of the ships of Egrement, Proton, Normanby, Sea," has become large and important of late years, and few persons, comparatively Mr. Yeomans, of Mt. Forest, endorsed realize the variety of their practical adap what had been said by his colleague, and tations. Among these various applicareferred to the wonderful growth which tions, mention may be made of pacreous had taken place in that section of country shells, employed for making pearl-buttons and other useful and ornamental articles; The Attorney-General asked for some the pearly and iridescent shells for ornaomplishing the object they aimed at. He cases, folios, jewel-cases, etc.; the various ward their own plans, as they were better different fancy articles of grouped shells, acquainted with the country than he could and for ladies' bracelets, head-dresses, and the like; the shells from which are carved cameos to set in brooches, bracelets, neckthat they were quite prepared to leave the laces, scarf-pins, sleeve-links and similar matter in the hands of the Government, contrivences; shells for spoons, drinking cofident that as they had solved so many vessels, lamp; k ife-handles, snuff-toxes Clara was still struggling with the animal. this account. At this rate it would surely difficult problems they could bring this to and pipes; shells for producing the purest The bear still held the girl in its grasp, but pay to buy up all the dogs in the township a happy issue also. Besides, they had come kind of lime when calcined, also for manmerely to advocate the general principle of ure in the form shell sand and shell-marl, all the time using her knife with good efredistribution, leaving the facts and figures and for making pottery-ware, and a glaze feet. She dealt the dying animal blow after man who was killed at Fort Garry, died on or enamel, when crushed. They also serve blow until he finally released its hold and Tnursday, in the Provincial Lunatic Asy. On the speaker referring to the saving as studies of design, form and color, in rolled over dead. to be effected in mileage for County Coun- many instances, for the sculptor, painter Though very much exhausted and con- hinged by circumstances attending his brocillors, the Attorney-General asked what and art manufacturer. As is well known, siderably scratched by the bear's claws, ther's murder, and consequent excitement, was the mileage in this county. The ex- he most beautiful shells come from the pa- Clara, with the assistance of her cousin, that he finally became raving mad, and for act figures could not be ascertained, but cific and Australian coasts. The sun, by was soon able to walk. They marked the several years has been an inmate of the it was given roughly at about $1,000 a the greater heat it throws on the seas near spot where the dead hear lay, and then rethe equator, would seem to have some effect | turned home. Clara's father and brother Mr. Robertson, of Harriston, said that in heightening the colors of the shells pro- drove to the swamp and brought the bear great changes had taken place in the counduced in the tropical zones, and then the in, which, when dressed, weighed 840 Paris was visited in one day recently by ties interested in this agitation, yet their nature of the food of the animals is thought York taxidermist to be stuffed, and it will france worth of silk, 7,000 frances worth of boundaries remained the same. If the to give them that lustre and brilliancy which be kept by the young woman as a souvenir Government would agree that the question are wanting in the shells of colder lati- of her terrible struggle and fortunate es. parasols, 25,000 france worth of artificial of change was worthy of consideration tudes.

Counties.

in Guelph would also have to be repaired to give a vote on the matter. As far as we subject of it from saying one thing, while or rebuilt in a very short time. Mr. Scott can judge they manifest no desire for re- he thinks another. Philoxenus was a poet, also was not prepared to say that he would organization, and if they are allowed the who enjoyed the favor of Dionysi 15, tyrant rather have the change made if it were to privilege of a free and unbiassed vote, we of Sicily, for some time, till be offended be made on the plan suggested by Mr. Mc. will find that they have no special desire him, when he was cast into a dangeou. for the erection of new counties, which will The tyrant, who was fond of writing poetry,

A Bear Hunting Story.

-Guelph Mercury.

Hunter's Range, Pa., Nov. 27.-About a month ago Miss Alice Corey, of New York sity, came to visit her uncle, a German, who owns a small farm in the mountains, six miles northwest of this place. Miss Corey is about 16 years old, and her parents rounded the tyrant's table to take him back are well to do. Her uncle has a daughter, Clara, also aged about 16 years. Her father having but one son, Clara has for years helped to do the work on the farm, and she has become an expert shot with a rifle. She has a mania for hunting, and society. Diogenes dressed himself in the several hundred acres, is densely wooded, noon, and started into the thicket. They the bushes, a short distance back. Look. regiment is coming out with the Prince's ing around she saw a large black bear com- Louise, and will be stationed at Ottawa. She then drew her rifle to her shoulder, north of the 49th parallel to be adapted for and, taking a deliberate aim at the animal, agricultural purposes. awaited until it came within easy range, and then fired. The bear uttered a bowl was a single-barrelled one, she seized the double-barrelled gun from her cousin and discharged both barrels at the inturiated animal, in the hope of killing it outright. L'ut, with the disappearance of the smoke from the gun, the bear was seen writhing, out not dead. The brave young weman then approached cautiously to within reach ng distance of the wounded animal, and taking from a large leather belt encircling ner waist a bone-handled deer hnife, plunge it to the hilt into the bear's neck. At this moment the dying monster gave a sudden lunge and fastened its sharp claws into the was rapidly growing weaker. The girl was and destroy tnem.

A few days ago Clara invited her consin

The Redistribution of stopped? Did he, more than others? People like to be amused in general; but An influential deputation waited on the they did not give him the less credit for (Laughter.) He alluded to the changes Hon. Mr. Mowat on Monday, with the view wisdom, and a capacity to instruct them which had taken place in cutting off the of asking him to take some action in the by his writings. In like manner it has county of Peel and others, and did not see Legislature for the general rearrangement been said that the King only sought one but that the people of the inland counties of Counties-more especially in the north interview with Dr. Johnson, whereas, if he were quite as good as those in the front. part of the Province. The arguments had been a buffcon or a sycophant, he would On being present to define the county he brought forward by most of the speakers have asked for more. No; there was nowished to establish he stated that it would were plausible enough and well put, and thing to complain of. It was a compliment include the township of Minto, Mary. dealt mainly with the question of expense. paid by rank to letters, and cuce was borough, Wallace, Howick, Normanby, and Under this patrictic and economical pre- enough. The King was more afraid of this tence, it was represented that a re-division interview than Dr. Johnson was, and went Mr. Meiklejohr, of Harriston, alluded of Counties would be a great boon to the to it as a school boy to his task. But he to the presence together of representatives people interested. Judging from the re- did not want to have this trial repeated David Yeomans, Thomas Swan and Jas. from Listowel, Mount Forest, and Harris- marks and questions of the Attorney-Gen- every day; nor was it mecessarry. The McMullen, Mount Forest; W. Parsons, ton as a proof that there was a widespread eral, however, we have a shrewd suspicion very jealousy of his self-love marked his and earnest feeling in favour of the prin- that he looked upon the representations of respect; and if he had thought less of Dr. George Fletcher, Alliston; John Dickson, eip'e of redistribution. He held that the these delegates as the dictates of self-inter- Johnson he would have been more willing trade question was the principal one to be est, prompted by a desire for the special to risk the encounter. They had each their considered. A few years ago, before the benefit of their own locality. It will not place to fill, and would best preserve their Jackson, F. J. Robertson, D. Sutherland, advent of railways, all the trade of his escape the notice of the observant reader self-respect, and perhaps their respect for section had been done in Guelph, but now that the delegates almost entirely repre- each other, by remaining in their proper it was retained at home. To traders in sented villages more or less interested in sphere. So they made an outery about his own and other towns it was a most in. the proposed redistribution. These are the Prince leaving Sheridan to die in absoconvenient thing to have their suits tried ambitious to become County towns, and to lute want. He had left him long before. form the centre and nucleus of districts Was he to send every day to know if he Mr. Campbell, of Listowel, also pointed which would be tributary to the new capi- was dying? These things cannot be helpout a number of the material advantages tals. In fact, the whole movement has its ed, without expecting too much of human which would accrue from the rearrange- origin and life on account of the claims of pature. rival villages, and we have yet to learn that (a) Self-conscious dignity enables the

The Attorney-General asked if he would the rural municipalities have taken the subject of it to rise superior to personal deprefer to have a county formed as suggest- first steps for separation or redistribution. fects or to external disadvantages. Philoed by the first speaker with Mount Forest | Under the circumstances, therefore, we poemen had a mean aspect, and took no for the county town, or have things remain | think the Attorney-General was quite justi- pains to adorn his person. Once he sent fied in announcing to the delegates that the word to a friend in Megara, that he would Mr. Campbell said that was a question Government could not during the approach- sup with him; but going earlier than he he would hardly care to answer. (Laugh- ing session deal with the question; than in expected, and before his friend was ready fact it could not be taken up or entertain. to receive him, he was employed by some Mr. Scott, of Listowel, said that these ed till after a new census was taken. If of the servants in clearing wood; and becounties were divided into sections or rid- the scheme is taken up at all it must be ing surprised by his host, and asked, how ings for legislative purposes, and he did not done on a comprehensive scale, and alto- he could be employed in so dishonorable understand why they could not be divided | gether irrespective of any local or sectional an employment, he cheerfully replied, "I for municipal purposes as well. The interests, and if it ever comes to a question am now suffering for my good looks and buildings of the county of Perth were old to be decided by the people, we trust that appearances." and would have to be renewed, and those the roral munic palities will have a chance (b) Self-conscious dignity restrains the

Messrs. Hogg, Jackson, Campbell, of only benefit the villages which may be for- and of being applauded, removed Philoxenus Lucknow, Mr. Hay, M. P. P., and others tunate enough to be named as County seats. from his dungeen, but the poet refused to purchase his liberty by saying things unworthy of himself, and applauding the wretched verses of Dionysius, and therefore he was sent to the quarries. When he was asked his opinion at a feast about some verses which Dionysius had just repeated, and which the courtiers had received with the greatest applause, Philozenus gave no answer, but he ordered the guards that sur-

Literary Facetiae.

2. A man of mind or genius is superior to a man of rank or tos man in the highest position of society. The man who rises by his own talents and efforts to eminence in the republic of letters, is greater than the man, who is a nobleman er a king by the mere accident of birth The two do not often associate with one another or meet together in company, owing to the superiority of the one to the other in culture, pure knowledge, and general intelligence. When Dr. Johnson was asked why he was not invited out to dine as Garrick was, he answered, as if it was a triumple to him, "Because great lords and ladies did like to have their mouths stopped!"

But who does like to have their months

(c) Self-conscious dignity renders the subject of it superior to the attentions and flatteries of men in the higher circles of she frequently goes into the forest in search garment which distinguished the Cynics, and walked about the streets with a tub on his head, which served him as a house and accompany her on a hunting expe. a place of repose. Such singularity, joined lition. They started from the house to the greatest contempt for riches, soon shortly after breakfast, Alice with a gained him reputation, and Alexander the double-barrelled gun and Clara with a Great condescended to visit the philosopher iffe. After scouring the woods for several in his tub. He asked Diogenes if there was hours without much success they visited any thing in which he could gratify or oblige "Dark Swamp." This swamp embraces him. Get out of my sunshine, was the only answer which the philosopher gave. Such and bears are frequently seen there. The an independence of mind so pleased the girls reached the edge of the swamp at monarch that he turned to his courtiers.

It is reported at Ottawa that an English

The Montreal medical students have been creating a sensation by grave-robbing at the of pain and fell bleeding. As Clara's rifle Catholic cemetery. Two bodies were disinterred and carried off in one night recently, but they were successfully traced by a city detective. The affair has been hush-

> The Princess Louise, before leaving for England, left instructions with the head gardener at Rideau Hall to have constructed near Government House a complete lumbering sharty. It is to be shown as a curiosity to a number of distinguished guests who are expected to come to Canada

The Port Hope Guide says :-- "The kill girl's shirts.pulling her down. Her fright. ing of sheep by dogs in the township of ened cousin ran about wildly and screamed Hope appears to go on with more fatal enat the top of her voice; but, as there was ergy than ever. At the last Council meeting not heard. She then returned to where the amount required to foot the bills on lum, Toronto. His mind became so un-

One of the largest dry goods stores in flowers, and 25,000 france worth of felus.