

Mr. Gladstone.

We give below a lengthy notice, from one of our exchanges, of Mr. Gladstone, who, perhaps is the ablest statesman now living. His public appearances in Parliament have elicited the utmost enthusiasm, and high authorities pronounce his speech on the financial policy of Beaconsfield's Government as destructive of confidence in the Conservative party.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Heavy snow storms are reported throughout Central and Southern Europe. Among the deaths reported by cable is that of the Duke of Portland, a nobleman long noted for his retiring and eccentric disposition.
