Mr. Crooks introduced a Bill to amend the Agricultural and Arts Act. He said the object of the Bill was to transfer the duties relating to Mechanics' Institutes and similar institutions from the Provincial Treasurer to the Minister of Education. The latter's office was not in existence when the Act was originally passed. The Bill was read the first time.

THE SCHOOL BOOK QUESTION.

Dr. Baxter moved for and obtained as order of the House for a return containing information concerning the number and price of authorized text-books for use in Public Schools.

Mr. Crooks, in assenting to the motion, availed himself of the opportunity to explain what the present policy of the Educa- taken at said investigation by such Comtion Department is with respect to copywrights, and why it was adopted in preference to the one formerly in force. He traced the history of the school book copywright question from the time when the of a committee to consider and report upon A Estate of Duncan Smith, ate of the Township late Council of Public Instruction adopted suggested amendments to the Municipal of Glenelg, in the County of Grey, Yeoman, who died on or about the twenty-seventh (27) day of the Irish National Readers, referred to the inferior class of text books in use a few Act.
