

-The British elections, which have been held during the past week, have resulted in placing the Liberal party in power. So for the Liberals have a net gain of sixtyeight seats, and the constituencies yet to be heard from, are expected still further to increase their majority. Mr. Gladstone has been elected for Midlothian and for the THE "CHRONICLE" AND THE M. P. city of Leeds also. Speculation is rife as to the composition of the new Cabinet, and it seems to be universally felt that Mr Gladstone should be offered the Premiership and should accept it.
