Guelph.

ore Elora Fair.

TILE FAIRS.

CLOTHIER,

1. PUBLISHED

Every Thursday,

Atthe 9.hce, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town

Durham, - - Ont. TERMS: -$1.00 per year in Advance

ta. 31. 25 if not paid within two months. Wa RATES OF ADVERTISING

Protossional and business cards, one inch space and under, per year, $ I wo inches or 24 lines Nonpariel measure Taree inches do. per year Quarter coldian, per year.

Casail advertisements charged 8 cts. per bine for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line r dun aubsequent insertion - Nopareil free of charge. STRAY ANIMALS, &c., advertised three particulars apply at the REVIEW Office. weeks for $1, the advertisement not to exeged 8 lines.

Advertisements, except when accompanied he written instructions to the contrary, are neerted until forbidden, and charged at reg-J. TOWNSEND.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, TTORNEY - AT - LAW, &c .- OFFICE A opposite Parker's Drug Store, Upper Town, Money to Long.

C. B. JACKE 4, B. A. TTORNEY at Law, Solicitor in Chan-L cery Commissioner in B. R., Notary Public Lower Town, Durham. y 7th, 1879. y-64

McFAYDEN & ROBARTS, DARING ... Ro. Solicitors in Chancery, D &z. Office, one dour east of the Merchants

DE. EIERNAN,

Surgeons of Ontario, Oscica Opposite, Parker Drug Store, Durham, where he may be found at the

DR. LIGHTBODY. WILL be at his Odice, Hanover, fr un 8

DENTIST will visit British Hotel Durham, on the stir and stir of every month First class work only d. a.s. Hend Cifices at Alex

F. Z. NIXON. GRADUATE of Outario Vetrinary Col-

day and Friday, from 10 o'clos 2 a. m. to 5 p. m.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Boot and Shoemaker,

Fine Calf Boots, sewed, from $5.50 to $6.50 pegged, from $4.75 to $5.50.

VICES Illustrated Floral Caentiful work of 100 Pages, One Colored Flower Viels Illustrated Monthly Magazinea Engraines. Price $1.35 a year; Five copie

CHITTICK

Merchant Tailor,

MAIN STREET, DUNDALK. N thanking his numerous east mers for their past favors and solicities deir future ones

The UNIVERSAL SUSPENDER. COME REASONS why these Suspenders are better than others :-1st .- No Elastic required. 2nd,-Is Slack when stooping. 3rd,-It never slips off the Shoulders. 4th. Sold at prices of common suspenders. Try a Pair and Secure Comfort.

Manufactured by C. E. RAMAGE. 282 Adelaide St. West, Toronto. For Sals at C. I. GRANT'E Durham,

Vol. III. No. 9.

PROPERTY FOR SALE. House and Lot for Sale in

Durham. THE Proprietor wishes to dispose of Lot A. No. 3, on Albert Street, one Range East of Garafraxa Street, Lower Town, Durham. On the lot is erected a good dwelling House and Stable. The Lot contains one acre of land. 2 good well and Ordinary notices of births, marriages, pump, and a number of fruit trees, or the premises. For garden purposes the land is unexcelled. The whole preperty will be sold cheap for each, or Durham June 24, 1879. House and Three Acres of Land For Sale.

A GREAT BARGAIN. THE Subscriber wishing to leave this part of the country offers for sale his propernsisting of three acres of excellent land, under Will be sold for $300, which is only $25 per quarter acre lot. Apply to the proprieter, or by letter to NEIL MUNN Priceville, Au . 16 1877.

Money Loan ON Real Estates at 8, 81, and 9 per cent, according to privilages granted.

Inst lments, or Otherwise

JOS. F. MOWAT,

Repairing Watches & Clocks a Speciality. gent for the Eleintzman Pinno and Do-

ROBT. BULL,

VILDER, Durham, keeps on nand a lasking. Vainut, Rosewood, and Gilt. Plans, specifications and Bills of Lumber made out on short notice.

Alexander Robertson, TAILOR, esidence at the Old Post Office, Lower Town,

THE subscriber is prepared to Receive

Latest Pushions Regularly Received A few first-class BARCLAY' Sewing Machines For Sale,

Sale a stock of Leather of different brands in irst-class order, and at prices as low as it can be and I shall write to tell the old lady to turn

Boots and Shoes, Either Sawed or Pegged, n hand and made to measure. Good Work men, Lood Mnterial and Low Prices. Repairing done with neatness and despatch.

CASH FOR HIDES.

Call.

EDGE MILLS, DURHAM. Mr. Liscombe was here to ask about the brightness dazzled my very eyes. I'HE subscriber wishes to intimate to laving builthe above Mills farnished with the Gristing & Merchant Work le is prepared to 111 all or is a entrusted to him n the h riest notice and in a first class manner CHOPPIVE carefully attended so.

Is the will will ENC 3 CLARK.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, APRIL

POETRY Mr. Angus Macdonald's translation of "God Save the Queen" into Gaelic, for the Gaeiic Society of Inverness, is as follows :-"Dhia gleidh ar Banrigh mhor, Beatha bhuan da'r Banrigh choir, Bhia gleidh 'Bhanrigh." Thoir buaidh dhi, 'us solas, Son agus ro ghloirmhor. Ead' chum riaghladh oirnn'; Dhia gleidh 'Bhanrigh !

A Thighearn' ar Dia eirich, Sgap a naimhdean eitich, 'Us leig iad sios. Cuir cli an droch riaghlaidh, Tlig sios an luib dhiabhlaidh Ar dochas oirre leag-Dhia gleidh Bhanrigh! Do thiodhlaig mhaith their dhi, Doirt oirre pailt gun dith,

Fad' riaghladh i; Ar reachdan diouadh i. Tourt dhuinn aobhar, gun sgios, 'Bhi seinn le'r guth 'sar cridh', Dhia gleidh 'Bhanrigh!"

What Shall it Profit ?

Priceville P.O. The clock had just struck six from its place on the black martie mantel of the pretty little dining-room, where fresh boquets of roses exhaled perfume as if each separate pink blossom had been a crucible of sweetness; and a noisy cry of "Mamma, he's coming! papa is coming!" filled the LORIES Representation house, from three or four rosy little of wifely pride and happiness. "Why, Henry," she said, as lie came up paper over his face.

Durham the steps, with a kiss for little Nin, and a little chickens, with a Parisienne soup, heart. the meal progressed to a close.

"Very well," said Mrs. Melton, carelessly, "give her the other bundle, "Harry, can you let me have five dollars?" "What for ?" Mrs. Melton looked a little surprised. I was not a question he was in the habit of "To pay Mrs. Barbour for sewing." "Nina, that woman charges you too much," he said, sharply. "I do pay her a little more than Jane Callahan charges; but you must remember, children." "We are not bound to support them, are | could be that !" "No, Harry ; but-"

said, tossing a five-dollar bill ungraciously across the table ; "but don't give her any more. Jane Callahan sews cheaper." Mrs. Melton made no further remonstrance, but obeyed in silence. "Charley Miller is coming here this evening," she said, a few minutes afterwards, "to get Johnny's old sait of clothes.

Mrs. Miller was so thankful when I told her she could have them -" "She can't have them," interrupted Mr. Melton. "Jones tells me he gets half price for anything of that sort, at a store on and Make Up on the shortest notice, and in fer anything of that sort, at a store of Latest Style, Monand Boy's Clothing. Agood Chathain street. He gave me the card, and I shall send for them to come up here and take away all our old clothes. We must economize, Nina." "But Mrs. Miller is so pool." "So shall we be if we go on in this reckto and give entire satisfaction to those using less way. I tell you, Nina, I've been thinking seriously over this matter to-day. I've lost eighteen hundred dollars through Corbitt's failure, and I can't afferd to keep half the pappers in New York. There's Leather, Leather, old Aunt Dorcas living rent free at the farm. I dor.'t know why I should support Aunt Dorcas. Mortimer offered me three hundred a year for the place yesterday,

"Harry, she's eighty years old, and very poor. Surely you would not-" "Now, Nina, you are talking like a woman, and a very silly one at that. Suppose she lives to be ninety, am I to keep or live anywhere else?"

"It's very little to you, Harry," softly pleaded his wife, "and a great deal to her." Mr. Melton bit his lip. "There," he known it would end like this, if I tried to if they try !"

rent of your little store on Sixth Avenue. It was for that lame brother of his, an Farmers, and the Public Generally that honest, hard-working young shoemaker, meadows where you all were. who is very anxious to go into business for himself. He has scraped together nine hundred dollars for the first year's rent."

"I know you did, Harry; but I knew- pieces of which the wall was built were site and mailing by one man is an era in Wheat was sown in the vicinity of Delle- butter that is brought to the English marat least I supposed you would be willing there I had saved from the wretched purses the history of the denomination.

had come unexpectedly over the whole a dream !" spirit and temperament of the man she | She pressed his hand softly in her own, called her husband. Presently she rose as the tears came into her eyes, up. "Thank God, indeed, dear Harry !" she "I will put little Mary to bed," she said, quietly, and stole away up-stairs, with the as he tock his spelling-book to the nursery the roof tree which had table. "Mamma, what makes him so tered her girlhood, Charley

"Hush, Johnny," said Mrs. Melton, suit of clothes, and Mrs. Barbour had whose wifely loyalty admitted of no doubt new roll of work sent her the very next or question. "Papa is tired." this version of affairs, but he fell back on ry Melton in years to come. Nina Melton, the most eager child of "words of six syllables," without asking them all, ran to the door, and stood there, any more questions; and Nina returned shook his head and talked of how many down-stairs, taking up her needle-work, hundreds of dollars Melton might have clinging round her skirt; to welcome her and quietly seated herself by the shaded been worth 'if he hadn't been so foolish! husband's coming footsteps, the beau ideal gas-burner, as she saw that Harry lay on generous to people who never thanked the sofa apparently asleep, with a news. him," Harry only smiled, and remember chuck under the chin for Johnny, and a in the stillness, and the indistinct hum from word of greeting for them all, "what makes the street below floated in through the half-open window, Nina let the work fall "Nothing, child; only I'm tired, and I to her lap, and unconsciously drifted away upon the tide of grave and troubled The dinner was ready-a pair of brown thoughts which seemed to eddy around her first, and a bread pudding afterward; for They were making money, the firm of Nina Melton was as notable a housekeeper Melton & Chisdale. She had heard people as any in the land. But Harry Melton's say so, time and again; she had been con- of the North-West. It is a suggestive face did not soften in it's rigid outlines as gratulated upon the success of her hus- name, too, since in the Indian language Nina was helping her youngest child to pleased response. Old uncle Darwin Field, just where the Canadian Pacific Railway its little plate of pudding, when one of the when he had made his week's visit in the crosses the Little Saskatchewan. servants came softly in and whispered city two years ago, had contemplated Harry Melton's luxurious home with grave wistfulness, and said to her:

have wings, and don't get too sot on sich

"Can it be possible," she thought, as her sad eye gazed out into the starry firmament of the summer night, "that he too has caught the worst infection of money-makdear, that she is a widow, with six little ing-that he is growing avaricious and mean and grasping? Oh, no, no, Harry never The work lay unbeeded in her lap. Sae had no heart to sew now. Up to the pres-"Pay her for what she has done," he ent moment, Nina Melton's life had been one of uninterrupted smoothness and sunshine. Could it be that the shadows, so long withheld that she had learned to doubt their actual existence, so far as she was concerned, were coming at last.

Suddenly Harry Melton started from his slumbers and sat upright, gazing with a bewildered air around the room. "Nina, wife, are you there?" he said, in strange, husky tone. "I am here, Harry."

"What was only a dream?"

"how real it seems yet! Where are the other world that lies before us all. You understand me, Nina?" "I understand you, Harry," she answered, her soft, wondering eyes fixed upon losing the rent of the farm just because she strangest mystery of all. You seemed to to be erected by the munificence of Hor. you, and the children were gathering flow- route, are completed by the payment said, a little petulantly, "I might have there were many others there, and the air this case and assented to a rale, instead of reason with you. Women can't be logical faintly hear. And I was hastening toward to be occupied by a Divinity School which "If this is the way you are feeling, wall-a wall built of shining pieces of gold, University, in much the same way that o do a charitable action for one so piteous of those persons who were poorer. ly afflicted by Providence; so I told Mr. than I-Giles, Lascombe's hard earn-Liscombe that poor Giles could have it for ed money, and the rent for poor old Aunt the former rent of mine hundred." Dorcas' house, and the little I fain would "Then you did a foolish thing," said Mr. have taken from Mrs. Barbour's hoard, Melton, rising and beginning to pace the and much more besides. Oh, Nina! when room in evident annoyance, "a very foolish I saw that shining barrier, I knew that it Communications presented and read as fol- enable said Directors to improve said and ill-considered thing indeed. I must divided us eternally, and it was mode plain lows: A. McLellan, re lots 201, 202 and grounds by building pans and other imsend my clerk around to Liscombe's the to me all of a sudden how miserably I had 208. 2 east, Artemesia; McKittrick Bros., provements. Moved by Mr. Dawsor, sca year to Giles Liscombe just because he his own soul?' It seemed as if a great is a cripple. I pay my taxes, I contribute weight rested on my soul-an awful load and fixing duties and salary, introduced - Moved by Mr. Allen, seconded by Mr. to the charity funds of the church, and I of remorse. I lifted up my voice to utter and passed in the usual way. Mr. Elliott Lawrence, That Messrs. McFadyen & Mccan't and won't do any more!" // a cry of despair, but I could not breath | moved, seconded by Mr. Wright, that By- Gregor's bill for 1880, for expenses in con-Nina listened in silence. To her it even a whisper; and then I awoke. Nina, law No. 311, appointing pathmasters for nection with Mrs. Rogers, and drawing seemed as if some strange transformation Nina, thank God with me that it was only 1880, be now read a third time and entered Treasurer's Bond, amounting to $18.59, be

Lame Giles Liscombe had the store on other children silently following her. Sixth Avenue at the old rent, and Aunt "Papa isn't mee to-night," said Johnny, Dorcas lived and died undisturbed under bloomed out gorgeously in Johnny' day. Nor were they the only ones that Johnny was not altogether satisfied with | blessed the noble-hearted liberality of Har-

And when old Chisdale, his partner ed the good old text: "For what shall Once or twice, as the clock ticked softly | profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

> Forty thousand dollars have been expended at Barrie by men engaged in securing the ice crop. Sixteen houses, containbeen filled. An ag CE.7 to .. toni deet or specimen .- Examiner. of the Nova Scotia Supreme Court, has just given a decision thet, if correct, will have a startling effect in whatever provinces it Pritchard for payment of a stove for Mrs. "Then, thank goodness, it was only a trate's court on a license case, he has decided that judgments issued by certain magistrates are invalid. The Judge's prin-"Come here, and I will tell you, wife- cipal ground for the decision is that Lieuhere, close to my side. Heavens !" he tenant Governors, not being representamuttered, beneath his breath, as he passed tives of the Oneen direct and not having his hand ureasily over his wet forehead, been in ested by Provincial law with the power to appoint magistrates, their appointments to the magistracy are invalid; and, "Upstairs. Mary and Nina are asleep, hence the acts of the persons they appoint are also invalid. As no Act has been "I have had the strangest medley of a passed in Nova Scotia since the Union, dream you ever heard," he went on. 'Ni- authorizing the Local Governor to appoint na, I think it must have been intended for magistrates, no man has been legally made a warning for me. It seemed to me as if I a magistrate since that period. If Judge were dead. I had not passed through the Savary is right, then a perfect mess of mortal strife of dissolution, and yet I was matters legal will result, unless remedial standing in the gloom and mystery of that measures be at once taken; and the same will be the case in every other province whose Legislature has not given its Governor the right to make magistrates.

Odanah is the name of the newest city

BAPTIST COLLEGE,-We learn from the "And you and the children were with Baptist that the negociations for the purme also, and not with me-that was the chase of a site for the new Theological Hall, ers at your feet-flowers such as I have $10,090, the price of the land. The Uninever seen in any mortal gardens; and versity authorities made an exception in was full of music whose strains I could lease, by reason of the fact that the lot was you, when my footsteps were stopped by a would avail itself of certain classes in the "'Let me pass !' I cried ; 'let me go to from the University door, and very near them !' and I pointed eagerly to the green | the new Parliament Buildings: The lot is 250x250 feet. It is the crown of a beauti- | Grey, whose premises were seized a short " 'Never!' the sentinel answered. 'This, ful knoll covered with a grove of magnifiwall divides them from you forever - the cent pine trees, most of which can remain wall you yourself have built up in your The building will be commenced the pres- a vench of magistrates on the charge, and 19th of May. "But I raised the rent to a welve han- short sighted gree I and avarice I ent shows and it is hoped it will be under fined $100. Mr. Cavan. Collector of Inland. The London Agricultural Gazette as a "And then I knew that that the gold Foof Def le hext winter. The gift of such a

Artemesia Council.

Council met in town hall, Flesherton, on behalf of the said society, showing that the Monday, April 6th. All present. Minutes Township of Egremont owned an equal of last meeting read and confirmed. Audi- proportion of the grounds and fixtures built tors' quarterly report presented and read. thereon, and asking a grant of money to first thing to-morrow morning. I can't failed in life. 'For what shall it profit a re road scrapers. Petition of W. Buchanan conded by Mr. McCormack, That the appliafford to make a present of three hundred man if he gain the whole world and lose and others presented and read. By-law cation be laid over until next meeting for No. 312, appointing W. J. Bellamy clerk, further consideration. - Carried. in by-law-book .- Carried. Mr. Elliot mov- paid ; and a bill of McFadyen's for former ed, seconded by Dr. Christoe, that the post years be laid over for further consideration. tition of Mr. Buchanan and others be - Carried granted, and that he receive $40 in consid- Moved by Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. ter-lost. Mr. Elliott moved, seconded by instructed to crase taxes against Lot 3 of 2 Mr. McLeod, that Mr. Histop be allowed to and 1 of 3, Con. 1, for 1876, as the same is perform statute labor for lot 24, con. 11, on an error. - Carried. the new road-carried. Six hundred dol- Moved by Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. lars was appropriated to the repairing and Allen, That James Shearer be refunded in each ward, including commissioners' fees; | 8 of 30, Con. 1.—Carried. no special grants to be made except on A petition was presented by Richard town lines. Mr. Elliot moved, seconded Morrison and 31 others, praying that S. S. by Mr. McLeod, that the resignation of J. No. 1 remain with its present boundaries. the same time this Council take pleasure McCormack, That the Clerk having written ed. This Council furthermore express a considers the answer to said questions, not business relations shall be in the same bon- take any action in the matter. - Carried. est and courteous demeanor as was always | Moyed by Mr. Allen, seconded by Mr. manifested to this Board by him. Council McCormack, That the Reeve having re

a ljourned; W. J. BELLAMY, Clerk.

Melancthon Council. The Council met at the Town Hall on the 11th of March. The members were all Township all expenses in connection with ing from 14,000 to 18,000 tons each, have present. A number of communications and accounts were presented and read. Robert Hickley, an indigent, was granted the sum of $3. The Trustees of S. S. No. 1 were paid the sum of $17.24 being surband's business, and had smiled back a Odanah means "the city." It is situated plus taxes accruing on debentures. Messrs. Atkinson & Tupper were paid $3.25 for repairing 3 road scrapers, and for repairing two road scrapers Mr. James Hemming A LAUDABLE OBJECT.-We are requested received the sum of $1. The Clerk was to inform our young readers in Egremont authorized to invite tenders for the print-"Remember, Nina, my gal, that riches | that the Board of Directors of the Egremont | ing or 400 copies of the minutes and audi-Agricultural Society have decided to offer, tors' for 1879 in pamphlet form. The at the Fall Show, five prizes for the best Treasurer was authorized to receive from She had thought the old man's interfer. specimen of printing and the same for writ- Mr. A. Perry $24.36, texes due on Lot 32, ence almost impertinent, at the time ; now jing. The first prize is to be $1.25, and Con. 8, N. E., for the years 1878-79, and his words came to her like a half-forgotten each succeeding one to be reduced by 25 that he be allowed to perform six days cents. The entrance fee is to be ten cents, statute labor and receive for same $6, the Mr. N. Dickey, one of the Directors of 1, and limited to children attending school in Clerk to notify the County Treasurer to T. G. &B. R. are visiting various Munici the Township, and not to be older than six- erase the taxes ; from Mr. Vickers Bates palities interested in the success of the road, teen years. The Secretary will require the sum of $10.40, being taxes due on the regarding the proposed scheme far widenalong with the specimens a note from each east half of Lot 18, Con. 3, O. S. for 1879. ing the gauge, and otherwise improving teacher certifying that such work was pre- On the introduction of pathmaster's certifi- the railway. They have visited Mount pared under his supervision. We trust cate, Mr. John Craner was ordered to be Forest, Owen Sound, and other places, and that the teachers in the Township will give paid $4 for four days statute labor for Lots are meeting with favorable reception. The this matter their hearty approval and aid 16 and 17. Con. 7, N. E. An order was amount of the financial assistance required the enterprise by becoming members, issued in favor of Mr. Andrew Jamieson from the municipalities was stated to be as that this will not draw too for $10, to be expended for the benefit of follows :heavily upon the funds or private subscrip- Mrs. Jane Wood. The Treasurer was au- Vaughan..... tion. We give timely notice so that the thorized to receive a note of hand, with Albion children may prepare during the summer security, payable in six weeks, for arrears Bolton Village. months. The age of each child is to be ta- of taxes on Lots 243 and 244, Con. 4, ken into consideration, and is to be on the W., for 1879, amounting to $19.12. The Clerk was paid $4 for postage, &c. The IMPORTANT, IF CORRECT.—Judge Savary by anction the chopping out of the swamp on the 4th Con., N. E., opposite Lots 11 and 12. The application of Mr. G. A. Jane Wood was not entertained. The al Committee at Orangoville. 100 posters Harriston were ordered to be printed at the Free Press office for the use of the Road Commissioners. The Reeve and Deputy-Reeve were requested to investigate the cause of Teeswater the accident that befell Mr. Wiggins on the 3rd Con., N. E. The Collector's time was extended till the 15th of April. The Treasurer was instructed to accept from Mr. R. Watson an endorsed note for $10.43, payable in three months. The Reeve, Deputy-Keeve and Clerk were appointed a Committee to investigate the Treasurer's sureties. Mr. Robert McGhee was appointed arbitrator on behalf of Melancthon in the Derby . matter of separation between Shelburne and this township. The Council then adjourned to meet on the third Monday in Seizure of an Illicit Still.

OWEN SOUND, April 7 .- W. J. Graham Collector of Inland Revenue, and Mr. R has taken a childish notion that she can't stand afar off, in beautiful green meadows Wm. McMaster, for the training of the Hartley, Deputy Collector, made a visit all misty with the sunshine that was around ministry for the Baptists of Canada in To. yesterday to an illicit distillery situated in of the woods in rear of Mr. J. Gordon's, lot 3, in the 3rd concession of Euphrasia. The distillery, which consisted of a large underground chamber and a frame structure above, was most ingeniously contrived, and was entered by means of a secret trap in a closet. A portion of the plant had been removed. There was a considerable quan-Harry," said Nina, "I'm afraid you will with a sentinel standing beyond in white. Knox College does. The site is on the tity of spirits in the place, the greater pordisapprove of what I ventured to do to-day. glittering raiment, with a sword whose Bloor street front of the University grounds | fion of which the officers destroyed. The in Toronto, and less than ten minutes walk premises were said to be owned and oper-Principal Dawson presents to the museum MOUNT FOREST, April 7th .- Mr. George Egremont Council.

Orchardville, March 19th, 1880. Minutes of the Egremont Council. Members all present; Reeve in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Moved by Mr. Allen, seconded by Mr. Lawrence, That the application of William Walden for remuneration for deviation o road on Lot 22, Con. 1, be laid over until the Clerk examine old By-laws of the Township. - Carried.

Moved by Mr. Lawrence, seconded by Mr. Allen, That the ratepayers in Holstein having asked leave to lay down side-walks, that this Council do grant leave, on condition that no side-walk be laid down within twenty feet of the centre of the road .-

The Directors of the South Grey Agricultural Society addressed the Council on eration of his loss in the Nelson Hill mat- McCormack, That the County Treasurer be improving of roads in the township-$25 | $3.80 as taxes returned in error against Let

W. Henderson as clerk be accepted, and at Moved by Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. in acknowledging the ability with which to the Minister of Education, asking certain the duties of his office have been perform- questions respecting S. S No. 1. This council desire that all his future associations and sufficiently clear to enable the Council to ceived from the Court of Chancery, for Mrs. Rogers, $127.84; and according to agreement with Mrs. Rogers and this Coun cil, the same be handed over to the Treasurer, with instruction to refund to the the same, and also the bill for clothing to Mrs. Rogers and daughter, paid to Mr.

Dickson.-Carried Moved by Mr. Lawrence, seconded by Mr. Dawson, That the Clerk notify S. tr. Nos. 3, 4, 5 and 6, that the Council will meet on Tuesday, the 6th of April next, at Noble's Hotel, for to re-construct, if ad visable, said sections, and for other bus: ness, and that this Council do now adjourn accordingly. - Carried;

R. LEGATE, Clerk.

Council adjourned.

The T. G. & B. Railway. We notice that Mr. Beatty, Solicitor, an East Garafraxa. West Garafraxa (sectional)..... Arthur Township.....

We understand that all the employees of the Toronto, Grey & Bruce Railway have received notice that their services will not be required after the first of June next, as it is the intention of the company to close the road on that date. It will be left for the people along the line to say whether its supension will be permanent or not, There is no doubt the closing of the road would be a great public calamity, and we trust that the municipalities interested will they can to prevent such a result. Shelsoum building for McGill College, and his valuable private collection.

Hanlan and Courtney have signed an time ago for containing an illicit malting agreement to row a five mile race at Wash establishment, was yesterday, tried before i gton, Baltimore, or Pailadelphia on the Recenue, of Goderich, was tie prosecutor. that Con dian bacter is the worst class of wille and Napance last week.

I THE CHEAPEST EERICA. TPE INCREASED CATION. SOO. THE WEEKLY or great variety of t the paper gratis, sent free of postage ritain for $2.20 of P.O money order. r by express at our

all lressed to the a between the date GLOBE 'E.m. . 4474

COMPANY, Teranta-