Durham.

E FAIRS.

n each month.

each month

e Orangeville.

Orangeville.

Order.

RHAM.

"THE REVIEW"

is PUBLISHED

Every Thursday.

Atthe Office, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town Durham, - -Ont.

TERMS:-$1.00 per year in Advance en 31.25 if not paid within two months. "Es

RATES OF ADVERTISING Professional and business cards, one inch space and under, per year, $ 4

I wo inches or 24 lines Nonpariel measure Three inches do. per year

Casaal advertisements charged 8 cts. per Line for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line for each aubinquent insertion - Nopareil Ordinary notices of births, marriages all kinds of local news, inserted

SPRAY ANIMALS, &c., advertised three weeks for $1, the advertisement not to ex-Advertisements, except when accompanied by written instructions to the contrary, are nserted until forbidden, and charged at regular rates. J. TOWNSEND.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, A opposite Parker's Drug Store, Upper Town, Money to Loan.

C. B. JACKES, B. A. A TTORNEY at Law, Solicitor in Chan-A cery Commissioner in B. R., Notary Public Lower Town, Durham. y 7th, 1879.

McFAYDEN & ROBARTS, BARRISTERS. Solicitors in Chancery, Frost & Frost.

BARRISTERS and Attorneys at Law, solicitors in Chancery and Insolvency, Con-Offices -- Poulett St., next McClean Bros., Owen Sound, and every Thursday at Flesherton. J. W. FROST, LL. B.

MEDICAL. DR. KIERNAN,

CRADUATE of Victoria University, versity, Montreal. Surgery in rear of Medical Hall Lower Town, Durham Da. JAMIESON,

RADUATE of Toronto University and Surgeons of Ontario, Office-Opposite, Parker's Drug Store, Durham, where he may be found at all DR. LIGHTBODY, a.m. to Noon, Athome, 2nd Con, N.D.R., Bentinck, after noon. Messages for the Dr. left at CORDON. will visit British Hotel, Imphang on the 3th and 9th of every month. live since work only done. Head Offices at Elora F. Z. NIXON.

VETERINARY SURGEON,

RADUATE of Ontario Vetrinary Col-

MISCELLANEOUS.

W. CALDWELL

Boot and Shoemaker,

COUTH END, Durham, near Cattle the above line would respectfully solicit a share of The very best material used, workmanship prize work in the principal cities of Canada and Fine Calf Boots, sewed, from $5.50 to $6.50. pegged, from $4.75 to $5.50.

VICKS Illustrated Floral

he best Flowers and Vegetables, with price of Vicks Illustrated Monthly Magazine-3. for $5.00. Specimen Numbers sent for 10 cents

JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y. W. CHITTICK.

Merchant Tailor,

MAIN STREET, DUNDALK.

IN thanking his numerous customers for their past favors, and soliciting their future ones bogs to say that he is now fully prepared to execute any orders that may be entrusted to him with Either Sewed or Pegged, neatness and punctuality, and at prices the cheap-

Cutting Specially Attended to.

Dundalk Mills.

Dundalk and Surrounding Country, That he is per pared now to do all kinds of Gristing, Chopping, &c., &c.

ALL KINDS OF MILL Produce THE subscriber wishes to intimate to Farmers, and the Public Generally that having had the above Mills furnished with the

First Class Flour kept on Hand. ALFX. HUNTER.

Dundalk, March 24th, 1880.

Vol. III. No. 14.

PROPERTY FOR SALE.

House and Lot for Sale in

Durham.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, MAY 20, 1880.

POETRY

No Friend Like Jesus. No friend like Jesus-can it be, No friend on earth like Christ to me? Ah yes! 'tis true, I've found it so-

I've cast on Him my every care.

Through all this life I cannot find

No friend like Jesus, whilst I stray,

While sailing o'er life's stormy sea,

I find no friend like Christ to me,

No friend like Jesus! Oh hew grand

Where e'er I go, what e'er betide,

I still have Jesus for my guide,

No friend like Jesus, this shall be

And glory in His Cross alone.

To humbly sit of Jesus' feet-

His saving power I will make known,

No friend like Jesus! Oh, how sweet

To hear Him say, "I am thy friend "

"I'm with you always to the end."

No friend like Jesus! hear him say,

Fear not but put your trust in me,

A crown of life I'll give to thee!"

No friend like Jesus! all through life,

Through all life's journey, he will lend

His cheering presence to the end.

Mo friend like Jeans! none so kind!

No friend like Jesus, when the night

Of death begins to dim my sight :

And dash their spray upon my soul.

When burning worlds beneath our feet,

Shall truly melt with fervent heat.

No friend like Josus, when we stand

Dear Saviour, thou shalt ever be

My friend through all eternity

And though I oft his spirit grieve,

He's always willing to forgive.

No friend like Josus, in that day

He fills with peace the troubled mind,

When death's dark waves shall round me roll

When heaven and earth shall pass away.

Around His throne, a blood-washed band,

A Brave Revenge.

dirty boy to get off the stoop at once.'

the boy in obedience to his lovely mistress'

But the boy, evidently a bootblack, sparplate glass window had in hers, and there

'A cat may look at a king," was his inward comment, and leaning against a neighboring lamp-post, he watched until morning, he slowly shuffled away.

tood and shelter as best he could.

gold-headed cane.

self up to his own dismal thoughts.

'Might have know'd letter'n ter come heard him remark to his companion as he sake be quick !'

eyes toward the lady's face.

Midst conflicts wanderings, toil and strife

"Come hither, soul, I am the way,

To have dear Jesus for my friend;

Far from my home, o'er life's rough way;

THE Proprietor wishes to dispose of Lot No. 3, on Albert Street, one Range East of Gars erected a good dwelling House and Stable. The Lot contains one acre of land. A good well and pump, and a number of fruittrees, on the premises otherwise as may be agreed upon. For further particulars apply at the REVIEW Office.

House and Three Acres of Land For Sale.

A GREAT BARGAIN. THE Subscriber wishing to leave this part of the country offers for sale his proper

VILLAGE OF PRICEVILLE. nsisting of three acres of excellent land, under ltivation on which is erected a small cottage me. This property would make a nice homestead for a mechanic or any one wish-Will be sold for $300, which is only $25 per quarter A TTORNEY - AT - LAW, &c .- OFFICE acre lot. Apply to the proprietor, or by letter to

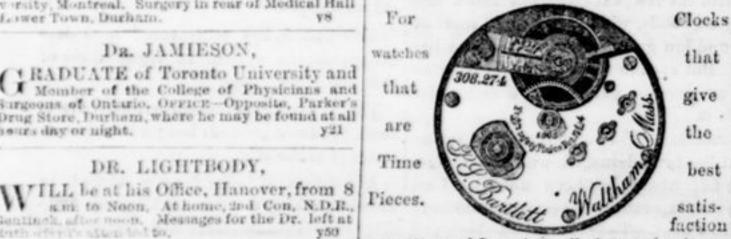

> Money to Loan

ON Real Estates at 8, 81, and 9 per cent, according to privilages granted. Loans Repayable Instalments, or Otherwise To Suit Borrowers.

TRUST AND LOAN CO. OF CANADA English & Scottish Investment Co., (Limited

DOLL, Flesherton and Dundalk,

W. F. DOLL.

ROBT. BULL, walking slowly away. DUILDER, Durham, keeps on hand a full stock of Coffins, Caskets, Shrouds and Trim- through the wide cracks in his ill-mated her name am Sophronia Johnson.'

tememberthe place,-a short distance north of

Alexander Robertson, TAILOR,

Residence at the Old Post Office, Lower Town, ler's, and for some moments he feasted his DURHAM. eyes on the charming picture before him.

THE subscriber is prepared to Receive and Make Up, on the shortest notice, and in he Latest Style, Men and Boy's Clothing. A good Latest Fashions Regularly Received A few first-class BARCLAY' Sewing Machines For Sale.

ALEX, ROBERT Durham Nov 1878

Leather, Leather,

DHE subscriber has on hand and for arst-class order, and at prices as low as it can be the rolls and coffee he could not buy, had purchased at any other place. wandered' he scarcely knew how or why. into the present aristocratic locality.

Boots and Shoes,

on hand and made to measure. Good Work men, Good Material and Low Prices. Repairing done with neatness and despatch.

CASH FOR HIDES.

The Last Call. The undersigned would intimate to those whose accounts are long past due that unless a settlement made within the next two months, the accounts will be placed in other hands for collection. J. C. JOPP Rockville, Bentinck July 1st, 1879

EDGE MILLS, DURHAM. At another time he would have returned crib.

Gristing & Merchant Work He is prepared to fill all orders entrusted to him on the shortest notice and in a first class manner looked fully as much out of place on the avenue as the young bootblack himself. it?" said the man, nodding at the boy and from the rosewood bedstead at his side. brush.

CHOPPING carefully attended to. ZENUS CLARK. Derham, Feb 12, 1880.

The boy nodded in return. No friend like Jesus here below. No friend like Jesus! blessed truth! shoes, will you?" I've proved this in the days of youth, In life's young morn so bright and fair, smile flitting over his face the while. No friend like Jesus! glorious thought! In a few moments the "cowhides" were I've by experience this been taught: On earth, a friend so true and kind. the depths of his great pockets for the

'Zactly'

'You're what they cell a per esshunal stretched arms. bootblack, haint you?"

uy the craft; look as though you hadn't every instant the danger increased, and he tion. What we have most to complain of parish lived in the country, and contributed come this way again I'll shine you up for fell to the ground.

eastern blowing its icy breath to the marrow of one's bones.

it on that chill November morning, all his hundred dollars, which seemed like a for usurping traditions, there is, so to speak, not being local, but of its being everywhere former spirits returned as the last morsel tune in his inexperienced eyes, was certain something of an epidemic in the air. We among men? Let us hear the confession and soon, as luck would have it, turning to take his future in their charge. the pennies as fast as he could reasonably

It was near 8 o'clock that same evening, and our young friend, standing beneath the light of a street lamp, was turning in his mind whether he had best spend a por-'John Thomas,' said a beautiful young slightly touched his shoulder. lady, as she threw up the sash of the win-Turning suddenly, he beheld the ebeny

he had a slight acquaintance. John Thomas, the liveried footman, who was arranging the mats in an elegant coop | izingly. before the door, at once walked towards

All right, shady. Then I'm the one yer mouth of the Souris, only one skiff was ed him the trouble by rising at once and arter. How much yer goin' to guv?' Just one shilling, and its only to tote a the party across. The river was booming He was a poor, emaciated, forlorn-look- note to a young colored lady dat libs wis but a portion of the party had been safely ing fellow, with his clothes hanging about | some white folks a piece up town. She' humble, easy way, as the fair lady at the an' I'm off.' 'Whew!' exclaimed the boy, as he start- informant was not quite certain. This was it for an instant in the direction of the druy me from this mornin'. Wonder if the nigger'll order me off the stoop, 'I'll not soil their stoop with my rags a- | As the young "colored gemman" had across, and finally, as they approached the gain," he thought, as the clear, cutting said, it was 'only a piece up town, the other shore, she went over, precipitating tones ceased, and the window slid slowly house being on Fifth avenue, just above the occupants into the rushing flood. At Sixteenth street.

But having reached the next pavement beyond, he paused and again turned his street, a piercing cry of "Fire!" "Fire!" the direction of a fallen tree which he had reached the ear; hurrying on to see whence observed extended out from the shore quite She was extremely beautiful, reminding it came, to his amazement, it proved to be a distance into the stream. Being a little him of one of the bright prints he had been the very house to which he was bent on above the tree, he struggled manfully, and went to admire at a down-town bookselhis errand as letter-carrier.

crowd was rapidly gathering before the by the icy current, so that all he could do door, and among them the bootblack was was to clutch the twigs with a dying grasp soon standing. In some way the fire had gained a head- McPhee had struck out for the shore they

she descended the broad stoop, entered the carriage and was driven away. Then with a sigh and shiver, for it was a cold wintry through the wide halls and into the second could not see him on account of the dark It was some years ago, before boy's lodging houses or other hospitable retreats of crimson light appeared in its midst, and down into the Assiniboine, as his body was were thought of, and like many another bootblack and newsboy of the period, when man with clasped hands and a face stricken fate struggled desperately, but was dragged without means, he was compelled to find | with terror. Our young friend recognized him at once. On this morning he had arisen with ach-

It was the same old gentleman that had told him so graffly to be off that morning, dition, and the former, knowing that Donng bones from the interior of an empty hogshead, where he had managed to pass and in an instant he took it all in, that he nelly had made an attempt to reach the the night, and after taking a long look at was the father of the beautiful young lady he had seen at the window, and that someone was perishing in the flames. 'My child, my pet!' he was saying to himself; then turning excitedly to the ga-Hungry, tired and cold, he scarcely had the spirit to look about for another job ; but thering crowd, he said in tones that soundmidway down the block he espied two gen- ed above the din of the approaching en. tlemen engaged in conversation, and with gines, and the hum of the murmuring throng He was at once carried to the shore, but an effort he quickened his steps toward about him : 'A hundred dollars to the one who will save my grandchild. Who will save my "Have a shine, sir?" he asked, glancing up at the elder of the two, a stout old gentleman. faultlessly dressed and carrying a 'I will,' responded a shrill voice at his side, no other than that of the poor boot-

But a cool 'clear out' accompanied with a black of the morning. 'You are only a child,' he beganwave of the gold crested stick was the only But the boy, pointing to the twirlin flames above him, interrupted hastily. 'Those young rascals ought to be sup-'Tell me where the child is, and for God's death. pressed by the police as a nuisance, he

'In the second story, back in a little! the old gentleman's opinion with a sarcasm "Some of you fellers boost me onter that as cutting as his own, but now he was quite ledge above the parlor winder?' said the too discouraged and miserable to reply, and boy to the gaping bystanders, 'an' I'll have sitting down on the curbstone, gave him- | it down in a twinkling." Quickly they did his bidding, and in les time than it takes to relate it, he had clam over here among the swells, anyway, was bered to the front chamber window, and, ted in Chicago of marrying three women, countryman, who, in his homespon rig, room.

He soon tound the crib, and taking the Christianity and its New As little sleeper in his arms, wrapped it from 'That a boot-blackin' arrangement, ain't head to foot in a blanket which he tore

Then pulling of one of the sheets he endeavored to tear it into shreds, but in vain; it into a number of strips.

could feel the seething fire almost catching is a perceptible rapidity of the question nothing to the church, to the schools, which 'Yer right there, boss ; no more I have.' him in its merciless embrace. 'Thought so,' was the rejoinder, 'and | 'I must jump,' he shouted, and a hun-

The Winnipeg Free Press of the 6th

dow at which she was standing, 'tell that | visage of a young colored waiter with whom says :- News was received to day of a terrible accident which occurred at the mouth him in tatters, and his bare toes peeping actin' in the 'pacity ob chumbermaid, and boat. Their names were Frank McPhee, of Shediac, N. B.; George Elliott and John shoes, but he had as much pride in his 'Well, give us the change an' the letter, Whitelaw, Coburg; Ed, Donnelly, Palmerston, Ont., and a man of whose name our was an unmistakeable look of wounded ed off with the letter in his pocket, and the too much of a load for the frail bark, but before they lost their intellectual vigor.— was brought to the parsonage in payment dignity on his begrimed race as he turned directions in his head. 'The very house they pushed boldly out. This was about 9 Mr. Gladatone. o'clock in the evening, and quite dark The boat dipped several times on the way this juncture Donnelly shouted out, 'Every But as the boy neared the corner of the man for himself,' and made a plunge in was swept into its branches, but his The fire alarm had been sounded, and a strength was spent, and he was numbed and wait for assistance. In the meantime way before its existence had been discov- had just left, and his cries for assistance ered, and the flames were darting upward could be heard by those on the bank who story. The staircase was wrapped in a ness. His strength however failed him. wreathing cloud of smoke, and little flames and it is conjectured that he was swept on the pavement just beyond a gray.haired never found. The third man who met his down into the depths, from which he never emerged. Elliott and Whitelaw succeeded in reaching the shore in an exhausted coufallen tree, informed his friends of the fact. A search was at once made, but poor Donnelly was discovered clinging to the branches with a death grip. He had been forty-five minutes in the water and chilled and nerveless by reason of his long submersion, he was more dead than alive. the strain had been too great for his power of endurance, and he died in a few minutes after his rescue without apeaking a word, > the banks of the river near the place of his Both McPhee and Donnelly were wel known here, having arrived in this city some time ago, from whence they proceed ed west for the purpose of securing land for the establishment of a colony. Donnelly leaves a wife in Palmerston, Ont., to who his untimely death will be a terrible blow.

> although he was conscious and made several attempts to do so. His arms were found to be frozen by the exposure he had undergone, that it was with the greates difficulty his clutch on the branches could be unloosed. He was buried next day or sentenced to prison for a term of five years. the estimates .- Mercury.

Whole No. 117.

sailants.

position to disturb, a preference for nega- tae hae the Indian Collection in the Cor-Since, he has become a man of high po- tion, and something of a mental levity, poration Galleries sune? It'll be weel worth sition and unquestioned ability, and when- which are more or less included in the term gaun tae, nae!" Kirstie-"Weel, I'm shuir ever he is asked how he came by the scar scepticism-a temper to be discouraged, a I'll no gang, for whin they had the Indian on his forehead his answer is: 'I received frame of mind broadly distinguished from Collection in oor kirk I ave bide at hame. it when I was a bootblack, and I call it what Dante has sanctioned and Tennyson They're age makin collections for India." has called "honest doubt," as well as from There is here an obvious lack of the spirit tion of his earnings in a theatre ticket, or Three Men Drowned in Ma- mination so to speak, even to hate father interests of religion- and humanity; but and mother for its sake. If this be se, than this spiritual indifference there are what I suggest is, in a manner, to meet worse forms, a few of which we subjoin, as scepticism with scepticism, a wanton scept- samples of classes differing the one from icism with a scepticism more legitimate the other in form and degree, but agreeing 'How are ye, Sambo?' he asked, patron- of the Souris River on the 28th of April. by tions; compel it to explain its formulæ; 1. Famished Chickens in Lieu of Mon-'Oh, bery well, tank'e, but I'ze in a pow- eternity. It appears that a large party had in its hand; bring it front to front with chickens were brought one night to the erful hurry, and I come over dis way to been exploring the land in the vicinity with history; even demand that it shall show parsonage, but they were, by starvation, a view of locating. On arriving at the the positive elements with which it propos- reduced to poverty and so exhausted by es to replace the mainstays it seems bent the jolting of the waggon over rough roads available, and this was utilized to transport on withdrawing from the fabric of modern that they were all found dead the next society. When it alleges that our modern morning. The paster was thus paid, but morality-such as it is-is really the work, he received nothing of value for his sergot over, when five persons entered the not of Christianity, but of civilization, re-vices. quire it to show cause why this advanced 2. TAINTED MEAT IN LIEU OF MONEY .morality has never grown up except under A heifer was killed for the use of the housethe ægis of the Gospel; why the old civili- hold, but it did not keep well. What, in > about half an acre in extent-we leave for thing. That clanes out all the rest!" scientists to explain.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE EXTENSION -The contract for the entire work for the erection of the south wing of the Agricul during 1879 amounted to $13,529,254, an tural College has been let to Mr Brown, of increase of over $800,000 over the previous Davis the brgamist, who has been convic- Hamilton, who will commence operations year. immediately. The cottages are not to be Thirty buildings in the village of Stuyhis inward comment, but it went no fur- effecting an en rance, disappeared amid the and is believed to have married thirteen, built this year, the contract for the comple- vesant, in New York State, were destroyed ther, for he was now accosted by a big choking smoke that was fast filling the one of whom was a Canadian, has been tion of the main building having exceeded by fire on Thursday. The loss is estimate intellectual battle against Christianity has be made on the following Sunday to been fought and won are reckoning without defray the church expenses. He was, Well, then, bub, you up and gloss my it was made of the strongest and finest of their host. Christianity, even in its sadly therefore, not surprised at the scanty atlinen. His knife. however, was in his imperfect developement, is, as a matter of tendance of his parishioners. It had always This bub was only too glad to do, a faint pocket, and hastily whipping it out he cut fact, at the head of the world. I am tempt- been so, and was anything but creditable ed, gentlemen, turther to offer you, with a to his flock. If there had been no collection Then tying them together to form a daring which I hope may be thought excus- there would have been a larger attendance, as the owner declared, 'all right,' and sur- rope, he fastened it about the middle of the able, a general observation on the frame of and in spite of the bad weather. The treamind in which we all-and most of all surer, or rather the person who paid the 'Here it is,' he shouted, and at once low- those specially engaged—should meet that bills, had advanced £30 more than he had ered the child into its grandfathers' out- conflict or contact with opposing forces, received, and more bills were coming in which, in this day no thoughtfully educat- The collections were always insufficient, A great cheer resounded from the multi- ed man can hope wholly to escape. No and he had never seen any gold in the tude below, and the firemen, seeing the defence is to be found in timidity, but plate except his own. The wealthy who 'Then, by Jimmy! Yer a poor specimen; precarious position, ran for a ladder. But much defence is to be found in circumspec- had acquired riches and kept shops in the trial, and summary condemnation, which educated 700 children, and would soon edis perhaps as far removed from reason as ucate 1,400, or to the numerous charities here's fifteen cents for tu buy yer break- dred hands reached out to catch him as he is the grossest of the superstition it con- in operation in the parish. They were demr.s. There is a kind of steeplechase principally supported by a people at a dis-'You are a bully cove,' was the boy's re- But with all the eagerness of those beneath philosophy in vogue; sometimes it is spe- tauce. He was sure that those who had ply, as he pocketed the money; 'when you him, they missed their reckoning and he cialism that assumes the honors prospered in the parish, and who had neof universal knowledge, and makes gleeted their duty to their church and to Tender hands roised him, but there was short cuts to its conclusion. Sometimes it their poorer neighbors, would not always Fifteen cents at such a time was as good no recognition in the still white face. A is that knowledge of external nature is, by prosper. Is this outburst, from the pulpir, as a fortune, and away sped the boy to deep gash across the forehead pointed to one of the strangest of solecisms, thought of righteous indignation against the parsithe most serious wound he had received, to convey a supreme capacity for judging mony of the pew in the interests of religion There is nothing that reflects so directly and without once opening his eyes or giv- questions which belong entirely to the and humanity well founded in fact, or is it on the entire system as a good breakfast, the least sign of consciousness, he was sphere of moral action and of moral needs. not merely the figment of imagination? If All this suggests that abnormal causes are well founded in fact, is it peculiar to this It was days before he recovered his sen- in some degree at work; that besides re- single congregation or to congregations in ses-weeks before he could walk. But he search and the great modern art of literary general? Does the pew plead guilty to the So the knight of the blacking brush found was the recipient of good tidings. The criticism, and a useful reaction against indicative indicative of its ly his, but better still the news that the have no need to examine whether there in a dialogue between two on the subject: With a bound he was off down the street, parents of the child he had saved intended does not creep about among us a predis- -Tibbie, -"Hiv ye heard that they're gaun zations were one and all smitten with de- the circumstances, was to be done in the

SINGULAR PHENOMENON.—The Oshawa meat. Reformer says :- About half past nine o'clock on Wednesday eyening, Mr. Henry Sawford, a resident of Brock street, on open- apples to her pastor. Not long after she ing the door of his house and stepping out- took tea in the parsonage when there were side, observed a column or what he at first on the table dried apples, nicely stewed. thought was fire rising from the roof of the regarding them as the gift of his guest, the house of Mr. W. H. Luke, his nearest neigh- pastor thanked her for the gift; but with bor. As he was about to give the alarm, the emphasis, she said, "They are not my flame or light, which at first appeared to dried apples." On subsequent enquiry, it come from the roof, suddenly rose perpen- was found that the deacon had kept for his dicularly into the air to the height of fifty own use the dried apples of the woman, or sixty feet, leaving a space of a number of which were of a superior quality and had feet between the roof and the base of the sent for the family use of the parsonage his column in which there was no appearance own dried apples, which were of an inferior of light. Being convinced that his neigh- quality. He was ever afterwards called bor's house was not on fire Mr. Sawford "Dried-Apples." watched the illumination for several minutes: the column was apparently about two being done by members of the church to feet in diameter and twenty-five in height, their pastor? Do you designate them ungiving a mellow white light and from every just, mean, and cowardly, inasmuch as they side there were thrown off jets of light hav- are done to one, not in a position to defend ing the appearance of spray. He approach- himself as he ought or as others can? This ed within a few feet of the column in er- is, perhaps, the right line of thought; but der to have a better view of it. In a short our present purpose is not so much to note time its position was changed and it rose the moral qualities of men in such transacdirectly over Mr. Luke's greenhouse and tions as to mark out the foibles of individumoving fir a westerly direction approached als or the ludicrous incidents of their life within a few feet of Mr Sawford's house, in matters of religion; and as this, our purwhere it was seen by several members of pose has been sufficiently carried out by his family. The evening was quite dark the unique character of the cases already and occasional flashes of lightning were seen adduced, cases all taken from actual life, in the distance. Mr. Sawford was about to and each opening up to the reflective mind go and call Mr. Wm. Deans, who lives close an endless variety of similar cases, we conat hand, to come and witness the strange clude our little comedy with a farce of the spectacle, of a pyramid of light moving same nature:-"There was a Kerry priest," about over the tops of the houses and across began Ned Shea, "an' he had the fashfor the lots throwing off jets of illuminating of hearin' confessions wid a slate and ponspray, when there came a flash of lightning |cil; an' he'd write down every sin, an' the of more than usual brilliancy and in an in- price of it opposite. Well, one day a big stant the strange visitor vanished and was mountainy fellow come to his duty, an' seen no more. It is quite certain that the says he, 'I bruk a man's head last Hallow phenomenon witnessed by Mr. Sawford Eve." 'That's ninepence,' said the priest, and his family, and which is described | I cut the tail ov Larry Kelly's con. 'Thats by them as having been exceedingly a shillin'-oh, a shillin' that is!' And seautiful, was due to an unusual develop- down it went on the slate. I I nearly ment of electricity in the atmosphere, but murdered me wife twict. 'That's thrupwhy it should have been limited tf the small pence; go en.' I kilt an orangeman. space over which it appeared to pass - Whoo! says the priest, rubbin' out every-

Curious Cases of Illiberality

There are some, who give, in support of religious ordinances, even beyond their means, and when they give anything inlieu of money, it is sure to be of superior quality; but there are not a few, who give little compared with their means, and whenthey give anything in lieu of money, it is sure to be of an inferior quality. Let us, in the sequel, set this forth before you, not in the unrealities of fancy, but in veritable facts, which are sometimes stranger than fiction. Among such facts, we would first draw your attention to a scene of comic interest, that took place in a church :- On Sunday, at morning service, the Rev. W. Valentine, M. A., incumbent of St. Thomas' Stepney, and, we believe, the oldest clergyman in the diocese of London, after giving out a text from Isaiah, said it was announced to the congregation twice on Those who boast or think that the the previous Sunday that a collection would of stipend. The parson was thus paid and his family necessitated to live on unsavoury

3. Betrayed Trust .- A woman sent

What do you think of such fransactions O. S.

The value of the fish product of Canada

WCREASED HE WEEKLY man post-WSPAPER variety of Dominion ent of Tun esent little at weem of the paper

nch ween's s present than was nd social ents and subscrip-NUM.

os doing in the

CHEAPEST

length of to give, in and the