present session.

-The situation in Afghanistan is un changed. General Burrows' loss does no exceed 1,000 men, including 400 Europe ans and 21 officers. General Roberts with a good force is marching rapidly to the relief of Candahar, and fully expects to be successful. The country is quiet.

-The Irish Compensation Bill has been defeated in the House of Lords-the majority including a large number of Liberal peers. The opposition which the Bill has met with has come from the Whig members of the House, and the Liberal press is calling loudly on Mr. Gladstone to throw them everboard, and to place himself at the head of the true Liberal party which has trusted and followed him in the past, and his friends have announced their intention a low cash price.
