Landlord. unction, "Judge ance," was once ss landlord. The incicent as folto Pike. Pa. On the stage-coach es from Milford est of the way to here in the con mick kept hotel f the dozen or so emocratic forces off, curt man, but nce Greeley was m, but often deder it the proudmeet the great Greeley entered and dusty tramp, mick's tavern. e bar-room, and ra. Mr. Greeley his peculiar falty mir. I would o I can wash my seedy and dirty Believing him al out in a voice alf the town: est in! Willy,you out to the horseood in the street . Mr. Greeley ook off his boots, et in the trough. her of John E. New York Insurirre kept a store and knew Mr. an at the trough e Sammy standlooking at him e Witt walked ley, and at once He beckoned ray, B. A., pastor cand H. Parker.

RECTORY

at Manny and 5:3

Win. Park, pastor

a. m. and 600 p.m

Exercise Rev. B

$11 a. D. Sabbath

FAF. & A.M.

SEO. O.F.

FAIRS.

Durham.

urham.

each month.

nesday in each

m each mouth.

he Guelph Fair

Grounds, the lora Fair.

ach month

ch month.

in each month

Mount Forest.

bruary, April

and December.

receding the

ursday in each

Orangeville.

re Orangeville

day in each

esday in each day of each

ND BRUCE

TIME

h May, 1879

5:00 p. m 9:40 p. m.

m., 5:40 p. m. m., 8:20 p. m.

Tuesday, Thur

see Time Tables

NE WEAGGE.

eneral Manag rangeville.

er before full moon

at 7:30 o'clock, in

returen welcome d, "I want to inreelay, the editor covered from the his treatment or gone a hundred mitter good-natdays with his MEDICAL.

VETERINARY SURGEON.

DUNDALK, Ont.

SSUER of Marriage Licenses, Fire and South End Bakery, Durham. REMOVAL.

Gristing & Merchant Work, CHOPPING carefully attended to.

ZENUS CLARK Dernam, Feb 12, 1880.

CHITTICK, Merchant Tailor.

MAIN STREET, DUNDALK.

Cutting Specially Attended to. Dundalk, Nov. 19th 1879.

Lumber, Lumber, Shingles, Shingles,

V. G. R. Bentinck. J. W. CRAWFORD, 1600 Bush. Fresh Lime.

Boot and Shoemaker. COUTH END, Durham, near Cattle-Yard Hotel, having commenced business in above lin would respectfully solicit a share of

The very best material used, workmanship superior to anything in the county, having made prize work in the principal cities of Canada and the United States. Former's Muster Shoemaker in Her Majesty's Hundredth Regiment. For Summer Trade, Fine Sewed Wellington Boots, only $6.00. Laced Balmor. als, Sewed, only 45. Low Shoes, Sewed, only $4.50. The best French Stock used.

"THE REVIEW" is PUBLISHED

Every Thursday,

Atthe Office, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town

Durham, - - Ont.

TERMS: -$1.00 per year in Advance en. 31, 25 if not paid within two months. "@a

RATES OF ADVERTISING

ofessional and business cards one inch space and under, per year, ..... $ 4 Two inches or 24 lines Nonpariel measure Three inches do. per year .....

Line for the first insertion, and 2 cts. per line for each subsequent insertion - Noparcil five acres well timbered with Cedar and Hardwood deaths, and all kinds of local news, inserted lars apply to STRAY ANIMALS, &c., advertised three weeks for $1, the advertisement not to ex-

Advertisements, except when accompanied nserted until forbidden, and charged at reg-J. TOWNSEND.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, A TTORNEY - AT - LAW, &c .- OFFICE A opposite Parker's Drug Store, Upper Town Money to Loan.

C. B. JACKES, B. A. TTORNEY at Law, Solicitor in Chan-

McFAYDEN & ROBARTS. J. T. ROBARTS.

Frost & Frost. DARRISTERS and Attorney's-at-Law

DR. KIERNAN, RADUATE of Victoria University

DE. LIGHTBODY, VIII.L be at his Office, Hanover, from a.m. to Noon, At home, and Con, N.D.R.

F. Z. NIXON. RADUATE of Outario Vetrinary Col-

Will be at Hasting's Hotel, Shelburne, every Mon

MISCELLANEOUS

ALEXANDER BROWN. PRICEVILLE, ONT.

Conveyancer, and Licensed Auctioneer Farmers, Merchants, and Land Sales, attended to with punctuality and charges made very

A PALMER, Baker, has removed made to order. He would also take this opportu mity of thanking the inhabitants of Durham, and surrounding country, for the patrorage bestowed on him during the past two and a half years, and as usual will supply bread daily at any place in the EDGE MILLS, DURHAM.

THE subscriber wishes to intimate to Farmers, and the Public Generally that having had the above Mills furnished with the best machinery for

He is prepared to fill all orders entrusted to him

$56 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. Haller & co., Port

N thanking his numerous customers for their past favors, and soliciting their futureones som to say that he is now fully prepared to exetute any orders that ma" be sutrusted to him with meatness and punctuality, and at prices the cheap-

Lath & Lime. THE ROCKVILLE MILLS. Also a large quantity of JOISTS. Lot 41, Con. 2

Durham P. O., May 25th, 1880. W. CALDWELL

Residence-Opposite the Canada Presby- to do. terian Church.

Cutting done to Order.

Durham, Feb. 14, 1878.

$72 A WEEK. $12 a day at home ceedly me.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, SEPTEMBER 2, 1880. Vol. III. No. 29.

Whole No. 132.

The Hut on the Moor.

25 Acres of Land For Sale. Watered by a never-failing Creek. This land will

PROPERTY FOR SALE.

or F. MACRAE, Durham.

E. WILLIAMS.

by written instructions to the contrary, are THE Subscriber offers for Sale, Lot No. ed. The farm is situated about 5 miles from Durfor balance time will be given. For further pariculars apply to F. MacRae Durham, or to > Olenelg, April 29, 1890. House and Lot for Sale in Durham. No. 3, on Albert Street, one Range East of Garafraxa Street, Lower Town, Purham. On the lot

Pasture and Meadow Land for Sale or to Rent.

tf-118

F. MacRAE, Durham. May, 27th 1985.

$100 Reward!

Toronto Oil Company. 25 Sherbourne Street, Toronto. EFFOR SALE by G. C. McFARLANE ower Town Drug Store, and also at J. H. HUNTER'S General and Hardware Store,

Toronto, August 18th, 1880.

J. A. Halsted & Co.,

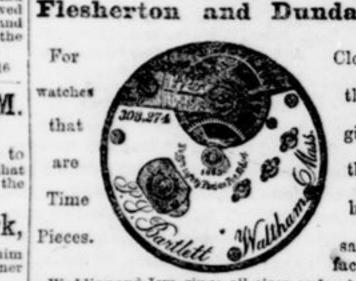

BANKERS. DURHAM.

Office opposite McAlister's Hote

Deposits Received, interest allowed at the rate of six per cen

MONEY ADVANCED Sale notes purchased at a fair valuation Drafts issued at usual Bank rates, payable at

G. L. DAVIS, Manager

Repairing Watches & Clocks a Speciality. Agent for the Heintzman Plano and Do-

Alexander Robertson, TAILOR,

Residence at the Old Post Office, Lower Town, DURHAM. THE subscriber is prepared to Receive the Latest Style, Men and Boy's Clothing. A good they had to accept them if they accepted Latest Fashions Regularly Received

JOHN ROBERTSON TAILOR AND CLOTHIER.

DURHAM St., DURHAM. .

Anguste, Maine.

Farm for Sale in Glenelg, plea of witchcraft and diabolical transposi- the gentry-and Julian would mix up ev- such a daughter."

on the premises. hearty, and florid and as magnificent as her | itance.

garden purposes the land is unexcelled. The ciety and the foremost patroness of all the ways deeply deploring the strange twist creak, not a square inch that did not por- works, stated that Professor Croft had anproperty will be sold cheap for cash, or local charities; he set the ball agoing that had been given to their boy, ever retend foundering. with the women; he was the ideal of an lance and in disgrace as Clarence so con- contemptously. "Understand me," he tained, being almost identical with the English country gentleman, and she was stantly suggested. It was their own, their then continued turning back and speaking Ashton salt. As English salt had the pre-This land is well watered. There can be a doubt nor a care, neither a fear nor a pain their tastes, they did not quite want to lose be sold cheap for cash, or part on time. For fur outside that one irretrievable mistake of him; and though young Hugh, Clarence's ther partfeulars apply to Win Davidson, Esq., their son. As that was a mistake which eldest son, bore the family name and was no arguments would justify, soften or ex- an Armstrong every inch of him, still he

ple as these, a pale thin, euthusiastic drea- him at home, and contented themselves before me, and assume a husbands respon- ples without knowing which was made WE offer the above reward to any per- not kill even a pheasant—a student not an worse than usual with him, and he was evidence to convict the parties selling, or athlete—with black hair, dark, dreamy, offering to sell, other Oils under our Trade melancholy eyes, a skin, not wholesome Mark. "Casterine." We are sole Manufac-invers and Proprietors of the Casterine red and white after the English pattern, but they could—for all that he was their cross. olive tinted in the shadow and cream coloured in high lights; a creature looking as much like a Spanish poet as it was possible for a Northman to be-looking too, like one who had come from sume far away place into a foreign land and a strange clime whence he knew neither himself nor his surroundings. Was it a wonder then that he was a cross to his parents, or that he had been a sorrow from the first? Noth ing about him harmonized with their man per of being, and the bricks out of which he built his temple when set against theirs were all cross cornered and askew. The strong open air life and generous physical enjoyments which were so necessary to them were both barbarous and degrading to him; and the studies which made his happiness were to them foolishness or worse. He had adopted all the new views; while they were not only content with the old but sure that everything of modern invention was diabolical, when not insane, He was an advanced Liberal and an enthusiastic evolutionist-they were Tories of the despest dye and believed in the separation of moths and butterflies, and the and figure more like the figure of a classic er animals. He looked on sport as cruelty | girl ; that she was good and modest, virtu-DOLL, and vivisection as a righteous necessity— ous and pure, lovely and sincere! She was they maintained that the very foxes enjoy- and pure, lovely and sincere! She was ed the run, and that the man who would really a most rare and precious creature. Flesherton and Dundalk, torture a rabbit for the sake of science and counting her humanity as more valuable humanity was only fit to be strung up to than her social class. The most determinthe next tree. He stign atized the game ed contemner of the people must have con laws as an iniquity belonging to a primitive | fessed that she was supreme in her own civilization—they held a poacher as worse | way ; but to the Armstrong family she was versities, and his mother's calm gray eyes girl was the last drop in the cup of bitter

would be lost in Julian's hands, his one de- carrying his theories-testing the strength | where competition and workers so much in the primitival forest; and is reached by folsire was to dispossess the recreant heir that and worth of his ideas. He was happy as need of work. It had to be done. If he lowing tor several hundred yards the stream No one knew how it could have happen- things should be administered with all re- a man, a lover, an experimentalist, a phil- were worth anything he must show that it sends forth from its fountain head. The ed; but there it was. Nature had gard to the fetish of old tradition. He osopher; and he invited his father to con- he was able for life's work—that he had way is a delightful one, through tangled tripped over her boundaries, broken her would keep up the honor of the house gratulate him on his choice and his mother strength and energy enough to carry out brush and over fallen trees, along by the own laws. The heir of the great Armstrong which his nephew would destroy; he to be glad even as he was glad. family of Holme Wood might have been a would root out all the pernicious doctrines "You are mad or worse," cried Mr. Arm- by his maintaining his ground. He told slope, with here and there a cascade. But changeling for all the likeness to his pro- which simply inflamed the masses, and strong, furiously. "If you marry that girl Deborah to keep up both heart and faith; the most beautiful sight is reserved for the Ordinary notices of births, marriages, balance secured by mortgage. For further particugenitors traceable in mind or features; and which, if not checked, would send England you will break your mother's heart!" had he been born a couple of centuries ago to the deuce—and Julian would plant, fos- "No, my mother will learn to love her!" all temptations that would be offered her— remarkable spring. Here is a basin or imhis want of direct resemblance would have fer, and nourish them; he would teach the said Julian with the heroism of infatuation. temptations of wealth if she would abandon mense bowl, one hundred feet in diameter,

Hugh Armstrong, his father and the head where Jack would be as good as his master father, looking at him curiously. magnificent-looking fox hunter, with the it became a matter of almost life and death that searching look with one as candid as and the world. frame of an athlete and the head of a prize to him that his nephew should be prevent- a child's. "It is truth and love." fighter; and Julia, his mother, as tall, as ed from ever entering on his rightful inher- Hugh Armstrong, turned away with an breasted Juno in hat and habit, with the done; but time, a good cause and a strong his fit helpmate. She was his equal in flush of the northern breeze on her comely will work marvels; and he trusted to these fortune, education, condition. There were country, and the most popular. He was running through the clear Armstrong web. different kind of thing. This was unsound dairy purposes. master of the hant, she was mistress of so- But the father and mother, while al- throughout-not a timber that did not among them, and she kept it in the right line fused to send him abroad under surveil- "Truth and love !-rubbish!" said Hugh tified it to be as nearly pure salt as was obthe ideal of that English country gentle son, their heir, their representative—a sor- to his son with hardness, anger, dicision ference among dairymen in Ontario, he was only a nephew-and Julian was the Imagine, as the son and heir of such peo- child of their love. Wherefore they kept corrigible. "I shall learn a man's duties lantyne, M. P. P., who had tested the sammer who abhorred fox hunting and would with rating him soundly when things went more than ordinarily absurd; but such as he was, they put up with him as well as So the time passed. Julian went to col- whole thing more to heart. lege; took a fairly good degree, but in no

was more of a dreamer than a worker-an | than mere caste and fashion. enthusiast for ideas rather than a seekon all debatable social points than sit in his her indignation. own room, and master the difficulties of the Now all this was bad enough. An Arm- sternly. strong, who held unsound views on the of himself at college; was an infliction almost past endurance; but worse remains behind-and that worse was almost impos. father. Your insolence, your pedantry are last year Prof. Arnold and himself had ex- to the anticipation of a future when life Ah! what misery for the Holme Wood lay in the fact that Debby Scambler had a face than a murderer. He boldly proclaimed as hateful as if she had been Caliban's twi his intention, when he came to the estate, sister and Decate's favorite daughter. And of throwing open the preserves to all com. her name-Debby Scambler! What mat ers ; of shutting his gates so that no hunt | tered her beautiful soft hair, like ripe nut should pass through his land; of granting in the sunshine-her large limpid bazel leases to his tenants which should make eyes-her lips with their 'Cupid's bow' for them their farms virtually their own for outline, their flesh as soft and smooth and life-and they looked on all these things as | red as cherries ; what mattered her sweet Communism, high treason, and atheism. voice and her nymph-like form, when she But what could be done with a young fel- was only a gamekeeper's daughter and low who talked of "protoplasm" and "min- was called Debby Scombler? Her very ed stuff" as if he understood his own foolish name was a disgrace, as her birth and parwords? who doubted the philosophy of entage were social sins-made so by the Paley, and had a good word to say for fact that Julian Armstrong of Holme Wood Hume? who believed in universal brother. was in love with her and meant to make hood, and the further fusion of classes? her his wife. Had he been in love wi He made the blood of his handsome father her, without meaning to make her his wife -six feet two in his bedroom slippers- even then the shame would have been suf turn not and cold with horror at his per- ficient; but as things were, his love for the flame with indignation at his follies. But ness, and the parents refused to swallow He was a cross and they did not deny with Julian. What he had to say he said marry her at all costs; and neither tears be substancially the same as it has been that fact to themselves or to others. Nev- at once, going straight to the point, without nor reproaches, neither prayers nor threats yet it will be free from the very appearance ertheless he was their son. And bad as he circumlocution or concealment. As soon moved him from his resolution. So that of mere party complication, and will take was he was not bad all through. Outside as he had made it clear to himself and nothing was left to Hugh Armstrong and a more judicial and independent course his principles—Heaven save the mark! Debby, that he loved her and had heard his wife Julia, save the carrying out of than it has hithertogot credit for. I would they thought with contemptuous compas- that she loved him in return; he made it their ultimatum, and the banishment from not have referred to this had it been a sion, he was a nice creature enough for his clear also to his father and mother. In less home of the son who did not respect the merely private business arrangement, but lost kind. They despised his kind from than hour after he had taken her traditions of that home. They could not when a great organ of public opinion takes, the bottom of their hearts, but they could first kiss, and given his own faith; he re- keep him out of the estate, but during their or is about to take; a new departure, and not hate him nor yet banish him from their vealed the notable secret to his parents; lifetime they determined that he should en- that of quite as marked a character as did presence as Clarence Armstrong, Hugh's and he revealed it with as much enthusi- joy nothing which should uphold himin his the New York Tribune on the death of plaints, including choice morbus, dysentry, the New York Tribune on the death of plaints, including choice morbus, dysentry, and the revealed it with as much enthusiyounger brother, wished and advised them asm, and pride; and delight as if had gain- wickedness, or make his crooked path more Horace Greeley; if nnot more so, it comes ed the love of a Princess, and was to call a straight or smooth. The next of kin and heir to the estate, King his father in-law. Instead of failing Julian, was Clarence, who cherished which he had only wou the love of Debby my daily bread," said Julian with quiet, would say, in reference to editorial and __b 181 the most profound dislike for this unworthy Scambbler, and his future father-in-law half-melancholy philosophy; but I will do business departments and managers, the twig of the brave old tree. Yet even with him it was not personal so much as social sestral estate. But it was the right kind of send for me; but until I am sent for I shall but that might be going too far. The re-—less because of the boy as an individual thing altogether! he said, tossing back his not trouble you with my presence again. | miarks of your occasional correspondent a Spring and Summer Fashions regular! than because of that family pride which he, long black locks. This fusion of the class- And with this he left the old home, and bout how all this newspaper enterprise is Clarence, worshipped, and he, Julius, dis- es was to be the true salvation of England went up to London—that maelstrom of to pay, is one which finds an echo from a carded. The good management of the es- this levelling up the only righteous revolu- youthful hope and energy and inespecity good many."

husband, was like a white armed and deep | Clarence did not see how this was to be | wife-no man better, but then Julia was man's wife. They were people who enjoy- ry one truly, but still their own. And al- and impatience all in one. "If you marry turned this out so as to give them no A BOUT 90 acres of pasture and meadow ed themselves, and did their duties without though they did not love him as they would that girl you may live as you may or as cuse for rejecting Canadian salt. Nearly for sale or to rent, also a few acres of Fall stint or failure; and who had neither a have done had he been more congenial to you can. I cannot prevent your coming all the salt he now made was sold in Canainto the estate; but while I am alive not da. In an experiment of several cheeses one six-pence shall find its way from my made with Higgin's English salt and varipocket into yours." "That will be so much to the good of my made with his salt had been pronounced to

> "Julian! how can you be so insane, so salt. The English brands of salt, though wicked," cried his mother If anything inferior in quality to his, were sold in To she was even more disgusted than his fath- route at double the price. The reason that or, and took the disgrace and shame of the such a prejudice existed among the dairy wise one of such brilliancy as atoned for in my love for Deborah;" said Julian, sac- not the superior brands with the high pric- trees. his failure in caste righteousness and family rificing so much to the genius of the mo- ed English salt, and people would pay no duty. Had he carried of all the honors ment as to give his beloved's whole sonor- higher price for better made Canadian salt they would have forgiven some of his fol- lous name. "She is noble, she is magnifi- than for common salt. As an analytical twilight! The mind, rested from care and lies ; but the truth was, the young fellow cent: and human worth is a higher thing chemist by profession he expressed the

er after facts--and he cared more to spout mother, looking at her son with a compas- | soil. A certain amount of salt entered inat the debating club, and lay down the law sionate kind of suspicion breaking through to the composition of nearly every plant, larly in the warmer months of the year, game laws, the land laws and the rights of "but I must wait in hope and possess my cheesemaker, stated that he had in 1876-7 tures of the past are presented to my mind man, and who had not made a sky rocket soul with patience. You will do me and made a great many experiments with Eng- As I gaze across the flowery paths of life, her justice in the en !."

> goodness you are rejecting," said Julian Canadian salt, if properly made, was as a brighter shore. If we have lived a life gently; but he obeyed the command and good as any salt brought from England or of holiness, that sun shall set in its fullest withdrew, leaving his two handsome and anywhere else. unhappy parents in despair at this unto-

> If they were outraged, what was Clar- and how the test was conducted. ance? His indignation against his nephew went as far beyond theirs as his love fell short; and had there not been the gallows in the distance he would have put a pistol to that disturbed and disturbing head with don Advertiser has the following concernno more compunction than he would have ing rumored changes in the Globe publishkilled a weasel in the hen-roost, or a cank- ing company:-"Very considerable modi- river suddenly becomes narrow with a veer-worm at sapling oak. selves, to our family, and our past, not to errble amount of the stock of that paper is allow such a disgrace as this to stultify our | being bought up at par thy parties, some of whole history. He must be confined close whom are as far asunder as Montreal is -we have case enough for a certificate." did not reject, did not quite indorse the what shares are then not appropriated will suggestion. A badly married son was an be bought in by Mr. Thomas Nelson, who awful infliction to their family pride, truly; will have a controlling say over the whole but a mad son was almost worse. Between | business management, though the syndithe two what comfort was left them? And cate is such that the different members will there was no chance of Julian's submis- be anything rather than mere recording

The next day found him as firm and the Globe will henceforth be conducted on There was no glosing over an unpleasant fixed as he had been the day before. He strictly business principles, and that while truth, or diplomatically biding his time loved Debby Scambler and he meant to the scope of political and social policy will

"I do not know what I can do to earn | descend on particulars, as the preacher tate and the good name of the Armstrongs tion. He was not only glad because he and despair—to see how the best he sould were the central points of existence to Cla- loved Debby and she loved him, but he make his bread, with never a trade ner a rence; and knowing as be did that both cause it was such an admirable occasion for profession at his fingers' and, in a poses.

CONCLUDED NEXT WEEK.

cheeks and the gray of the northen skies three as to the Fates who would put all no loose timber in the matrimonial ship to Ontario Agricultural Commission, at Seastraight, and somehow snap off the thread threaten foundering or to creak un leasant. forth, is interesting in view of the discus-They were the handsomest couple in the that was now such an inharmonious strand ly. But this affair of Julian's was a very sion as to the merits of Canadian salt for

Richard Rensforth, of the Stapleton salt

alyzed fictory salt made by hand, and cerous brands of Canadian salt, the cheese moral nature," was the answer of the in- be the best by Prof. Arnold and Mr. Balwith English, and which with Canadian mon against Cattadian salt was that they "I am not insane, and I am not wicked compared the common Canadian sait and opinion that salt where used as a fertilizer,

"Hugh! he must be mad!" repeated his acted as a solvent of the ingredients of the and was necessary to its health. The geo- that it is more adapted to pleasure than "Mad or not if this thing goes on he must graphic and climatic circumstances of Can- that of the dusk of evening. It is a time Greek agrist and the differential calcalus. be banished from home,"said his father ada rendered more salt necessary here than when lovers breathe their holy vows, and was the case in England. "I shall be grieved," returned Julian ; Mr. Thomas Ballantyne, M. P. P., as a lish and Canadian salt, and the result was the days of my early childhood return in-"Leave the room, sir," thundered his decidedly in favor of English salt. But memory to my soul, when I looked forward intolerable-leave this room now-I will amined cheese salted with different salts at | would be in its glory, and happiness realiz-The gamekeeper's pretty daughter! give you till to-morrow morning to know the Kinburn factory, and after a very care- ed in its fullest sense. whether you will have to leave the house ful examination they had both come to the This life is but a day compared with conclusion that cheese which they were in- eternity. Soon shall come the evening-"Father, you will be sorry for your harsh- formed was salted with Stapleton (Canadi- twilight of the soul, when the sun of life an angel of an) salt was the best. He had no doubt shall vanish on the hills of time to rise on

> John R. Murray, who made the samples lies beyond the ken of mortals. ward event, and without much hope that of cheese tested by Mr. Ballantyne, and their wrong-headed son would see the error afterward tested by a committee of the of his ways-and, seeing, would amend Western Dairymen's Association at London, explained how he had marked them from Winnipeg. and by the end of next But the father and mother, though they week the whole thing will be closed, and clerks. It remains only that I add that

> > Changes in the Globe Office.

The Blue Springs.

We copy the following from the Canada Baptist. The Blue Spring Farm, three miles from Walkerton, is one of the most remarkable natural curiosities in Canada,-a mineral spring of great beauty, about a quarter of a mile back from the river, and some seventy feet above it. Hundreds of people from all quarters visit the spot, and were it near some of our large cities it would probably be worth a fortune to its owner. It is probably what is known as a chalybeate, or an iron and sulpher spring, with a hardly perceptible funeral taste; and has the peculiar property of transforming mosses into stone and encrusting branches and trunks of trees with the same to believe in him and to love him; to resist end of the journey at the source of this certainly cost more than one life on the base seum the difference between them and She will live to thank me for giving her bim, of doubt in his sincerity, of belief in and at the deepest seventy-five feet, save his death. She was to be steadfast through at one spot, which has not yet been fathery thing into an abominable hodgepodge, "Is this folly or insolence?" asked his everything, and in the end all would be omed. The water is clear as crystal, with 28, 2nd Concession, East of G. R., Township of lot the family, was a tall, hearty, florid, and Joan would rank with her lady. Thus "Neither," Julian answered, meeting firm, and together they would conquer love spring, and to the farm. The sides of this basin are covered with mosses, ferns, and many varieties of fresh-water algae; while running through in all directions are roots impatient exclamation. He had loved his Canada Salt for Dairy Pur- and sunken limbs and trunks of trees, covered with an iron-brown, stoney deposit. The following evidence taken before the this sappliff spring, with the sun lighting Looking into those clear, calm depths of up every nook and cranny, one of the most georgeous sights imaginable is witnessed. It is like a mermaid's palace, rich with nature's workmanship. Here one can see what he has dreamed of in the ocean depths, amid coral halls, with all the rich garniture of seaweed rivalling our gardens for beauty. Nothing about the famous springs of Leamington, England, or of Saratoga, New York, can equal this for surpassing loveliness while it is probably quite as valuable medicinally. It will some day. without doubt, be utilized as a sanitarium. and the forest will be transformed into a beautiful park. Some speculators ought to

Evening Twilight.

As I sit at my frost-stained window, the last rays of the setting sun are dying beyond the distant hills, and twilight, clad in garments of gray, comes forth upon the snow-covered world. Silence, enthroned as a monarch, reigns supreme in the valleys and on the hills, save where the forest crackles in the chilly air, and the zephyrs strike symphonies among the ice-mantled

What a glorious train of reflections comes toil, turns to the delightful joys of pleasant memories. There is an influence in the very air that soothes the soul of man.

this world seems nearer to heaven. While I sit here, memory's beautiful pic glory, and brighter shall be the world that

ARTHUR IVY.

NIAGARA'S DEPTHS .- A party of United States engineers have been making soundings at the Niagara River below the Falls. A line cast out as near to the Falls as they could be approached in a small boat, and near to the shore gave 83 feet. Further The Toronto correspondent of the Lon- down the stream the line told off 100 feet, and at the inclined railway 192 feet. The average depth of the swift drift, where the fications of programme are looming in the locity too great to be measured, was 135 "He is insane, and he must be put in a not far off distance as far as the Globe is feet. Immediately below the bridge, where lum," said Clarance. "You owe it to your- concerned. It is said that a very consid the whirlpool rapids set in, the depth was computed to be 210 feet.

> G. C. McFarlane, Lower Town, and J. R. Hunter, Upper Town, Durham, keep the

On Monday afternoon last week Matthew Young, of Burford, near Northfield, a steady, industrious farmer, was engaged in drawing in peas from the field. He was on the load, which had attained considerable height, when the horses suddenly started, throwing the unfortunate man to the ground. He struck upon his head and shoulders, and the shock was so violent that his neck was broken, and death ensued instantly. His daughter was with him. and her horror was so great on learning that her father was dead that she gave vent to her agony in screams. This fright ened the horses and they ran away breaking the waggon to fragments. Mr. Young

A Positive Fact .- It is now established beyond controversy that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the to be quite & different thing. I might con- opiates and prisoning drugs, that only check for a time and produce inflamation. Will Strawberry is safe and certain in its effect > way over the Grand river between Elora and Fergus. On approaching the bridge at present all the trains stop and move over it very carefully. For Reapers, Mowers, and Threshing Machines use Castorine Machine Oil. For sale by G. C. McFarlane, Lower Town, and J. H.

unter's General Store, Durham -m129

UNIARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO