LLANEOUS.

schine Oil is warranted to d orchardists will do well ntion to the winter variethere promises to be an arket in Britain.

o, Lower Town, and J. H. own, Durham, keep the "Machine Oil. -m129. loglish miners are annueidents, and 850 of these the mortality is much g sacrified for every 70. sized, while in England only one in every 89,-

'r Blood Bitters. sowe's, liver and kidneys, has had forwarded to a blind patient at the Forento, Six columns of Matthew, Mark Luke type, for the use of the t was promised on the st Vice-Regal visit to the ers, and Threshing Ma-Sachine Oil. For sale Lower Town, and J. H. ore, Ducham,-m129. get altogether used to gh it is perhaps merely kes it sound irreverent s fast becoming, if not a "winter resort" in or Monaco. The Marvast wealth, and whose reh of Rome, are equaltla for the winter upon es. A generation ago t, truly, would have ely than it sounds towhat a enriods stateas ninetsetnh century russy remarkable the time of Richard to provoke more feelon this. It has been give fresh currency to once braided before. st Popularity Time cannot detract s the old reliable remedy mts incident to the sum-hat Rome rather than

s segual to possess the tep we note on the part nis of Bute, together nce of his colossial for-

DIRECTORY CHURCH.

n. m. and 7 p.m. Sunday R. B. Wray, B. A., pastor Mochler and H. Parker. bbath at H s. to and 6:36 200 p. m. Prate meeting at 7:30 Bible Chassevery

IST CHURCH us. Prayer meeting every a clook. Paster Rev. R.

Exiday ovening from 7 to mai fee st. Alexander PRICE. 306 OF A. F. & A. M. ay on or before full moon No. 169 L O. O. F. aniny at 7:00 o'clock, in-day on or before full

TILE FAIRS. ay in each month.

ore Durham. fore Durham. Wednesday in each day ir each month, re the Guelph Fair here Guelph.

ne Elora Fair. liace Grounds, the in each month day in each month m each month. ring Mount Forest, f February, April, preceding the Thursday in each fore Orangeville. re Orangeville. before Orangeville, or and December,

neaday in each ednesday in each nesday of each

AND BRUCE

TIME 5th May, 1879

m., 5:00 p. m m., 9:40 p. m,

15 a. m., 5:40 p. m. p. m., 8:20 p. m.

on Tuesday, Thur

ussee Time Tables

General Manag

"THE REVIEW"

is PUBLISHED

Every Thursday.

Atthe Office, Garafraxa Street, Upper Town Durham, - - Ont.

TERMS: -$1.00 per year in Advance $5. 11.25 if not paid within two months. Wa

RATES OF ADVERTISING of and rust and business cards one inch

Cassal advertisements charged 8 cts, per for sack subsequent insertion - Nopareil five acres well timbered with Cedar and Hardwood. Orlinary notices of births, marriages, leaths, and all kinds of local news, inserted ree of charge. STRAY ANIMALS, de., advertised three weeks for $1, the advertisement not to ex- Farm for Sale in Glenelg.

A ivertisements, except when accompanied nserted until forbidden, and charged at reg-J. TOWNSEND.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN, A TTORNEY - AT - LAW, &c .- OFFICE Money to Lean.

C. B. JACKES, B. A. TTORNEY at Law, Solicitor in Chancery Commissioner in B. R., Notary Public Lower Town, Durham. y 7th, 1879. y-64

McFAYDEN & HOBARTS, DARRISTERS, Solicitors in Chancery, Ac. Office, one door east of the Merchants y-50 J. T. ROBARTS.

Frost & Frost,

Owen Sound, have resumed at Flesherton. Office | be sold cheap for cash, or part on time, For far J. W. FROST, LL. B County Crown Attorney. June 21th, 1880.

MEDICAL.

DR. KIERNAN, CRADUATE of Victoria University Persity, Mostreal. Surgery in rear of Medical Hall

DR. LIGHTBODY, TILL be at his Office, Hanover, from 8 s.m. to Noon, Athome, 2nd Con, N.D.R Bentinek, after noon. Messages for the Dr. left as sutherford's astended to, y50

F. Z. NIXON. GRADUATE of Outano Vetering, Col-

VETERINARY SURGEON,

Will be at Hasting's Hatel, Shelburne, every Mon Dundulk, Murch 20th 1879. MISCELLANEOUS.

ALEXANDER BROWN,

VRICEVILLE, ONT. 381 E.H. of Marriage Licenses, Fire and Conveyancer and Licemed Auctioneer

1 3 Varnio's, Morehants, and Land Sales, attended o with punctuality and charges made very South End Bakery, Durham.

REMOVAL. PALMER, Baker, has removed to as usual will supply bread daily at any place in the

DURHAM.

THE subscriber wishes to intimate to Farmers, and the Public Generally that having had the above Mills fornished with the best machinery for Gristing & Merchant Work, He is prepared to fill all orders cutrusted to him CHOPPING carefully attended to.

ZENUS CLARK. Dorham, Feb 12, 1880.

CHITTICK,

Merchant Tailor,

MAIN STREET, DUNDALK. thanking his numerous customers for begs to say that he is now fully prepared to exe- Residence at the Old Post Office, Lower Town, he loved me. We had been married only hands had to do, I did not go back to my sute any orders that ma" be entrusted to him with neatness and punctuality, and at prices the cheap Cutting Specially Attended to.

Lumber, Lumber,

Dundalk, Nov. 19th 1879.

Shingles, Shingles,

Lath & Lime, T THE ROCKVILLE MILLS. Also A a large quantity of JOISTS. Lot 41, Con. W. G. R. Bentinck.

J. W. CRAWFORD, 1600 Bush. Fresh Lime. Durham P. O., May 25th, 1880.

W. CALDWELL

Boot and Shoemaker, COUTH END, Durham, near Cattle-

Yard Hetel, having commenced business in the above line would respectfully solicit a share of The very best material used, workmanshi Formerly Muster Shoemaker in Her Majesty's Spring and Summer Fashions regular! For Summer Trade, Fine Sewed Welling-Durham, Feb. 14, 1878. ton Boots, only $6.00. Laced Balmorals. Sewed, only 45. Low Shoes, Sewed, only $4.50. The best $72 A WEEK. $12 a day at home easily made Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & co. French Stock used.

DURHAM, Co. Grey, SEPTEMBER 23, 1880. Vol. III. No. 32.

POETRY

Beautiful Things.

Beautiful faces are those that wear-

Whole-souled honesty printed there.

Beautiful thoughts that burn below.

Beautiful lips are those whose words

Yet whose utterance prudence girds,

Beautiful hands are those that do

Work that is earnest, good and true,

Benutiful feet are those that go

On kindly ministries too and fro-

Censeless burdens of homely care

With patient grace and daily prayer,

Beautiful lives are those that bless-

Whose hidden fourtain but few may guess.

Where brown leaves fall, where drifts lie deep

Two Cross Words.

'Lucy, if you mean to sew on this but-

Tom didn't speak a bit cross, only em-phatie; but I was out of temper that morning, and my head ached badly from sitting supper-for the second time since our mar-

it. It had provoked me intensely. So had to follow him to bed in solemn silence, ton I do wish you'd do it. I can't wait all O'er worn-out hands-oh, beautiful sleep!

Silent rivers of happiness,

Beautiful twilight at set of sun.

Beau iful goal with race well won,

Beautiful rest with work well done.

Down lowliest ways; if God with it so,

Beatitiful shoulders are those that bear

Leap from the heart like songs of birds,

Moment by moment the long day through,

Like crystal panes where hearth fires glow,

It matters little if dark or fair-

Beautiful eyes are those thatshow,

Whole No. 135.

PROFERTY FOR SALE.

LOR Sale, the South Half of the Third Line for the first insertion, and 2 ets. per line | Township of Bentinck. Twenty seres cleared, and Watered by a never-failing Creek. This land will be sold Cheap for Cash, or part Cash and the balance secured by mortgage. For further particu-WM. JOHNSTON, Normanby, or F. MACRAE, Durham.

E. WILLIAMS,

on the premises

House and Lot for Sale in Durham.

therwise as may be agreed upon. For further articulars apply at the REVIEW Office.

I ARRISTERS and Attorney's-at-Law nels. This land is well watered. There can be a tors in Chancery, Conveyancers, etc., great deal of any got off this land. This land will riage—given by some of his bachelor ther particulars apply to Wm Davidson, Esq.,-F. MacBAE, Durham.

> May, 27th 1880. $100 Reward!

evidence to convict the parties selling, or offering to sell, other Oils under our Trade

Toronto Oil Company. 25 Sherbourne Street, Toronto. Lower Town Drug Store, and also at J. H. HUNTER'S General and Hardware Store, Toronto, August 18th, 1880. J. A Halsted & Co., BANKERS.

Office opposite McAlister's Hote

MOMEY ADVANCED

Sale notes purchased at a fair valuation. Drafts issued at usual Bank rates, payable at all bleeds. ollections of notes and accounts on reasonable snatched her away, and went on sob- read :

'Why Lucy.'

Lucy, it's the last time.'

easy enough to make fine promises-you -you and the baby. told me the same thing before. How can you expect me to trust you now?'

had time to speak, he had left the house 366 a week in your own town. Terms and 85 to the door; but it was too late. He had ing the corner.

> came back, and one in particular, when we of gold, as the sun slid down, and the squirrels chatted overhead, dropping a ripe | back; but he didn't come. nut now and then into my lap as I sat there with the last rose of summer, knitting a purse for Tom. 'Lucy' he said, as I wove in the last goldlife-up in that purse. Tell me, now, before you finish it, how is it to be? Am to have you, and -oh! I wont think of it even ; Lucy, it would be too dreadful. 'No, Tom, I answered, 'you are to have the purse, and the hand that knit it, too 'Poor Tom, he cried then just like child-he, the bravest man in the whole 'No fault in him, only a little too wild,

That was my old father's advice on our The third spring was peculiar, somehow the county of Northumberland, make from age of 102 years and 8 months. He was less than fifteen bundred have applied. wedding day. My heart smote me dread. the far-off sky seemed to droop down in 20c to 50c per day capturing frogs. They a native of Norwich, county of Norfolk, The N. P. has evidently no beneficial of fully as I recalled it to my mind that morn- clearer, bluer folds; the sun wore a softer are paid a cent each for all they catch.

ing. Had I done my duty? Had I fol-

The thought brought me to my feet. I went about cooking just such a dinner pectation. I seemed to feel the shadow of Djeddah on June 50th describes the inas I knew he liked.

But Tom would be home to his dinner.

The plum-pudding was done to perfect above me-one prayer of my heart seemed dering on the Red Sea, since Colonel Gortion, the baby in a clean slip, and myself about to be answered. struck one.

ed supper, and lit a bright fire in the little her young brood amid the milky bloom ten o'clock, and I put up the untasted sup- My child, little Effie, sat on the doorstep, every steamer that leaves Souakim has Forest at its incorporation. thorn in my bosom pierced and rankled. and bounded to her feet, Tom had broken his promise, and my unkinduess was the cause. Nothing else rang comin'-pappy comin'; Effie go to meet Mecca, whom I know well by sight, had ter, be instructed to accept in full of claim and went to the windew. There was a depths; and dropping my work I followed ledge this man goes backward and forward Winkler, That amount of redemption for lots man on the porch; I could see him in the her out of the door. A man was coming up every month carrying on his trade with

'Yes; open the door, Lucy; quick, the police are after me.' My heart sank. The police after him!

'I arrest you, sir.'

friends, and had come home the worse for 'For murder.' The floor seemed stiding from beneath my feet, but I caught at the door to steady | the man's feet. and awoke none the better pleased after myself, and looked at Tom. At that instart my sleep, on the morning just alluded to. the officer uncovered his lantern, and, oh To make the matter worse, just as he spoke God! there was blood on my husband's which I was cutting the bread for his lunch All the rest is blank. When I came to slipped, inflicting a deep gash in my hand, myself again, I was in my room, and kind and the baby awoke and set up her sharp compassionate faces were around me. I little cry from the cradio, all in one and asked for Tom. He was in prison awaiting his trial. There had been a quarrel at 'You can't wait as long as I did last night the tavern, and Tom had struck his an-I reckon, I replied sharply, really angry at togonist. The man wasn't dead, they go FOR SALE by G. C. McFARLANE last. 'Don't harry me-I do all I can, thought at first he was-but he was badly and more than I am able to do with one hart about the head. But if he recovered

-well, then it would not go so hard with Tom dropped his button, and turned to- Tom. I arose and went to the prison, but they ward me with a startled, exclammation of would not admit me. No one was to see 'Den't Lucy me,' I retorted, throwing my husband until after the trial. Another down the bread and catching up the baby, day crept by, a night, and when morning while the blood streamed from my band all came I went down to the door and opened over her white gown. 'I wish I had never it, with a vague teeling of expectation which seen you-I wish I was back again with my always accompanies severe afflictions, and looked out. The sun was rising grandly I broke down with a burst of hysterical and brightly over the black stone gaol. tears, and seeing the blood on my hand, The frost hung thick and sparkling over twistin herself around on her father's shoul-Tom came over and knelt down beside everthing, even the scrap of folded paper that lay at my feet. 'Why, Lucy,' he said, his voice and eyes | I stooped and picked it up idly, as we full of tenderness, 'you've cut your hand. catch at a straw or twig sometimes, with Why didn't you say so? Here, give me out any power or motive of volition. The child while you bind it up-see how it superscription caught my eye, it was my life, it was my own name, and Tom's hand-

the hair back from my forehead-'please did'nt strike Hastings with an intention to DOLL, the hair back from my forenead—please did not I was intoxicated, and it was don't. I know I have done wrong, dear, kill him. I was intoxicated, and it was but I didn't mean to. I fell in with some | more his fault than mine; but he may die, Flosherton and Dundalk, of the old boys, and they persuaded me and then-at any rate, it is better for you, against my will. But it's the last time. Lucy, for me to go. I never was worthy of your love. Now you can go back to Why didn't I turn to him then and help your father's, and forget me and be happy. and encourage him? Because my mean, You will find the bonds for that money I tyranuous temper got the better of my have in the bank desk; it is enough to make you and the child comfortfble. For-'Oh, yes,' 'I suid, sneeringly; 'it is give and forget me, Lucy. God bless you

This was the end! This was the reward that my cross words had purchased for me Tom was spirited and quick-temped. Truly, truly, the wages of sin are death. We Great loving-hearted men always are. He shall not need one pang of corporal punsprang to his feet like a flash, and before I ment, one spark of real fire to perfect out torment if we are lost. Conscience is all sufficient-remorse, that worm that never dies. It is not for me to talk about what gone. I just caught a glimpse of him turn. I suffered in the days that followed that morning! Words could not express it, ex-I went back to the little breakfast-room; cept to one who had passed the same furnhow blank and dreary it looked, and what ace of affiction. But I lived, for sorrow a sharp, stinging thorn there was in the and death rarely walk in each other's steps very core of my heart! I loved Tom and and nursed my baby, and did the work my eighteen months, and this was our first father's. I remained at Tom's home, and quarrel. I sat down with the baby in my kept his things all about me, even his cap arms, heedless of my morning work and hanging on the wall. Forget him? Does

Hastings did not die. He recovered and sat in Dumberry wood. It was in the au- made a public statement. He was more tumn, and all the world seemed in a place in fault than Tom was. Then he put a notice in all the papers telling Tom to come

The winter passed away, with long, long nights of bitter remorse, and tender recol lections of the dear husband whose strong arms had once been my stay and support; en stitches 'you've knit my love-my very the spring came-the summer-another winter; three years went-crept by.

a fairy little thing, with blue eyes and gold en hair, and a tongue that never wearied of its childish prattling. All day long she sat on the doorstep, where the evening sunbeams slanted in, lisping to her doll, and listening while I told her of the father who would come back to us some day. For surely he would come. Most surely God's too fond of gay company; but you must mercy would vouchsafe some compensation tame him, Lucy, as your mother did -some pardon for such repentance as my soul had poured forth.

radiance; the trees, the grass, the flowers The Cruelties and Trick of the lowed the example of my mother, who had a diviner, a tenderer beauty. I rose every Slave Trade in the Red Sea. morning and looked out of my little window at the kindling beauties of the morn, with a feeling of strange, tremulous ex- eigh Auti-Slavery Society writing from all smiles to receive him when the clock One evening-oh, that evening! A May! He says: "I sincerely regret that Colonel sky, soft and blue, hung over a green, blos. Gordon has gone from the country where soming earth; the turtle doves cooed in the he was working so much good. The slave I put up the untasted dinner and prepar- distant woods, and the robin twittred to trade is just as brisk as ever it was, and I the Town of Mount Porest, relative to claim parlor. He should have a pleasant wel- the orchard. God's love shone in the gold- started slave raiding, The slave trade is the share of railway debt payable for portion

'Mammy,' she cried gleefully, 'pappy

the garden path-his garments tattered his 'Tom, is that you?' I asked softly, put- step slow and uncertain. A beggar no

I called Effie to come back, but she ran slaves that I bought, and I want them lib- Section No. 5. on, heedless of my command. Tom's little erated " Papers are made out for him, spaniel that I had petted and taken care of and he leaves for Jeddah, passes the slaves Ball, That Clerk give necessary notices to I ran down swiftly to unlock the door. for his sake, darted back from his kennel at the quarintine, walks them into the town' parties interested that Council will take ap-But as I did so, two men, wearing official with a peculiar cry, such as I nover heard destroys the papers of liberation taken out | plication into consideration next April meet-

What did it all mean? My heart throbbed and my kness trem. There is no law to touch him, no treaty tion which was granted. bled. Little Effic ran on, holding out both with England whereby he does an illegal dimpled hands, her golden curls blown all act, and he can snap his fingers in the about her rosv face. 'How-do-do, Pappy ? faces of the officers of our cruisers. This I'se your Effie,' she lisped, as she reached is the easiest way and is done weekly, not

He stooped to raise her in his arms and and from Massowah to Hadeidah, and then glanced at me. And such a glance- from Hadeidah to Jeddah. Still the maand suffering to a mere shadow. Tom's which means 800 slaves were "run" from Division be empowered to sell lumber on side ghost come back from the grave ! Not that | Sheik Burghut, just north of Sonakim to | roads between lots 5 and 6, on the 14th and either, for my arms grasped some tangible Jeddah, about ten days ago. The African 15th concessions and between lots 10 and 11, longer. I'm dying, I believe-and I could state with foreign powers have all of them Ball, That Reeve be paid $5 for letting and not go without seeing you and the little one slaves and ennuens in their houses, and inspecting bridges in Northwest Division .-'Tom, Tom,' I sobbed, getting down my knees beside him, 'oh, forgive me, for those who buy what the slavedealers have and tavern licenses cheques amounting to give me, I have suffered so racch! 'It is me that must ask forgiveness

But I stoppe I him short. 'No, Tom, my cross words did it all; but sexed, and therefore being accessory to the for them we might have been happy all crimes of murder, mutilation, and every these weary years.' -

'Mammy, mammy,' interposed Effic

der, 'don't cry no more; pappy's come taken in slave raids every year, are sub-Yes, thank God, he has come back, poor them. The operation is performed untattered and hungry-like the prodigalbut my Tom, my husband, nevertheless, in the sand to prevent extensive bleeding. tus street, Ayton village and if required

I would never speak cross to him any What percentage of them lives no one It is spring time again. The sweet May sunshine steals in at my window as I write, tant wood. My husband is a man standing up proudly, his feet on the grave of the old temptation, I know that Go.ls mercy is equal to his justice, and His love is greater than either. East Indian Snakes and total of $557,855,452. This was in 1878, 14, £345; No. 15, $300; No. 16, $384 so that, in round numbers, the value would Wolves. aggregate $600,000,000. Against this there are public liabilities to the extent of An East India paper says: "One thous and two hundred and sixty four person $11,208,714, of which $1,643,779 are de of Grey. - Carried. were killed by wild animals and 9,515 by voted to school purposes. The assessment snakes in the Presidency of Bengal last covers 19,034,618 acres of land, and is diyear. In the same period the number of cattle destroyed was upward of 12,000, visible among 413,755 ratepayers. The This, says a Bombay paper, is a consideraverage value of property held by each able bill of mortality for one Presidency, but ratepayer is thus about $1,450. It is like poundkeeper. - Carried, ly that no other community could make we suppose in this, as in all other matters, as is so often asserted, the "minor Presi do not include the returns for the wealthy ship Hall, Ayton Village. dencies' must admit the superiority of Bengal. Compared with the returns of 1878, | county of Essex, nor for the counties of the figures quoted from an interesting Prince Edward, Stormont, Dundas and statement just issued by Mr. Counsell, the Glengary which if properly enumerated. would swell the totals fully one-twelfth acting Registrar, show a considerable in more. The administration of justice costs crease. In one respect, however, there $545,835, and the salaries paid to the variwas a falling off, viz., in the number of persons killed by wolves-83, against 152 in one municipal officers foot up to $898,875. The sum of $1,991,453 classed as "other 1878. Probably wolves are less voracious revenues" comes for the most part from in Bengal than they used to be, but the the Dominion Government by way of subshikars, amateur and professional have not sidy. The true provincial revenue shown more consideration for them than may thus be set down, as far as these reformerly. Indeed, the sportsmen have turns show, not including $1,326,764 raismet with greater success than ever, ed by loan-1878, at about $8,000,000. nearly 500 more were killed than in t If the moneys paid by town and city corprevious 12 months. Altogether 5,543 wild poration are eliminated from the account, animals were destroyed during the past the amount paid per acre would not much year. From the statistics sent in to Govexceed twenty-five cents, for which amernment it appears that 21,102 snakes ount the entire business of the Province is were killed, against 15,276 in 1878, but the carried on-so far as it effects the pockets actual number was probably very much larger. The returns relate only to the of our people, municipally considered, and yet some people talk of "groauing under snakes for the destruction of which reward knows but it is said to be very small.

Provincial Charges.

taxation."-London Free Press. were paid. These rewards are only given for corbras, daboras, and keraits destroyed RATHER STRANGE .- Notwithstanding that within the limits of towns, municipalities from time to time it has been announced and villages in which the Village Chowkidthat the T. G. & B. will be closed shortly, arce act as in force, and it seems that many new ties are being laid down and the road persons who destroy venomous snakes, bed being otherwise improved almost all even within the limits for which rewards along the whole length ofthe track. Rather are given, never ask for the money to which strange ain't it that the road should be athey are entitled. The total amount paid bout to close and these improvements goin rewards last year was 28,870.14 ruing on .- Confederate.

Boys living on the banks of the Trent, in | died last week, han reached the advanced | side work connected with the census, no met from a journment at last meeting on August 31st, 1880, at the Township Hall, Ayton village. Present Jno, Koenig, Roove, J. Blyth, 1st Deputy Reove, W. Winkler, 2nd Deputy Reeye, Hugh Ball and Conrad Fisch er, conneillors.

The Council of the township of Normanby

Normanby Township Coun-

The minutes of the session of June 30th and July 2nd were read and passed, Moved by Mr. Blyth seconded by Mr. Ball. That Quit Claim deeds be prepared and given Geo. F tenden, Jno. McCalmen, and Ge , A. Prevat on same manuer as was prepared and given to Mrs. Kenny. -Carried. Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. Ball, That Thos. Wallace be paid $10 for work on road as returned statute labor on his lot. -- Carried.

Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. Fischer, That Mr. Rutherford be paid $3.20 A coftespondent of the British and For- for two copies of Municipal Acts and postage, Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. some great event, that winged as light crease in the slave trade in countries bor-Blyth, That account to date from Confeder.

ate office of $3.25 be paid. - Carried. Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. don has ecased to be Governor of Sondan. Fischer, That Mr. Blyth arrange for Quit Claim deed to Township of Lot No. 4, Enniskillen .- Carried. . A letter was read from Mr. Swan, Mayor of of am convinced that expeditions have already of Normanby Council on said town respecting come. But he did not come. Eight, nine, en brightness of the westward-going sun. being carried on in the most open way, and of township attached to the town of Mount per and baby, and I went up to the nurs- talking to her doll, and watching the birds. slaves on board. In the steamer "Yembo" Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. ery to wait and watch. How the little All at once she clapped her dimpled hands ; in which I crossed the sea, there were Fischer, That parties appointed at last meetnineteen slaves, eighteen of whom, how ing to arrange with the Council of Mount Fojever. had liberation papers. A man from rest in respect to subject of Mr. Swan's letfive with him, who were supposed to be the sum of $493. - Carried. About two o'clock I heard a noise below, The words stirred my heart to its utmost his domestic slaves, but to my certain know. Moved by Mr. Blyth, seconded by Mr.

34 35 and 36, Enniskillen village, namely, $25 impunity, and he is only one of many who in said village. - Carried. do the same. He goes to the Governor or Messes, Wilson, Weber, and Kiernaghan official in charge and says,"I have so many applied to have their lots taken from P. S.

Moved by Mr. Wirkler, seconded by Mr. at Soukim, sells the slaves, and returns by ing .- Carried. fiext steamer to Sonakim to buy more.

Mr. Weber asked to withdraw his applica-Moved by Mr. Ball, seconded by Mr. Blyth That bill to date from the Examiner office, being amount of tender for certain printing, be paid, amounting to $34. - Carried Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. only to Jeddah but to Suez from Soukim. Fischer, That cost of Mrs. Kenny's Quit ciaim deed to amount of $3 be paid. - Carried. Moved by Mr. Blyth, seconded by Mr. Fisuch a face! Pale, haggard, worn by sorrow jority of Slaves are carried by buglas, by sher, That commissioners for North West slave trade, especially the Soudan traffic, is on the 15th and 16th concessions and expend O, Tom, I cried, is it you? Speak, a disgrace to the civilized world in general, proceeds on roads in the same vicinity. - Caryet the very rulers and officials of Turkey ried. 'Yes, Lucy, it is me. I could bear it no and Egypt that conduct the affairs of Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr.

> are more to blame than the slave dealers Carried. Moved by Mr. Blyth, seconded by Mr. themselves, who only pander to the lust of stolen. I dislike the sight of a well fed $2 be paid .- Carried and sleek pasha, and I think every English | Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr. Lucy,' he said, humbly, 'not you; I was man ought to hate him, not for their dis- Fischer, That Mrs. Welsh be paid $2 for washing and scrabling hall .- Carried. honesty and corruption, alone, but for own-Council went into committee to strike ing servants and small boys that are unrates for 1880. Mr. Blyth, chairman. The following are rates reported as nec-

esserv to be inserted in by-law: County crime that a strong race can use against a rate 21 mills to $; School rate as equivaweaker one. I do not believe it is known | lent I mill to $; Township rate 24 mills to in England that hundreds of boys that are 8; Rate for $30,000 by-law 4 mills to $; Rate for $50,000 by-law 6 mills to $. By-law was passed imposing rates, jected to the barbarity that is inflicted on Moved by Mr. Ball, seconded by Mr. Blyth, That Clerk inquire relative to Lot skilfully, and the poor children are buried 35, on 3rd concession, and Lot 11, Augushave taxes erased and Lots removed from this years land tax sale .- Carried. Moved by Mr. Fischer, seconded by Mr.

Blyth, That cost of voters list be paid to amount of $30 .- Carried. A by-law was passed to collect following A recent return places the assessed value of real estate in Ontario at $207,438, ship as per returns of Trustees: No. 1, no 215, personal property stands at $45,338, return; No. 2, $318; No. 3, no return; 227; taxable income, $4,420,217; other as. No. 4, $675; No. 5, no return : No. 6, no sets; $8,430,812, and arrearages of taxes. partly collectable, $2,227,769-making a $800; No. 12, $280; No. 13, $400; No.

$25,450,890. The total revenues foot up pedlars under by law No. 281, of the County Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by Mr.

Moved by Mr. Winkler, seconded by

On motion made and seconded, Council a better exhibit on that score. The figures | adjourned to meet Oct. 12th, 1880, at Town-

W. H. RYAN, Township Clerk.

----SUICIDE AT THE FALLS .- On Wednesday evening Niagara Falls was the scene of a terrible and tragic spicide. About nine o'clock a well dressed elderly gentleman called at the Western Union Telegraph Company in the International Hotel, and asked if there was a despatch for G. W. Knapp, of Utica, New York. Soon after this he made his appearance at Goat Island bridge, and here he commenced the preparation for his death. The only eve-witness of this was Miss Florence M. Everet. This young lady was seated on the bench of a verandah that has been erected on the bank of the rapids at the west end of Trigby's Bazaar. The man passed her, and walking up to the other end, divested himself of his hat, coat, and vest, then hastily writing a note, he pinned it to his coat, stood up on the bench, drew a revolver, and in full view of the horrified young lady, fired at himself, and without a cry plunged headlong into the scething waters below. The body was recovered a few days afterward in the whirlpool below suspension bridge, the clothing being all off but no marks on it except a bullet hole in the fore-

The office seekers are at it again bright and early. As twenty five more clerks Mr. Woods, of Arnott, Grey county, who | will soon be required at Ottawa to do iufect on office seeke.s.

25 Acres of Land For Sale.

by written instructions to the contrary, are FITHE Subscriber offers for Sale, Lot No. 1 38, 2nd Concession, East of G. R., Township of denels, containing 100 acres about 70 acres cleard. The farm is situated about 5 miles from Durailway Station. Terms $1,800:-3400 down, or balance time will be given. For further par-

Glenelg, April 29, 1880.

Parker's Drug B'ore, Upper Town, THE Proprietor wishes to dispose of Lot Beautiul graves, where grasses creep ot contains one acre of land. A good well and > Pasture and Meadow Land for Sale or to Rent.

BOUT 90 acres of pasture and meadow for sale or to rent, also a few acres of Fall up the night before. Tom had gone to a INTE offer the above reward to any per- to me about the button, the knife with hands Mark, "Castorine." We are sole Manufac-Machine Oils, and every barrel is bronded

DURHAM.

Deposits Received, And Interest allowed at the rate of six per cent.

G. L. DAVIS, Manager,

Repairing Watches & Clocks a Speciality. Agent for the Heintzman Plane and De-

W. F. DOLL. Alexander Robertson, minion Organ.

TAILOR,

DURHAM. THE subscriber is prepared to Receive and Make Up, on the shortest notice, and in the Latest Style, Men and Boy's Clothing. A good fell to thinking. All the old happy days love ever forget? Latest Fashions Regularly Received

A. ROBERTSON JOHN ROBERTSON

Is Agent for Wilson & Co. Sewing Machine Manufacturers, Hamilton, which hese nachines are reliable and highly finished, fit for any drawing-room.

TAILOR AND CLOTHIER, DURHAM ST., DURHAM. Residence-Opposite the Canada Presbyterian Church.

Cutting done to Order.

received.

But he didn't come.

in my ears through the long hours,

ting out my head.

badges, stepped upon the porch, and one of from it before. them laid his hand upon Tom's shoulder 'For what?' I cried,

He held out his hands for the baby, but writing. I hurriedly tors it open, and DEAR LUCY: I have broken out of gaol, 'Don't cry, Lucy,' he continued, stroking and am going-well, no matter where. 1 and I hear the turtle dove down in the dis-

My shild, Tom's little baby, grew to be

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO