It has been aptly remarked that there is one thing better than presence of mind, in case of accidents, and that is absence of body . but as accidents may happen to all, Hagyard's Yellow Oil is perhaps the hest remedy-it is better than an accident policy. Yellow Oil cures all manner of Flesh Wounds, Pains Lameness, Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, and is for internal and external use in all inflammatory and painful diseases. All medicine dealers sell it. - b146

Who works for farmers night and day And gives them every chance to pay, Performs his work the neatest way? Who shed your horses first of all

That they could neither slip nor fall, But firmly held that they might haul?

And waited patintly for the pay.
And shall repeat the same to-day?

Who mends your hoe, your fork, your spade, And fixes up your cradle blade, And feaves all Blacksmiths in the shade? John Norval. Who knows so well to work a file, Or make a tire stay on a while, And always meets you with a smile? Who ran to help you when you fell,

> ANOTHER OFFER! Should any subscriber prefer our great offer for 1880, viz.: the "Death of Nelson" and the "Meeting of Wellington and Blucher after the Battle of Waterloo," both of these historical pictures will be forwarded to all who express a preference for this magnificent Premium. Bear in mind these pictures are 18 by 40 inches each, and cannot be got elsewhere at less than $10 the pair.

The following unsolicited opinion of this Promium speaks for itself:— "Having received the Premium Engravings, and carefully examined them, permit me to express my opinion thereon. They are all they were promised to be—and more. Hence they are far above Premium Pretures in general; and worth more than the subscription which calls them forth."—Rev. John Burton.

It is confidently expected that the Engraving—"God's Word"—offered for 1881, will even more fully commend itself to our patrons; and that thousands of copies will be called for. Sure we are that wherever it is found, whether in the drawing-room of the wealthy or the modest parlor of the farmer or artizan, it will be looked upon as "a thing of beauty," if not "a joy forever."
