Durham, March 17, 1881.

exercised despotic sway, and has actually

THE ASSASSINATION OF THE CZAR. was little known beyond the circle of his Russia. The Czar has finally fallen a vic- character in all the relations of hie. He paying for it. He has however now left, James H. Hunter, M. P. P., stated that tim to the forces which for the last twenty leaves a widow, two daughters, and five I years at least, have been struggling for lib- sons-one of whom, Mr. Finlay MacRae, erty throughout the despotic governments is well known as Reeve of the Township of of Europe. Personally, the late Emperor Glenelg, and Ex-Warden of the County of was a most humane man, disposed to do Grey, and in other, as well as municipal every numan being can only be committee of Supply. On Thursthrough war and bloodshed. In our own in this case which was tried at Owen Sound ability. After a song of welcome had been ly, and in future pursue a more aggressive a troop of Cossacks. The Imperial family cavalry and artillery and telegraphed to day last Mr. Blake adverted to the increasfatherland it has been so to some extent, last week was reserved.

Local and Other Items.

your Pictures taken, copied, or enlarged at that showed him to be Master of the inyour Pictures taken, copied, or emerged at Donaghy's cheaper and better than any strument, the various recitations and dis-was made in St. Petersburgh, in April, Landerkin attended to the matter and no Mr. Chas. Watson, Mrs. R. Renwick and and town associations, together with an ex-

first shot missed, and a second was preven- CREDIT AUCTION SALE .- An Auction Sale ted by the accidental bursting of the pistol. of Farm Stock, Implements, etc, will be Within the pass few months the Czar has held on lot No. 1, Con 1, Egremont, about lived in such constant dread of death by one mile south of Durham, on Wednesday, violence that his life has been a most un- March 30th. Terms-Ten months credit.

fears were not groundless. It is not yet monthly Fair of this town was held. There very long since he narrowly escaped des- was a large number of cattle on the ground. truction by the blowing up of a special Cows sold from $20 to $30, and anything train in the vicinity of Moscow, his escape fit for the butcher was readily disposed of.

Dundalk Items.

Horning's Mills.

zes commence on 25th April.

plots has been to undermine the Czar's at prices that must draw customers. Give We are sorry Mr. Win. Chambers has To the Editor of the Grey Review.

an extent that he would probably not have maintained very long the fearful struggle, line, St. Vincent. Seeing the animal in the would make themselves more agreeable to ated on the road to Mount Forest, and away the doctors who wished to amputate his road to Mount Forest, and The Czarovitch, who succeeds his father the age of thirty-three years, of a robust yard she courageously made for it with a the public. We apologize, William. physique, and credited with being possess- good stout stick, but Mr. Racoon, not willed of great energy and an indomitable will. | ing to submit without a struggle turned on In private life he is said to be genial and her with a most ferocious aspect. After a popular with the St. Petersburg populace, ceed ed in killing him .- Meaford Moniter.

of aggrandizement, and bent on carrying out the policy of his great ancestor, Peter the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased the Great. Of the present situation of af- to make the following appointments for the fairs the London (Eng.) Daily News says: County of Dufferin, under the provisions of choppers for cordwood. fairs the London (Eng.) Daily News says.

"The Division Courts Act, 1880," Guy Several lots have changed hands lately. But it will scarcely be credited when I say "The Czarevitch succeeds to authority more Leslie, of the town of Orangeville, gentle- Mr. Smith, of Shelburne, has bought lot that we have among us persons who are embarrassing than that which the murder and Emperor received. The success of the contract of the same place, to be bailiff of the First of the same place. Government in its efforts to stamp out Ni-Government in its enerts to stamp out it.

Alaxander McLaughlin, believe their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on to leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has bought lot 17, on the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acre; Mr. August has been acreated by the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acreated by the leave the leave their own flesh and blood to the per acreated by the leave the leave the leave the leave the leave the leave the What have all the military trials done? of Rockside P. O., gentleman, to be Clerk, 3rd con. at $31 per acre. These lots are What has been accomplished by the execution and wholesale sending of exiles to Siberia? What has Louis Melikoff, with his Love, of Stanton, and George McManus, sian Wheat for seed. unlimited power and apparently liberal of Mono Mills, gentlemen, to be clerks of sentiments, effected in St. Petersburgh it- the Third and Fourth Division Courts, re-

one to expect. The device of sitting upon 9 and 10 o'clock, the reflection of a fire Hat is to be a plug or a Sara Bernhardt faa safety-valve has led once more to the in- above the Union Hill was seen through the shion. This is economy with a vengeance. the charity of the public in their behalf. a safety-valve has led once land to the madness to show storm then raging, and it was found evitable result. It would be madness to show storm then raging, and it was found to the disciples of the dead Emperor and application food and at the house of Mr. A. McCallum was in the hous persist in it further. The new Emperor that the house of Mr. A. McCallum was in March, 5th, 1881. open to his predecessor of making a fresh bably from the stove-pipe. The family Fire.— On Sunday morning, about 2 tendance. Half the grace in giving is in departure and moving on new lines. To had retired to rest, and when awakend the o'clock a. m., Mr. Geo. Haskett, of the punish his father's murderers is, of course, flames had made such headway it was firm of Haskett Bro., was awakened from his political as well as his natural duty, but found impossible to save the house. Very his slumber by the smell of fire, and upon to as to place the children comfortably unwhen that is done there will remain the few articles of furniture were saved-Mr. descending to the shop, found that some question of how far it is practicable in these McCallum having to carry his father out of miscresnt had built a fire in the cellar close days to govern by a state of siege. If the the burning building two or three times, to the division wall of Askin's Grocery and new Emperor wishes to confront with any the old man being determined to go back in- their shop. When discovered the fire had reasonable prospect of success the problems to the house to secure a suit of clothes which burned through the flooring and had reachthat await him, he must employ some bet- were up stairs; and he would no doubt have ed the lower shelf. With the assistance of ter and more serviceable weapons than the perished in the flames but for the inter- some of the neighbors, who were aroused der and the forces of revolution have long stood at bay in Russia. We see the miserprison and the gallows. The forces of or- vention of his son. By the exertions of by the cry fire, it was soon subdued, withwring of may be right, but the wrong or summer, which section was supposed to be

AN IMPOSTER.-For some time past, a rather strange kind of an individual has been making himself prominent in our South Grey met in this Town on Monday, neighborhood. He represented himself as Dr. Gan, the President, occupying the being a 'single man' of considerable capital, chair, and G. McKechnie acting as Secre- A NUMBER OF PERSONS KILLED OR INJURED.

Crawford.

and intending to open out a store in the tary. Spring on the corner of Mr. Winehold's The Chairman stated that the object of He was very respectably clad, and, as if it take into consideration the desirability of ful respecting his worth, he were an im- ing sometime during the ensuing summer, mense high hat. His fine story and busi- and inviting the leaders of the Reform par- lighted unburt, but a second bomb exploded ness-like deportment, made him for some ty to address the meeting. He heartily apmonths the welcomed guest of some of our proved of a demonstration of this kind being knee, and inflicting other terrible injuries. innocent farmers. But, alas, our future held in this riding, and if it was the decismerchant turned out to be only an impost- ion of the Association that it should be er,—a penniless wretch, wishing to sponge held he would render every assistance in died at 3,30 this afternoon. There were tails of the assassination of the Emperor of of the most trustworthy and examplary his board for a time without working or his power to make it a grand success.

A zealous church member of this neigh. Association to discuss. He hoped the borhood has resigned his connection with delegates would give it their most favorable the church, on account of being insisted to consideration. He felt gratified to think take more cakes at a tea-meeting held in that the ratepayers of this riding might be the church than he was at the time able to brought face to face with the leaders of the masticate and digest.-Serious Sir.

other day, about thirty cords of wood were a benificial effect on the public at large. sawed by four saws. How is that for high Egremont Edgings.

ject of its perpetrators, but as in most of the countries of Europe, it would seem that that liberty which is the vested right of every human being can only be obtained through war and bloodshed. In our own this case which was tried at Owen Sound in this case which was tried to cross the this subject before the last general election. In this case which was conveyed to the winter palace in this subject before the palace to the winter palace in this was converged to the winter palace in this was converg sung by the scholars, led by Mr. J. Hastie, policy. Therefore he had much pleasure were all assembled at the death bed. A GET your Mottoes Framed at Donaghy's sung by the scholars, led by Mr. J. Haste, policy. Hactelote do Mr. William Iryin, council of the State was immediately concentrated by Mr. William Iryin, council of the State was immediately con--only 25 cents complete. You can get at intervals during the evening, in a style of Bentinck, "That a public Reform devened, and all places of public resort are

The first attempt on the life of the Czar was made in St. Petersburgh in April 1846, when he was shot at by a fanatical doubt it will be all right in a few days.— the Dromore Choir, contributed largely to ecutive committee to appoint time and Post.

Aucrion Sale—The Farm Stock, Imple—

The entertainment. The audience was very place or sain meeting. The secretary place or sain meeting place or sain meeting place or sain meeting. The secretary place or sain meeting place the critical moment turned aside the pistol ments, etc, of Mrs. Eliza Duncan, lot No. and the people of this part. The proceeds and Cartwright, Mr. Paterson, of B ant, the critical moment turned aside the pistol ments, etc, or Mrs. Edga Duncan, lot No. and are to supplement Mr. Ross, of Middlesex, and Mr. Rymal. the spot. The Grand Duke Michael was in the would-be-assassin's hand. In the 9, con 2, Glenelg, will be sold by Public amounted to $15.50, and are to supplement for contraction of the contra following year he was fired at in Paris by a Polish refugee while seated in a carriage

Auction, on Friday, March 25th. Terms to be present and administration of the present administration of the singing "God save the Queen."

Mr. R. P. Legate has again started the dismounted escort closed around to and what time would suit their convenblacksmith business, in his old stand at ience,

The contract for the erection of a con- that the meeting would be held between the Emperor by the crowd. He was sur-The contract for the erection of a con- that the meeting would be held between rounded, contrary to his custom, by a strong hand was struck down, and in an instant rounded provided are interest. erete Manse, in connection with Amos seeding and having, as in that event it mounted escert. The people are intensely he was thrown to the earth and securely resbyterian Church, has been let to Mr. would be much more largely attended by aroited and indignant. The coldient who the yeomanry of the riding, and give a favorable opportunity to those residing in George Simpson, of Priceville, for the sum the yeomanry of the riding, and give a of $370, to be finished in September next. adjoining counties.

Mr. Robert Watson, of Normanby, was pleased to hear the remarks of the previous It is reported Mr. D. Davidson is about speaker Mr. McNicol, and hoped the comgiving up business here. The "Quo War- mittee would act upon his suggestion.

Without Charity.

about ten miles from this place, is a house legs. The Czarwitch and Czarevna drove forget that he had been sacrificed for upmeasures are promptly taken to relieve Duke of Edinburg and Grand Duke Alexis of the children, I informed their grand- of the Czar were immeliately arrested. night and day. Saw logging is very brisk As soon as I became aware of the position parents and relatives, thinking that this The glasses of the gas lamps in Micheal to the wants of the children immediatly. pieces by the concussion of the explosion the timber from $10 to $12 per acre to Our county Registry is open. The Assi-Our Warden is to have a Hat and Gown Yours truly,

Emperor of Murdered.

peror was returning from parade in the ternoon, a bomb was thrown, which ex- His legs were shattered and blood pouring ed, and is a young man. was considerably damaged. The Czer aconscious to the Winter Palace, where he two persons concerned in the crime, one of two persons concerned in the crime, one of officers lifted have into a sleigh and convey. whom was seized mmediately. The ex-

A second dispatch from St. Petersburg says: The imperial carriage was attacked on Ekaterinofsky canal, opposite the imperial stables, while the Emperor was returning with the Grand Duke Micheal from Micheal Palace, in a closed carriage, escorted by eight Cossacks. The first bomb Mr. Finlay MacRae, ex-warden of Grey, fell near the carriage, destroying the back a Reform demonstration in the riding and part of it. The Czar and brother alighted uninjured. The assassin, on being seized prevented from firing. The second bomb in the military and police barracks the himself. It is thought the Czar's tutor, a hoped the Association would not allow the by the Colonel drew a revolver, but was was then thrown by another person and guards on the Winter Palace were doubled much respected and experienced man, will, was then thrown by another person and and the streets lined with soldiery. The with Melikoff, play a prominent part in assassin. The foul deed will certainly remove still further from their grasp, the object of its perpetrators, but as in most of mighty called the Emperor to himself. A and fire police kept a sharp lookout for fire facts, and supporting the same by statisties; cossack and a passer by were killed on and declared he threw the first shell. This ing little more than a reiteration of a few Czarwitch. The latter on leaving the palace after the death of his father was hailed as escape from death at the second explosion, lion were entered as for home consumption, was little short of miraculous), but his quire into the condition of the Czar. Telegrams announcing his death were sent to all foreign courts and to every part of the emmade of thick glass filled with nitro-glycerand the back of the carriage was blown out. The coachman implored the Czar to enter paces from the carriage to see the wounded

Another dispatch says: The two assassins A cordon of guards was drawn around the

New York, March 14.-The World London special says: The town was start led by the announcement of the Czar's assassination. The Duchess of Edinburgh was at the Duke's seat in Kent with her withal to procure clothing, food and atDuchess at the afternoon services in the churches, and in the evening special refer. murderer. Ten minutes after the first as- as we could judge from the appearance of ence was made to the murder from the pul- sassin was arrested, his fellow conspirator the verious creeks, it should be a perfect pits of the principal churches. While there fell into the hands of the police. He had paradise for the brethern of the angle, and was great excitement in Official circles concealed himself in an old building, in a G. B. & W. Railway will afford, Durham there was comparitively little on the streets. lane near the Imperial stables. A corden will yet be crowded with the devotees of People had long expected as much. Great of police and Cossacks had been drawn that sport. sympathy is expressed for the Duchess of around the building. The police routed We were glad to see the geni-l counten-Edinburgh, who is in a delicate condition. him out. He was bound and sent to a lance of Mr. Pringle beaming with benevol-Official despatches agree to the following dungeon. He admitted his guilt, and on ence in his legal sanctum. He reports good Official despatches agree to the following being told that his accomplice was also progress and prospect. We interviewed also the President of the G. B. & W. Railturning in a covered carriage from Micheal arrested, said they were ready to die at any way and found him a large hearted open-the fact, that Mossers Haskett dwells over The Pacific Syndicate has purchased a but doing no injury beyond tearing away New York, March 14.—The Commun. Edward Island. the store, and had Mr. G. Haskett, been a quarter of a million of dollars' worth of the back of the carriage. The driver de ists of the city have called a meeting toheavy sleeper it is more than probable we cars since their organization, half a million scended from his box and the Cossack es- morrow night to sympathize with the Rus- sor in large quantities, and the hosts laid would have been called upon to announce railway ties, and the first instalment of cort, which was a few paces in the rear, at sian Nihilists and rejoice in the death of up there for the winter are undergoing the the loss of life as well .- Markdale Standard. their steel rails for active work. They have once galloped up. Not more than twenty the Czar. Flags are at half must at the

The Baptist Theological College, in the also selected many of their engineers and persons were present. The Czar, hearing offices of the English, French, Haytian, the crash, at once raised the window, open- Italian, Austrian and Russian consuls. There still remains a great deal of inside A large number of foxes are being trapped ed the door and jumped out, and, while New York, March 14.—The Russian and was so hadly injured that he died the of the first explosion was still hanging He is about 33 years old and is commandabout, and when the second bomb struck ing officer of the imperial guards of 40,000 the pavement a dense cloud enveloped the men, the flower of the Russien army. He carriage. There was a howl of pain and has three children to whom he is devoted anguish from the Cossaeks, some of whom His wife, sister to the Princess of Wales, were killed and more wounded by the also shares the affection to a degree remarksplinters, and three or four lookers on fell able for a member of a royal family.

also. The crash brought a squad of police | St. Petersburg, March 14.-Russokoff, who were on daty at the Imperial stables. who threw the first bomb, has been a stud-As the smoke lifted the Czar was seen lying out for two years in a mining academy. on his back beside the rain of the carriage. The second bomb thrower has been arrest. from ghastly wounds in his thighs. His cloak and wearing apparel were literally This afternoon a salute fired by the cantorn from his back. He was deadly pale, non on the fortress announced the conand his eries to the officers of the house- clasion of the ceremonies connected with hold for help were scarcely audible. Col. the ascension of Alexander III. to the Doritzsky of his suite, who was badly me throne. The space before the palace was jured by the second exptosion, raised the covered with people. The Emperor and ed him to the Winter Palace. The bombs acclamations. It is said that the civillian were thick glass balls, filled with dynamite. who declined to give his name died of All this did not occupy three minutes. As poison which he took and not from wounds the prisoner was thrown into a sleigh and as stated. The Czar has handed over to driven off under a strong guard, Doritzsky's Melikoff the entire direction of affairs, and sleigh, bearing the wounded Emperor and his summoned deputation from the country two or three attendants, drove rapidly to at large to consult as to the best means to the Winter Palace, where a mounted mes- sdopt against anarchy and sedition. The senger had arrived, and by this time the garrison was kept ready all night in case a story was known throughout the neighbor- disturbance should occur. A large number hood, and as the sleigh drove through the of Cossocks patsolled the streets to-day, main gate the people stood by uncovered, It is positively stated that Melikoff, some while hundreds and thousands flocked to days previous to the murder, unearthed the the scene. An alarm having been sounded plot and entreated the Czar not to expose ing posts to hold themselves in readiness characterized the present Government's at a moments warning. No doubt the advent to power, so contradictory to their authorities half feared a generi rising of the promises when in Opposition, and even durand the principal government and municip- and affirming the necessity of reducing the al buildings were put under close guard. expenditure generally, and the taxation as Meanwhile the Cossacks had charged upon well; the latter to be redistributed so as to respondent telegraphs that the Czar's right the people, from which two bombs were relieve the masses of the taxation on the flung. Several persons pointed to a man necessaries of life and fuel.

was confirmed by the Cossacks, who saw features of his budget speech. In explainto shoot the Grand Duke Micheal, (whose free large quantities entered for exports-

and an active search was made for the oth- ing country presents a marked contrast to criassassin. The Czar was carried upstains the flat sameness that is so characteristic on a litter. Besides the surgeons in ordin- of Ontario as a whole, and even when seen ary attendance, most of the skilled men in | under the advantages of a slushy winter the city were present. His left leg was day, cold wind and occasional snow "flarfearfully shattered and the greater portion ries," as the weather-wise call them, the side of the street the carriage was moving of the foot and aukle blown off. The right whole place leaves the impression on the fast, and the first shell struck behind it, leg was nearly torn from the body. He mind of being possessed of very great natwas sensible, with brief intervals of nucon- unal advantages. We were told that Durham sciousness, to the last. At 1:30 the imper- is one of the oldest towns in this section, the carriage again, but he moved a few ial family were summened to the bedside, and in view of that fact, it causes one some prayers for the dying being said by the surprise that it has not developed more, of his ercort. the assassin who threw the Greek prtriarch and clergy. The leave-ta- and that the buildings are not of a better first bomb tried to point a revolver at the king is said to have been most touching. class. Whatever the cause of the stagustained very long the fearful straggle, for good fat poultry all winter had its sudden death had not come to his career brought to a sudden termination the career brought to a sudden termination the other day by Mrs. Frank Scammell, 7th take his walk in life as an example, they isting in the township of Egrement. Situabout ten miles from this place, is a nouse in the back part of which there are two in the back part of which there are two boys, the eldest about five or six years of sympathizing cries of the people. A comboys, the eldest about five or six years of pany of guards surrounded the palace. The sage, who are left alone, and who, unless Duke of Whisham and Grand Duke Aloric 3 p. m. it was evident that the end was a Bruce, (certainly). In view of the last The first announcement St. Petersburgh immortal township, which we all know

had was the firing of minute guns, tolling can do it. of church bells, horsting of the national flag | One of the most striking evidences of at half mast upon the dome of the Winter the "go-a-head-ativeness" of the town is the contemplated crection by Mr. Middaugh Palace and turets of the principal buildings. of a magnificent hotel, at the corner diagon-A minute later flags at half-mast and in- ally opposite to his old stand, which is now verted flags were drooping from the flagstaff accupied by Mr.McAllister, so well-known on the houses of the nobility and gentry, to the traveiling public for the genial way and court, Government and municipal of hoste." We were favored with a glimpee ficials, and a long roll of kettle drams mut- of the plans by Mr. Middaugh, and can ontered the tale in every street. The wildest | ly say that when they are carried out, as beexcitement prevailed in the neighborhood youd question they will be, Durham will of the palace, but the people on the streets west of Toronto. Mr. Middaugh has received the news with sullen silence. brought to bear on the plans all the results There was no weeping except among the of his long experience as a landlord, and soldiers. In the lower quarters where the his ideas have been ably carried out by the Nihilists are supposed to be numerous, architect. We have rarely seen plans so crowds gathered at the corners and dis- the building when completed with not only cussed the tragedy, remarking as the police be an armagent to Durham and a credit to and military dispersed them, "They have Western Ontario, but a perfect boon to the done for him at last." Police agents arres- travelling public.

Ice from Lake St. Clair is passing Windsoon as navigation opens.

Mr. Samuel McClure, of the first line west of Brampton, fell from his hay loft last week

Fearful Boiler Explosion Buffalo.

EIGHT MEN KELLED

On Friday afternoon the large building occupied by Donaldson & Patterson on diana street Buffalo, N. Y. State, were c pletely levelled to the ground by explo of a gigantic boiler. The wreck was plete, and many of the buildings near been crashed into by the flying debris. a while it seemed as if the people were excited to do anything, and the by-w and thoroughfares adjoining were choked up by the fast increasing ero Hundreds of labourers and ironwork from Tifft's foundries and other establish ments rushed into the wreck, and began pull away the mass of fallen walls, etc., find those who might be injured or de Suddenly there was a cry of the discou of an awful sight. Immediatly accross street from the boiler shop two bodies w found that had been blown entirely throu a wooden shed, and tora into a mass mangled flesh. One portion was discover to be the remains of Robert Patterson. a time it was thought by the exicted peothat the other body so cruely torn was of the other partner, Mr. Donaldson, h was subsequently discovered to be that Wm. Gibson, a young boiler maker. firm of Donaldson & Patterson made speciality of testing boilers by steam. pieces of the boiler were thrown crashi through the roof of the Wells Elevati The shock of the explosion was felt as north as Broadway, and occurred while large boiler was being tested. John P. rest, a labourer living near by and who house was wrecked by the explosion, he heard first a hissing sound, as if stea had sprung a leak, and then a low, heat rumbling as of an underground explosibroken, blackened, gushing blood, a feebly moaning. Miss Fenton, who h heard was a hissing, then came a roar, a their house was covered with flying time the body of the unhappy proprietor, Pa Patterson presented as it lay there. was a mass of torn flesh, entrails, brain head and his boots lay in a confused mass lay on a heap of snow further inside the the tng Mary E. Pierce was being teste and that about twenty five boiler make were in the building. There are but few additional particula to state in regard to the boiler explosion Friday, Henry McKay, who it was fear had been fatally injured, was doing mu better than the attending surgeons had a ticipated. Carl Otta Wolf and George Balln, two of the seriously wounded, di on Sauday; making eight victims so t The others, it is thought, may recover.

self? The answer is not difficult, and one spectively.

able issue in such a growth as Nihilism, a Mr. McCallnm has the sympathy of the a few minutes more would have given it would be conducive to his well-being, and system which condemns not only the ma- community in his severe loss .- Owen such headway that nothing could have acting on the idea, suddenly left a few days ed from merely animal, inc, and springs only from want, misery, and oppression.

It is very much to be feared that the new only from want application of the fork entered the learned upon whom suspicion rests, but are fork. The times of the fork entered the back thigh, taking an upward direction to back thigh, taking an upward direction to be only too glad to pluck him.

The time he has been reckless in his expenditude and men and 1,500 horses during the present thrown with the intention of killing the ure tork. The times of the fork entered the back thigh, taking an upward direction to be only too glad to pluck him.

The time he has been reckless in his expenditude and men and 1,500 horses during the present thrown with the intention of killing the ure tork. The times of the fork entered the back thigh, taking an upward direction to back thigh taking the upward to the tork t regards his disaffected subjects, but in wards the body, making four distinct doing so he will delude himself to his de- wounds, varying in depth from seven to struction, as many others do, and have eight inches. done, in bolstering themselves up with the Mr. Cockburn states that some 2,600 ples that he is maintaining a principle. A acres of excellent land was found in the principle! forsooth. Principles may be township of Gibson, South Muskoka, last

Agents for the Grey Review to know that however valuable an Emperor's crown and dignity may be, the fate of Dandalk. the ninety millions of people. whose lives Citenets. and fortunes he holds in his hand, is of Hetstein. comparably greater importance.

WE regret having to record the death Mr. Donald MacRae of Glenelg, who died on the 15th inst., in the 73rd year of his age. The deceased gentleman was a na-Scotland. He came to Canada in 1852, and at first settled in the Township of Dumfries, but three years afterwards, rehas since continued to reside. Mr. MacRae all that he could do for the amelioration of matters, has been an active and useful the condition of the people over whom he citizen.

accomplished a great deal during his reign in the interests of civilization. But his BENTINCK Reform Association will meet by his nobles, his confidential advisers and at McCallums School House on Saturday or rather for muscle! eventually the members of his own house- the 26th of March. A full attendance rehold, and in the end, as the embodiment quested.

but in Great Britain the powers that ruled have had the grace and wisdom to bend before the storm, and to listen to the rising demands of the people for freedom, and thus have succeeded-in modern timesother place in the Province.

student, who was prevented from accomp- Post.

with the late Emperor Napoleon. The Auctioneer.

happy one, and it needed not the success- John Forsyth, Proprietor.

ful attempt of yesterday to show that his THE FAIR .- On Tuesday last the usual being the result of an unforeseen delay, A large number of people were in Town, which caused another train to be mistaken and considerable business was done. A NEW Book Store will be opened in ranto" business is very dull at present now. The President, in his usual happy mannfor the one which carried him and his fortunes. More recently still, his unseen and Durham next week, in the building It is rumored that the bailiff of the "Quo erassured them that Mr.Mc Nicol's suggestrelentless foes found means of access to the known recently as the "California Tem- Warranto" court is about to be superannu- lons would not be lost sight of, after which royal palace in sufficient numbers to plan perance House," in Lower Town. Mr. ated. "My partner" deserves something the meeting adjourned. his destruction by the blowing up of part Irwin, the proprietor intends to keep on good. Several of our citizens visited Owen of the edifice -a scheme which came very hand a choice stock of articles in the Sta- Sound last week to tell the whole truth and near being successful. The effect of these tionery line, and fully up to the Time, and nothing but the truth.

health, if not his reason, and this to such him a call and see.

but as a Russian, permeated with notions APPOINTMENTS IN DUFFERIN.-His Honor which all political experience would lead Fire.—on Thursday evening last, between provided. I have not heard whether the

the right of any policy is easily determined unfit for settlement. our day by an appeal to the consensus of mteiligent opinion. And it would be merston the other day locating the enin the beginning of his reign he would learn Listowel.

Meeting of the Reform Asso- The ciation of South Grey.

The Central Reform Association

ious that has been brought before the plosion also killed an officer and two Cos-Reform party. He was of opinion that a At a wood-bee at Mr. Jas. Coutt's the demonstration of this kind would have

present opportunity to pass without taking logues were given in a manner that reflect- summer."-Carried. On Wednesday last week a young lad, ed great credit on Teacher as well as pu- A committee of management was then Bobtown and has laid in a stock of iron Mr. D. McNicol, reeve of Bentinck, hop-

them, are in danger of death from exposure. had only to be done and they would attend garden beside the canal, were broken to careless charity of strangers or to the bitter alternative of death from actual want. This is no fancy picture, the facts are patent to any person who will take the trouble to enquire into them. The proper authorities will attend to the matter but in the meantime that the children may not suffer I am compelled to take the at all times painful and disagreable alternative of appealing to

T. A. HARRIS.

Durham, March 16, 1881. The Dunville Gazette says :- A rumor going around town that the tax collector of Palace, about 11 a. m. with his brother the moment. He inquired if the Czar was handed man. He, of course, in common the Township of Moulton concluded that a Grand Duke Micheal. The escort consist. dead, and on the police refusing to answer with the Durhamites, is delighted with the Grand Duke Micheal. The escort consist. community in his severe loss.—Owen Sound Times,

A son of Mr. John McLeod, of Nichol,

A son of Mr. John McL

Queen's Park, Toronto, is now roofed in. construction headmen.

work to be done, and the building will not about the Central part of Sullivan, as many drawing his fur cloak about him, the second Consul General says: - The Czar's dest following day. of intelligent opinion. And is successors, if now gine house, which is to be removed from be ready for occupation before the month in a night.—O. S. Advertiser.

The Czar's blest following day.

The intelligent opinion. And is successors, if now gine house, which is to be removed from be ready for occupation before the month in a night.—O. S. Advertiser.

On. explosing right at his fact. The smoke your first at his fact. The smoke your first at his fact. The smoke your first at his fact.

On. explosing right at his fact. The smoke your first at his fact. The smoke your first at his fact.