Paisley, Clifford, Durham, Chesley, Port Elgin, and Teeswater were well represented. Instuc tion was given in the proper working of both the encampment and subordinate lodges, and the unwritten work of the order in that section will now be uniform. The visiting Oddfellows were entertained at a supper by the Walkerton lodge.

INCENDIARISM IN KEPPEL.-The trial of George Patton, who was before the Owen Sound magistrates on Monday charged with having fired the dwelling of one Mrs. Campbell, of the township of Keppel, was resumed on Wednesday. The case occupied the court all the afternoon, and was which was entirely of a circumstantial BOOT and SHOEMAKER, character, was sufficiently strong in the opinion of the magistrate, to commit the South End, Durham, Near Cattle Yard accused. Patton was accordingly committed for trial at the Assizes on a charge

THE BAPTIST COLLEGE. - In accordance with the Act of incorporation the first annual meeting of the Trustees of the new Baptist Theological College was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Jarvis street Church, Toronto. The following were elected permanent officers of the Board -Hon. Wm. McMaster, Chairman; Dr. Buchan, Secretary; Mr. D. E. Thompson, Treasurer. The Standing Committees were then appointed. The appointment of professors to the college was then proceeded with. The Rev. Dr. Castle was unanimously elected President, and the Rev. Prof. Torrance, of Woodstock, one of the GOLD & Silver WATCHES professors. Their respective departments have yet to be chosen. The appointment | The latest in Hall, Parlor and Bracket CLOCKS. of a third professor it was decided to leave | Some beautiful designs in Silver and Elec in the hands of the Executive Committee. Mr. John Harris, of Brantford, and Mr. Thomas H. Hodgson, of Montreal, were Wm. McMaster, in addition to what he has known. Everything new. Capital not required President's Chair. Mr. McMaster has also presented an illuminated copy of the trust deed, beautifully bound, and intended for use in the College library. The future at once will find a short road to fortune.

TROYER OF HIS PEACE.-Five weeks ago two tramps stopped with a family named Davis on St. Francis river, 75 miles south of Memphis, Tenn. A week ago, while the elder and younger Davis were absent, the tramps eloped with their wives, going down the river in a flat boat. The younger Davis started in pursuit on a steamer, and overtook the party camping on the bank. On persuading the captain to slow up he stepped on the deck and shot dead the
