

Punshon in Canada.

The death of the Rev. Dr. Punshon calls to mind the words in his introduction to the volume of lectures and sermons published by him shortly before he left Canada for England...

The American Girl.

Here is a pen-and-ink sketch of an American girl, which is interesting as showing how a Yankee girl seems to French eyes: "Sympa to the backbone. Independent as an independent can be, but very pure. Is devoted to pleasure, dress, spending money; shows her moral nature, just as it is so as to be lovely nobly."

Mr. Lovell, at the request of several of our contributors and others of the Province of Ontario, has published a "PROVINCE OF ONTARIO DIRECTORY," in November next, containing an alphabetical directory of the names of the several towns and villages of Ontario, with a classified business directory of the same.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There is considerable scandal in Buffalo about the way the Medical College there has been granting diplomas to all sorts of people.

Good manners is the art of making those people easy with whom we converse; whoever makes the fewest persons uneasy is the best bred man in company.

If you wish success in life, make perseverance your constant friend, experience your wise counsellor, caution your elder brother, and hope your guardian.

Many people regard religion very much as they regard small-pox. They desire to have it as light as possible, and are very careful that it does not mark them.

He went to the back door, and there saw his garden, the pride of his waking hours and the subject of his dreams, looking like an editor's office. He sat down on the door-step, said, of all the sad words, of tongue or pen, the saddest are these, I keep a hen.—American Paper.

A man in Westfield, Massachusetts, recently received a letter from an Englishman, setting forth that his son had landed in New York and gone, he believed, to a place called Texas.

SMERDAN, the first time he met Tom, his son, after the marriage of the latter, seriously angry with him, told him he had made his will, and cut him off with a shilling. Tom said he was indeed, very sorry, and immediately added: "You don't happen to have the shilling about you now, sir, do you?"

The proprietor of Burdock Blood Bitters challenges the world to produce the record of medicine that has achieved a more wonderful success, or better credentials in so short a period of time as has this great Blood Purifier and System Renovator.

A gentleman in Cincinnati purchased some fish the other day. On cleaning them a ball of singular worms was found imbedded in the backbone. He took them to Dr. Rowe, who pronounced them genuine trichinae, and found, on further investigation, that the fish were full of trichinae.
