from this town (Fergus) interest to many of your have had a very pleasant and during the past week, on Week of Prayer appointed the Y. M. C. A., and especially of the sojourn of "Miss Armstrong" in our midst. The talented English lady is, we all to many Canadians, as said of her that her praiseworthy, or at least a many is well and favorably known worker and temperance lecturer, Britain, and also labored in Nova Scotia where she had calls to preach of the Protestant Church to Canada with most details from many sources in purposes delivering lectures, viz.: John Knox, Sir Lord Beaconsfield, Elizabeth and Reformers, Temperance, & seems to treat in a most and in an almost ining one or two lectures fits me up to Fergus, and last and then addressed a very meeting in St. Andrew's Presbyterian and the Methodist came together. Here, as at congregational Church, where was the previous week, she gave a good impression delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. We wish her a abundant tour through Ontario, with her lecture and Gospel well calculated to promote and intellectual advantages. Her lectures with the interesting and instructing of raising funds for a "Society" which she is supporting in Fergus. Having long labored among soldiers, she feels well in the work and also "Home" for them in which their leisure hours removed of the "tap-room."
