A young woman at Alexandria, Va., acting under an inspiration that she was to die by fasting, deprived herself of food. After abstaining for forty-three days death put an end to her sufferings.

Guilty of Wrong.

Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of a wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use Hop Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them—Tribune.

Speaking at Liverpool on Tuesday, Earl Derby announced himself to be a thorough Liberal. He trusted there would be no further attempt made to restrain Bradlaugh from taking the Parliamentary oath.

How to Cure a Cold.

Upon the first feeling of chill or shivering remain indoors if possible, bathe the feet in tepid water, gradually increasing the heat as long as it can be comfortably borne, drink freely of warm ginger tea, or sage tea, to induce perspiration, and take Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam according to directions on the bottle. Hagyard's Balsam cures coughs, asthma and bronchitis.—b199.
